Prayer is Breaking the Evil Hold Over our Nation

April 1, 2017

May the joyous sounds of victory resound in our tents!

Well, I have some wonderful news, Heartdwellers. I believe justice is coming to America. The power of the Elite is being subdued and overcome by our prayers and sufferings.

And this is how it happened. The temptation to listen to one of the videos next to mine was just too much...partly because the headline was too good to be believed. I tried to discern Jesus' permission, but couldn't. This often happens to me when I really want something. I'm so attached that I don't trust my discernment. I just freeze up and can't trust the voice that I hear. This time I decided to listen. And I am glad I did, because the Lord confirmed it later.

This is what He said, "I wanted you to see that your prayers are indeed bringing about change. Normally, I would not want that, because after you see it your mind continues in its presence and it is a dirty place."

And I want to say, that's absolutely true. After I had read these lines...or, listened to the videos, as good as the news was - it kept playing in my head. And that is an ugly place to be, compared to being in the presence of the Lord or in Heaven. So, I understand what He is saying here. It's totally clear. He doesn't want us to see it, because our mind continues mulling it over.

Jesus continued, "Yet there comes a time to see what change has been wrought by prayer. Most of the time, I do not want this for you. But in this case, it was edifying. Just don't get addicted to the latest wall falling, because MANY walls are falling. Many heads are rolling. Many. And the swamp is getting drained, there is still ugliness beneath the mud. But in due season, all will be exposed."

So, I saw a bit of news from MyLordandMyGod next to my videos (that's the source of this) and this is someone that I've run across before that I just have a sense about, that I trust. She gives the source on everything that she publishes. And I was absolutely blown away by what is coming to the surface, and what the Justice department is doing.

I do not claim to be discerning when it comes to the news sources, so forgive me if I make mistakes. Some of you out there are more expert at this kind of thing, knowing what the sources are. But my sense in the spirit was that she's a reliable source.

One of the things I find is that many people out there are constantly stirring up emotions and keeping the sheep restless. Some have very attractive charisms and personalities and they draw along a very large crowd, but I've seen how they make a big deal about a piece of news and nothing happens with it, it was just a flash. It excited the public and drew listeners, that's all. I have no patience with that and I don't go back. But this particular woman, when I am allowed to look and see, has a ring of truth and balance about her.

The items that were of most interest to me was that George Soros, the notorious one-world elite who incites riots to destroy governments, is likely to be stripped of his American citizenship and his assets seized, because he has openly committed treason against the United States.

Obama has been caught stealing millions of dollars from the treasury and tucking it away in obscure banks under his birth name Barry Soetoro.

Hillary and Bill are under investigation by the Justice Department and are going to be charged with treason for their involvement in terrorist organizations.

The Russia/Trump accusation continues to find no evidence. While Obama, it has been proven, has committed a serious Federal crime by wire-tapping Trump and his staff before the election.

So, that's just a few of the things. Some of these things we've known about, or we've had inklings of, but nothing would come of it. It would just come and go. It was like it was just swept under the carpet. But what's so exciting to me - the Justice Department finally moving and indicting people. That's what's so wonderful. What a change! Instead of sweeping it under the rug, they're pulling it out for examination, along with potential jail sentences. And that's just wonderful! It's about time.

If you remember, I did a little illustration about Obama's head coming off.

Even as the Lord told us, heads are rolling, Obama's head is coming off. The Lord has told us that he is the antiChrist and is being held back from assuming his role by the power of the Holy Spirit working through the Church with her prayers. This is another argument for the pre-Trib Rapture, for as Scripture says:

II Thess. 2:8: For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work;

Boy, that's for sure. Obama has born the rotten fruit that would be expected of Anti-Christ during his terms in office.

Scripture continues, "...only He who now restrains will do so until He is taken out of the way. And then the Lawless One will be revealed, whom the Lord will consume with the breath of His mouth and destroy with the brightness of His coming."

I know there's a lot of different interpretations of these Scriptures, but the sense that I get from them is that, I believe Holy Spirit will release the restraint on Obama. But Holy Spirit will remain on Earth, when the Church is Raptured. But until then, He is using her mightily to restrain this beast until the appointed time by her prayers and sacrifices.

What Holy Spirit is doing with our fasts, offerings and prayers is nothing less than tying his hands. But when we are removed, I believe he will come into his full power, and the global government will have nothing standing in its way and will consume the whole Earth's population for seven years.

Now is the critical time, dear ones. Now is the time we must persevere until justice is done. We've done a lot with our prayer and fasting, but we can't let go of it yet. Not yet. We need to press in until justice is done and these evil people are totally exposed to the American public. Until then, we have a fight on our hands to stand behind the Lord's agenda of establishing righteousness in America with prayer and fasting.

And as I spoke with my daughter about these things - she has a Master's degree and has been steeped in the University environment. She formerly would have nothing good to say about Trump and defended Obama. Well, I told that Soros was finally being brought to justice, along with Obama, and sent her the links. She wrote back: "I really wish that he would drain the swamp. Washington is a cesspool." Wow! So, she was referring to Trump there. "I wish he really would drain the swamp!" That's beautiful! She finally has something positive to say about the man. She was really denying the whole ruling Elite, and saying Trump was a part of it...And, you know. It was that liberal mentality - she was really into that. But she's beginning to see the light.

And this is exactly what the Lord told us. And He said three months after President Trump assumed office there would be some breakthroughs, but the first three months would be the hardest. And it looks like that is coming to pass. 'Cause here we are in April and these first three months have been, oh my goodness...tremendous fights trying to keep him in Office and educate the public.

So, I couldn't believe my eyes, that she actually got it. When I read that email, I couldn't believe it. The ruling Elite and their agenda, that she's dismissed for years, but now her eyes are opening! Our prayers are working, guys! This is so wonderful! Let's keep this up and join our prayers to the millions around the world that want to see justice carried out in America!

The Lord began to speak, and He said, "Clare, you are right in your perceptions about this whole situation and your thoughts are also My thoughts. My people, you have done valiantly. Continue on until this thing is brought to conclusion. Until then, I have many surprises for those of you who took My hand and are still climbing that mountain with Me.

"I have given Clare a song that says it all." He smiled and looked at me. "And you are going to finish that song today, My Love... aren't you?"

Yes, Lord. You are with me and with Your grace I will.

Pray for me, dear ones. The opposition to expressing what the Lord wants done in song has been very tough, to the point where I just couldn't connect, let alone flow. But He has delivered me and stationed angels to protect me and all of that's changed. So, I'm going off to the studio now to work on that song, and hopefully I'll have that out by tonight.

The Lord bless you all.

We Are Flying Over the Rainbow - ROUGH DRAFT - prophetic song

April 2, 2017

Well, my dear friends and Heartdwellers, the Lord asked me to get this song up last night, which was impossible. I've got a rough draft for you and I want to put it up as a rough draft, because I don't know how long it's gonna take me to get my voice back. But I want to put it up, because I know there's some of you who really need to hear the message right now, and I don't want to withhold it from you, just because my voice isn't perfect.

So, I'm gonna go ahead and put it up, but I will be turning out a better version, hopefully today. It really depends on my vocal chords. So, the Lord bless you all and enjoy. I really feel this is an important message for us right now, amidst all the turmoil and things that are going on in our nation. It's a real affirmation of what the Lord wants us to be doing.

We are flying over the rainbow,
We are flying over the rainbow,
We are flying over the rainbow,
Living the dreams of our lives.

We've been given a brand new anointing,
We've been given a brand new anointing,
We've been given a fresh new anointing,
Joy for this season of life.

We are strengthened with angels around us,
We are strengthened with angels around us,
We are strengthened with angels around us,
For victory over this life.

We are flying over the rainbow,
Come fly with us over the rainbow,
He is lifting us higher and higher,
Living the dreams of our lives.
Living the dreams of our lives.
Living the dreams of our lives.

We are flying over the rainbow,
He is lifting us higher and higher,
Under His wings, living the dreams,
Dreams do come true in this life.
Dreams do come true in this life.

Are We Wasting Precious Time? How to Protect Your Time

April 2, 2017

May the peace of Jesus keep your hearts and minds, dear ones. He is leading us in the way of awareness of every moment of the day, because there is a constant campaign to steal time from what is most important in our lives.

Well, in addition to how He's leading us with time, which is really the most part of this message, I also was feeling a little discouraged because of my voice. One of the things I've found is I need caffeine to keep me going, but caffeine dries out my vocal chords. So...it's a push-pull situation and I don't really have an easy answer to it. So, trying to devise something that wouldn't mess my vocal chords up and still keep me going was...let's say, a challenge?

And the Lord caught me at that moment, when I was kind of almost on the edge of self-pity, feeling sorry for myself because of this problem.

Jesus began, "You CAN do this. Your voice is just a little rusty, you know what to do to improve it. Get busy. Oh, My Love, do not become discouraged. You don't realize how vulnerable and easy to relate to you are. The Heartdwellers on this channel listen here because your life is not based on the world, but on the reality of Me in your life. You haven't even begun to scratch the surface of how much you can do with Me empowering you.

"This is not an idle remark, Clare. Don't hurt Me, please. It is the truth."

I was thinking that stupid thought when He said that...

He continued, "Are you going to give up before you even get going? I have anointed you to sing and arrange and play. I have. So even when you put something up as flawed as it sounds to you, there are souls who have gotten encouragement from that song.

"What is more important to you? That's why you put it up before it was finished. That was My idea, too - not just yours. And it hit the mark for certain souls. But they will see how your voice improves and they will be encouraged. That is My plan. Courage, encourage, getting people on their feet in My anointing - that's what is important to Me. And that's where we are headed. Don't give up before you even get up and going. Please. Please, take My words to heart.

"Not everyone is making every minute count. And that is what I wanted to discuss with you. I have been working with My Body, all over the world, to make them aware of how they are wasting precious time. With you it is even more critical. But in all reality, because of the shortness of time, it is critical for everyone.

"Satan never gives up, he is burning with hatred and he never rests; rather, he prowls like a lion looking for the weakest link in order to destroy what is good.

"The weakest link right now is how people are spending their time without realizing how precious it is. Some of you, My Brides, have wasted much of your lives on yourself and frivolous things that will not stand the test of fire with which I will test all works. Most things that are done, not of necessity, are vain and worthless. And you know what I am talking about. My people, keep a close eye on yourselves. I am with you and My Spirit is speaking to your hearts when you begin to do worthless things.

"Before you undertake something ask, 'Is this pleasing to You, Lord?' Do not let a minute go by unnoticed. It is the little foxes that spoil the vine. Song of Songs 2:15 There is much to do in a day. Reassess what is important and what is not. Enlist help from others. Your time is holy, there are plenty of people who do odd jobs and chores, who need money for their families and giving them work is an act of charity.

"When you spend time in front of the mirror, please - make it brief. If you must shop, make it brief. Don't get side tracked and waste a day going from store to store."

Personally, I use Amazon or a helper to do the necessary shopping, because I hate to waste time that way. And I can get side-tracked SO easily.

"Many of you complain," the Lord continued, "that you do not have time. But I am with you and I'm telling you, you have the time, but you waste without knowing what you are doing. Satan is very clever and skilled in getting you tangled up in time wasting issues and projects.

"You who are launching out in new endeavors, be protective of your time, because the enemy will try to fragment you with phone calls, visits, curiosity...which is one of the BIGGEST cracks in your vessels for losing grace.

"The other is judgment, because you will surely be taken down if you are passing judgment on your brother or sister. So, avoid conversations that become negative, even if they are true; it is better not to get involved. You can begin to react and lose that special peace I give you before a creative endeavor."

Boy, that's for sure. That's happened to me a lot! And I am aware of that and so is Ezekiel. And we try to protect one another's time when we are in a special place with the Lord. We really try to protect that and not do anything to spoil it, or let something come into the environment that will spoil it.

The Lord continued, "I'm not just speaking to musicians. I am speaking to you all, My beautiful people. Creativity you never knew you had is lying just below the surface. Many times, in order to get to it, you have to be in a high state of peace to recognize and utilize it. Whether you have an office job, or you are a creative writer, the enemy will try to upset you before you set to work so you lose valuable energy on negative reactions and judging others. Whether they be guilty or not, is not the issue; the issue is to throw you off and steal your anointing. Guard it with your lives, dear ones. The anointing is precious and not to be wasted."

Yes, Lord, I know that. It is so delicate and the enemy is so clever about arranging distractions and stealing that from me. Oh, please help me to avoid those snares, Lord.

He asked me, "Are you listening to your guardian angel? That's one of his jobs."

Yes, I recognize that now. And Your sweet Holy Spirit.

"Yes, He can and does warn you, Clare. But many times you are not listening VERY CAREFULLY. You are getting better at that, though."

"I am with you all continuously, guiding and speaking to you. I have angels to protect, advise and help you with talents, even. They are very solicitous for your welfare and how you spend your time."

"In Heaven, there is NO WASTE, none whatsoever. What you would refer to as 'time' is not operating in the same way. Without you being here, it is difficult to understand, but all are aware of what they are doing constantly, and how they are applying their freedoms."

"I have given you all tremendous freedom of choice. It can be used or abused. And this is one of the areas of everyone's life that can always be tightened up and revised. That is why I am bringing this up. In Heaven, there is no adversary, so you do not fall into traps. But here on Earth, time traps are everywhere. This is the enemy's favorite way to derail your life. There are times when you must be very firm with others. You will offend them, even if you speak to them gently, because what is important to them is not always what is important to Me."

Yes, I was musing on that today, actually. My former daughter-in-law showed up here one day, in a fury and upset, because my son canceled his plans to watch his daughter, as he had taken on another job. I totally understood her dilemma, but I had to remain faithful to the Lord. When something comes at you out of the blue, be suspicious. Most likely, it is shot from the enemy to knock you down.

I was on the absolute edge of a breakthrough with ministry and her timing couldn't have been worse. I hadn't seen her for two years and here she is, wanting me to watch my granddaughter, full-time, while she works. You know, in this situation I called her several times, but she didn't answer.

She was indignant when I told her I couldn't. Of course the demons were hammering me, "What kind of grandmother are you?? Look what other grandmother's do." (Yes, here in New Mexico, they are sacrificing their retirement years to parent their children's children.) "And you do nothing." They were shooting me full of arrows of condemnation but I knew, even though it was painful, I knew they were from the enemy. Thank the Lord for the Bible Promises. I opened to "Jealousy and disorder," which is what Ezekiel and I were both thinking.

She was very upset with me as I was reasoning to myself, 'You wouldn't dream of asking the other grandmother to quit her job to watch her; what makes me any different?' But I didn't say that. I told her I would arrange childcare for her and help with the cost. She left angry and never answered the phone when I called her back with arrangements to help. Plainly this was a shot from the enemy to sidetrack and intercept the anointing to go forward with ministry.

I understand the panic she was in, but I had to choose God over family. This will happen to you time and time again Heartdwellers. The enemy hates that you dedicate your time to God and will do everything in his power to cause you condemnation and false guilt.

On the other hand, if the Lord confirms that He wants you to do that, your time will be spent in obedience and He will turn that into golden graces.

The Lord continued, "My precious ones, I am here by your side, never abandoning you to the will of your enemies. And I will direct you in the way you should go. Even as it is written in the Scripture, 'The man's heart devises his own way, But the LORD directs his steps.' Proverbs 16

"But for now, I am drawing your attention to the little foxes that ruin the vine when you spend too much time on useless things. Please listen for that still small voice I whisper in your ear when you are wasting time. Please guard your time with your life and be prepared to fight for it when the enemy tries to steal it.

"I am with you and you will be victorious all the way to the mountain top, if you will only listen very carefully and obey.

"I love you, precious ones, and I know this instruction will bring forth sweet fruit in your lives. For you I have many wonderful things planned. Press in!"

All Creation Worships Me

April 5th, 2017

This is a continuation of yesterday's message, Deeper Intimacy with God. But here the Lord is talking about His relationship with Creation. Very, very beautiful. Very beautiful message.

And then He started bringing up some Scriptures:

"Is it not written: The heavens declare the glory of God; the skies proclaim the work of his hands. Psalm 19:1

"And how do they declare the glory of God? They worship Me. Have you not heard the stars singing to Me? Now science is beginning to understand there is a sound vibration connected to all creatures and within that vibration they are worshipping Me."

But ask the animals, and they will teach you, or the birds in the sky, and they will tell you; or speak to the earth, and it will teach you, or let the fish in the sea inform you.

Which of all these does not know that the hand of the LORD has done this? In his hand is the life of every creature and the breath of all mankind.

