2. The Student

2.4) Please provide any additional comments you would like to convey to the instructor about YOUR performance in this class.

- I felt like my performance was strong; I remained engaged throughout lectures. I previously had no interest in IR but after this course am curious about the different perspectives.

3. The Professor

3.8) Please provide any additional comments you would like to convey about the professor's teaching:

- Prof. Scauso was incredibly engaged, upbeat, and thorough in his lectures. I always felt concepts were explained very well. Prof. Scauso did his absolute best to keep the course fun while preserving academic rigor, despite being taught in both online and hybrid modalities due to the pandemic.

4. Class Materials

4.3) Please provide any additional comments you would like to convey relevant to class materials:

- The textbook was easily accessible, affordable, and highly applicable to the course. The assigned readings weren't too dense in my opinion, yet still informative.

5. The Course Overall

5.3) Please discuss any and all strengths and weaknesses related to this course:

- Cant put into words how great of a teacher and guy professor Scauso is, thanks for the great year sir. You are an argentinian legend. Marcos > Messi
- I really enjoyed this course and Prof. Scauso's teaching style. It is clear he is passionate about his work and his students. I don't think I've come across a better professor in the department. I would sincerely recommend his courses to my peers, and hope the University allows him to expand his teaching into more upper level coursework. His insight into issues concerning indigeneity and colonization provides an alternative perspective to what is typically discussed in political science courses. 10/10
- The only weakness I would say was some mistranslation between lectures and the presentation being shown. Sometimes the power point did not seem relevant to the lecture and vise versa.
