Honor Me and Persevere (Current)

December 10th, 2024

Greetings dear family, may God's favor and blessings be always upon you.

Mother Clare began speaking, "Oh Lord, please come to our aid. Jesus, please come to our aid these are very hard and dark times. Please help our little family to adjust to the hard times."

"My Beloved ones, is it really a surprise to you that things should be so trying?? Look at your country and your president right now. He is in great danger and your prayers for him are exceedingly important.

*"This is the time of the year to indulge the flesh with parties, drinking and shopping. For many it is shop-til-you-drop. I never wanted to turn My birth into a free for all, to indulge the flesh. And while people are wearing themselves out, your president is in grave danger. He needs your prayers now more than ever. I am speaking to those who really love Me, pray continuously for him and his team.

"I have taught you in the past that celebrating this holiday in America has become an abomination to Me and all of heaven. I am calling on you, My faithful ones, to be an example to your brothers and sisters. Increase prayer and celebrate My birthday with great sanctity. I want you to look at the circumstances of My birth. Of all things, My mother in her full term pregnancy riding a donkey for several days to reach Bethlehem. Can you imagine My mother's suffering and dangers encountered? Robbers caught them as they passed over the mountains, and God protected them. Mary had just given birth, and her body was not healed yet, but because she loved Me more than her own self-interests she did not hesitate to make the sacrifice. Now it is your turn My saints, to expend yourself way over what is normally required of you.

"Yes, I am asking you to sacrifice without complaining, just as My mother did. Will you do this for Me, as your Christmas present to Me? You are nearing the hottest time for world war in the world's history, where millions of demons of every rank are hard at work against Me, against you and against the church. Rome has fallen, I made that clear when My angels struck the Vatican with lightning. When it hit, it knocked off the halo on St. Peter's statue, as well as taking the keys to the kingdom out of his hands. No one can mistake my intention.

"I am done with the harlot, and I will start over again with people whose hearts are right before Me. This will be a very painful time for all, please do your part to remain faithful to Me. Never before in history have I needed you so badly. Don't let Me down. Pray for your president, his family and administrators, pray that the country will turn to Me.

"On a personal level, admonish your relatives and tell them it is no time for partying, it is a dead serious time and needs their prayers. You cannot allow your president to be uncovered for a second, the enemy is very devious and determined. But if you pray, he will remain alive and in office. Teach your children the seriousness of the matter, their little prayers are heard immediately.

"Understand that a very great reward is waiting for you in Heaven. Do your very best to live up to the graces I have entrusted to you. Remember My people you are working for the Great King and the rewards are out of this world. Press in when you want to give up and run away. Press in. In those moments you are releasing the graces for salvation for those who would be lost forever if it were not for you. Your work is very important, always do it willingly with a smile on your face no matter how you feel. I love a cheerful giver, and your acts of prompt obedience release triple the amount of grace than your works alone would do.

“When you carry hidden resentment, your works are defiled. When you criticize and push back, you wound Me deeply. I want to say to you, “Don’t you realize you are serving the very one who gave you life and brought you into this world, the one who has kept you from death, the one who provides for your needs and gave you a beautiful life partner and a family of believers to surround and protect, nurture and walk with you on this life journey??” Please, serve Me with joy and a smile on your face, or go back to your old life in the world, but do not defile others with a bad attitude. Be grateful My children and give with love, not contempt and irritation. I will help you if you confess your bad attitude and I will help you change.

“I overflow with joy because you love Me and prove that love for Me by being a cheerful giver. I forgive you for the times you have not been grateful. I love you and I will help you.” Amen.

I Long to Sweep You Off Your Feet (Current)

December 17th, 2024

Greetings dear family, “May the joy of the Lord be our strength.” Mother Clare began, “Lord, I come before You needier than ever, please help me.”

“Yes, you may begin to confess Scripture and My angels will respond, or you can allow this as a suffering, and I will use it in ways you could never imagine. Which would you like to do?”

“What is Your choice, Lord?”

“I want you to confess and build up your faith, but My Love I do leave it up to your free will offering. What I am wanting to say to you is that you are Mine and whatever choice you make, I will use it for My glory. I love to see what you choose; it warms My heart to see you walking in Faith, but it also touches Me when you suffer valiantly.”