Job 12:7-10

Let the heavens rejoice, let the earth be glad; let the sea resound, and all that is in it. Let the fields be jubilant, and everything in them; let all the trees of the forest sing for joy. Psalm 96:11-12

'Let the Heavens rejoice.' Rejoicing is not a passive thing, like stars just floating in space, twinkling. Doing nothing but reflecting light. Rejoicing is an expression of worship coming from the stars He created. The Lord is present in all Creation and it makes perfect sense that the life-force flowing through them, holding them in the created universe, would worship God. Rejoicing at their very being.

Jesus continued, "'Let the Earth be glad.' How can the Earth be glad if it has no soul and no emotion? 'Let the sea resound and all that's in it.' How can the sea do this if it has no soul, and has no ability to worship Me? 'Let the fields be jubilant and everything in them. Let all the trees of the forest sing for joy.' How can this happen if there is no soul? If there is not worship coming forth from them?"

That's written in Genesis 9:1, by the way. Also, in Genesis 9:12. And God said, This is the sign of the covenant I am making between Me and you and every living creature with you. A covenant for all generations.

"Obviously, you cannot make a covenant with an inanimate object. The fact is, when you come to be with Me in Heaven you will see the souls of the Earth, the souls of the flowers, the fish, the birds, the trees. You will see how they worship Me."

The wild animals honor me, the jackals and the owls, because I provide water in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland, to give drink to my people, my chosen, wild animals honor Me. Isaiah 43:20

"All creatures rejoice in My goodness and love for them. And at the end of their lives, they come to Heaven to live with Me forever in a creation that never decays, and is in a constant state of worship. They also mourn and pine away for My coming, because they have their own way of understanding the devastating blow that's given to them through Satan's cruel hatred, as he lashes out at Me by destroying the live I created."

And here, I'd like to draw our attention to the Scriptures that confirm what the Lord is saying, for the sake of those who might think that this is a novel teaching, not from Jesus. All things are made for God and sustained in and by God. So there is nothing usual about all Creation worshipping Him.

Even as it's written here in Isaiah 49:13
Shout for joy, O heavens! And rejoice, O earth! Break forth into joyful shouting, O mountains! For the LORD has comforted His people, And will have compassion on His afflicted.

And Psalm 96:11 Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice; And let them say among the nations, "The LORD reigns.

So here He's exhorting the Heavens and the Earth to rejoice and to say among the nations, the Lord reigns!

In John 1:1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. ...3All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

And later on it talks again about the Word in Hebrews 1:3
The Son is the radiance of God's glory and the exact representation of His nature, upholding all things by His powerful word.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. All things were made by him.

And Colossians 1:16

In Him all things were created, things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities. All things were created through Him and for Him.

So this alludes to the fact that the Lord wants to fellowship with Creation. Why would He make something that He could not fellowship with? That doesn't make any sense. There's a continual interaction going back and forth in the way of worship. Worship, and I am sure, complaints! Complaints about what Satan is doing to the Earth through man.

Proverbs 16:4 The LORD has made all things for himself.

1 Corinthians 8:6 And there is but one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom all things came and through whom we exist.

And that again points to the fact that we exist, this by the continuing act of His will and His word - His living word. We continue to exist in Him and through Him. And that means Creation exists through Him as well. So, it makes total sense that the Creation would worship Him.

Ephesians 4:4-6 There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to one hope when you were called; one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.

Those aren't idle words, guys. The Lord does exist through His Creation. We don't worship His creation, we worship Him. But His Creation is a brother or a sister to us, because we're also created. Although we supposedly have a higher mentality, the ability to think, Creation conforms itself to Him much better than we do. But Creation can also be made to rebel against God through the influence of Satan.

And finally in Hebrews 1:3 The Son is the radiance of God's glory and the exact representation of His nature, upholding all things by his powerful word.

"All things" means all things. It means us and all of Creation are continually being upheld by His word, His continuing word. And if He revoked His word, we would all be destroyed instantly.

So, again it makes complete sense that Creation would reflect back to God the glory and awesomeness of His nature, in worship of Him. And it is confirmed here in the Scriptures.

So, we have several witnesses here. We have Isaiah, the prophet Isaiah witnessing to it. David, in Psalms. John the Apostle and Paul in Colossians, the Corinthians, Ephesians and Hebrews.

So, through all these witnesses we can rest assured that God created Creation and that He does have a relationship with Creation, whereby His creatures worship Him. Just because we can't understand it, and we can't translate it. We don't know it - doesn't mean it doesn't exist. The Scriptures say it DOES exist. So, we can rest, because it's in the Scriptures. For anyone who has questions, I hope this clarifies it for you. I hope it clears it up. I know I certainly did when I was told these things. We are all in this together.

Thank you, Lord, for Your word.

Here again I'm quoting from Scripture:

We know that the whole creation has been groaning together in the pains of childbirth until the present time. Not only so, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for our adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies.

Romans 8:22-23

Here, He's talking about the Rapture. And that all Creation is groaning in anticipation of My coming.

He continued, "So you see, it is written, yet men think they have Me figured out and the life force of Creation has no understanding. How far from the truth this is! I created all with a choice to worship or despise Me, even as they choose to love or reject a man. When Creation receives man, or woman, or a child - it responds in love. Though you cannot normally perceive this consciousness, it still exists.

"When an animal rejects a human, it is showing its attitude towards that person. This is a free will choice on the part of the animal, not only a result of their conditioning and history with a human. They can come from a very loving family, but not like someone when they walk in the door. You have seen this response in dogs.

"There is so much that is not known about the nature of My relationship with Creation. That includes you, My dear. I do need your affection and your worship, so please return to Me now."

So, at that point, I came back to prayer. And it was still somewhat sweet, but something really had been lost. There was a deeper communion going on before I got up, got sidetracked by the refrigerator. When I tell you that He couldn't find a worse example than myself, you can see by these examples He's speaking the truth. That's not just a figure of speech.

So, the Lord bless you, dear ones. And don't be foolish like I was! Stay close to Him. When that time is really sweet, don't let anything pull you out of it. If you have to use the restroom or do something, do it quickly, and come right back. Be aware that the minute you get up, Satan is going to try and sidetrack you and prevent you from coming back and staying in that sweet place.

So, let us be wise as servants and gentle as doves. God bless you.

When Is The Rapture? Signs Are Everywhere??

April 7, 2017

May we not lean on our own understanding, Heartdwellers, but trust the Lord and follow His instructions to us.

I am praying this prayer, because it seems like every time I turn around there's another urgent Rapture warning. They have been so frequent it has made me feel unsettled. I do not go looking for these, they end up in my inbox from various sources.

So, after hours of worship, I asked the Lord.

Lord, I am troubled about these Rapture warnings. You are not addressing that with Me or with the Heartdwellers. Am I missing something?

Jesus began, "How many years have you heard that the Rapture would be next month or six months from now? How many years?"

Uhh.... At least two and a half.

"That's correct. And has it happened yet?"

Not that I know of.

"That, too, is correct. Clare, My precious one, it takes a very long time to bring about change in a soul. Look at yourself, for example. How many years ago did you first understand that the Rapture was coming and you were not prepared?"

Ummm...I'm not sure. Seven?

"Nine."

Oh.

"For nine years I have been preparing you and you still have a ways to go. It is My Mercy that is holding the Rapture back while moving on the hearts of men to understand that they are not ready and they need to be NOW."

As He was speaking, this Scripture came to mind, The Lord is not slow to fulfill His promise as some understand slowness, but is patient with you, not wanting anyone to perish, but everyone to come to repentance. 2 Peter 3:9

"I'm not saying you won't be taken." Jesus continued. "That's your decision. You know what would disqualify you. As long as you hold to the right way, you are safe to assume you will be taken."

"If you are deliberately in disobedience and rebellion and turn from the right way to follow your own will, you will be left behind."

"Right now it is looking good for you, but guard your ways, My Bride; the enemy is clever and has his sights on you. And not just you, but all ministers. The sheep follow the shepherd and if the enemy can mislead you, the flock will follow. This is why ministers and their children are big targets."

"However, you are loving Me and wanting to love Me more by your actions and will, and this is the safest place for you and the flock to be."

"But to answer your question directly, it takes a long time to turn a man's will from the world to Me. And if they heed the warnings now, they may indeed be ready. That is why these warnings are still being sent out. And as we discussed, have been in your life, shaping your behavior for nine years."

"My people, if you are living for yourself, you are at high risk of being left behind. If you are living for Me and obedient to My known will, you are safe and will be taken. It's just that simple. Examine your hearts and your life for fruit. Examine your motives. Get to the bottom of why you do what you do. If it is done out of any other motive than love for Me and your brother, you are at risk and need to abandon those ways.

"Well, Clare, tonight you asked about something to add humidity to the air to help your voice and I told you 'no.' In fact, because you have stubbornly latched onto this idea, I gave you Pride. (A reading from the Bible Promise Book) Whenever you get it in your head that you need something and I tell you 'no,' if you yield as you did tonight when you prayed to Me before hand, 'Lord, please help me to accept your will graciously and with trust that You know what is best.' When you do that, your heart is on the right track.

"But when you resist and insist, you are strongly set in self-will, Pride and your own understanding, which is SO limited, it is laughable. So, always accept My answer, My will with gracious acquiescence that I know what is best. And to have what I do not want you to have is not only unnecessary, but leads you deeper into pride and self-will. That is the wrong direction. That is the 'left behind' direction. So, continue to climb the ladder of self-denial, self-forgetfulness and brotherly love, and you will be ready."

Lord, could I check out what Kim Clement said about Trump's term in office?

"No. I want you to trust what I have told you and not seek confirmations from others."

But Lord, You said out of the mouths of two or three....

"You are a clever one. If you check him out, you will seek others and that will lead to confusion. I have marked out a child-like path for you. If you stay focused on that, all will go well and you will not be a hypocrite, telling others not to check things out while you do.

"When I ask you not to, it's because it isn't healthy for you. Not one prophet has it all totally right. Some are close; others far away from truth. Yet I have marked out a safe path for you, that if you follow it in childlike faith, you and your flock will arrive safely at your destination.

"I am avoiding spiritual indigestion. Building a useful life while fighting the enemy does not need to be compromised by radical swings from right to left and left to right, by conflicting reports from conflicting prophets. ...a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways. James 1:8

"I have mapped out the safe way. Stay on this path and you will have much more energy for creating and much less confusion and opportunity for the demons to sift you, because you disobeyed and got curious."

And here what came to mind was the Scripture, "Truly I tell you", He said, "unless you change and become like little children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. Matthew 18:3

Jesus continued, "A baby on a journey with her parents doesn't continually ask questions about where they are going and when they will get there. She sits in the car and enjoys the ride and the scenery. She doesn't worry because she is in the safe-keeping of her parents.

"This is the heart attitude you must have. Trust and refuse to worry or be swayed by conflicting reports. I explained to you why I am sending out these urgent warnings. Trust Me, My Love. Trust Me with all your heart and never lean on your own understanding. Acknowledge My wisdom and guidance in all you do, and you will easily, simply, without stress, follow the path I have mapped out for you."

And that comes from Proverbs 3:5

I have made your paths straight. Look neither to the right nor the left, but continue on the narrow way of My choosing and My wisdom. Matthew 7:13

"Be secure in this, My dear one, be secure. It is the sure way to prepare you for the Rapture and bring forth much wonderful fruit at the same time.

"I believe in you Clare. Believe in Me, too.

"Come here, let Me cradle you in My arms. You are so precious to Me. I will never, ever mislead you. Ever. If there is something you need to know, I will tell you. If I do not bring it up, it is not relevant in your life. Be at Peace. Be at Peace."

And that was the end of His message. Just before He gave me this message, I had gotten two rhemas, and I wasn't sure what they meant. But they definitely apply to this situation.

"A soul who trusts in the Lord and places all its hope in Him has nothing to fear. The enemy of our salvation is always around to snatch from our hearts the anchor that is to lead us to salvation, by which I mean, trust in God our Father. Let us keep a firm hold on this anchor and not relinquish it for a single moment."

I don't know about you, guys, but I hate having fear looming over my shoulder, and that's what all these mixed messages cause in me. Here's the other Rhema. Another good one for repentance.

"Sorrow born of self-love is full of anxiety and bitterness. Far from healing our soul's wounds, it serves only to pour poison over them. But sorrow springing from love of God is serene and full of abandonment to His perfect will."

And I just want to add here, dear ones, I would prefer that, on our channel, you don't leave links to other videos about the Rapture happening this time or the Rapture happening that time, or this dream or that dream. Because it only causes contradiction and confusion. We're trying to lead everyone in a peaceful path. This is what the Lord marked out for us. Not the path of constant anxiety and curiosity. And you have free will, so you can do whatever you choose to do with your time. But for me, I'm tired of it. I'm going to stick to what the Lord has told us. Apply myself to my gifts, so that I have something to share with you. Without all these distractions!

And I would ask my prayer warriors to please consider this message very seriously. And please don't send things to my inbox that are full of excitement about the next Rapture dream or the Rapture vision, or such and such happening here, or such and such is happening there. It's just...it just causes anxiety. And I'm weak. I don't have a lot of self-control. So, if I see something like that, my curiosity will get the better part of me and I'll end up wasting time.

And you know, if I get on the internet to look up one thing, in the margins there's all these other things that support that one thing. And I end up going on a wild juice...lol. I end up going on a wild 'juice' chase. I end up going on a wild goose chase.

So please, dear ones. Don't post those things in my inbox. Please do not post them on our channel. Let's pay attention to what the Lord is saying and really dedicate ourselves to prayer and our apostolate, the thing that He's given us to do.

The Lord bless you, Heartdwellers. And I want to thank those of you who have been supporting us. It really helps tremendously. It makes everything work smoothly. As a result of that, I was able to help 8 different people with uh, very poor families. It's Cold here in the mountains. We were able to get wood for them, and we're able to get images of the Lord printed up that we can share with you and send out.

So, thank you so much for helping and supporting. This is our whole means of income. We really appreciate it, and all we want to do is grow and expand and do more for each of you. So, it's greatly appreciated.

The Lord bless you all. Please, let's take this message to heart. Please?

What Would You Do if You Knew You Would Not Fail?

April 10, 2017

May the hope of Jesus fill you with Joy and Enthusiasm for the life you have yet to live.

God bless you, Heartdwellers.

Well, the Lord has been very consistent. He continues to look over the rainbow. And my voice is getting better, so soon I'm going to re-record that. But I had some beautiful, precious dwelling prayer time with Him. And I told the Lord, 'I love to listen to You, Lord and speak with You. I just wish I could bury myself in Your heart for hours and drink from the fountains of Your love.'

Jesus answered me, "And I feel the same way about you. Can you believe it?"

Based on everything you've told me so far, I can accept it intellectually, and somewhat emotionally, but you know I look so far down at myself...it's hard to believe You truly feel this way about me.

He continued, "That's only because you cannot see the beauty I see and you cannot fathom My Love. No one can. It longs to express itself and lavish itself on any one who will receive it and even those who won't - which for Me is the saddest thing."

I answered, 'Like the Satanists that listen in on our channel?'

"Yes, My love. I hurt deeply for them. They have fallen into the traps of Satan and have no idea of what's waiting for them at death.

"If only they would look at the character of the one they follow and see how dishonest he is and how he loves to deceive people. Lying demons, etc. They should know from that, that his plans for them in Hell are nothing like what he's promised them. Because he's always up to no good.

"But they don't want to look. Vengeance and hatred have overcome common sense, so they won't look. But some have turned back listening to this Channel. Some have gotten it and repented, and for them I am jubilant. Not only that, but I have much good work for them to do. You see, they for the most part are spiritual people and once they repent - well, I have so much for them to do."

You know, guys - just as an aside. I was in the New Age - I guess, twelve years. I wanted to help people. That's why I would cast astrology charts and do the I Ching and do Tarot card readings. I wanted to help people. That was my heart's desire. And I was very interested in the spiritual world. The thing that turned me off to Christianity is, everybody seemed so square and weren't aware of the spiritual world. How wrong I was! I was just with the wrong Christians.

Anyway, the Lord continued here. And of course, when the Lord finally apprehended me, I was thrilled. Absolutely thrilled! I had no problems leaving all that behind.

Jesus continued, "It truly has gotten to the point where they are careful who they send to monitor this channel, because there is a chance they will convert when they find out they are loved."

I love that!!

"Loved in a way that no one ever loved before. This of course makes the enemy furious."

Oh well....

"But you are right, that's not the topic I had in mind. I just love speaking with you, Clare."

Jesus, what is on Your heart tonight?

"That if all goes well, we will soon be out of the danger zone. The media is trying to paint a picture of doom and gloom, but some people are actually waking up and seeing for themselves that there is a man in the White House, a real man. Someone willing to take responsibility and act appropriately. Not just a PR job, which is what has robbed this nation of her integrity and reputation. But a man who has caught an understanding of what this nation is all about. He is a visionary in the true sense of the word."

And I looked up visionary, even though I kinda knew what it meant: a person thinking about or planning the future with imagination or wisdom. "A visionary leader." synonyms: inspired, imaginative, creative, inventive, ingenious, enterprising, innovative.

