HOLIDAY EDITION!!!

This has been a really tough year for all of us. We needed to cut costs and adjust the budget to make up for the loss in revenue due to the pandemic. However that was not possible; in our industry that doesn't happen when you are dealing with animals in need. Especially when each day, another injured or sick animal is at the door of your shelter in desperate need of help. We can't turn our backs on them, they need us now more than ever.

Although it's been a hard year, we have done some really amazing things. We have rescued dogs and cats that we thought would never survive, wouldn't walk again, etc and watched them pull out of life threatening illness or injuries to be healthy and happy animals again. We've watched them learn to walk again, learn to love again and most importantly learn to trust again.

Some days we feel overwhelmed and worried but then we look into the eyes of the animals we have helped and all the worry goes away. Seeing these precious animals get a second chance to live their best life is the absolute best reward we can ask for in this job.

The rewards would not be possible without the love and support of our community and our donors. We could not help the countless number of animals without YOU!!!

With your donation today we can continue helping the animals in need. You can give them the chance they never had before entering our shelter. The chance to heal, receive medical treatment, shelter, food, LOVE and compassionate care. They can finally know and receive unconditional love, like they have always shown humans.

Please help us save more lives by donating today.

All of our fur kids here at the shelter have written their letters to Santa with a little help from their friends. They have been extra good this year. I thought you might enjoy reading some of their letters. Santa is extra challenged this year like the rest of us. If you would like to give him a hand, we know it would be appreciated.

Dear Santa,

Not sure about this Christmas business. Now they want us to write a letter, silly hoomans! Most of my peeps here want a new family but I have Mama Beth. She takes me for rides and gets me cheeseburgers. I would like a new bed, some Pupperoni, and Lambchop toys. Love me some Lambchop! Thanks, Santa

Big Daddy

Hi Santa, My name is Coco.

I want a family to call my own, one with kids and kids and kids, I LOVE KIDS! If not my own family, maybe a foster fam? It's tough to keep this happy girl image up here in the shelter. I mean, they are great to me but I want to play with KIDS! I understand if you can't. It's a lot to ask. Some stuffed animals, some blankets, and treats and treats and treats would be great. Did I mention treats?

Love, Coco

Hi Santa! I'm a happy pupper, Sammy's my name cuddling is my game! (and hugs and kisses!) My friends say I'm a ray of sunshine.

Can I have a family for Christmas? A family to love and play and call my own? And balls and ropes and squeaky toys to play with. And Pupperoni! Thanks! Love, Sammy

All us kitties would like water fountains, laser pointers, catnip, catnip, catnip, feathered toys, treats, balls, string toys, and treats!

Love, Julius

Dear Santa,

I'm Aria, I'm always thinking of others and well myself too. All of us cats would love new cat towers to play in and on. We love to sit up high and have cool hide outs for quiet time. Could you maybe bring us some cool comfy lounging towers with lots swings & hanging toys.

Love, Aria

I don't want my old family but it would be nice to have a new family that would feed me, love me, keep me warm and petted, and understand my challenges.

I know that's a lot. I'd sure love an ortho bed (my old bones hurt), some blankets to help stay warm, and meat treats, and more meat treats.

Hi, Santa, Baby Cakes here! Don't have time for all this. Life's tough, kids, you just have to pounce on it as best you can when your back paws don't work. Make the best of a bad thing. I need more help than I'd like to admit. I hear they have some really nice wheels, Santa, wink, wink.

Seriously, me and all the cats would love some Feathered toys, ball toys, toys with fluff or feathers, and string toys.

Thanks, Santa! Gotta jet!

PAWS is a 501(c)3 non-profit, no-kill animal shelter existing on the generosity of private donors.

We appreciate everyone that donated to our Thanksgiving Feast. The animals enjoyed their feast. We are forever grateful to all those that participated.

Here are some pictures of our animals at the shelter enjoying their Thanksgiving Feast.

As a non-profit, no-kill shelter, PAWS receives no tax dollars from any federal, state or local government, and no funding from any national animal organization. Because of this, financial contributions are always needed and appreciated in order to continue our mission. In addition to monetary gifts, there are many other ways you can help us take care of the animals in need. One such way is to purchase and donate items on our supplies wish list. Some items in particular are always in great demand at the shelter. Donated items can be left at the PAWS Thrift Store or PAWS Animal Shelter. Also see the animals holiday list on page 4

All pictures in this newsletter are of animals in our shelter.

MEET SWEETSY...

Meet Sweetsy aka Sweet Ginger. She desperately needed our help, and even though this year we've been hit so hard already with enormous medical bills, we could not turn a blind eye.

A trap, car or perhaps another animal had left her suffering with a very mangled leg. This poor girl was suffering and all on her own. No owner came to her rescue, but we did.

The injury was horrific and we had her rushed to Junaluska Emergency. We expected to be told that her leg could not be saved, but the fine doctors at Junaluska were able to save her leg.

She was in the hospital for a several days and now is continuing treatment with us at PAWS. She is in a foster home where her leg is monitored, treated and wrapped daily. The vet said it will take several weeks to heal because her leg had been totally de-gloved. She is getting stronger and healthier each day, thanks to YOU, our donors, who continue to support PAWS when we take in the injured, the abandoned, the abused, the neglected, the sick and the stray.

To be honest I'm not sure how P.A.W.S. can continue operating when medical expenses are so astronomical but we keep finding a way to help all the animals in need. We can't do this without your help.

Can you help us today by donating?

I know you probably get tired of seeing me begging for money, but we've had a few heartbreak cases since I've asked. We had a dog with multiple breaks, two senior HW+ dogs with multiple health issues, one of whom is also blind, 2 kittens with expensive health issues, a senior cat that required surgery, a dog with severe skin issues, a dog with cancer and now also this little nugget. So yeah, I'm asking now. I'm asking for them!!!

Can you help PAWS Bryson City by donating to help these innocent animals?

We didn't get to hold our annual Wine Tasting & Silent Auction which brings in approximately $25,000. The online auction was greatly supported but it didn't come close to what we normally bring in at our live event.

Between major veterinarian bills and expensive repairs to be done at the shelter I am worried about the health of PAWS. We can't let the animals down, we are their only hope. Please donate today if you can.

You can make a donation by mail at PAWS, PO Box 1814, Bryson City, NC 28713 or <http://pawsbrysoncity.org/donate.html>, you can also drop off a donation at PAWS Thrift Store at 110 Bryson Walk, Bryson City

Or you can even Venmo a donation if you so desire, our user name is PAWS-AnimalShelter.

Thank you for your continued support that enables us to help animals like Sweet Ginger aka Sweetsy.

It takes a village to help these animals.

Sadly we have to report that after a long battle and defying all odds, Little George succumbed to the injuries he had sustained from being abused before we rescued him. We are at peace knowing that Little George was able to walk and even run again. He had 5 great months with us before he passed. Five months of pure love and happiness. He lived those months in a home knowing love, companionship and safety, probably for the first time in his life.

Run free Little George, we will never forget you.

We have PAWS T-shirts and ball caps for sale. Buy yours at any of our events or at PAWS Thrift Store. They make great gifts, too!
