Dear Glenma,

So good to hear from you - it was truly a pleasure to meet you and hear your story. It is obvious that you are a woman of faith who walks with Jesus at her side. My granddaughter will love her book about the World War II nurse & I am seriously thinking of giving the friendship book to the Guidance Coun. Selor. St Cooper & Laurel-Jean's Elementary School. She is so caring and goes into the classrooms on a regular basis to talk about topics near & dear to the elementary school children's hearts. Last month

The counselor focused on kindness & it really hit home with the children.

You are very good at your craft and it warms my heart to think of all the people who have been touched by your caring ways over the years. I am even more amazed at your sense of mission given the loss you have suffered. The Lord knows loss, too.

Again - what a joy to have met you. My husband just wrote his first book - it's on Amazon - "Felling Big Trees" by Rich Garon. We are going to Charlottesville this weekend for the book festival - Maybe we'll see you there.

Warm regards,
Karin Garon