“How good You are to me Lord; how wonderful and merciful You are. My heart throbs for Your goodness and I just want to disappear in Your Heart, forever and ever.”

“Be patient My Bride, you will have your heart’s desire soon enough.”

“But Lord, I do not want to use that as an escape from work.”

“Sometimes, you need a respite.....time in Heaven with Me?”

“Is that an invitation?”

“It is.” A tender warmth coursed through my body as I realized that I had just been invited to dwell with Him in His Heart. Now I am lovesick.

"I like that very much." He quipped. "Do you see what happens when you choose to believe and not collapse on your bed?"

"I DO!"

"Yes, this is much better, it doesn't feel like defeat and it is nourishing for others. We can make this happen My Beloved....your faith has sustained you."

"Thank You sweet spouse of my poor heart."

"Oh no Beloved! You are anything BUT poor, indeed Heaven dwells in your heart. Shall we go and make castles in the sand? It's not just the caffeine or the Dr. Pepper, it still hinges on your faith, and the desire to be with Me."

"Lord, I really must learn to confess and press in, would You please help me with that?"

"You know I have already assigned angels to train you in Scripture, confessing, professing, declaring. You have only to cooperate with them, My Love."

"I confess, I have not obeyed Your words about studying. Please forgive me." I was listening to Erik the Flute maker's "A Place of Peace with harp and flute." The Lord Jesus' face appeared in front of me in the spirit, He was smiling, and took my hand, leading me on to the dance floor such as you would see in a royal palace. He was wearing a black tux with a formal white shirt, and I was wearing a very pale pink sheer gown that floated in the air ever so gracefully as we danced. Really, I was much more drawn to His tender face than any movements. I just wanted to look deep into His blue eyes, and lose myself in His love.

He immediately allowed me to see Him so clearly that my heart skipped a beat. Oh, dear Lord, I could easily pass out and die here being so fulfilled in Your Love.

Our hearts connected and there was no longer any distance between us. "Jesus, this is truly Paradise." He answered "It is for Me too because we are truly One. Do not be dismayed that you are filling in the blanks after the fact. There is no reason at all to doubt for one moment that your perceptions after the fact are not valid. They are My Love; I am describing what you were thinking and seeing as if it were happening again right now in real time. Don't be so hard on yourself Beloved, these are remnants of that old scrupulous spirit. I want you to enjoy this time in all its innocence, nothing you are writing is distorted, it is all very real. Please relax and allow Me to help you color in the details."

"What a precious and beautiful time with You my Jesus, my Heavenly Spouse. Thank you, Jesus, for putting my heart at ease. It is so important that I never misrepresent anything You say or do when we are together."

"Clare, I have wired you with great caution so that your words could be trusted. I did this in preparation for the times we would be together. I want all My Brides to have an intimate snapshot of what it is truly like for both of us in these encounters. I almost don't want to say encounters because that denotes that we are separate, but that is far from the truth, I live in you, as you live in Me. It's that simple, there are times when it manifest on the outside of Our bodies, for the sake of sharing our life together with others.

"Oh, My Brides, how I long to sweep you off your feet and up into My arms because I am so in Love with you. You, on the other hand, tend to be shy and ashamed because you perceive your faults to be far worse than they are...your virtues far out weight them in My eyes. So, fear not Beloved do not let shame conquer you, rather, dwell in My arms where you can release all the shadows of your past, all the tensions, worries and self-judgments you degrade yourself with. It is enough! Let Me wipe away the remnants of condemnation the adversary is constantly trying to distract you with, so you will not fulfill your mission to bring My Bride, into the innocent security of My love for her. The enemy's tactics are to keep you self-absorbed, to put dingy glasses on you that distort your real worth in My eyes. Beware My greatly loved ones, it does you great harm to be always focused on your shortcomings and failures. Once you fall into this bottomless pit of your mistakes in life, you cannot see the beauty of others, you are too deep into condemnation to rightly perceive.

"Enough of this admonishment, please make it your practice to see yourself as I see you. How can this be accomplished? Dance with Me My Bride and see the great admiration I have for you reflected in My eyes. Allow yourself to take in the dream like a vision of us together and you will soon see how far from the truth all those dark lies were. Remember, you are dealing with the Father of Lies, for the truth cannot abide in him. Back to the Palace Ballroom."

