TONY'S BLOG

As a Christian belief, Jesus had to die on the cross for the resurrection. Keeping that in mind, I look at it that when one door closes, another and even better door will open. I am looking forward to some wonderful new trips and seeing my friends and family as we start another new beginning. With so much time, not only did I learn how to operate a smart television and catch up on many years of TV shows, but was able to check and rethink our tours and our travels. There will be changes, I'm sure, but all will be okay. I can't tell you how much I have missed the New Beginnings family. I hope that this newsletter finds everyone well, excited and looking forward to being together again with us and your families. Stay Healthy!

During this very difficult period, we want to assure you that New Beginning Tours is financially ok. But we have a deep concern for the travel industry. Our tours involve many tour companies, restaurants, theaters, guides, etc. It has been our policy, so far, to not ask for refunds and to keep credits with them to help them take it through this difficult period and be able to move forward. With this in mind, we would like to thank everyone that also asks for credit for future trips rather than refunds. We do understand that some people are struggling and will gladly send them a refund. Please be assured that no one will lose any money. That being said, we are a small business as well and appreciate your support during this time. Looking forward to seeing everyone soon.
