

Student Fees and Supplies

Student fees and supplies are used to:

- Provide additional educational opportunities for academic courses. Actual expenses will be communicated in the course description. All students taking band courses or orchestra will be required to purchase music books.
- Provide additional resources for specific student related use. These include but are not limited to postage and mailing supplies, paper and printing supplies and other consumables throughout school year.
- These fees above are voluntary and non-refundable. Parents/Guardians who are experiencing financial hardship may request financial aid to cover these fees. The Dean of Instruction may authorize a partial fee waiver or payment plans.
- All fees are set and approved annually by the CMA Board of Directors.
- All supply lists are set by the teacher and approved by the Dean of Instruction.
