Biography

Larry William Jewell, age 75, of Harbor Beach, passed away on November 14, 2022, at home with his family by his side, after a difficult battle with cancer. Larry was born to Roy and Ruth Jewell on October 2, 1947 in Harbor Beach. Larry attended Harbor Beach High School and was a proud veteran of the United States Navy. Larry wed Rita Elizabeth LeGue on June 24, 1967. While Larry's family and friends are saddened by his death, they are extremely thankful for his life. Larry was a quiet soul who relished the simple pleasures of living. He was a loving father and dedicated husband. Larry was predeceased by his mother and father Ruth and Roy; Step-father Henry Shliefer; three infant sons: Lawrence, Roy and Mark, and several aunts and uncles Larry was passionate about music and could often be found lending his beautiful voice or artful guitar to one of several bands he worked with during his lifetime. When he wasn't playing or singing, he worked on vehicles with his sons, cruising the marina and beaches, or feeding and trying to tame any stray animal he came across. He also loved going on road trips with his bride and working on their yard and garden.