"Yes, he truly is all of those things. And you are, too, My love. You just don't dream big enough."

Oh.

"You look to yourself too much, rather than envisioning what I can do through you. For instance, you have an attitude of struggling with your music. I wish for you to have an attitude that says, 'Every time I play the piano something new, beautiful and inspired for others, comes out.' If you had this attitude, you wouldn't see it so much as a threatening challenge everyone else can do but not you."

That's really true, guys. I look at other people who have been playing for years, or not even years. And I think to myself, 'I wish I could do that.'

The Lord continued, "You count too much on your lack of skill and experience, when you should be counting on Me to surprise you."

'I'm almost afraid to be given these wonderful melodies, Jesus, and never go anywhere with them. I want to finish songs, Lord.'

And that's true, guys. I'll sit down to the piano and a beautiful melody will come out and the words will come with it - and I get so wrapped up in that I never finish it. I can't tell you how many songs I have that are started, but that I haven't finished yet. Because I don't have the skill on the piano and that's, of course, what we're working on.

"We are working on that," Jesus said. "Don't lose the joy of 'playing,' experimenting, letting go. I enjoy that very much. You don't have to be always singing a holy message, you can play for the joy of it and I will STILL touch hearts. Isn't that amazing?"

Yes, it is!

"Then don't be afraid to put out instrumentals. They count, too.

"I know you are bemoaning the lateness of time and that you haven't been able to work with your music tonight, but please accept that some days are like that and it can't be helped. Just make sure you don't waste time that I gave you for music. Right now you are challenged with getting things workable with your equipment, but when you are done, everything will run smooth and seamless."

'Lord, would you please give me the gift of humming or singing spontaneously to a melody? Or even spontaneously around the house? It seems to me that there is a block in the way of me vocalizing. Why am I always so quiet?'

And even when I was studying vocalizing and getting your vocal chords in order, I still had a hard time remembering to open my mouth and practice.

And the Lord said, "And is this what you want?"

I really do!

"Then it is yours. Just begin to manifest it. Have Ezekiel lay hands on you for that. I will anoint you through his hands."

Now?

"If you wish."

I do! (So I went and had Ezekiel pray for me.)

Thank You Lord.

"Getting back to what we were discussing, I have a problem with My people. They are not believing Me for the anointing and talent to carry out My will for them. I have so much I want to do with every single one, yet they've been conditioned to stay in the box and not peek out - let alone climb out. Yet the rope of grace is continually before them; all they need to do is ask in faith and it will be done for them."

"That phrase you read today that stuck with you, what did it say?"

It said, "What would you attempt to do if you knew you could not fail?"

Wow!!!! That opens up a whole new dimension, Lord.

"Yes, it does. Believe Me for the impossible."

Lord, I love what I'm doing. I just want to be better at it.

"And that's the point." Jesus replied. "When was the last time you asked Me to make you a better shepherdess?"

Ummm....a few days ago?

"Yes, and you are moving in My anointing for that. But ask every day and see what happens. Come to Me with your music and voice every day asking for a fresh anointing. Ask My Spirit to use you to reach a soul today and then be sensitive to His leading. EXPECT these prayers to be answered, with all your heart and strength and mind. EXPECT it. That is the substance of faith, expecting that what you ask for in accordance with My will, that it surely will be accomplished."

"That is the springboard to greatness. Not as the world sees greatness, rather as I see it. A little one with a BIG anointing and a very small self-image, even a forgetfulness of self. Just as water seeks the lowest place to come to rest, so does My anointing. Seeing the virtue in others as greater than yourself is a guaranteed exercise in humility that will bring you to that point."

"So, I am asking you to stay little, but expect BIG things from My hand. The only reason something is big is because it needs to reach a lot of people. And yet the soul who maintains in their hearts, with complete abandon, that they are nothing and yet God is doing great things through them, in spite of that, is a soul I can invest with greatness, because they will not abuse it."

"This is what I am doing with Heartdwellers. I am asking you, My people, to expect success that is out of your league. Not because I want to exalt you but because I want to draw all men to Me, and it is necessary to reach many. So, expect that you will be reaching more and more souls for Me with the anointing I increase in you daily. Do not be amazed, rather expect it. I have a storehouse of graces that is spilling out in abundance that I have chosen you to receive. Only believe in Me and My goodness and you will receive it."

"Then keep your head down and look up at those around you with an awareness of their great virtue and honor them. In this way, you will be kept safely in the anointing and not fall into pride. Yes, I am looking for those who believe. They are the ones who will receive the lion's portion, going from glory to glory.

"Now I ask you, dear ones. Spend a few moments and answer that question, 'What would you attempt if you knew you could not fail?' Answer that and pray to Me for the guidance to accomplish it. By the way, some of you have truly taken to heart what I have said about not poking constantly around on the internet looking for the latest Rapture prophecy. Your child-like trust brings Me great glory.

"I am putting out the word about the impending Rapture, but it is not for you who are on this path - rather for the ones who haven't a clue about how deeply in self-love they are living. So, do not discount the prophetic words, but understand: this is to motivate those who are still serving themselves.

"You have already made the decision to serve Me; now it is time to get to work and expect the impossible. Remember, it is Me doing it through you, not you doing it by yourself."

Unless you abide in the vine you will not bear fruit, you are abiding in Me and you shall bear fruit. (taken from John 15:4)

AWESOME Inspiring Word, We Are Moving Into Our Season of Destiny (a powerful word from Lana Vawser)

April 10, 2017

May our focus be the same focus that Jesus has for our lives, and for the world.

Well, Heartdwellers, I wanted to share with you today a message from Lana Vawser:

IT IS TIME TO ENTER THE DESTINY ROOM OF HEAVEN

And what is so amazing about this message is it just confirms the movement of the Spirit that I've been talking about, probably the last 4 or 5 messages. And it's very beautiful, the way she puts things is different and I really enjoy reading her messages.

She began:

The Lord is really highlighting the throne room right now. There is a significant increase happening right now in the body of Christ, where He is releasing greater throne-room encounters. These throne-room encounters with Jesus are bringing a great refreshment to those who are weary and discouraged.

As I watched many of God's people entering into these encounters with Him in the throne room in worship, through visions, prophetic dreams, visitations, I watched as they 'entered in' and they were walking through the most beautiful, crystal-clear waterfall.

I looked around and saw all the walls were like rushing waters with jewels every colour of the rainbow and as far as the eye could see. So many things made of gold, the purest form of gold I have ever seen. There was a red carpet leading up to the throne and they were lined with rose petals, representing 'He is the Rose of Sharon' and the deeper level of divine romance of His love upon the people of God.

As I watched God's people approach the throne, some boldly, some with heavy hearts, some afraid, some with their heads down, some ran towards Him. But no matter which category I saw, Jesus running towards them, to meet them. Such love, such acceptance, such joy, such adoration, such excitement filled His eyes. There are no words to adequately describe the JOY in His eyes and absolute delight in His people.

Jesus grabbed their hands one by one and He spoke "It's time! It's time! It's time to enter into the destiny room, it's TIME!!!"

Holding their hands one by one He pulled them along with excitement, running together into this DESTINY ROOM. As they ran in with Him, one after another, I could see all along the walls of this room were picture frames and within the picture frames were their dreams and desires.

Some of God's people were SO excited to see their dreams and desires on the wall. Others cried, with pain and heartache of things that had not come to pass. The atmosphere was full of His love and how He pays attention to every dream and every desire. He walked along to each picture frame and He breathed upon them.

They went from a still photo to ALIVE, moving and breathing. The desires and dreams were coming to life. His resurrection power was being released.

I noticed as He breathed upon those dreams and desires a GOLDEN SCROLL appeared on the table in the middle of the room. Jesus went over to these GOLDEN SCROLLS and one by one He broke the red seal open and unraveled these scrolls. They looked like BLUEPRINTS, but as I looked closer at the scrolls, I saw the title of the scrolls were DESTINY PRINTS. Instantly I knew that Jesus was giving "divine glimpses" into the destiny of His people.

The one thing that stood out to me was the 'dreams' and 'desires' that His people had been dreaming as they delighted in Him, were at the very bottom of the DESTINY PRINT. He knew I had seen it and He turned to me and smiled and spoke "That's just where I begin. I am MORE FAITHFUL than My people realize!"

The sense surrounded Me that disappointment, discouragement, weariness, past experience, hope deferred and hurt had limited many of God's people from being able to DREAM BIG and to have faith for greater things.

He turned to me again and spoke "EXPECTATION is a GREAT KEY - it's time to "COME UP HERE AND SEE".

Now, I just want to take an aside here. In the message I just put out, I talked about that. The Lord said the same thing to me: Expect. Expect these things when you ask for them. Expect them to happen.

Expect to be promoted beyond your means, beyond your skill level. Expect to be promoted. Expect for things to break forth. That's what He's talking about here again.

And forgive me for just a moment. I'm going to repeat myself, but I think this bears repeating, because we really need to 'get it'. And whenever the Lord wanted people to get it, He would repeat things three times. So, here goes.

And this is what the Lord said about expecting things to happen. This was in yesterday's message, but for those of you who haven't heard it, I'm going to repeat it. Jesus began:

"I am asking you to stay little, but expect BIG things from My hand. The only reason something is big is because it needs to reach a lot of people. And yet the soul who maintains in their hearts, with complete abandon, that they are nothing and yet God is doing great things through them, in spite of that, is a soul I can invest with greatness, because they will not abuse it.

"This is what I am doing with Heartdwellers. I am asking you, My people, to expect success that is out of your league. Not because I want to exalt you but because I want to draw all men to Me, and it is necessary to reach many. So, expect that you will be reaching more and more souls for Me with the anointing I increase in you daily. Do not be amazed, rather expect it. I have a storehouse of graces that is spilling out in abundance that I have chosen you to receive. Only believe in Me and My goodness and you will receive it.

"Now I ask you, dear ones. Spend a few moments and answer that question, 'What would you attempt if you knew you could not fail?' Answer that and pray to Me for the guidance to accomplish it.

"You have already made the decision to serve Me; now it is time to get to work and expect the impossible. Remember, it is Me doing it through you, not you doing it by yourself."

Unless you abide in the vine you will not bear fruit, you are abiding in Me and you shall bear fruit.
(taken from John 15:4)

"Come to Me with your music and voice every day asking for a fresh anointing. Ask My Spirit to use you to reach a soul today and then be sensitive to His leading. EXPECT these prayers to be answered, with all your heart and strength and mind. EXPECT it."

"Expectation is the substance of faith." That's exactly the same thing that He told Lana. All we have to do, guys, is correspond. That's all we have to do. Correspond. Do what He's asked us to do faithfully, and He'll do all the rest.

So. Going on, He turned to Lana again and spoke: "EXPECTATION is a GREAT KEY - it's time to "COME UP HERE AND SEE".

Jesus began to release glimpses of these DESTINY PRINTS to His people. What He was showing them was SO MUCH BIGGER than they could have ever imagined, they were plans for their life and destiny that was not POSSIBLE to be completed by them, only HE could do it.

As He began showing them glimpse after glimpse of what was to come, life, hope and healing was being brought to their hearts and souls. His joy was exploding within them, igniting the fire to dream again.

He was looking for alignment and expectation. His outrageous, radical, amazing plans for His people, these glimpses, were lifting the people of God up higher in their expectation, their faith and ability to dream again.

He spoke again with such authority. "It's time for the destiny winds to blow." Instantly, I saw four strong winds coming from every direction and the angels declared together, "Breakthrough momentum of destiny. Favour, increase, abundance and provision from far and wide. It's time for the winds of DESTINY to arrive."

I watched as ACTIVATION took place. The activation of what He had strategically set up like chess pieces on a chess board, the TIME had arrived. He turned and smiled, "THE TIME IS NOW, FOR THE WINDS OF DESTINY AND BREAKTHROUGH MOMENTUM TO COLLIDE, RELEASING MY PEOPLE INTO THE NEXT PHASE OF THEIR DESTINY AND BREAKTHROUGH. For such a time as this! For such a time as this! It's time for My people to move into the NEW LEVEL of their destiny position.

'There will be great provision that has never been experienced before, there will be radical favour, there will be doors flying open by My hand that will be bigger than My people's greatest desires and dreams. I AM JUST THAT GOOD!'

I watched in the DESTINY ROOM as everything was being activated and coming together. The people of God were coming alive with passion, clarity, insight and revelation of the greater realm of destiny that He was opening up for them, and the JOY of what He has called them to. Even those, who did not know: they were confused, had lost their footing, disorientated, not sure what He was asking them to do, what they were called to, or what He was doing - those things were suddenly falling away and being overtaken by the joy of the destiny glimpses He was revealing.

This is the season of greater throne-room encounters are upon the Body of Christ. You shall see His goodness and Glory like you never have. You will be awakened by His love and His fire in new ways. Your desires and dreams are being breathed upon, but that's just where He is beginning. He is going to exceed your biggest dream and wildest imagination that you have dreamed with Him and delighted in Him. He is restoring you!

He is challenging expectations! What are your expectations of this season? Are you dreaming big? Those things that have stopped you from dreaming big - He's healing them, and He's calling you higher. Pay attention to your dreams, your visions, your encounters and visitations. For the Lord is releasing greater clarity and insight of the DESTINY PRINTS of your life, that is going to see you align with His strategy and decree, to see you move into the next level of DESTINY!!!! The time has arrived!!!

Why? Because He wants His Glory, His goodness, His love spread FAR AND WIDE. The stage is being set, for the greatest move of the Spirit of God and fire of His love across the Earth, like we have never seen before.

The time has arrived for the Glory of God to be seen, manifested and encountered, FAR AND WIDE!! We are crossing over another threshold of destiny! What you are going to see Him do in and through you is going to leave you face down crying out "HOLY, HOLY, HOLY ARE YOU!!!! You REALLY ARE GOOD!!!" The wonder and awe of who HE IS, is being restored!

And that's the end of her message. I just want to call attention to the paragraph before this one: "Why is He doing this? Because He wants His Glory, His goodness, His love spread FAR AND WIDE." Okay, and that's exactly what I said to you in the last message, when the Lord told us that the only reason big things are going to be happening is because I want to reach more people. And in order to reach more people, big things have to happen.

But you need to become littler and littler in your own eyes. Keep your head down and be humble and look up to others. Always look up to others. Never look down to them. But that's what He was saying. It has to be big, because it's gotta reach a LOT of people.

So, this is really exciting. And my husband had a dream last night that was pretty powerful. I'm not going to share it with you, but let's just say - this word is a total confirmation of what he saw. And he does have prophetic dreams.

So, be excited, guys. I don't know what your dreams and broken visions are, but it's time to pull them out. Pull them out and bring them before the Lord and allow Him to breathe new life into those visions and dreams that never have been fulfilled in your life as yet. It's time to bring forth and allow Him to breathe new life for you to expect that He is going to answer that dream. He's finally...this is the season. He's finally going to manifest that dream in your life. All you need to do is expect. And expectation is the same as faith.

Expect Him to move beautifully and be excited by that, and commit yourself more and more to being aligned with His will. More and more to be doing exactly what He wants you to do with your time.

You know, the messages that I've put out about wasting time are very important right now. Very, very important, because they help you to get a handle on ways that your dreams have escaped you and have run through your fingers like sand. He's showing you the things that are important and how to circumscribe your life and come into alignment with what He wants for you. 'Cause He has these beautiful plans for it. And He even said that in the last message. "I have such great plans for you."

And I truly feel sorry for the Satanists, because they could be having the same kind of wonderful time if they'd give their lives to the Lord. They could be entering into the dreams of their lives. Instead, they're working, trying to work against us. And unfortunately for them, there's no success in that for them. That's not going to work. Because the Lord is moving in another direction. And because He is moving in that direction, He's going to defend us. He's gonna defend our time, our thinking.

And this is another reason why He doesn't want you wasting time on the Internet, or getting embroiled in political things. 'Cause those things are gonna make you angry and they're gonna bring you down.

I happened to catch a glimpse of something that some news agency said when I went to open my phone, and I was just thoroughly disgusted with them, 'cause I know they're all liars. So, once you tune into that kind of energy and you take that in, it brings you down. And it makes it hard for you to rise up in whatever creative endeavor the Lord is giving you to do. It could be anything. It's not about the arts, only. It's about all the things in your life that you've wanted to do. Changes in your families. Changes in work. New anointing for certain kinds of work. This is not just dreams for artists - this is dreams for everyone.

So, stay away from the bad news mill, because it will get you angry and bring you down. He's going to give us the grace we need to finally manifest our dreams and nothing is going to be able to stop it.

