

CAROLINE FLOYD – BALLET, INTRO TO DANCE, INTRO TO JAZZ & MODERN INSTRUCTOR (RECREATIONAL & COMPETITIVE)

Caroline Floyd has been dancing all of her life. She studied at Ballet Royale Institute of Maryland, under the direction of Donna Pidel. While in attendance, Caroline trained in ballet, pointe, modern, jazz, lyrical, and dance pedagogy. Caroline has also received instruction from Point Park University's Summer Intensive, Towson University's Dance Department, and Fusion Dance Team. Caroline has been teaching and choreographing for several years. Her choreography has even been performed in Walt Disney World! Caroline is currently a student at Towson University studying English Education. She is so excited for another great year at N'Ferno!
