GINGER LADUKE

This was such a special win because the Gollieher Family ( Jerry, Sue & ZeAnn) are some of our longest, dearest friends. I grew up riding Gollieher-raised horses, so to win this at their production was pretty dang awesome. There's such a warm family atmosphere and hospitality at any event that you attend at Gollieher arena.

I ended up 5th in the first round and I came home that night to get my kids to bed and be with my family. I really tried not to concentrate on the average rather go and try to place in the round again. I actually lost my stirrup going around first and did not get it back the entire run. He really took care of himself and me. He ended up 2nd in the 2nd go and it was just enough to get the average.

“From the day he was born, Henry was special to my family. So for me to get to run barrels on him is just a bonus. He is truly loved by us all.”

HENRY was the first colt that my husband and I raised together. I was there when he was born. My son Tel and I halter broke him. He honestly is like a family member. My brother-in-law, Curt put the first few rides on him and then Will took him over. We ranch, so he has had a lot of outside miles under his belt. He is actually a really cool head horse too. I didn't start him on the barrels until late last fall. Early this spring people would ask if I had a Futurity colt and I would say 'well I have a 5 year old but I don't know if he's a futurity colt' lol...just because he was pretty far behind. I wasn't really planning on entering futurities on him, but at the last minute we put him in the Dash and Dance and had a little luck and placed 6th in the average. So we went ahead and late entered him in a few close ones.

6. Rose Hildebrandt, FLASHLIGHTS STREAKER m by CS Flashlight, 14.307, $279.33

What was your game plan going into this futurity? Well I had been tipping barrels to make some good runs and my husband, Will told me it was time to start riding Henry like a rodeo horse instead of a colt and see what happens.

What are your goals for the rest of the year? Henry will run at the NWBRA finals October 7-9 then we will head to Bowman ND for the Badlands WPR Divisional tour finals at the end of October. After we ship our calves, I'll give them a few months off.

Giving thanks... My husband, Will and kids, Tel and Lila and my parents, Dave and Eva Edwards. I'm so lucky to have really great family helping me so I'm able to do this.

Ginger
