Fall Family History Discovery Seminar 2018 Featuring Three In-Depth Genealogy Classes

Registration Form

The Craven County Genealogical Society will present the Fall Family History Discovery Seminar 2018 Featuring Three In-Depth Genealogy Classes on three Saturdays: September 8th, October 6th, and November 3rd, 2018 from 9:30 am to 1 pm, with sign-in at 9 am.

September 8th: Learn How DNA Testing Can Grow Your Family Tree, by Mark West

October 6th: Discover How Courthouse & State Archive Records Can Expand Your Research, by Roger Kammerer

November 3rd: Explore How FamilySearch.org Can Boost Your Research, by Ceri Steele

All three classes will be held at the West New Bern Presbyterian Church Fellowship Hall, 1701 Lucerne Way, New Bern, NC 28560. There is free on-site parking. Map Link: https://tinyurl.com/WestNBPresChurchMap

These three, in-depth, and interactive classes will assist those beginning and continuing their family history research. They will cover both traditional and online research methods. A computer is not necessary to take these classes. Carol Henry Cherry, Ruth Putman Powers, and David French, CCGS board members, will be your class facilitators.

Pre-Paid Registration is required by Monday, August 27th, 2018. The pre-paid registration fee for non-members which includes all three classes is $40.00 by 8/27/2018 and $50.00 afterwards if available and includes a one year society membership and a one year subscription to our bi-monthly "Kintracks" newsletter. The pre-paid registration fee for current members which includes all three classes is $15.00 by 8/27/2018 and $25.00 afterwards if available. Free refreshments will be served. Space is limited, so please register early.

Note: Registration is for one person only. Classes may not be shared. If you are unable to attend, refunds only by August 27th, 2018. Afterwards, fee applied to new membership and new/current members receive the class handouts.

For those who would like to stay and visit, we will be having a dutch-treat lunch immediately afterwards at Famous Subs, 2210 Neuse Blvd, New Bern, NC, www.FamousSubs.com, Map Link: https://tinyurl.com/FamousSubMap.

The Society has a vibrant and diverse membership representing not only Craven County and North Carolina, but also many other states. The members are dedicated to fostering interest in the research, preservation, and sharing of family heritages. We welcome you to also join us for our next free program on Tuesday, September 11th, 2018 at 6:30 pm at the LDS Church, 1207 Forest Drive, New Bern, NC when we will feature our popular "Show & Tell" program which will highlight old family photos of babies and young children. Please bring a photo and a story to share! If you would like your old family baby photo to be featured in our October 2018 history display at the New Bern-Craven County Public Library, please bring a color copy of the photo and info on 9/11/2018.

To Register for the Fall Family History Discovery Seminar, please fill out, detach the form below, and include your check to CCGS and mail to Carol Cherry, 204 Fishing Creek Drive, New Bern, NC 28562. One form for each person. Please PRINT.

If you have questions about the classes, feel free to call Carol Cherry at 252.633.3891 and leave a message for a return call.
