

NOTES
Class-4
Subject- English. Lesson -8

1. What does the 'bhasmasura' mean ?

Ans- Bhasmasura means demon of ashes. He had the power to reduce all living beings to ashes with his touch.

2. What did Bhasmasura do with his power?

Ans- Bhasmasura was granted the power to burn up and turn into ashes to anyone whose head he touched with his hand.

3. Who do you think the dancer was?

Ans- The dancer could have been the god of power who had been worried about giving young demon such a nasty powerful weapon.

4. Was Bhasmasura wise or foolish? Give reason for your answer.

Ans- Bhasmasura was a foolish demon because he used his boon for destruction. He also followed the actions of the dancer thoughtlessly.

5. Why do you think no one could find the dancer afterwards?

Ans- The dancer was a god or goddess who soon disappeared after punishing Bhasmasura.

Lesson -9

1. What kind of a town was Vishnupur?

Ans- Vishnupur was a small quiet town surrounded by green hills and some ancient ruins.

2. What did Seema and Arun enjoy doing in Vishnupur?

Ans- Seema and Arun loved going for walks and spending hours exploring the old temple in a fort nearby and also played hide-and-seek in Vishnupur.

3. How did the children know someone was in trouble?

Ans- The children knew someone was in trouble as the children found a crumpled slip on which it was written CLP. After looking at it carefully they could make out that it was ELP which might be HELP.

4. How did Seema and Arun rescue the man?

Ans- Seema and Arun found the man near the dry river. He had a gag on his mouth and was struggling to free himself. The children removed the gag and helped him free his hand and feet.