

I MIGHT

By John Lipinski

I'm just sittin' here, sippin' on a beer, wondrin' if I really want to stay here
I know I'm all keyed up, for makin' a move
What's left for me, what's left to prove

So I might, leave tonight, drop out of sight, I might
I might, change my life, if I do it right, I might

They say it's never too late, to make a new start
It might be right for my head and my heart
My priorities are gone, and I know I could be wrong
But, I don't think I belong here anymore

So I might, leave tonight, drop out of sight, I might
I might, change my life, if I do it right, I might

I hear it's nice in the Keys, Go fishin' now if I please cuz the sun is shinin', most everyday I'll be livin' with a laid-back style, only once in a while
The storms of life, can get in the way

You know I wanna be gone, don't care what's right or what's wrong
Cuz, I feel I don't belong here anymore
I might be leaving in the morning, pack my truck without a warning
Cuz, I don't need to stay here anymore

I might be looking to reach a new height , leave at dawn's early light
I know this may sound crazy, but I might
I might leave it all behind, I'm so tired of the same old grind
And I feel it's time to leave here, that's right
So, I might, ask the Lord tonight, if the timing is right, I might I might, head south by starlight, have that beer in the Keys tonight, I might
