New Business

Rezone of the property locate on Bryant and Peyton Streets

Vice Chairman Staley presented the property at Bryant and Peyton Streets for rezone. Mr. Staley reminded the concerned citizens that the developer could put small houses on the property and rent those instead of the duplexes. The commission members want to make sure everyone involved understand that they do take their positions seriously and all considerations are made with the best interest of the City as the most important part of the decision making process. They consider the present and future needs of the City very serious. Growth is one of the most vital needs of the City. After further discussion; Helen Huitt motioned; Tyler Madding seconded to deny the rezoning request for Bryant and Peyton Streets. Roll Call vote: Wayne Knight – yes, Helen Huitt – yes, Tyler Madding – yes, Shane Phillips – yes, Mike Montalbano – yes. The rezoning request for Bryant and Peyton Street has been denied.