After a few moments of sweet reflection beholding one another's eyes, He stopped and placed my right hand on His left, gently guiding us to the garden. It was nighttime, yet the moon illuminated it with so much profusion in colored flowers of all kinds. He stopped me before a red rose with glistening dew drops, and said, "I created roses for My Mother. They are truly her favorite, and she gives them to those who love Me with all their hearts. That is why I gave you that bouquet that you turned into a lovely invitation for My Bride to dwell with Me in My tent. The dew drops represent the freshness that has been imparted to you as you waited for Me with loving expectation. You see, there is your faith, you knew I would come to you."

"Lord, I am overwhelmed by the depth of Your gifts and insights. Truly, it is beginning to shed new light on who I am to You. And if I mean that much to You, I should mean that much to me."

"That's correct. You will find your identity in My eyes, and that will bring healing. Once you are healed and recognize who you are to Me, you will be able to bring others to that realization as well, and that is your mission. You cannot convince others how lovely and important they are in My life, until they yield all their fears and fully embrace Me. No more shame, no more blame, no more excuses, no more, only Love and the beauty of their beings. Even to the most wretched and guilty, I see beyond their sins and into the depths of their hearts, where I hear them calling, "Oh God, is it too late for me? Can I still repent? Will you forgive the horrible things I have done? Is there any hope? Oh God please answer me, I have no more hope left. And I am answering them, through your cries of desperation, because you were there 45 years ago, and I rescued you from the pit of confusion and darkness." And that was the end of His message.

God bless you dear Heartdwellers, let us all enjoy spending time with our Jesus.

Lord Change Me (Current)

December 18th, 2024

Precious family, Mother Clare began, we are entering a new era, it requires us to leave the old patterns of our thinking behind and walk into the light, not sharing the works of darkness but staying in the light.

Do you truly want to be in God's perfect will for your life? Then we must think like God by uniting what goes on in our minds to His Mind and blocking out all the darkness we are habituated to listening to and seeing.

I have realized that the news most people watch for an hour, or more is littered with bad news, wars, accidents, economic scares.

In Romans 12:2, Paul tells us exactly how to do this, "Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is—His good, pleasing and perfect will." Amen.

Our whole world is made up of different vibrations and wavelengths of light. There are very low vibrations of light and very high. Worshiping God and praying in tongues is the highest vibration. War crimes, violent and bloody deaths are the lowest, alongside anything that inspires fear.

I know I am not functioning at my best, the Holy Spirit put it on my heart to pray, "Lord Change Me," and I spent the whole day praying and asking, "Lord I know I am not where I should be, please change me.

By the way, I highly recommend Evelyn Christenson's book, "Lord Change Me", this book will train you to hear His voice when you read the Scriptures, and from that starting point you will begin to hear and recognize His voice in everything from books to bumper stickers. The Scriptures teach us about truth, but the Still Small Voice is hidden in-between the lines and becomes a Rhema that speaks directly to your heart.

God bless you dear Heartdwellers, and we pray for the renewing of our mind so that in all things, His will be done!

You Are Mine, I Carry You

December 24th, 2024

Greetings Beloved family, we do not stand on how we feel, we stand on the finished work of the cross.

"My Brides you do not stand or fall the doings of this world for your eternal home and origin is from on high. You have correctly discerned the times you are now in. The battle for your souls has reached a fever pitch in the second Heavens. My Beloved ones stand inside of Me where no evil can snatch you away. This is the dark storm of the last days. Witchcraft is at its heyday fighting for control of this world. The complacency of many who live for the pleasures of this world and built a cage around their lives, are now finding themselves blind and cut off from reality.....just beginning to awake to a world they never imagined. You are not a part of this reality. No. You are My Brides, you are MINE and I carry you. I have not turned you over to the darkness that is now saturating this world. You are MINE and none other will have you. During these times you are being pelted with suggestions, whims of fancy and sidetracks to move away from My Will.

“Beloved ones, you must stand your ground IN ME. And I’ll tell you how I do it. The Lord has kind of given me this vision of Him standing there with His cloak around Him and His arms open and I just kind of back into His Heart and He seals me. Seals me tightly into His Heart where no storm can reach me. So, when He says, “Beloved ones, you must stand your ground in Me.” He means in Me for sure.