So, be excited, dear ones. Take another look at your life. And like He said in the message yesterday, spend some time thinking about: What would you do, if you knew you could not fail? Think about that. What would you do, that you're not doing now? What would you do if you knew you could not fail? The season of failure is over with. And the season of manifesting our dreams has begun.

Think about it. What would I do if I knew I wouldn't fail? And go for it!

But What Is My Mission Jesus? How Do I Know? The Sheep & The Goats

Part 1 of 2

April 12, 2017

May the blessing of clarity of mind come upon you dear Heartdwellers, that your mission will become clear to you.

Well, tonight the Lord has given Me a key to finding your mission! It certainly helped me get a handle on how to help those of you who haven't been able to connect with God to have a mission. So, I am excited that this message will be a relief to hear. Please listen to the end, because that's where He imparts the wisdom to begin your search.

After a short instruction on a personal topic, Jesus began, "Going on to the Channel, some have taken My words to heart. Some are still dragging their feet hoping the Rapture will deliver them from the responsibility of applying themselves to help with the harvest of souls.

"My very little ones, why do you persist in your unbelief?? Will you tell Me, please? Why do you refuse to believe? Do you not know you are tying My hands in your lives? I don't care how despicable others have looked at you as being. I have seen your heart of pure love for Me and I intend to raise you up. But I can do nothing if you stay stubbornly in unbelief.

"Who are you going to believe in this hour? Me? Or people who have pigeon-holed you for years? Do you want to move beyond this pit of condemnation that has kept you from hoping for anything beyond a mediocre life? Do you know that those who serve Me are not fit for the job, but their hearts are for Me. So, I delight in equipping them beyond their wildest dreams.

"Clare is an excellent example. For so many reasons I could never cover, she was unfit for this job. In the meantime, those who were popular and fit as a fiddle were clamoring at the gates of Heaven for her job. Do you know why I denied them? Because they saw themselves as competent and well-placed for such a job. Do you know, Heidi Baker was another one who assumed her education would bring her success as a missionary? I had to break her and level her to the ground before I could use her, quite literally."

Yeah, I remember that. They couldn't pick her up off the ground, the move of God was so strong at the airport in Canada.

"Then she woke up to the fact that she could do nothing and her degrees were useless.

"The part of her that was useful was her pure heart and on fire love for Me. I brought her down all the way to rock bottom, laboring for a decade in Africa with nothing remarkable to show. Then, once she realized she was not and never would be qualified for a move of God, then she was a good candidate. Until that time, she sweltered in mediocrity. So, don't look at her degrees; look at her heart.

"Now, I hope you understand what I am saying. No one is qualified for any job of Mine unless they come to Me with nothing to offer but their hearts and their lives laid down at My feet. Can you do that? Can you lay your life down at My feet? Alright, let's say you are cowardly and can't. Would you like to be that brave? I can make you that brave. All you have to pray is, 'Lord, make me willing to be made willing for whatever You ask of me.' That's the prayer for cowards.

"Do you know how many cowards serve Me? Millions. Yes, Millions. Many of them are obscure and unknown Christians, yet they love Me with all their hearts and have given Me their lives, because they were in love with Me. I gave them the brave heart they needed. Then we proceeded to giftings for them to accomplish their work according to how I fashioned them at conception. Then I opened doors and protected them in their callings.

"What about you? Can you give Me your cowardice, your fears of failure, your word curses that have labeled you as a failure all your life? Can you relinquish these things and allow Me to fashion you into a vessel fit for the King's table? How about it? Are you going to lay down your life and your failures at My feet or are you going to stubbornly cling to that self-image fashioned by Satan's servants?

"I will reveal something to you now, so you will not be caught unaware at the Judgement Seat. Some of you are lazy. You cover that up with what people have said about you, but the bottom line is you are lazy and don't want to put forth the tremendous effort it takes to succeed. So, you've become a Christian couch potato. I can see through the facades and defeatist attitudes, right to the core of your will. And some of you are truly lazy."

You know, and when He said that I thought, 'Gosh - there are a lot of Scriptures about that.'

And I Googled it and I ended up taking this from: Got questions.org. Just little snippets here and there.

Proverbs tells us that a lazy person hates work: "The sluggard's craving will be the death of him, because his hands refuse to work" (21:25)

He loves sleep: "As a door turns on its hinges, so a sluggard turns on his bed" (26:14)

He gives excuses: "The sluggard says, 'There is a lion in the road, a fierce lion roaming the streets.'" (26:13)

That's my personal favorite. I love that one!

He wastes time and energy: “He who is slothful in his work is a brother to him who is a great waster” (18:9)

Well, we know who the Great Waster is - the one that came to kill, steal and destroy. So, we don't want to be a brother to him. It continues:

He believes he is wise, but is a fool: “The sluggard is wiser in his own eyes than seven men who answer discreetly” (26:16).

A lazy person becomes a servant (or debtor): “Diligent hands will rule, but laziness ends in slave labor” (12:24)

His future is bleak: “A sluggard does not plow in season; so at harvest time he looks but finds nothing” (20:4)

He may come to poverty: “The soul of the lazy man desires and has nothing; but the soul of the diligent shall be made rich” (13:4).

A new believer is truthfully taught that “...it is by grace you have been saved, through faith—and this not from yourselves, it is the gift of God—not by works, so that no one can boast” (Ephesians 2:8-9).

But a believer can become idle if he erroneously believes God expects no fruit from a transformed life.

“For we are God's workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do” (Ephesians 2:10).

Christians are not saved by works, but they do show their faith by their works (James 2:18, 26).

Slothfulness violates God's purpose, that we would do good works. And it's said about Jesus. He went around doing good works. Doing good to all. The Lord, however, empowers Christians to overcome the flesh's propensity to laziness by giving us a new nature (2 Corinthians 5:17).

“If anyone does not provide for his relatives, and especially for his immediate family, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.” (1 Timothy 5:8)

And for others in the family of God: “You yourselves know that these hands of mine have supplied my own needs and the needs of my companions. In everything I did, I showed you that by this kind of hard work we must help the weak, remembering the words the Lord Jesus himself said: 'It is more blessed to give than to receive'” (Acts 20:34-35).

“Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for men, since you know that you will receive an inheritance from the Lord as a reward. It is the Lord Christ you are serving” (Colossians 3:23-24)

These are just a few things about laziness or work that I felt He wanted me to share with you.

Jesus continued, “There is no excuse for laziness. If you have a physical impediment, come to Me and ask Me how to work with it. Clare has many, but I have shown her how to cope and made medicine available to her. No, prescription medications are not witchcraft; they are a tool in the hands of a competent physician who is called to empower bodies to live a better life, many times enabling them to serve Me.

"Others I heal without medication. Much depends on humility and their tendency to pride as to how I will help them. That's entirely different than recreational drugs, which are harmful to the soul and body, and do lead to witchcraft, and a way to escape from the realities of life which are painful but must in the long run be overcome with My help.

But What is My Mission, Jesus? How Do I Know? The Sheep and the Goats

Part 2 of 2

April 12, 2017

"Others I heal without medication. Much depends on humility and their tendency to pride as to how I will help them. That's entirely different than recreational drugs, which are harmful to the soul and body, and do lead to witchcraft, and a way to escape from the realities of life which are painful but must in the long run be overcome with My help.

"There is no excuse for laziness. I am standing by to help you, dear one. I am begging you to begin to respond to Me before you stand before the Judgement Seat and have to give an accounting to Me for the gifts of life I gave you. You consumed food, air, electricity, other peoples time, and more things that I can mention. I provided those things to help get you on your feet. But you stopped at your comfort zone and settled in on your couch. Thickening on your lees. You will be called to account for how you used all the resources I set at your disposal so you could serve Me.

"There will be NO excuses, because I see through excuses to the core issue. So I am here now presenting you with a picture of what will happen at the Judgment Seat if you lived only for your own comforts and did very little to serve Me.

"When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on his glorious throne. Before him will be gathered all the nations, and he will separate people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. And he will place the sheep on his right, but the goats on the left. Then the King will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.

"Then he will say to those on his left, 'Depart from me, you cursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. For I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me no drink, I was a stranger and you did not welcome me, naked and you did not clothe me, sick and in prison and you did not visit me.' Then they also will answer, saying, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not minister to you?' Then he will answer them, saying, 'Truly, I say to you, as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to me.' And these will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life." Matthew 25:31-34, 41-46

Wow! That's definitely a hard condemnation. And I wanted to mention, we raised sheep and had a few goats. And the goats were always butting the sheep. They were very aggressive. And the sheep were always mellow. There was just a whole different atmosphere about the sheep from the goats. The goats would just butt their way in, push their way in. Get to the feed before the sheep. And they'd start trouble. So, there's quite a bit about goats.

At this point, I really felt I needed to ask the Lord a question. So I said:

'Lord, we have some on the Channel who just don't know what to do for You. They are drifting and the enemy paints them with condemnation because they haven't been able to hear Your will for their lives. What about them?'

Jesus continued, "My people, it is a matter of heart attitude. This is what I wish for those of you who do not have specific tasks. When you see suffering or injustice, do what you can to help the victim.

"Did someone's house burn down or was it flooded? Do you have a storage room with all kinds of things you've been hanging on to? Do you have recreational money that isn't dedicated to absolute necessity? Give until it hurts. Do not let yourself pass by that person without reaching out to them.

"I will stir your heart. It may be a child at school that has no winter boots or coat. It may be a mother suffering from sickness and unable to clean her house or cook proper meals. It may be an elderly person suffering from loneliness and malnutrition. All of these are opportunities to go about doing good, as is written about Me."

And that's Acts 10:37-39a You, yourselves know what has happened throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee with the Baptism John proclaimed. How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit, with power. And how Jesus went around doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, because God was with Him. We are witnesses of all that He did, both in the land of the Jews and in Jerusalem.

And we may not all be able to deliver people from demonic infestations, but we can certainly stop and give someone on the roadside a bottle of Gatorade and a sandwich. It all depends on your heart, where you are at in your heart. That's a very little thing, but it shows the kindness of the Lord.

This is the thing: in the church people would rather proselytize and preach and point out sins than just to give lovingly, unconditionally and allow that person to discover Jesus in you. When people discover how sweet and loving He is, they want to give their lives to Him. But they'll never discover it, if all we do is preach to them, and tell them what their sins are and how to be saved. They'll get saved alright, when they get a whiff of Jesus. They'll get saved.

But the other thing gives them whiff of the Pharisee and it turns people off. So, if you have a little bag in your car, as you go about your errands. And it has little bags to give to people on the street that are maybe panhandling for money, or looking for work. It's a beautiful thing to do. That's one little thing you can do. That's a time when the Lord will say, "Blessed are you, because you fed Me." And you'll say to the Lord, "When did I feed you?" And He'll bring up that situation where you stopped for a person on the street who had nothing to eat or drink. And you reached out and blessed them in Jesus' Name.

The Lord continued, "A mission or vocation from Me is a precious, precious gift to those whose hearts are well disposed. You begin by showing the disposition of your heart when you reach out to others to lessen their burdens. I see that and guide you deeper into selflessness, eventually blessing you with your mission, something perfectly fitted to you from your conception.

"I do not want you to ignore your family or sacrifice what is needed by them. I want you to bring your family along in works of mercy and charity. I will never give you so much to do that you become disordered in providing for your family.

"Perhaps you teach piano and a poor child really wants to learn but her family cannot pay you - and she doesn't even have a piano. Take her on as a student, loan her a keyboard and if she shows promise, let her continue to use it. It may be that if you give her the keyboard her parents will sell it for food or medicine, they're so poor...so you keep it on loan."

By the way. That was the situation with me. I really, really wanted to play the piano when I was younger. Gosh, grammar school, freshman, sophomore years I really wanted to play the piano. But I didn't have one, and my mother didn't have the money to buy me one. And keyboards hadn't been invented yet. How much different would my story be if the music teacher had taken me under her wing and supplied me with a piano or time to play a piano and given me free lessons?

The Lord continued here, "Be creative."

I mean, here I am in my 70's just starting out with music. You know - just imagine what it would have been for me if I had caught on to it when I was much younger.

The Lord continued, "Be creative and listen for the sweet voice of My Spirit making suggestions that bathe your heart in warmth. That's how I will lead you. Baby steps, leading you from the feeling of compassion in your heart into doing something about it.

"Start small and be faithful. Eventually, you will instinctively know you are to help certain people or not help them. You can even use your Bible Promises. But remember, I am whispering in your heart to reach out and give. As you learn to obey these promptings, you will get clearer and clearer leadings and I will graduate you into greater callings until you are firmly established in your lifelong mission.

*"Be faithful in the little things, My dear ones. Then at the Judgment, you will be among the sheep:
"Come, you who are blessed by my Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world."*

Pray for Your President & World Leaders

April 13, 2017

May we be the people of prayer the Lord is counting on in this hour, dear Heartdwellers.

Ezekiel went to open his phone and saw that we had bombed Afghanistan with a huge device...and I didn't dig any deeper, because He has been discouraging that. Believe me, my curiosity was killing me! But thanks to the Lord's grace, I still haven't sought out more news but came directly to Him to find out what was going on.

By the way, President Trump was being criticized of his military intervention in other countries. And that was part of his policy, his platform that he was running on. So, a lot of people are looking at this and doing an about-face for him. And the Lord wanted to clarify what's really going on.

So this is what He said, "Allow Me to put events in perspective. For the last 8 years and even more, you've had milk-toast presidents who have caused thousands of their people to be killed in military operations that were doomed from the start. As a result of that, America has had two black eyes and a bloody nose, as well as many broken bones.

"Our military strategy is looked down upon as the world's worst. President Trump as a private citizen did not have the perspective he has in office now after hours and hours of meetings with military advisors. Hours of briefings, and through those grueling hours he has come to understand that no country on this Earth can remain an island; all are tied together.

"What has been lacking is a strong arm against the enemy. And because of that, our military actions look incompetent in the eyes of the world so that the U.S. would no longer be a nation to be respected. When Donald took office, you were at the door of a world war that would have annihilated America, thanks to the measures taken by the former president and others working nefariously behind the scenes.

"Now that Donald understands the dynamics of military force and a balance of power between the nations, he is having to do an about-face in his policies and seriously amend his thinking to reinstate this country.

"I am still with him, Clare. I have never left his side and I am teaching him how to go about restoring respect for America.

"There are many new courses of action he is setting in place. I will advise him with the best counsel, led by Me. In the meantime, what was meant for disaster is being turned to good, because the world is starting to fear this president who is not afraid to deal with those who are of Satan's army.

"This is all I can really tell you at this time, Beloved. He is learning and I want all to stand behind him and pray for wisdom. Eventually, good will come from all of this, but for now there is serious fallout and I am enlisting all to pray behind him and the leaders of the world as well as your own congress and senate.

"Pray behind them all that righteousness and wisdom will prevail throughout the world. There are other tests coming and your prayers will forestall much worse scenarios that could damage the U.S. seriously. Pray much for this man and trust that I am still in control. You know from past experiences on the small scale of your life that what the enemy means for evil, I turn to good.

"Well, nothing has changed about My ability to turn things around. All I need are your prayers."

Suffering Want and Trusting in My Provision

April 16, 2017

May the Peace of Jesus and trust in His provision triumph over all our fears. Amen.

Well, some of you may wonder why I include personal conversations with the Lord in the messages. Very simply, we are all in the same boat, going through the same rough waters and sometimes glassy smooth waters. The Body of Christ is One in Jesus, and as such it's good for us to see the trials we are experiencing and helps us to relate to our kind and gentle Jesus, who is always caring for us and welcomes conversations with us as we work through our trials.

This is meant for all believers, not just the privileged few.

Isn't it amazing how we all seem to experience the same things together? Well, to me it just punctuates the thought: we are all learners and have but one teacher and are in the same classroom with one another.

I have been down with allergies for two days, dear ones. That's why I haven't posted. This was an intercessory suffering that was so strong I could not sit up without assistance. Nor could I keep my eyes open as I listened to the Lord and typed. Very frustrating! I had to go back to bed time after time after time. This was on Holy Thursday and Good Friday. Today, in the evening, it finally broke - so here I am, so happy to be sharing His heart with you again.

This message was given yesterday. Jesus began, "I know its been a hard day for you, and a very hard day around the world. Thank you for offering your sufferings, dear one."

Lord, they seemed like nothing to me.

"I know, but you were gracious about it and I appreciate this VERY much."

Thank You, Lord, for giving me the grace to be gracious.

"You're welcome, My love. By the way, you have nothing to fear from the looming threats of war and rumors of war. Nothing at all. In fact, I want you to really throw yourself into your work and keep praying as you have for all Heartdwellers and the world in flux.

"People do not last on this channel unless they are longing to cultivate a deep relationship with Me and hear My voice or tender prompting. That is why some come and some go. There are still those looking for excitement and the latest rapture news. There are others searching for a deeper relationship with Me, and mature ones in Me who hear My voice clearly, and long to hear it even more. Through this channel I confirm many lessons they have learned but still carry doubts about and introduce them to some of the mysteries of their redemption and their work with Me to save souls.

