

January 2, 2022 The Epiphany of the Lord

Dear Parishioners,

Although we are beginning the New Year worried because of increased Covid infections, it is my hope, wish and prayer that the mighty God will share His power with us and help us to overcome the threat to our well being this year. Let's pray for that and do what is necessary to care for each other in those areas where life is most vulnerable.

Thank you for your ongoing prayerful and financial support throughout the past year. Thanks to your generosity, we haven't gotten in the red in spite of decreased participation at Sunday Masses. I am grateful for that.

Thank you for your many kind words, gifts and signs of your friendship and affection expressed to me personally, to Deacon Dodge and the staff at Saint Olaf on the occasion of Christmas. We deeply appreciate you and offer our prayers, thanking God for you and asking for your well being.

Through the intercession of Mary, Mother of God, may peace which Jesus brought to people of good will, dwell in our hearts.

Blessed and Happy New Year
