2015 Winter Tour Results Perdido Bay

Sutton Wins First Pro Event

Thomas Sutton had a great week capturing his first professional victory at the Perdido Bay Resort. Sutton is Montgomery native and is a former UAB college player and in his first season on the Emerald Coast tour. His rounds of 73-69-71-213 was good enough for a one shot win over Wilson McDonald. McDonald was the first round leader with a 66, but finished with 74 74 214 and ended up one shot back. Taylor McCullum of Hoover AL was the low amateur and finished third after a final round 67 and a 215 total. Hunter Hawkins of Ft Payne AL finished fourth at 218. Tyler Neff of Knoxville TN and currently on the golf channels big break Palm Beach Series was next at 219. The Perdido Bay Resort was the former home of the PGA Tours Pensacola Open for many years.
