Biography

Helen Jean (Langley) Guster 92, of Caseville, was given the gift of eternal life on August 10, 2021. Helen passed away of natural causes surrounded by family and under the care of the staff at St Francis Nursing Home in Saginaw. She was born January 12, 1929 in Caseville to the late Albertus "Bert" and Susan (Vahovick) Langley. She married Samuel J. Guster September 6, 1947 at St. Roch Catholic Church. He preceded her on June 12, 1999. She was a member of St. Roch Catholic Church where she loved to usher. She was a member of the Caseville American Legion Auxiliary Jean Post# 543. For over 50 years she was an avid bowler, bowling at Biff's in Kinde, MI. She enjoyed bingo, watching the Detroit Tigers, playing cards (Euchre) with her family, and patronizing Lefty's. Helen was a hard worker her entire life. She was a waitress and cook at Dormey's Blue Water Inn, cooked at the Log Cabin, Bay Window and finally Walt's Restaurant. She also enjoyed her days stocking the vegetable and meat case at the I.G.A in Caseville.
