

FLAMBOROUGH HEAD : A general view of South Landing; a headland, a bay caused by irregularities and weaknesses in the chalk exploited by erosional waves. The cliffs in the background have a wave cut platform beneath them and the low energy in the bay has resulted in the formation of a beach.