“This is no time for restlessness and being unseated from My Holy Will and purposes. You must stand your ground and fight for what I have shown you is your way to holiness. You are constantly faced with irrational suggestions that glitter and shine from the outside but are full of deadly poison on the inside, leading you away and apart from Me from your destiny. Stand your ground and be the brave and discerning warriors I have trained you to become.

“As you stand on the ground and purposes, I have led you in, I will begin to take down your enemies who were so sure they could put an end to you. But you are not standing on earth, you are standing in My Heart, attentive to every beat I send out for your prayers, standing in the gap which in these perilous times is widening from good to evil. I am sustaining you, I am holding you firm for My purposes, and you are going to see many things fall around you, evil things that I have allowed for a season, but are now coming to an end.

“Resist every temptation to be restless, stand and put roots down into My Heart, allowing Me alone to nourish and sustain you with My Thoughts and My Will. The things that will be falling around you are in their own evil reality, not yours. Your reality is My Victory at the Cross where you and I are grounded together. Do not give in to the temptation to move from this Holy Ground. What you have established will prosper and grow, that’s why the enemy is waging a brutal war on My People. They want to put an end to the vision and cause you to drift away from your ground zero. Why, because your time of fruitfulness is coming.

“Stand with Me and read the signs of the times as the walls of darkness crumble around you. We still will have the victory.” And that was the end of His message.

And the other thing I hadn’t mentioned is that right now we are under some of the strongest radiation pulses from the sun that we’ve ever been under, and it causes nausea, sleeplessness, lethargy, brain fog, achy joints and aches and pains. And of course, they are scrubbing the numbers so that you don’t see how bad it really is, but boy you can sure feel it in your body. So, we need to stand in more than one way. Amen.

Shall I Give You a Snake (Current)

December 24th, 2024

Greeting dear family, may God bless you and give you His peace.

In Matthew 7:9-11 we read, “Which of you, if your son asks for bread, will give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a snake? If you, then, though you are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give good gifts to those who ask him!"

"Jeepers Lord, we are growing!!!"

"Don't worry, I will never let you down, I am here to stay."

"Thank you, spouse of my heart." He pulled me to Himself and my head rested on His Heart. "Oh Lord I am so privileged! What a wondrous thing that You come to me each night and give instruction to us. Thank You so much."

"It's My pleasure Clare. I wish all My Brides were as eager to hear Me as you are. My hope and prayer is that they will hear My voice through the messages and say, "Why can't I do the same?" and your messages will convince them that I indeed desire to speak to them. I am doing nothing to discourage that. You see, My beautiful Brides, this is what I long to do with all of you."

"I am no respecter of persons. It is your desire to be close to Me that qualifies you for the job of sharing My counsel with the world. So, put away that Spirit of unbelief and restrict his access to your mind. Begin there. Then follow the instructions Mother Clare has given you. Put away your unbelief and fear of rejection and deception. Speak to Me from your heart as you would if you could see Me sitting before you. Pour out your fears and anxiety to Me, then be quiet and the first sentence or word you hear, begin to write without scrutinizing, you can do that later. Just write what you are hearing."

"You asked for a fish, would I be cruel and give you a snake instead? If you are thinking that, you are not listening to Me, but to a devil. Here are some other lies he will try to stop you with. You're a sinner, God won't speak to you. The truth is that I have spoken to many who were still in sin, and afterward their lives were changed. It wouldn't hurt you to do a short examination of conscience and ask forgiveness. This you can do several times a day. I never tire of the humble soul who confesses. It is My very great joy to forgive you and give mercy."

"Here are more lies, "God only speaks to saints. You're too young. You're too old. You can't hear His voice, only prophets hear Him." All lies. I have hard wired you from conception to hear Me clearly. Think about it, the God Who created and died to free you from your sins, heard your heart felt words, so now He is going to deceive you!? That is Satan's MO not Mine."

"Truly Beloved ones, I long to have conversations with you, I long for your trust and the openness of your heart as well as your faith that I am really present to you, and I truly care about every struggle you face each day. I celebrate and sing over those who give Me the most precious gift a soul can give, their total faith and trust in My Goodness and Mercy."

Renounce all those lies and embrace the gifts I am offering you." Amen!

