

ALL I EVER WANTED

By John Lipinski

All I really wanted was to tell you everything
What's happening at work, what else the day would bring
And know you're there and always care, and never stop believing
All I ever wanted was to give, my everything

All I really wanted was to tell you every morning
That I'm one lucky man and you make this old heart sing
Whenever we're together, I feel just like a king...&
All I ever wanted was to give, my everything

You're all I really wanted, you're all I'll ever need
You're everything a man dreams of, to make a life complete
You're all I really wanted, each morning when I rise
You're everything, all day long, each and every night

All I really wanted was you there at gatherings
To feel my love, from Him above, and the joy that it brings
I'm just a man, please understand, but, I'm true and never ending
All I ever wanted was to give, my everything

All I really wanted was for you to wear my ring
Walk hand-in-hand, side-by-side, together, as we're aging
I sing these words, they're just for you, in case you're wondering
All I ever wanted was to give, you everything
