

Wisdom

The Wisdom of the Father will Eternally set us free.

21 May 2007

Greetings,
Indeed a pleasure to confer with you at this time.

Much is to occur on your plane at this time. Many are searching this hour and many are still lost.

It appears that man is deceiving himself when he says he is not responsible for his actions.

Whom then does he think is responsible?

If man would only take heed of the warnings then man could unite whereby raising the energy/frequency and prevent much destruction.

Man will stay ignorant until it is too late and will indeed be accountable.

Mass destruction upon your plane is evident this hour.

In Love and Light
Amen

Greetings Dear Heart,
A pleasure to be with you at this time.
Immeasurable acquaintances will befall you this day.

It is for you to deliver as said, as stated understand.

As night falls and light fades the world will indeed feel the tremors begin.

No man will escape the final hour for it has come to pass that much change is needed to restore this plane to its former glory.

Many will seek shelter from the storm and many will perish doing so.

It is indeed appropriate this day to remind man of his deception surrounding his perceived obstacles.

If man was to change his thought pattern and not see it as an obstacle then there would be no obstacle.

Man must change his thought pattern to see things as lessons, necessary for growth, and to go with the flow and not fight it.

When one perceives it as an experience then one is not seeing it as an obstacle so therefore there will not be an obstacle.

Man lets his ego rule at times and makes his experiences difficult instead of just accepting them and going with the flow.

Greetings from afar.

What a glorious time it is, to see the reflection of what is to be and what is to come.

Know that all is for a purpose and all will be restored to its former glory.

Many will seek to be returned and many will allow thy Father to access his many children via them.

One will indeed delight in thy beautiful surroundings.

A peace will fill thy air like no other. Man will indeed unite and celebrate as One.

Glory, Glory, Glory on High.

In Love and Light.

Amen.

9 March 2007.

Greetings Dear Heart.

A pleasure as always to speak this day.

It is noted on the horizon the magnificent aura. One would do well to bask in the glory of knowing, for here holds the key to all, understand.

Much deliverance surrounds the shift and all would be wise to focus one's energy on the knowing. The knowing of the Truth and allow all to flow knowing that all is an experience necessary for growth this hour.

Man has hindered his progress as he has allowed his ego self to control him instead of letting the Father Almighty be his guide.

Many have sneered at the works for they find them simple.

But simplicity is the key. Man cannot understand the simplicity of The Law and continues to go on searching in all the wrong places for he is searching for something that he feels must fill the mind.

He fails to see that it should be filling his heart with Love, Love of the Father, Love of the self, Love of one another.

Foolish is he who wont listen. Foolish is he that wont accept the heart rules, not the mind.

Once one masters all operations via the heart then one is on the True Path.

Destined to feel Love, to share Love, to give Love. Love, not hatred, jealousy, greed or selfishness is what the Father desires of his flock.

To know me is to be me.

In Love and Light
Amen.

Greetings Dear Heart,
A pleasure to be with thee this day

May thy message for the web today be for all to reflect on the Truth.

To go in search of the Truth.

To not stop until one uncovers the heart felt feelings within that this is the way, the only way.

Seek and ye shall find.

Let nothing or nobody put you off your path of true enlightenment.

Be guided by your heart, for here thy Father will nurture you and guide you in all.

In Love and Light.
Amen