Your Destiny & Those Who Answer to Me for You

December 26th, 2024

“My Beloved family of Heart Dwellers, if you are spending time in My Heart, you have felt conviction when anyone complains, especially about those who carry the cross of your sanctification. If I took the time to tell you how they suffer day and night for you, you would be horrified. I am not talking just about physical sufferings, no, I am talking about deep and profoundly disturbing anguish over the state of your souls, and the land mines set on your path, to disable and destroy your destinies.

“I am coming to you on bended knee, pleading with you to honor those who carry the cross of answering to Me for your souls. They must make an accounting to Me for your state of heart and mind, and when I hear your critical thoughts and attitudes against them, undermining their counsel, My Heart sinks, for you are dissembling against the very ones that carry the burden of holding you up and covering you. In essence you are opening the door to Satan so that his demons can come and defile you and rob you of your destinies.

“Your destinies is what Satan is after. In your youthfulness, you are not able to see just how undermining your complaints are, nor do you see the punishment and loss you pull down upon your selves, and how serious it is when you discuss these things with others, essentially gossiping and coming into agreement with the accusations against those who love you and care like a mother, a good mother, for your future.

“I admonish you, dear ones, love those who labor for your souls. Shut your mind when accusations fly, and unbelief encroaches on your mind. It is very damaging to you and to others. It is your solemn duty to protect the integrity of My leaders because when you do not, they are living pin cushions, and I hold you responsible. Love them as you love your own self and trust that if I have called you to be underneath a particular leader, and you know that it is your calling, trust them, support them, love them, never, ever dissemble against them.”

The Ways of Heaven

December 27th, 2024

Greetings dear family, Mother Clare began speaking, “Precious Lord Jesus we bring ourselves to your feet needing your guidance and shepherding. Please speak to us and give us, your servants, a word today.”

“My dear ones I commend all of you for persevering through this storm. You have all been faithful to Me in this time of trial and for that I thank you. Know that this road you have chosen is one that few will ever take. For it is filled with crosses and sacrifices. Yet may I say the friendship with Me that comes with it is priceless. You are all so very special to Me and I cherish you more than you can imagine. If you knew the good that is transpiring around the world and the graces that are being poured out on others through your sufferings and sacrifices of obedience, you’d leap for joy. Yet these things are hidden from you to keep you from complacency and pride and competition with one another. That is the way of Satan’s kingdom. Each of you have a very unique gift that you bring to My Body and to souls and My

Spirit works through you all, blessing and anointing your acts of Love for Me and one another, no matter how little or insignificant the task may be to you. In My Kingdom all are cherished for who they are and the gifts they bring so that there may be no room for jealousy or insecurity.

“My dear children, build one another up and affirm each other in who they are even if it means humbling yourself to the greatest degree, for this is the way of Heaven, yes of the angels and saints. When Heaven looks on such a soul we are filled with joy and shower blessings and graces even more to encourage them along the way. The battles will continue but remember you are in training, and I am using all. Yes, even the demons and witches to exercise you in virtue, grow you perseverance, and most of all purify you to enter Heaven.

My Mother is ever at your side and is especially fond of this community. You are all leaders in training Beloved ones, and you shall be used to bring My Light to the darkest of places. I am preparing you for a fresh outpouring, so I am tightening your sandals to be able to handle the mantles I release to you. Cling to Me and I will deliver you, I shall never leave you nor forsake you.

“You are all learning the ways of Heaven so that I may release you to bring Heaven on earth to all men. Intensify your prayers for now Beloved ones, focus more on building yourselves and each other up. Hold each other dearly in your hearts and be your brother’s keeper. You have been targeted much by the enemy and their number one assignment is to divide you so that you will be conquered. Stay in unity, stay in brotherly love, and most of all be quick to forgive and bless, even if it’s the last thing you want to do. You are My solace in such a cold, bitter and broken world, broken with hatred, murder, selfishness and pride. Know that I cherish your love and time with Me dearly and I run to you My Bride to take My Mind off the evil I must behold in the world every day. Truly your kindness and acts of love are a great comfort to My Heart. Continue to come to the aid of those in need, especially your brothers and sisters. I am with you. Know that as long as you are humble, hidden, and committed to Me and the good of others, yes even your enemies, you will have My full protection from the enemy.

“I bless you now with My peace, My loving presence among you and My Love to go out to all the world and show them you are My disciples by your love for one another.” Amen.