"The lying against you has been very intense lately and It is very hard for Me to see the innocent and unexperienced turned away by lying testimonies about you and Ezekiel. It is very sad for Me to see, because I have invested so much in this Channel with you both and your sincerity should never be questioned. But there are those who have strong opinions about how you should present things and others who are just professional defamers and under the influence of the enemy. Still, when a little one walks away because they heard some slanderous lie about you, I grieve. There was so much I wanted them to have and now they are gone."

By the way, guys, if you happen on one of those sites - and I'm not encouraging you to go there - and you've experienced breakthroughs in your life and good things on this Channel, please share that. To offset some of the ugly things that are said. So at least, maybe one or two people will read that and say, 'Now, wait a minute. Here's a person whose saying good things.' You might be able to save a little one that was being sucked into some really dark, ugly place.

Jesus continued, "But I will always care for you and Ezekiel, Clare, as well as those who serve on this Channel. So do not worry when ugly things are said. Great is your reward in Heaven, for they treated the prophets in exactly the same way."

Here He's quoting the Scripture in Luke, chapter 6: Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you and insult you and reject your name as evil because of the Son of Man. Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, because great is your reward in heaven. For their fathers treated the prophets in the same way. Luke 6:22-23

Here, I wanted to share that a very dear friend's wife had three near-death experiences within the past two weeks and she was taken to Heaven. She saw a street called Heartdwellers Lane with several mansions on it. When she recovered and was put back in her body, she shared that with us. All I can say is, "Wonderful Lord! You are so wonderful! And I know our suffering has so much to do with it."

Jesus continued, "You have all labored together; you shall all be close to one another. I have wonders and gifts stored up for you, My people, that in your wildest dreams you never would have thought of such a thing. You have resisted the temptation to be critical and back-bite. You have resisted the temptation to give up and say this walk is not for me. You have resisted running here and there for the latest buzz and because of that, your apostolate - the things I have given you to do - is maturing and will soon be a tree which fills the garden and gives the birds a place to build their nests and raise their young. How pleased I am with those of you who have remained faithful to Clare and not allowed the enemy to sow division through you."

And there the Lord reminded me of A Song of Ascents, actually, in the Psalms. Psalm 133: Behold, how good and how pleasant it is For brothers to dwell together in unity! It is like the precious oil upon the head, Coming down upon the beard, Even Aaron's beard, Coming down upon the edge of his robes.

And with this, the Lord is referring to a slight drop in donations. I've been trying to be so faithful to help everyone who comes to us and has needs, whether it be on the Internet or in the community here. But lately, I've had to pull back a little. And that's kinda grieved me, actually.

And the Lord said, "I will not abandon you in your necessities. I will always look out for you. Clare."

Thank You, Lord. I have to remember when resources are thin and the enemy threatens, that You are faithful and always will be faithful.

Jesus continued, "And that is the topic I want to address to My Heartdwellers. Some of you are laboring for Me on very little and at times it seems as if you will not make it. But I always have a provision for you. It may be difficult, it may even be embarrassing to you, threaten your pride even. But nonetheless, if you have been faithful to use your resources for My kingdom, I will come through for you."

"Some of you even consider dropping what I have begun in you and going back to a secular job. Where is your faith? If you know you have been called to do this, then I will cover for you. People can be fickle and unstable, but I will never be. I may allow difficult choices in your life, but many times it is to test your love and faithfulness and see if you are willing to live on less to serve Me."

Boy, that's for sure. In our 30-some years of ministry, He has allowed us to be at the very rock-bottom, and it's very humiliating sometimes. And people look at you and say, 'Well, you must not be serving God. He wouldn't let you have needs like this!'

Lol...oh yeah? Talk to some of the missionaries overseas and you'll see that that is absolutely the furthest thing from the truth. He test us through our needs at times, to trust Him more. And I continued in our conversation.

Yes, Lord - there have been moments when Ezekiel and I wondered. But if only we will persevere and apply ourselves even more to the work You've given us, I know You will come through. And every day I must measure that reality, when you call us to spend what little we have on firewood for families that are suffering in the cold. It is always miraculous how You come through and I feel so tried in my faith when we give all we have without any kind of back-up.

Jesus continued, "And yet, you still worry, Clare. Tell the truth here, you are not perfected in faith, not by a long shot."

It is true, I do give in to doubt and allow myself to become fearful. Forgive me, Lord.

"Well, how can I use you as an example if you don't hit low times like others? I want them to know that as long as they are obeying Me, they can count on My provision. Without holding their breath."

"Please, My people, don't back down from the direction I take you in because there is suffering involved. This is all part of your formation and preparation for Heaven. And what a wonderful witness you are when I provide in the midst of crisis. There are many reasons I allow these tests, dear ones, but the major one is: do you trust Me? If I bring you into a crisis situation, do you trust Me to deliver you?"

"Do you know how many tragically live just to put a roof over their heads or drive the latest model car, or have the latest computer and equipment? So many have abandoned a life of adventure and abandonment to Me. So many are wasting precious gifts given at birth because they want a guaranteed income, stability and all the benefits.

"Yet all I guarantee you is the grace to weather the trials, 'My grace is sufficient for you, for My power is perfected in weakness.'"

And Paul goes on to say, "Therefore I will boast all the more gladly in my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may rest on me. That is why, for the sake of Christ, I delight in weaknesses, in insults, in hardships, in persecutions, in difficulties. For when I am weak, then I am strong. 2 Corinthians 12:9-10"

Jesus continued, "When you reach a crossroads where you must make a decision, if it involves the unknown, your best path is to cleave to Me with all your strength and wait upon My provision. I do not disappoint good will and if you are working for Me, actively bringing souls into the Kingdom, you can rest assured that something is coming if only you will persevere."

Thank You, Lord. It really is calming to hear that over and over again.

"Many also withdraw from giving; that, too, is an error. It is in your generosity that causes Me to supply from My generosity. I wanted you to know, Clare, that you are not the only one facing moments of doubt. I am allowing this right now among believers to test their meddle. Their faithfulness and commitment to Me, no matter what. The Just shall live by faith. Those of you who know My Heart well, live by faith and have abandoned a lifestyle that harnesses you to the world."

By the way, 'The Just shall live by faith.' is in Romans 1:17. Plus it is in the Old Testament and other places as well.

Jesus continued, "So, I am asking you to trust Me, My precious ones. Trust Me and continue to apply your life's strength and resources to what I am asking of you."

"And for the rest of you who are not yet equipped for your mission, be faithful and remember the little ones around you who have no daily bread. In that Day, I will welcome you into the Kingdom prepared for you, because you provided for Me through them."

"My blessing is upon you now, and an increase in faith is in your hearing ears. I love you and I encourage you: continue on in the direction I have established for you. Don't ever turn back. There are wonderful things waiting for you, ahead in your journey."

The Week Of Divine Mercy & Your Highest Calling

April 17, 2017

Dear Heartdwellers, this is Divine Mercy week, and actually a nine-day prayer leading up to the feast of Divine Mercy in many of the liturgical churches, in the East and West. It begins on Holy Thursday and ends the next week on Sunday, so it'll be ending this Sunday. And please forgive me for not getting this up sooner. I should have gotten it up on Holy Thursday for you.

Tens of thousands of people around the world are praying this prayer in unison every day at 3:00 pm. This is a week loaded with intercession and mercy. This prayer was first given to a Polish nun at the beginning of World War II, because so many who were unprepared to face God were victims of sudden death as the war spread over Europe and the South Seas. This was Our Lord's last attempt to extend mercy en masse to those who weren't right with Him before they died. So, it is especially powerful for those who are dying and impending wars in which thousands could die in a matter of minutes.

And the way things are shaping up with North Korea, we really need to pray for them. We really need to pray for North Korea.

Only God knows how He visits the dying in those very last moments of their lives. We have no idea how incomprehensible His mercy is for His creatures and especially those who, because of their culture, have never met Him. So, let's take advantage of this grace-filled period as situations around the world heat up.

I don't think it's any mistake, guys, that this is all happening during the Divine Mercy Novena week.

I asked Him, 'Lord do you have something to share with us?'

Jesus began, "My people, I grieve for those who are lost without knowing Me, but you as a mere human will never understand how My grace reaches out to them in their final hours. Even those killed beneath the mountain in Afghanistan, I was reaching before their last breath.

"My love, compassion and mercy hears the cries of mankind and I do answer them in a way they can understand. Nevertheless, it is a delicate situation when you are dealing with Muslims, Hindus, Buddhists and Jews. And of course, Communists. They were never taught to understand this personal love I have for each of them. Rather, their idea of God is wrathful, strict and demanding.

"That is why you must focus on love, forgiveness, long-suffering and charity when you approach them and abandon the ways that bring condemnation and bitterness. They already feel condemned, they are already bitter. What is missing is the knowledge of how precious they are to Me. You are the only ones who can deliver that message. I can work miracles, but you must back them up by your absolute dedication to unconditional love; they must recognize Me in you.

"I have told you before and it bears repeating: in this season of blossoming forth of your gifts, you must also keep the sword of the Spirit, prayer in the Spirit, even your heavenly language to defend yourselves and the world as a time of purification is upon the Earth. Evil is being pursued and there will be bloodshed. But I have asked you not to linger on that. Pray. Lift it up to Me. Fast if you feel called to do so, and expect My arm to move mightily on behalf of your prayers."

And I might add here, guys, that much of the graces that are going to be shed because of our prayers, our prayers in private, will bring great fruit. But we're not going to see it until our time in Heaven.

Jesus continued, "But do not abandon your gifts, and the cultivation of your gifts. You are going to see a clearing up of the chaos and then your gifts - if they have been prepared - will be called into action to bring in a harvest. If you concentrate only on the world and wars and rumors of wars, when it is time to bring forth the catch, you will have no nets, no bait, no means of bringing in the fish."

"This is a time of great increase in spiritual awareness and ability to be a vessel unto honor, honing your gifts to reach into every corner of the Earth with My message of Love and forgiveness. If you fruitlessly follow the latest news here and there, you will have nothing creative left to prepare the feast I will pour out upon the lost. It's all about reaching the lost. It's all about being prepared to throw the nets; it's all about being in position to catch them when they fall. That is why I have given you repeated instructions to do both, simultaneously. Pray and perfect your voice - whether it be in writing, blogging, YouTube, articles, art, organization or enlisting others. Be in a posture of readiness to meet the needs of the lost who are hungry, aching and confused."

"Even on this Channel, so many of you have found a ministry of encouragement and are learning more and more each day about the complex workings of human emotions and fears. Every day you get an opportunity to pray for those who cry out on this Channel in the comments, hoping to find someone who cares, someplace they belong. Be there for them. This is a very high skill. Mothering souls is not to be taken lightly; it is a tremendous gift of grace to make them feel welcomed and cared for. If nothing else, you can do this. For My Holy Spirit is with you and will give you the words."

"These are the works of mercy: forgive offenses, exhort and enlighten the uninformed and those who do not know Me, feed and clothe the hungry and naked, visit those in prison, hospitals and home-bound. Support those in the mission field and especially your own pastors or those who are feeding and guiding you into a deeper life of holiness with Me. Every day I give you these opportunities and sometimes, even several times a day. Be alert to these and you will be ready for the harvest that is yet to come."

"Those who are faithful with the little things, will surely be graduated to the greater things. 'Well done, good and faithful servant. You were faithful with a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.'" Matthew 25:23

And here, I'd like to add something. And that is simply that the Lord started us out as a food bank. And being there for people to pray for them, one at a time, having small prayer meetings. And we'd visit homes with food, we'd deliver food to the homes of a lot of different people that didn't have vehicles. And we'd pray with them and for them. And He kept us in this position, really, a position of a deacon and a deaconess for a very long time. A good fifteen years.

And then He began to open up, after probably 20 years in this ministry of serving, the basic needs of food, clothing, shelter and prayer. After 20 years of serving this way, then He opened up the Youtube ministry for us. But before He graduated us into something that would reach a lot of souls, we spent many, many years doing the little things, trying to be faithful with them.

Jesus continued, "I promise to put those little things in front of you every day. It may be a thing as simple as coming the moment you are called, rather than procrastinating. It may be doing a job to perfect completion rather than leaving it unfinished and slovenly. It may be being honest with your time when you come and go from work. It may be responding in charity the moment you see a need. All of these are the little things that, when done faithfully, qualify you to receive the greater tasks in My kingdom. Be faithful in the little things and I promise I will be faithful to bring you deeper into your calling and the greater things I have prepared for you since the beginning of time.

"I am with you, dear and precious ones, every moment of every day, leaving little tokens of My love with you and little whispers reminding you to care for that which is in front of you.

"You who have children, be faithful in teaching them the right ways. And for those with husbands, honor, pray and care for them, this is your apostolate. Also live the works of mercy even between siblings and family members, be an example. Duplicate the holiness I am teaching you, in your children. This is a great work for the Kingdom and you need not go looking for more to do than this. This and substantial prayer is your highest calling."

And again I'd like to highlight some Scriptures that were sent today, Scriptures that showed up in my inbox.

You will hear of wars and rumors of wars, but see to it that you are not alarmed. Such things must happen, but the end is still to come. Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be famines and earthquakes in various places. All these are the beginning of birth pains. Matthew 24:6-8

And in Malachi 4:1-3 "Surely the day is coming; it will burn like a furnace. All the arrogant and every evildoer will be stubble, and the day that is coming will set them on fire," says the Lord Almighty. "Not a root or a branch will be left to them. But for you who revere my name, the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its rays. And you will go out and frolic like well-fed calves. Then you will trample on the wicked; they will be ashes under the soles of your feet on the day when I act," says the Lord Almighty.

And I'm bringing up these two Scriptures, because on the one hand He saying these are the beginning of birth pains, so it's not quite upon us yet. And I'm also bringing up what Malachi said, 'But for those of us who revere the Lord's name and obey Him, we will go out and frolic like well-fed calves.' Goodness, that's a beautiful image! And that's the reason why the Lord has us in two different gears, having us do two different things. One is preparation, which is joyful and exciting, and developing the gifts He's given us. And the other is serious prayer for the world, because famines and earthquakes, wars and rumors of wars are all around us. These are the beginning of birth pangs.

So, let's continue to pray and do spiritual warfare as we create, just as Nehemiah had his men build and defend at the same time. This is our calling.

And I just want to take a moment to thank you, dear ones, for responding to us and helping us meet our needs and the needs of the poor in this area. Thank you for your kindness. Thank you so much for your faithfulness. The Lord bless you with His grace, wisdom and His peace. Amen.

Be True To Me, Clare, Be True to Me

April 19, 2017

May the Lord grant us the discernment to scorn the gifts of the world and pursue His agenda for us as never before.

I have a very poignant and tender message that's important to share with you today. I began getting restless two days ago and getting a touch of spring fever. I was seeing everything bursting into bloom, and I got the itch to work in the garden. Well, I knew it wasn't the Lord's best for me, so I didn't. But I managed to get a couple of things repotted. And I love miniature cactus gardens, so I took some cactus looking pretty lonely and made a tiny garden with rocks, etc. It reminded me very much of Phoenix where I raised my children for a few years.

At the time, I was shooting photo essays for the city of Phoenix, on their workers, and would take the kids on forays at night to the beautiful desert surrounding the city. It was a touch of nostalgia.

When I came into prayer the Lord began,

"Be My Dove, Clare. Be My pure dove, without compromise with your flesh, always anticipating what will please Me and what you can do for me. Even as you mentioned to your home team today. Anticipate what will please Me most and do that thing.

"Please do not give into your flesh - off on rabbit trails like primping plants. That's the wrong direction, Beloved. You need to be more and more detached from these things so you can tend to My needs.

"The more you give in to distractions, the less I can use you. You must be faithful to carry this yoke I am preparing you for. You mustn't let personal gain draw you away from your duty, to care for souls and make music.

"Ministry, ministry, ministry. Let that be your all-consuming occupation and leave by the wayside these childish preoccupations."

And here I want to add that I felt my angel nudging me. "You'll never reach your goal in this life by allowing yourself to be distracted by useless things. In the end, it will disqualify you for the awesome plans God has for you." That word from the Lord and that warning from my angel was enough of a warning for me to really put a check on myself. But I felt badly that I had compromised, and let the Lord down.

Jesus continued, "Oh, I have so much good for you to do but as long as you bow the knee to foolish things you are not ready, not fit, to carry the finest wine. You must be totally devoted to Me. Not half way, or a little corner for yourself. No - forsake yourself in all things and be about My business at ALL times. This will please Me and bring comfort to Me for those who are still chasing the world and all its benefits.

