

I have been sitting on this since early May and knew this is the time to release it. I heard the Spirit of the Lord say:

“Hold fast. Let nothing take what I have given to you. Hold fast. Hold your position. Hold to My Words of life. Stand in what I have spoken to you. Do not remove your gaze from Me. Keep a close watch on what I have spoken to you. Fix your attention only on my Word to you.

Hear this! Nothing can change what I have said. Nothing can come between Me or My spoken Word. It will accomplish what I said. Time cannot change it. Circumstances do not change it. I alone am the One who will bring this to pass.

Hear Me, stay focused on Me. Release your doubts. Let go of the concern. Have I not said I would perfect that which concerns you? Why would I say something that is not true? I only speak truth. Fix your mind on Me.”

He is saying- “give diligence to holding fast.” Be encouraged in the truth today that holding fast is key for survival. After all, He is the One who will guide you into His perfect plan for your life. “Holding fast” translates to - hold your position or hold your gaze.

Friends, do not let go of what He said. Do not let go of what you know concerning Him. You must hold your gaze on Him alone. You must hold your position. Do not crumble because things do not look like you thought they would. Stand firmly in the truth of His word.

Fix your mind on what He said. Keep yourself focused on the Word. Do not shelf the what He has spoken! Do not put it away from you because it hurts too much to believe for too much time has passed. Do not go based on what you see or feel.

It's time to hold fast to what He has spoken. He is calling you to chew on His Word as you hold your gaze on Him. He is calling you to meditate on His Words and speak it.

He said, "As you do this, there is a sweetness and nourishment that will fill soul." This is something that can only come from Him. Faith says, "I accept the promise in its divine reality." Faith says, "I hope, therefore I go forward."

Oh my precious friends, I know it is hard. I know life can be so hard at times. But it is during these times that drawing closer to Him is vital to our position of holding fast. It is during these intimate times of communion with our gaze held fast upon him, that we are strengthened.
