Vintage Market Rules & Conditions

Show Hours & Attendance: Show will open to the public at 10am on Saturday. Set up for dealers will begin at 9am. Admission to the public is free and LPAM makes no guarantee as to attendance. LPAM assumes responsibility for advertisement through publications & social media. The vintage market will be postponed to the following weekend in the event of inclement weather.

Set Up: You may begin setting up your space at 9am. We will have complimentary coffee for dealers setting up. Please bring your own tables and chairs for your space. All booth spaces will be marked off for you and we ask that you stay in your designated 8 x 8 space. Some assistance may be available to you by mall vendors if needed.

Vintage Market Vendor Parking: Once you have unloaded, please move your vehicle to a spot further down the block to allow for your customers easy access for parking and shopping.

Booth Spaces: Please be (or have another person) in your booth at all times. LPAM is not responsible for stolen/misplaced items you have for sale. No smoking is allowed in or around your booth throughout the event. Please be mindful of the dealers next to you and the public and refrain from obscenities or foul language.

Cancellations & Refunds: In the event of a Dealer cancellations, monies will be refunded ONLY if the booth can be reassigned.

Tear Down: No tear downs before 5pm. Each Dealer is responsible for cleaning up their area. In the event of rain during the event, tear down may be necessary.

Advertising/Flyers: LPAM will be providing advertising to the public. Print media as well as social media and flyers will be utilized. Please feel free to promote your quality items for sale via social media as well. The more exposure, the better !!

Failure to comply with these rules means a loss of Dealer's booth and non-refundable loss of the fees incurred to exhibit at the LPAM Vintage Market. Dealers will not be invited to future LPAM events.

If you are unable to attend, please pass this invitation along to a quality dealer whom you would personally recommend.
