

JULY/AUGUST
2016

Hi All,

A bit late again.... the biggest thing we have going on right now is our upcoming August Picnic. Unfortunately our website is still under construction so many of our members and shooting friends are unable to get information regarding the picnic. We have flyers in several locations but that does not help the overall folks trying to get information regarding the picnic. So following is information regarding the picnic, please share with those that you know may be interested in attending. Looking forward to see all of you there!

Letty B! :-)