"To the degree that you water down your life with the little things, to that degree will you lose what have in store for you. So please, make a new dedication of purpose to Me and stick by it every day. I will send you little perks along the way, and you will delight in them because of My approval. But don't look for them, Child."

He did do that, actually. While I was taking care of a piece of business for work here, I just stumbled onto purple shamrock plant seeds that were just beautiful. Just really make a beautiful plant. And I asked the Lord if I could have them. And low and behold, He said I could. I was shocked! So I was able to get the seeds and I'm going to plant them on the new moon. That was a little perk, that was a little something I wasn't expecting. Actually, when He said I could have it, I kinda cried. 'You're so good to me, Lord. You're so good to me! And yet You know how to hold me back from getting into things I shouldn't full throttle. Thank You so much, Lord.'

So, He gives us little perks, and they're not always in the physical world, mostly in the spiritual world. But this situation was a little different. He knows when it's time to bless us and when it's better for us to hold back things. And we really need to trust Him in that and pass by those things that we shouldn't even be looking at, really. You know how Amazon is! You go to get one thing and they've got your history, so they pull up a bunch of things that would be interesting to you. And that's a real exercise in self-control, let me tell you! You probably already know that.

Just like with Youtubes. All along the side they give you all these different topics. You go to check YOUR Youtube and they bring up all these different topics that are related. It's really, really a spirit of distraction just yanking at you to get over there. I've been learning, with His help, to be self-controlled and not look. Thanks be to God! I needed that grace.

And guys, when He pulls that grace, which He does sometimes - very often it's because of gossip or backbiting or having a thought of judgment against someone. When we begin to think that we are better than others... The Lord will pull His protection away and allow us to fall seriously. And for me, it's the panther. My panther is avarice. Thanks be to God, He really, really helps me with that. So, if there's hope for me - there's hope for you, too!

So, the Lord continued, "Look only for My needs every moment of the day and happy you shall be when I soon return to get you."

"You will not leave your songs unsung. They will go out across the land and the world. Only just limit yourself to My doings and let others function on that level if they want to. But you, be consecrated and alive to Me and dead to all else."

"Is that clear, Beloved?"

Yes, Lord. It is.

"I'm not trying to deprive you, rather I am preparing you for the greatest blessings your life can hold. Do Me the great honor of being faithful and ignoring the useless."

"I will protect you, but you must obey My promptings. If you scorn Me and go your own way, well... you will be taken captive by your enemies. Be true to Me, Beloved, as I know you can be. Be true to Me and" we will scale this wall easily together and you will find yourself in a new and brilliant life which has been prepared for you."

And that's the end of His message.

And here, I want to add that there is nothing like feeling conviction that you have injured His heart with your indifference and self-will. Really, my heart was pierced when I understood how badly I had hurt Him.

Can you imagine this: you are waiting and waiting to find the right man to build your life with. Someone comes along who is totally in love with you and wants to build that life. But something in your spirit doesn't set right, yet you ignore it because you are afraid you'll never meet Mr. Right. And when you go ahead with that relationship, the Lord is so grieved and sad. If only you would have waited just a little longer, the man He had chosen for you is really perfect, and this man will disappoint you. If only you had followed My still small voice inside of you, you could have had everything you ever wanted in a man.

And that really happened to me, I married the wrong man the first time around, and the fallout is beyond comprehending from that decision. It's just huge.

The real issue here is unbelief and lack of trust. Me, with my human reasoning, thought I'd better take this proposal. But I felt in my heart it wasn't right. I didn't trust God enough to wait. I gave sin to my fears and unbelief. Now, this was before my conversion, before I really knew the Lord. But I remember how I felt - something wasn't right and I didn't listen to that voice.

It hurts Him so much when we don't wait for His best for us. He knows what we will suffer because of our poor choices, and how much suffering it will cause for others. So, He tries to redirect us. But if we are proud, like I was, and still am, we don't listen but go our own way. Oh, don't let this happen to you, beloved Heartdwellers. Always wait on God's best.

And I really sensed, when He said, "Be My pure Dove, Clare. Please, be My pure Dove. Don't run after your attachments." I could really feel it in my heart, that there was something lacking, that there was a purity there that I could have given Him but chose not to. That's a very pure thing. Pain, when you realize that He's looking to you for your purity and your faithfulness. And you're still being foolish

So, that's not to beat me. We have to go on from that point, knowing that the Lord loves us and He forgives. But let's not do that again! Which is what the impression leaves me with.

And I wanted to thank you so much, guys, for the donations that have been coming in. They've really helped us and we're in a much better place right now than we were. Thank you so very much for that. We appreciate it. Your faithfulness means a lot to us, 'cause it enables us to continue going and going and going.

So, the Lord bless you all and may He give us and impart to us the desire to be His pure Dove and not allow ourselves to be torn off in different directions from the flesh. God bless you.

How Satan Gains Control of a Soul, (one example) Tactics of a Spirit of Division

April 23, 2017

Precious Lord, please grant us the grace to be wise as serpents and yet gentle as doves.

Well, my dear Heartdwellers, you haven't heard from me for a couple of days. And it was very safe for you to assume things were intense! And I wasn't able to get to a message - that's correct. And a situation was brewing that was coming to a head, and we were waiting on answers from the Lord.

But it seems like He allows these things, because He wants me to share them with you, so we can learn together. Because only one among us is a Teacher - and that's the Lord. The rest of us are learners and followers. And people might look upon me as a leader, but really - I try to be a good follower. Because He's anointed me to be a follower, He uses me to lead - and that's how it works.

So, dear Heartdwellers, I want to speak to you about protecting yourselves from being used by the demons to cause trouble and how to protect yourself from serious demonic oppression.

When you operate in the spirit, you swim with the sharks. It is so very important that you not take on any assignments that are not given you by Jesus and accompanied by Jesus, the REAL Jesus. And it's so very important for you to know your motives are absolutely pure, to please and to serve Him alone. If you don't know this, you can be used by the devils, manipulated, used to even cause division and destruction along with the good things that God gave you. So, it sows a tremendous amount of confusion, to see good fruit and bad fruit. But in the end, the enemy is manipulating everything for his own reasons.

We all are complex people with many layers of wounds that we've accumulated over the years and behaviors that are constructed by us to prevent being hurt. They're defense mechanisms. This is why it is SO vital to know yourself. If you know your weaknesses and fears, you can watch out for that behavior that is trying to cover and protect, but is not Godly - and in fact is destructive to yourself and others.

We have many, many layers, like an onion. And for most of us, our greatest fear is being useless and of no value. This is fostered by our contact with contamination from the world: going to school. Competition and worldly values. Rivalry among peers and family. And parents who are ignorant and they don't know any better, so they encourage it. So, by our contact with contamination from the world, and our need to be valued, I have never seen anyone so downcast and hopeless as someone who feels they are a failure, unrecognized and of no account.

On the other hand, the happiest people on the outside are those who are 'at the top of their game' so to speak...people who feel useful and fulfilled. They are needed, wanted and appreciated; recognized and called upon. This builds a person up.

Sounds wonderful, doesn't it?

Well, not quite. The reason being is that when you come to serve the Lord He must strip you of all your earthly significance. He must bring you down to an absolute state of nothingness and annihilation. It sounds horrible and it's no fun, but when you finally get to that place, it is extremely liberating and peaceful.

No longer do you have to look your best, sound your best or try to be the best. Rather, your focus is on the Lord and Him being the Best and you are loved by Him and that's all you care to know. As long as we are double-minded, looking for men's approval and God's, we are unfit to carry the fine wine from the Master's table.

Our worth is based on the blood of Jesus on Calvary. Therefore, every one of us is priceless, absolutely out-of-this-world priceless. When we can settle in that place of significance, the fight with vanity, pride, one-up-manship, having to be right, having to know everything, having to be brilliant, having to shine and impress others with our abilities... When we find that place safe and alluring, quiet and peaceful, then we are ready to serve the Lord in whatever capacity, from cleaning toilets to making motion pictures. It matters not what we do, we have nothing to defend. We don't have to maintain our top-of-the-mountain position. We are down in the sweet valley garden with the Lord of Lords and King of all Kings. And we are hidden, and happy to be hidden.

The Lord really had to bring me to this place before He could use me publicly, and I am so glad He did. And I had several breakings, several times seeing myself as a heap of dung - and it was so good. He never stopped loving me and it was ok that I am a nobody.

When you are in the other place, trying to make your mark, prove your prowess, show others what you can do and how valuable you are, you open yourself to demonic infestations. Let's say you're not trying to shine, on a conscious level, you just want to be your best for Jesus - or at least, that's what you think. There may still be a healthy perspective lacking. You can say all the right things pointing to Jesus and convincing others that you only do things out of obedience and love for God.

It is almost impossible to discover ulterior motives in others or in yourself. But there are ways that reveal what is behind our real motives. Are we combative and resistant, judgmental of others in positions of authority or who have a public profile? Are we easily entreated or do our hackles raise when we are corrected in charity by those who may have been assigned to our souls?

One really great way to find out is in a marriage. Oh, boy - do we roll our eyes when our husbands tell us to do something we don't think is necessary? Mmmhmm...guilty as charged. Or husbands, do you roll your eyes when you wife asks you not to do something in her kitchen?

Satan can imitate humility, but obedience? No. He can't stand that and neither can his minions. They are only obedient to that monster out of fear, not love. Are we raising frustrations in those around us by resisting their counsel? Are we finding fault with everyone and trying to fix them? Are we quick to talk in a group setting and show ourselves knowledgeable and clever? Or do we sit there quietly listening and enjoying others as they converse.

Are we sowing doubt in people's minds about ministers that God has anointed and chosen to lead? Are we causing division by courting the favor of those close to the minister and sowing doubts and disagreements about their competency? You know: "Well, we need to pray because I've seen this about them...and they are deceived. So let's pray for them." Are we dividing the Body by stepping in and trying to lead and teach where we were not authorized to do so, and in the process causing confusion?

I have done all these things, I have been and still can be very proud and arrogant and judgmental. I hate that about myself more than walking in dog doo. At least that horrible smelling stuff can be washed off my shoes! But judgement and downgrading authority? The stench remains and reaches to Heaven and it has been told to me that even the great cloud of witnesses must cover their noses and turn their heads it is so obnoxious to them.

That doesn't come off in the shower, rather it circulates like a down pillow emptied from a second story room on a windy day. Now go and collect those feathers.... They will never be found, not all of them. The truth is, these messengers of division leave little feathers carried around the Body of a church, lodge in people's hearts along with whispering demons that undermine the integrity of the church and staff.

If we are continually trying to correct, instruct and form another man's flock, we have a problem and have opened ourselves to demonic sifting.

The soul who has not conquered their need to be more intelligent and better than others is a demon's dream host.

Oh, what great destruction can be wrought with such as these. Yes, the enemy feeds them a diet of pride and they are continually finding ways to gossip under the guise of praying and fixing - with the best intentions for others. And so they plant seeds of destruction in the foundation while looking like they are truly serving and loving and sacrificing for others. In fact, fastings and sufferings are talked about in a way that make them more submitted to God than anyone around them.

One thing I encountered as a Catholic sister was an evil spirit of Asceticism, which is constantly aware of the extreme fasts and vigils - denying themselves food and sleep in order to be holy, but with the secret attitude that they are more holy than others who don't do these things. I was guilty of entertaining and being used by one of those spirits and that attitude was generated by pride and judgment, NOT the desire to please or serve God, which was the motive I projected and even believed in about myself.

When the enemy wants to do some damage, they look for those kinds of souls and assign demons of division to operate through them on a more subtle level than most can recognize. And that's why they get away with doing so much damage. The vessel they are operating through seems to be very "superior" and above the norm and of unquestionable integrity. But we know what is operating in them by their fruit. If it be Holy Spirit or an unholy spirit. Mostly they are very good people being used to undermine and destroy in a way they do not even see.

For me, it was the need to be recognized and valued by the church, when I was younger, that motivated me to be critical. And when I wasn't, something inside began growing - a root of bitterness and jealousy that went deep and formed my behavior patterns so I would be sure to be recognized in the future.

So, how do you know if you are still operating in the flesh in this way? Are you sowing division? Do you talk against the leadership behind their back? Is a faction developing around you that sees your good points and the leader's failures? Are you gaining adherents by downgrading others? These are all signs of a soul that hasn't come to terms with their preciousness before God, and no matter how good their works seem to be, somehow the enemy is using them to sow confusion and division.

They don't truly see on the deepest level that it is only the Blood of Christ that paid their ransom and that they are priceless. If they saw that, they wouldn't still be trying to prove their worth to others.

For me it was too painful to see that others actually earned the right to be in a position as a teacher and they were commissioned by God to teach, because they had been through sifting after sifting after sifting until there was nothing left of them. And what was left of them, they abhorred and were committed to getting rid of.

We must lose all we thought we were, or we will continue to have an affinity for demons of ambition, superiority, criticism, and worst of all Lying Spirits who will cleverly manipulate for their own nefarious ends. And they will feed you lies about other people. They'll tell... "Oh, they're jealous of you. Oh, well that person, you know..." The demons will lie to you and cause you to question the motives of innocent people, so that you think their motives are evil. I can't tell you how many times I've fallen for that.

So, it's okay to judge an act, if an act is evil - but NOT the person, because we don't know their motives. They don't know what causes them to do certain things.

At this point Jesus began speaking to me. He said, "The question is, will such as these be willing to give up their relentless pursuit of superiority, overcoming everything in their way that has any authority? That is the question. The wounds of life go so very, very deep, but they must break fellowship with this need to be better than others around them. Or this will be an invitation to demons of deception and division to prosper in them while causing destruction around them."

I have seen these in my own behavior, guys, as spirits of rebellion and ambition.

Jesus continued, "The question is great. Will they give up their quest for greatness, having to be right all the time and abandon all earthly glory? They will not break with these demons unless they are willing to be stripped to a nothing and a nobody. This is extreme, but if they do not commit to this and stay with it, I can do nothing to prevent them from another infestation. They have got to be happy as a nobody and a nothing, or this inner drive for greatness will be used again and again by the enemy."

"This is an annihilation of self, and because of the nature of the real gifts I want to entrust vessels with, this foundation must be laid first. And I might add, protected vehemently from worldly and spiritual ambition. At a very early age these defensive behaviors can come onboard if a child feels rejected or unfavorably compared to other siblings."

And here I'd like to add, this is a classic example of competitive, over-achieving parents who demand perfection from everything to good looks to high grades to athletic prowess. Nothing is ever good enough, there's always someone to be beat, always someone to have the victory over. These children are taught that, in order to be loved, they have to excel way beyond others: look better, get higher grades and beat their competition. Their parents are worldly and this worldly ambition twists the child, taking from them their innocence and distorting the meaning of Love.

And here I'd like to add that these children grow up so wounded and twisted that they're constantly looking for ways to rebel, over everyone who receives high marks in their endeavors whom they consider standing in their way of getting loved. If they get a word, it has to be used by the pastor, or else they find another way to spread it among believers. If they're not given a voice, they will manipulate others until they are heard. The need to prove themselves contaminates most of the good they do. They are to be pitied and prayed for, so their twisted hearts can be healed. And the real person can be released from that prison of competition and one-up-manship. This is truly a new birth in Christ, where the child is untwisted and allowed to grow up discovering their real personality, not being a fierce competitor they were groomed to be.

Jesus continued, "All of you My children must be little ones, IF you want to be safe from deception, ambition, power and authority. It is a plain fact: unless you are happy to find the only meaning in your life in My presence, I cannot promote you. If you are still seeking the approval of your parents, whether you are 16 or 60, you will not hold the precious new wine. You must be totally happy to be a nobody, securely in My arms and no other.

"Any other motive will disqualify you and make you unfit as a vessel unto honor. There can only be one love in your lives. There can only be one meaning to your lives. There can only be one motive. Any other motive, magnified by Pride, will open the door to these beasts that scour the Earth looking for potential victims they can use to destroy others.

"In your case, Clare, when it happens under your nose, it is the channel the enemy is after. You are safe as long as you keep your head down and cleave to Me, showing charity even to your enemies. Not the demon enemies, but the victims of demon enemies."

Well, Lord - what about me ...when people say they hear two voices and one is not Yours - as a couple of people recently remarked about a message?

Jesus continued, "It is your own, Beloved, coming across in your choice of words or mood, and you are learning to let that diminish, that I may be the entire author of your messages even down to the most subtle insinuations. There are times in every soul, no matter how pure, that their own intellect colors things. It is not a demon, it is just you and your manner of expression and maybe a bit of an attitude at times..."

oooh, yes. I do get attitude....

And here I want to take a moment and explain something to you, even though I know I've said it before. When I receive a message from the Lord, sometimes it is verbatim - as He picks the words to use. But more commonly, He infuses understanding. It comes as concepts and then He leaves it up to me which words to choose to communicate that thought. To clarify, the thought doesn't come to me in words, but in a very soft quiet, understanding which I must then put into words you will all understand without any of my own opinions or attitudes attached to it.

