

32ND ANNUAL INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM

Comprehensive Approach to the Percutaneous Management of Structural Heart Disease and Coronary and Peripheral Vascular Disease

COURSE DIRECTOR

James R. Margolis, MD, FACC

Endorsed by the California and Colorado Chapters of the American College of Cardiology

The Westin Snowmass, Snowmass Village, Colorado March 5–10, 2017

NEW THIS YEAR!

Active interaction between faculty, attendees and industry leaders

The rapid development of interventional cardiology – both coronary and structural – has been a result of close collaboration between interventional cardiologists and industry. Without this collaboration we would still be in the 1980's. Over the years we have lost that intimacy with industry that had been so vital in the past.

In 2017, we are making a major effort to reconnect. The two Monday sessions are devoted to direct interaction with senior management from device companies large and small. I have asked CEO's from various companies to present their visions of the future and how they plan to meet future challenges. Although each speaker has been asked to speak on the same topics, I am expecting an eclectic collection of presentations as diverse as the companies from which the speakers come.

Monday's schedule has included a surfeit of discussion time. Audience interaction is strongly encouraged. The purpose of this exercise is to expose a large sampling of the top interventional cardiologists from 25+ countries to a diverse group of leaders of the medical device industry. We can all learn from each other. When we better understand the challenges these companies face – and when they better understand the problems we face and where we need help from industry – the processes of innovation and advancement will proceed more rapidly to everyone's mutual benefit.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this symposium, participants should be able to:

- > Explain state of the art of TAVR
- > Discuss an introduction to Transcatheter Mitral Valve Replacement
- > Compare and contrast present day management of mitral valve disease
- > Describe transcatheter treatment of other forms of structural heart disease
- > Analyze current controversies in interventional cardiology
- > Evaluate updates in the management of coronary artery disease
- > Gain an international perspective of the structural heart revolution

CME ACCREDITATION AND DESIGNATION

Promedica International CME is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Promedica International CME designates this live activity for a maximum of 25.5 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Provider approved by the California Board of Registered Nursing, Provider #8495 for 25.5 contact hours.

Category 1 CEUs have been applied for from the American Board of Cardiovascular Perfusion (ABCP). The credit breakdown will be posted online at www.promedicacme.com when available.

EUROPEAN ACCREDITATION

Due to a mutual recognition between the AMA and the UEMS, European participants may convert AMA Category 1 Credits.

ACTIVITY EVALUATION

Evaluation by online questionnaire will address content, presentation and future educational needs.

COMMERCIAL SUPPORT

This program is supported, in part, by educational grants and exhibits from industry, in accordance with the ACCME Standards for Commercial Support. At the time of printing, a complete list of commercial supporters was not available. Appropriate acknowledgement will be given to all supporters in meeting materials onsite.

"DEMONSTRATION" CASES

When Andreas Gruentzig started his live courses in 1978, he called them "Demonstration" courses. These carefully chosen words meant that the live cases were intended to show what could be done by an expert. They were not intended to necessarily teach how to do it. Our highly skilled faculty members have done some truly amazing structural cases. 1 have asked them to present some of these exotic cases to demonstrate what can be done by true experts. There should be no expectation that an average practitioner can do these cases without additional training.

HERE'S WHAT THEY'RE SAYING

Excellent organization, interesting and innovative international scientific program.

The quality of the speakers and material presented is at the highest level.

One of the best programs available in interventional cardiology!

Great international view of different approaches to disease management.

The faculty was exceptional...the enthusiasm contagious! Excellent content and a most thorough presentation and discussion of the important issues in interventional medicine.

This meeting is one of the best in the world for international networking and invasive cardiology!

Interesting and inspiring talks and very engaged discussions with top shots in a perfect environment.
