

Radloff, John

John "Jack" Radloff, 72, passed away earlier this month at his home in Midland. He was born January 25, 1930, the son of Albert and Katherine (Otto) Radloff of Berne. He was baptized Feb. 16, 1930, and was confirmed on April 2, 1944. He attended Berne Lutheran Elementary School, graduating in 1944. He then attended Pigeon High School. After high school graduation, he attended Bay City Junior College in Bay City. He served in the U.S. Army before his career at the Dow Chemical Co., which spanned 36 years, beginning in 1950 until his retirement in 1986. During his career at Dow, he worked in the office of the Operations Vice President Levi Leathers and his responsibilities included the gathering of data on capitol projects. At the time of his retirement, he was working in the Technology Center area at Dow. Mr. Radloff maintained his membership at the St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church in Berne but regularly attended worship services at Good Shepherd Evangelical Lutheran Church in Midland. He was preceded in death by his sister, Mary Louise Radloff and his parents, Albert and Katherine. He also leaves cousins in California, Arizona, Saginaw and Pigeon. His funeral will be at 11 a.m. Saturday, April 27, 2002, at St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church in Berne. Pastor James A. Gorsegner, pastor will present the liturgy for the funeral service and Pastor John C. Seifert of Good Shepherd Evangelical Lutheran Church in Midland will offer the funeral sermon. Visitation will be at 10 a.m. Saturday at the church. Funeral arrangements were under the direction of the Meyersieck-Bussema Funeral Home in Pigeon.