So, some of you, if you are hearing two voices in my messages, that's what it is. The other thing it could be is a lying demon of distraction sent to cause you to question who is really giving this message..."That doesn't sound like Jesus." And either it's because of a poor choice of words on my part or a demon whispering in your ear while you are trying to listen to the message - I can't tell you how many people have told me that they get so distracted when they try to listen to my messages.

Jesus continued, "But increasingly, you catch it (He's talking about my attitude) and sense something is not perfectly stated as I would have it and you redo it to carry the meaning I intended without your slant. Some can distinguish the two, but assigning the enemy to it is grave error and stands the risk of blaspheming the Holy Spirit, because it is by Him that so many things you write are said.

"Beware if you think you stand and are qualified to judge My servants; beware that you, yourself, do not fall into the pit of deception. If you are so concerned about purity, start at home. There is much yet you do not see about yourselves. I am not defending, Clare. I am merely drawing your attention to your state before Me and how I dislike your judgments against one another and those who are innocent.

"None of you are free from coloring My thoughts or even My Scriptures. All of you have a certain opinion that causes you to interpret things the way you see it. May I remind you, those who harshly condemn the innocent who are indeed sincere, and for the most part faithful not to twist the truth to their liking... If you are doing that, you are opening the door in your life for a major sifting. Touch not My anointed, lest you find yourself the subject of other's condemnations and judgements of you, especially when you are innocent.

"When you besmirch the character of My vessels, you invite Satan in to sift you, and depending on how seriously this is done, I give permission. So, as it is written: Do not judge, or you will be judged. For with the same judgment you pronounce, you will be judged; and with the measure you use, it will be measured to you. Matthew 7:1-2

"That much said, a soul wishing to serve Me must abandon themselves to Me, or the door will be left open. Pray for this, pray much for this. Remember, the degree of charity and love you show for others will be measured back to you in your time of need also. And I promise you, all My Children, you will at some point have need also.

"I hear what you say and I hear what you think. Make them line up with one another, My dear ones. Do not say one thing while thinking something entirely different and derogatory. And never, ever rejoice in the evil that has befallen a brother, as in a payback for their treatment of you.

"If I live in you, and I could forgive the Pharisees, you can also forgive the misguided, the deceived, the Pharisees and liars in your lives...by My grace...which IS sufficient for you. II Corinthians 12:9

"So, continue in your prayers for those who are struggling in this area, Clare, and be well-disposed in your heart that I might rejoice in the reflection of My being in you by your authentic love for others, especially those who have harmed you. This is highly pleasing to Me and a strong tower of protection for you.

"Some who do these things will eventually be delivered, if they are truly sincere with Me and willing to be stripped. But the healing must go way deeper than just one encounter. The future days in their lives will be challenged with the enemy wanting to regain ground, leading them and others around them into error. It is of utmost importance that you all totally renounce your self-interest in the spiritual gifts and lodge deeply in My Heart where there is no admixture of ambition. Ambition, if it continues, will be your downfall. Yes, you may desire the gifts, even as it is written, but never more than purity of heart and motive for Me.

"These are the things I want you to lift up to Me, Beloved.

"Oh how I love these vessels who truly want to be Mine. They do want to serve Me, but first must abandon all self-seeking. You know this way; you have been down it many times.

"Humble yourselves, My children, not with words, but in the depths of your hearts, in that quiet place before you entreat Me with your prayers. Humble yourselves. The living waters flow past the rocky heights and come to rest in the valley. You, likewise, be the valley where My anointing collects, be the well-watered Garden of My delights.

"Those who lose their lives and forsake themselves will surely find it. Put a strong guard over your hearts, minds and mouth lest you continue to sin through judgment. I am touching your hearts now with this desire. Guard and nurture it, allow it to advise you in all things and never be a source of judgment and criticism of those who labor for your souls, for they have suffered many deaths and die daily for you. Rather, manifest the new life of humility, gentleness, a teachable spirit and one who is quick to listen and has no real desire to speak. Then, by your meek and humble example, I will be able to entrust you with the greatest ministry gifts, and especially entrust you with My love.

"The soul who has not conquered their need to be more intelligent and better than others is a demon's dream host."

And here I want to add that, in weeks passing, we have been the victims of a spirit of Division that entered through a person I would like to say was ignorant of what they were doing. A good person, a very intelligent, clever and witty and bright. This person reported amazing spiritual encounters and was leading others in our core group to follow their example and teachings. And there were some things I found very valid and incorporated.

But this was a new Christian who had not studied the Scriptures and did not know what the Bible said, but the gifts they presented to us and their attitude - welcoming extreme suffering - was so remarkable we all began to believe them. The Lord confirmed to me that some of what they were reporting was true. But while they ministered and influenced people, they were also undermining my messages and that some things I said were not from God and the counsels I gave about certain matters were not at all necessary, along with direct contradiction of the words of Jesus in the Bible.

They were so bright and convincing, that when I heard about it from behind my back, it caused me to question myself. But the Lord showed to me that they were in the control of a lying spirit that was assigned to our channel with a strong man of division to bring me down and the whole channel down.

I could not address what was taking place, even though I felt it keenly in my spirit, because it would have looked like jealousy to others. The Lord told me to wait and be patient. Well, that's what I've been doing for several months and one day, the demon in this person began to manifest, and everyone saw it on our Skype date. Not by obvious means, but their eyes turned to black marbles when they were talking and several people felt and saw the demon in them.

Then it began to manifest verbally and had substantial control over this person's body and vocal chords with writhing movements, and guttural sounds - the head going back and eyes rolling and a stream of lies coming out of their mouths. They were being tormented by this controlling demon. A Lying demon as well.

Now, days have gone by and they have been to a deliverance minister but the next day, they manifested again. Unfortunately, they live too far away for us to get involved - in that way, at least. Well, the end has not as yet been determined but they are reaching out for help. We will see if the underlying motives for their actions will be confessed or not, because the Lord did tell me there was guilt there.

So, we are praying for the best possible outcome - healing, restoration. But in the meantime, everyone who had been deceived by them understood they were deceived and repented. Several of them came to me and disclosed how they were speaking against me behind my back, and undermining the guidance that Jesus was giving us.

This is how churches split apart, guys. This is how ministries fall. These are the tactics of the devils; a good person with a good gift resents authority and undermines the leadership, building their own following and eventually, if those who are following are not mature Christians, they will leave and follow the other person.

A note to our enemies: I just couldn't resist this. This was a direct attack of the enemy. But here we are talking about it and it is in the process of being exposed and resolved. Please pray for them.

And for you poor Satanists who sent this curse and deception - thank you for more lessons in how your master works. But don't you know by now, he is lying to you just like you lie to others? When you die he will have you grabbed by the scruff of the neck, dragged down into Hell and tormented while he laughs his head off at you: "You knew I was a deceiver and you still fell for it!"

Don't you see, brothers and sisters? This is his method of operation and while you are busy serving him all your lives, he is plotting how to torture you when you finally die. And he will amuse himself with your naivety, while you cry out to him, "But I served you faithfully!!!" And he will laugh, "Yes, yes you did...but I deceived you. I used your own bitterness and hatred to hurt others and now I am going to enjoy hearing your screams for eternity!"

So, you may take this message and redouble your attempts to bring us down. But God is our covering and nothing you do will work as long as we obey Him. He will protect us from you. So please, please wake up and repent. Don't waste your life on this criminal demon, please wake up! God loves you and will forgive and heal you even for the babies you sacrificed. He will forgive you. Please turn to Him, please?

And for the rest of you sincere people that are really Heartdwellers, I wanted to share that, because I know that the enemy has plants and he listens to the messages. And then he figures out how he can form another attack against us. So, I just felt, this is a captive audience - the enemy's gonna listen to this message. And I can't help but feel badly for them, because they're totally duped by the devil!

But for the rest of you, dear Heartdwellers, please. Watch your motives. Be careful that the enemy doesn't use you! And please pray for us as we resolve this issue and this problem.

And I wanted to let you know, that things are going much better for us right now financially and our needs are being met. And that's the result, really, of people who are faithful every month. That's what really makes the difference, and then we can run things very smoothly. And I appreciate it so very much. I give you all a big hug! God bless you.

Stand With Me in Complete Trust

April 25, 2017

May the Lord strengthen us in hope, trust and patience through the storms of this life, dear Heartdwellers.

So, we've been going through a few interesting events around here - painful things. Really painful things. And we've been holding on to the Lord, keeping our focus there. But He had a word of encouragement for us tonight, and I wanted to share that with you. Because, undoubtedly, when we're going through it, there are other people on the Channel going through it as well.

I might remind you that it's a satanic feast day on May the first, and unfortunately, these poor misled and deceived souls are trying to do as much damage to Christians as they can, to gain favor with Satan on that feast day, because they'll be rewarded. It's really perverted. But it's like this before Halloween, a lot of times before January 1st and before the 25th of June.

So, let me share with you what the Lord had to say to strengthen us, even though we've got some storms going around us.

Lord, is there something You want to say to me?

He answered me, "Besides I love you? Patience is a much needed virtue. When you have done all you can in a situation: stand, rest in Me. Wait on Me - I will not disappoint you."

I was reminded of Psalm 37:7 Be still in the presence of the LORD, and wait patiently for him to act. Don't worry about evil people who prosper or fret about their wicked schemes. Be still in the presence of the Lord. Wait patiently for Him to act.

Jesus continued, "In every area of your life, patience will bring forth good fruit. It is when one becomes impatient and begins to search for easy answers that they go astray."

Well, Lord - what about this situation?

"In both situations that you're in right now, patience is much needed. Do not rush into anything. I am using all these painful things to touch many on a deeper level. Continue to stand. Do not become embroiled to the point where you cease to function. This is part of the enemy's plan: make things so distressing and distracting that nothing else can go on in your life."

Position yourselves, stand still, and see the salvation of the LORD. He is with you. 2 Chronicles 20:17

"Clare, I know this is difficult and you are hurting deeply for those going through this, but I do have a plan, Beloved. I AM using these dynamics to bring forth good fruit. So, please flow with them, and do not allow them to crush or paralyze your attention."

Rejoice in hope, be patient in tribulation, be constant in prayer. Romans 12:12

"You still have much before you to do. Day by day I unfold My plan. Day by day you respond in prayer. Then one day there is a breakthrough.

"Heartdwellers, this is a short season of trial before you. Whatever contradictions you suffer through, please be patient and know that I am working much good below the surface, and there will be a season of blossoming and fruitfulness immediately following this.

"You mustn't allow yourselves to become embroiled in the situations. Do not allow them to stop your daily life. This is where patience is needed. Trust Me in this. The more difficult these things are in your lives, the more fruit that will come of them. I allow circumstances to bring forth much virtue in the lives of My people.

"Without contradictions and difficulties, there is very little growth. But with them, spiritual pruning and planting are going on. Yet I will not allow you to suffer beyond your means to stand strong in the face of it. Do not grow weary in well-doing, nor allow disruptions to throw you. Keep your focus on what is before you.

"Take care of things in a timely manner, but do not immerse yourself in them, lest you become emotionally disabled. There is an art to keeping your eyes on Me when trials are going on. Continually ask yourself and ask Me, 'What is the Lord doing here? How is He using this for His glory? What is He doing in the midst of this?' Ponder that."

You will keep perfectly peaceful the one whose mind remains focused on you, because he remains in you. Isaiah 26:3

Jesus continued, "Once you take your eyes off of Me, you can no longer walk on the water, you begin to sink. I need you to walk upon the troubled waters of your lives and not lose or allow yourself to lose your focus on Me. I will not try you beyond your means to endure it, but will guide you in the way you must go through these things, maintaining your equilibrium in Me and My Spirit."

And I was reminded of Psalm 107:28-29 Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble, and he brought them out of their distress. He stilled the storm to a whisper; the waves of the sea were hushed.

And the other one that came to mind is Mark 4:39-41 He got up, rebuked the wind and said to the waves, "Quiet! Be still!" Then the wind died down and it was completely calm. He said to his disciples, "Why are you so afraid? Do you still have no faith?"

"There are many of you right now," Jesus continued, "that are up against new challenges that you have never experienced in your lives. To you I say, I am at work here. Trust Me no matter how bad it looks - I am at work here. Stand your ground. Praise Me. Refocus constantly on Me. Maintain your prayer time and work at these problems little by little without allowing them to inundate you in anxiety."

Fear ye not. Stand still, and see the salvation of the Lord, Exodus 13:14

"Have I ever let you down? No, I have not, nor will I ever abandon you. But with each contradiction I will provide a way through and out of it. So, stand your ground, believe in Me, trust Me and you will see My salvation.

"Trust Me.

"Trust."

Psalm 46:10 Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth. The LORD of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge.

Amen.

When I Fall I Run To Him

April 27, 2017

I pray, Lord, that You would grant us all the grace to be so in Love with you that we totally forget ourselves and live only for Your pleasure.

Well, Spring time finally landed some arrows in my heart - when I had to find something to cover my four palm plants I have had for years. Let me explain. We have a sunroom with clear roofing that we built when my mother passed away. It gives light and heat to the entire house. It's about 35 by 25 feet and has a very small hot tub and exercise pool.

Of course, after it was built about ten years ago, I purchased some modest-sized plants for it. Every year I struggle with wanting to add a fresh springtime plant. But I haven't in about nine years. Well, this time I had to retire the ground cover on the palms and it left them drying out almost overnight. So, I figured, 'Well, this is a necessity for their health. I'll just get a little ground cover to protect them.'

In the meantime, the Lord had been warning me that I was getting near the edge. Little things had been popping up for days here and there. My husband even brought up an old word I had gotten quite a while ago. But he didn't see this coming and I was just wanting to make sure these plants didn't suffer. I never intended to do anything further.

Right? lol...oh boy.

Be that as it may, a volunteer had also torn up a little island of tansies when he turned the soil and there was a big blank spot, right in the middle. I began reasoning...just a couple of ground cover plants and that will take care of it.

So, I took the liberty of getting what I needed and some seeds and a couple of other little things to fill in two other bald gardens. After getting them home, I began to feel conviction that I over-did it. In fact, I shouldn't have even gotten the handful I got.

As I was pondering that, I had to face Him. I remembered the teaching He gave me to not run away from His arms but run to them. I had to go to the Lord with the Bible Promises about something else and I opened to repentance. In that moment, guys - I felt such conviction, I dropped to my knees and cried my heart out. After I had really, deeply repented, I said, "Lord to tell you I am sorry is a joke."

How could I do this to You? I don't understand. Pride? Presumption? You let me fall. I am not fit for this job. I wouldn't blame you if you took it from me.

Jesus answered me immediately, much to my surprise. Because I thought I wouldn't hear from Him for a while.

I wouldn't blame You if You took it from me...

And He said, "And have you abandon your flock?"

No that's not what I had in mind. Jesus, all I want to do is get right with You again. How could I be so stupid?

"Clare. Remember, you have an enemy. And for days I've been warning you. But it went right over your head. Your heart is too preoccupied with the things of this world."

Lord why did you make flowers and springtime...and a husband who loves pink? It's not Your fault, but we are so weak.

"Precisely." He answered

What do I do?

"Repent. Turn around and be Mine and Mine alone, Clare."

Oh, I'm so sorry. What do I do with these flowers?

"What do you think?"

I want to get them out of my sight. They remind me of my weakness and knowing You didn't want me to have them and I hurt you... Well, I could never enjoy them. If they caused You pain, there's no joy in that, only remorse.

But they are pretty...

"If I let you keep them it will feed Avarice. Do you want that?"

No.

"Well, I'm leaving it up to you, Clare. What would make Me happiest?"

Right.

"I don't want to deprive you. But I want you healthy spiritually and you're still too vulnerable. Too weak. But I love you. And I will never give up on you."

I don't deserve Your love, Lord.

"No one does. It is My nature to love even those captive to their own desires. I will let you keep them under one circumstance. You must never do this to Me again. Never."

Oh Lord, as weak as I am I can't promise anything. I know how weak I am. Even with the best intentions I fall. I couldn't DO that.

He answered, "That's right. Better to return them and never do this again anyway."

Lord, there's only one thing that matters in this life to me, and that is You.

"I'm glad you see that. Don't compromise with Satan. When you do the wrong thing, undo it."

Lord, why didn't Ezekiel say something?

"And incur your disappointment? But He was blinded, too. You knew the whole time you were doing it that you shouldn't."

So, why did I? I didn't feel it, I rationalized - well, maybe He won't be upset with me, because this IS a necessity - it seems. In fact, I think I said, 'Lord, please don't be upset with me.'

"That's your warning that you're about to go off in the wrong direction. I'm very glad you didn't wait to come to Me. I'm very glad you came to Me immediately. This is what I want from all My children. Don't wait two days. Don't hide under the covers. Come immediately and repent."

