

Someway, Somehow

Rachael Martin 9,20,2016

Somehow in our daily routine of existing, we find the moxy, gumption, strength, motivation, and willpower to continue to push forward. Somehow, we manage to put one foot in front of the other. Like Gina's word yesterday, in God's great love for us we manage to operate in a Christ like manner to some degree in this struggle of being human.

We are supposed to operate in love and the knowledge of our victory over sin & death because of Christ in us, our hope of glory – which means He is the reason for us to hope. A friend of mine once said that she doesn't understand why no one ever finished the following verse because that's where the hope lies. So my heart is to encourage all of you and myself today. Those of us who are struggling, like me, to maintain and wait on the Lord. Those of us who are struggling with pushing forward and those of us who are good but want to be better – here it is – you have a GREAT HOPE in Jesus Christ – a hope that will come to fruition in it's perfect time. A hope that will not let us down – He will remain faithful – and supply all of our need, but we have to want it – we have to press on – we have to run the race.

I felt like I was supposed to put the different versions of this verse. Blessings to all of you as we wait on Him and keep our hope in Him – Jesus Christ – our Redeemer.

Proverbs 13:12 - The Message - Unrelenting disappointment leaves you heartsick, but a sudden good break can turn life around.

Proverbs 13:12 - Living Bible - Hope deferred makes the heart sick; but when dreams come true at last, there is life and joy.

Proverbs 13:12 New International Version - Hope deferred makes the heart sick, but a longing fulfilled is a tree of life

Proverbs 13:12 New King James Version - Hope deferred makes the heart sick, But when the desire comes, it is a tree of life.

Proverbs 13:12 New Living Translation - Hope deferred makes the heart sick, but a dream fulfilled is a tree of life.
