

Don't Let It Get Titanic On Ya

Rachael Martin 4,13,2017

Romans 6:1-2 - What shall we say then? Are we to continue in sin that grace may abound? ² By no means! How can we who died to sin still live in it?

Grace, grace, and more grace to you!

The Lord has a way of gently reminding me sometimes of how far I've come, where I'm at and what I need to steer clear of. He does allow each of us to learn according to how we are created and He knows our limits. He also knows our heart. He knows what tempts us and He knows what motivates us. They are 2 different things!!

Proverbs 4:25 - Let your eyes look directly forward, and your gaze be straight before you.

As I wore my heart on my sleeve tonight with the Lord, asking Him to forgive me and lead me to His heart, I saw this vision of the Titanic and what I could hear in my spirit was that the Lord doesn't want us to get so wrapped up in our mistakes (past or current) that we forget to look ahead. Of course the enemy wants us to look down and away constantly trying to shame us or get us so involved in trying to fix things or even so wrapped up in comfort or security of the here and now that we forget that there is very real danger and temptations and haughtiness of spirit that can entrap us from moving in His flow.

Sometimes our thoughts and situations can seem so big that they are impossible to turn around when needed. God is the God of the Impossible!

The verse I'm going to end with is a bit strong. It is God's word and I need to hear it. I'm praying that we all will be diligent and continue to seek the Lord today and always. Blessings!

Revelation 3:1-6 - "And to the angel of the church in Sardis write: 'The words of him who has the seven spirits of God and the seven stars. "I know your works. You have the reputation of being alive, but you are dead. ² Wake up, and strengthen what remains and is about to die, for I have not found your works complete in the sight of my God. ³ Remember, then, what you received and heard. Keep it, and repent. If you will not wake up, I will come like a thief, and you will not know at what hour I will come against you. ⁴ Yet you have still a few names in Sardis, people who have not soiled their garments, and they will walk with me in white, for they are worthy. ⁵ The one who conquers will be clothed thus in white garments, and I will never blot his name out of the book of life. I will confess his name before my Father and before his angels. ⁶ He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.'