Lord, it's not so much the loss of the flowers that makes it hard - although now that it's been several hours I recognize there's an attachment there. It's having to admit to my son that I really blew it, and him having to return them. Yet he is so humble, he will not say a word.

"I'm making an example of you, Clare. When you do something wrong, it can't possibly have good results."

Well, what do I do now...?

"Don't be double-minded. Take them back. Then we will have peace between us. Please don't do this to Me again. Please don't ignore My warnings because you think it will be OK. That's presumption, My Love."

I see that.

"Well, make the call, then we will talk some more."

So, I did call to tell him the bad news. He was very gracious about it. What a fool I am...

'I'm so sorry, Lord.'

"Me, too. But, come here and let Me hold you. You need a shoulder to cry on."

Boy, I sure did. More sobs...

"I forgive you, Clare. Let's get busy, we have some music to write, some songs to sing and some souls to save. Come with Me now, unfettered by worldly ties. Let's fly above all the turmoil, over the rainbow..."

And I thought of that song. Oh, my gosh, that's such a joyous song! How in the world am I going to work on that right now? I'm a mess!

'Oh Jesus, You are so kind and so good.'

"And you are so faithful...right?"

I'm getting there with Your tender care.

"Yes. You are."

I'm so sorry, Lord.

He replied, "Must I say it again? I forgive you."

One can never be too forgiven, one of my favorite Christians once said. Lord, do you really want me working on music now? Shouldn't I take a nap and reboot?

Which is normally what I do when I have a good cry...

He answered, "No, I really want you working on music now. I want this incident to be water under the bridge and behind us."

OK...You know best.

Well, I went to my emails and one of our prayer warriors shared this with the group. Someone in the group had said something that they regretted. And they apologized to everyone. One of the ladies replied to his email and said, "It couldn't have been more accurate for my situation. I am telling u I fall every second of the day. All I want to do is hide from our Lord. But His infinite love draws me even closer to Him. So I always tell Him, 'Lord I am not like Your other children, I am very weak, and I will fall. But please don't ever give-up on me. I need you.'"

And that was a beautiful statement that she made. And boy that just, that just nails it to the wall for me. That's exactly where I'm at. PLEASE don't ever give up on Me, even though you deserve it. 'Cause I don't know if you guys are familiar with the Scriptures on repentance, but let me look these up and share them with you.

The Lord is near to those who have a broken heart. And He saves those who are broken in spirit. And if you put away the sin that is in your hand, do not let wrongdoing in your tents. Then, you will be able to lift up your face without sin.

And I opened to, the second thing I opened to in the Bible Promises was Seeking God.

The Lord is with you when you are with Him. If you look for Him, He will let you find Him. But if you leave Him, He will leave you forever.

As for you, My son Solomon, know the God of your Father. Serve Him with a whole heart and a willing mind, for the Lord looks into all hearts and understands every plan and thought. If you look to Him, He will let you find Him. But if you turn away from Him, He will turn away from you forever. I Chronicles 28:9

And when I read that, I was just crushed. I thought, 'Oh, my God. I can't live without Him. I can't live without You, Lord.'

Thank goodness He forgave me. But guys, I am so weak, I don't know if I'll fall again? And for those of you who rejoice when I fall, understand: it reveals the Lord's mercy and goodness all the more to our listening audience.

God bless you, dear Heartdwellers. And forgive me for being a really poor example. But know that if He can love and use me, He can love and use anyone.

Can You Rescue a Soul From Hell: Will Jesus Pardon Hell At The End?

April 29, 2017

Precious HOLY SPIRIT, as Jesus promised, please guide us into all truth. Amen

Well, my dear Heartdwellers, there is a doctrine circulating that a soul can be redeemed from Hell. Some even assert that they can descend into Hell and remove a soul with their own efforts, sacrifices and fasts.

Dear Heartdwellers, I have tried very hard before to open up this point of discernment to you that is so very important. Sometimes, those with charismatic gifts and the gift of healing can minister in an area because it is given to them by God. Some are even able to be transported in the spirit to minister even as Philip was. But that is no proof that their doctrine is sound. The Satanists also have the ability to travel in the spirit and appear in different places. Some of us also can do this - but we don't discuss it. The point is, that the ardent desire and love we have for a soul can actually cause the LORD to place us beside them when they are far away, so we can minister to them. This is now becoming commonplace, with deeply committed Christians.

What does this ability tell us? That they know the Scriptures and can edit them to their own ideas? That they have the mind of Christ and can teach truth? That their ability to heal makes them equal with God in their interpretation of Scripture?

Certainly not. It does indicate a deep love for others if the gift is authentic and it truly is the Lord placing them at the bedside of the sick.

The demons are able to replicate visions of you and me and make people think I was in a specific place with them ministering. All they have to do is project an image of me to a person with spiritual sight and that's what they will see: a projected image of me or you and they will believe it is true.

I am not discounting anyone's gift; I am merely stating a fact. If it can be fabricated...the enemy will use it. So we are not to replace the Scriptures with the opinion or interpretation of man when it goes directly against sound and proven doctrine, as it is set forth in the Scriptures.

But with any impressive or charismatic gift also comes the responsibility not to overstep boundaries and take it upon themselves to go against the pastor's teachings and leadership with his flock.

I am bringing this to you because there is a heresy circulating in Christian circles that people can be saved from Hell. That Hell is not eternal punishment, and God's mercy will, in the end, rescue souls from Hell. This is the teaching.

I would ask you to look into the Scriptures for yourself and see who said that Hell was eternal torment and weigh their word against the words of those who are teaching a new and strange doctrine. The Lord warns us through Paul's writings,

"...even if we or an angel from Heaven should preach a gospel contrary to the one we preached to you, let him be under a divine curse! As we have said before, so now I say again: If anyone is preaching to you a gospel contrary to the one you embraced, let him be under a divine curse!" Galatians 1:8-9

You see, all kinds of heresy was circulating in Paul's time. And he was constantly having to defend the Truth. And now is not any difference. In fact, the Lord promised that at the end of the age there would be deceivers.

So, as far as the curse Paul pronounced goes...I think that's a bit harsh for a person who is ignorant of what the Scriptures say and just spouting their own opinion. They should be corrected in charity first. And if they continue to undermine the Scriptures then stronger measures should be taken, such as not allowing them to teach error.

Why is this declaration of Paul's so adamant and strong? Because the salvation of souls and their faith in God hinge on what is written in the Scriptures. If you meddle with a doctrine such as eternal suffering, you may be giving license to sinners to keep sinning until God delivers them at the end of the age and they get to go to Heaven. By teaching this lie, you will be held responsible for their eternal souls.

You know, 'cause some people are going to interpret it: "Well, okay. This is so pleasurable, I'm enjoying myself so much. Sooner or later, yeah - I might go to Hell for a while, but the Lord will pull me out."

The other issue you are dealing with is that if you can prove one part of Scripture wrong, then all of it can be proven wrong. It is either God's inherent Word or a metaphor to be interpreted as you will.

From the scientific community has been the continual effort to erode the very basis of the Bible: the book of Genesis. Of course, if Genesis and the creation narrative can be discredited as a fable, if Noah's ark can be discredited as a fable - then Jesus Christ is also just another fable. And anything goes: from Him marrying a former prostitute to not rising from the dead.

The devils are VERY clever, guys! And know just how our thought processes work, and how we pride ourselves on our intelligence. They know how to appeal to the intellect and what arguments will work and what will not work. And so they have set the entire university and scientific community against Christianity and the teachings of the Scriptures to the point where they are turning out hundreds of thousands of secular humanists. Which, by the way, if you research the tenets of the Church of Satan you will find they are identical to secular humanism. Wow! That's certainly no surprise.

There are probably twenty or more references to the ETERNAL torments of Hell. Most of them are spoken directly by Jesus. And what I want to present to you is that Jesus told us we would have eternal life. The word He used was THE VERY SAME word He used to describe eternal torment.

So here you can see the Devil himself is twisting concepts of God's mercy to undermine the Word of God and the teachings of Jesus.

Strike one.

Next, the enemy will present his own doctrine and be insinuating that we are a lower form of life than the tall white demon aliens. And that God the Father, Jesus and Holy Spirit are just their chief spirits on a mission from their planet; missionaries sent to populate the Earth. And there is no such thing as 'eternal' life, only life until the tall white 'god' has fulfilled his purpose on Earth.

And then the thing the Christians call the New Jerusalem is just one of the mega spaceships that will remove all souls and they will cease to be, because their mission on Earth is completed. And all the promises in Revelations are just metaphors that make sense and give hope to earthlings.

Strike two.

Therefore, we on Earth are to worship this Tall White god and pay him homage that he might spare the souls of Earth at the judgement and allow them to continue populating the Earth - showing his infinite mercy, rather than annihilating the earth and all souls in it.

Strike three.

And Bingo, your faith has just been devoured.

Please, if you consider yourself the elect, do not toy with doctrines of demons. Jesus said the evil ones would be punished for eternity. And in the next breath, also said we would have eternal life. An eternity of bliss in Heaven, using the very same word for eternal.

And here are a few Scriptures that point out this:

“Depart from Me, you cursed, into the everlasting fire prepared for the devil and his angels.” (Matt 25:41)

‘Truly I tell you, whatever you did not do for one of the least of these, you did not do for Me.’ 46And they will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life.” Matt 25:46

His winnowing fork is in His hand to clear His threshing floor and to gather His wheat into the barn; but He will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.” Matt 3:12

Whatever you did not do for one of the least of these, you did not do for Me. And they will go away into eternal punishment. But the righteous into eternal life. Matt. 25:45-46

So, shall the glory of the righteous shall have an end? For the same word is used to express the duration of the punishment: these words kolasin aionion is used to express the duration of the state of glory. And zoen aionion is also the same word used to express the duration of the agony in Hell.

Further Scripture says, But as for the cowardly, the faithless, the detestable, as for murderers, the sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars, their portion will be in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur, which is the second death. Revelation 20:14

Now, the Lord does not leave us hanging as to what will transpire at the end of the age.

The Final Judgment

...Then Death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death—the lake of fire. And if anyone was found whose name was not written in the Book of Life, he was thrown into the lake of fire. Rev 20:14-15

Where their worm never dies, and the fire is never quenched. Mark 9:46

Here Jesus is saying the word ‘never’. Now, if you ignore this and ignore the meaning of 'never' - you can also ignore His other promise, “I will never leave you or forsake you.”

So, you see - all you have to do is twist one thing into a lie, and you can turn the whole Scriptures upside down to suit whatever fancies you.

And here again, Jesus told this parable about the beggar Lazarus and the rich man who wanted his relatives to be warned about Hell: “between us and you a great chasm has been set in place, so that those who want to go from here to you cannot, nor can anyone cross over from there to us.” Luke 16:26

And I want to remind you, that in near-death experiences before a soul is permanently condemned to Hell, if he cries out to the Lord - sometimes the Lord snatches him right out of the jaws of Hell. But we're not talking about that. The heresy that's being propagated here, that you can spend the next 500 years in Hell, until the end of the world, or whatever... And at the end times the Lord will snatch you out of Hell and restore you.

Later on in Scriptures it says:

A time is coming when all who are in their graves will hear his voice and come out—those who have done what is good will rise to live, and those who have done what is evil will rise to be condemned. John 5:28-29

So this strange doctrine about Hell says that in the end, the evil souls will have the same reward as the just souls.

Later on: If your hand causes you to fall into sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter life crippled than to have two hands and go into Hell, into the unquenchable fire. Mark 9:43

The Lord here says that the fire was unquenchable; that means it will never cease to burn.

In conclusion, I ask you all to please seek the Lord about His Word and make a conscious decision not to follow any charismatic souls that preach another gospel. Rather, I would ask you to correct them in charity and love. If such a one is in grave error in this area, I think it is safe to assume there are other doctrinal errors, as well. Pray for them, but be very vigilant not to swallow anything they say - especially if it conflicts with the Lord's very own words.

I mean, after all. Who are we to believe? A man or the Lord, who is proven Himself extremely trustworthy when it comes to His Word.

So, at this point, I'd pretty much finished what I wanted to say. I asked the Lord, 'Jesus, is there anything you want to say?'

He began, "Thank you for addressing this, Clare. There are many interpretations of My life and words that are not in line with My character or what I taught. Many are the well-meaning individuals who believe that presenting Me as so Merciful that I cannot condemn liars and evildoers to Hell, because I am just too loving.

"Dear ones, do you know that it is not only I who condemn to Hell, in a very real sense? Rather, it is the soul who condemns himself or herself by her free will choices. What is not understood is that the majority of these souls would be tormented beyond measure if they were taken to Heaven. They would curse and defile with their words everything holy, until they were removed from that pristine environment.

"They have spent their lives doing evil and the very thought of love or holiness sends them into an uncontrolled frenzy of hatred, until they are restored to the Devil's domain. When a soul spends their life doing evil, they have bent themselves into corruption so far that even if you were to grant their request to go to Heaven, they would quickly recant and want to be returned to the evil domain."

And I want to take an aside here. I don't remember which saint or Christian it was. I think it was St. Therese - Little Flower. But one of the saints had asked the Lord permission to deliver someone from Hell. The Lord gave her permission. And she was taken to Hell and pulled a soul out and took them to Heaven. And that's exactly what they did: they cursed. They kicked. They screamed - they went wild until they were returned to Hell. They didn't want to be in Heaven. That was their choice. And then she understood later, 'wow. Some people just don't want to be in Heaven!'

And please, don't take this example as license for us to go to Hell and pull people out. The Lord was just trying to illustrate to her how corrupt the heart of a soul in Hell truly is, so that she wouldn't be so grieved when she sees people going to Hell. She wanted to extend mercy, but it had to be revealed to her that the inner man was already so corrupted that they would never be happy in Heaven.

So, this is not an example to confirm that you can go to Hell and save people. Or that Hell is finite. No. Rather it's an example of the Lord teaching a soul "this is what really transpires in one who has been condemned to Hell."

The Lord continued. "Yes, I am the one in a very real sense that determines their afterlife. But what you don't see is the bent of a soul, even one crying out for mercy on the surface. What lies beneath is another story.

"There are many false, but plausible, doctrines being presented at this time. As I told you, the church would be apostate. Many false doctrines. Again, I ask of you, be wise as serpents and gentle as doves. Clare has presented many unseen concepts to you, but every single one is backed by My word or My actions in My life. I would never ask you to agree with or believe anything totally opposite of what I taught.

"Be careful, loved ones. Be careful of lying signs and wonders that can accompany those who have been chosen by Satan to deceive and divide. These are going to proliferate during the end times. And if you are lazy and unfamiliar with the Scriptures, you may end up captive and be stripped clean of your faith in Me.

"Accept nothing at face value, just because there are attesting miracles. I have warned you of this in advance. Please, see to it that you pay heed."

And at that point I remembered there was a Scripture about that. And I looked it up. And this is what He said:

...For false Christs and false prophets will appear and perform great signs and wonders that would deceive even the elect, if that were possible. See, I have told you in advance. Matthew 24:24-25

You know... I thought, 'I hope my personality's not getting in here, Lord. That I'm trying to defend myself, what I'm teaching. I'm hoping this is You, and not me, who's giving me this message - this latter half.' And I read the words: I have told you in advance. I had no way of knowing that. But I looked again at my sentence preceding this one.

Here the Lord said, "Accept nothing at face value just because there are attesting miracles. I have warned you of this in advance. Please, see to it that you pay heed."

That phrase: warned you in advance. That had to be the Lord, because I wasn't expecting that. And I just wrote it down as I heard it. And I turn around and look for the Scripture - and He used the very same words in Matthew 24:25. That gave me confidence that it truly was the Lord, and not just me going on a rant.

The Lord continued here, "I have left you with the Spirit of Truth. He will lead and guide you into all truth just as I promised, if you listen very carefully and examine My words to you. I pray the spirit of Lies will not be able to devour your faith. And that you may stand in these last days and be found innocent and without error, having defended the truth in courage and righteousness. I have not left you on your own. "WE" are with you, even to the end of the age."

The harvest is the end of the age, and the harvesters are angels. As the weeds are collected and burned in the fire, so will it be at the end of the age. The Son of Man will send out His angels, and they will weed out of His kingdom every cause of sin and all who practice lawlessness. And they will throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Matt 13:39-42

So you see? The Lord talks a great deal about Hell. Jesus speaks more about Hell than anyone else in the Bible. So, to go against what He's taught about Hell is to go against Him. Discredit just one doctrine and you can discredit them all.

Please, dear Heartdwellers. Let's be so very vigilant over our hearts and our minds. And not allow anything to be sown into us that is false.

God bless you all. And may the Spirit of Truth always have the victory in our hearts and minds and lives. Amen.
