TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Be prepared with correct ID documentation. You are required to have a valid Passport &/or Visa for International travel regardless of age. Without proper identification, a passport and necessary visas you will not be permitted to depart. Traveler assumes responsibility of verifying you are traveling with the required documents. Visit <http://www.travel.state.gov> for more information. Please verify but in almost every instance your passport must not expire until 6 months after you return home from your travels.
2. RECONFIRM FLIGHTS - Please be advised that air schedules are subject to change at anytime prior to your departure. It is the sole responsibility of the traveler to reconfirm the day and time of your flights. Failure to do so may result in you missing your flights. Simply Travel, LLC assumes no responsibility for air schedule changes, delays or cancellations by any air carrier.
3. ONLINE/AIRPORT CHECK-IN - All passengers should arrive at the airport 1 ½ -3 hours prior to their scheduled departure. In most cases you can check in online and print your boarding passes at home beginning 24 hours in advance if you wish to do so. It is the sole responsibility of the traveler to check in for their flight. Simply Travel, LLC assumes no responsibility online client check in.
4. AIRLINE BAGGAGE FEES - Additional fees for baggage may apply. Please contact your airline or refer to their website for detailed information regarding their checked baggage policies.
5. AIRLINE ITINERARIES AND FARES are based on current tariffs that are subject to change without notice. Most airline tickets are NON-REFUNDABLE. Seat assignments are on request only.
6. In compliance with Dept. of Transportation, airline passengers are advised of possible aircraft disinsection. Disinsection is permitted under international law in order to protect public health, agriculture and environment. This can be performed while passengers are on the aircraft depending on which disinsection they use. For more information on aircraft disinsection, contact Aviation Consumer Protection Enforcement at 202-366-2220 or visit their site at <http://aircomsumer.dot.gov/spray.htm>
7. The Hazardous Materials Regulations (HMR) are federal transportation safety rules found in 49 CFR, parts 171-180. The FAA enforces the HMR in aviation. Passengers violating the HMR can be fined from $250 to $50,000. Those who intentionally violate the regulations are subject to a criminal penalty of up to $500,000 and/or five years imprisonment. So, it is important to know what items are hazardous materials and whether or not they are allowed in the aircraft cabin or in checked baggage. Hazardous materials include explosives, compressed gases, flammable liquids and solids, oxidizers, poisons, corrosives and radioactive materials. Examples: Paints, lighter fluid, fireworks, tear gases, oxygen bottles, and radio-pharmaceuticals. There are special exceptions for small quantities (up to 70 ounces total) of medicinal and toilet articles carried in your luggage and certain smoking materials carried on your person. For more information on hazardous material and what can and cannot be taken on aircraft please visit http://www.faa.gov/about/initiatives/hazmat_safety/

What is a Hazardous Material? From lithium batteries to aerosol whipped cream, many items used every day at home or work are regulated as hazardous materials (a.k.a. "hazmat" and "dangerous goods"). These products may seem harmless; however, when transported by air they can be very dangerous. Vibrations, static electricity, and temperature and pressure variations can cause items to leak, generate toxic fumes, start a fire, or even explode. Hazardous materials include, but are not limited to: Explosives, Gases, Flammable Liquids and Solids, Oxidizers, Toxic and Infectious Materials, Radioactive Materials, Corrosives and many other items that can endanger the traveling public when not handled correctly. The good news is that many of the hazardous materials we can't live without are allowed in our baggage, but only if we follow the rules.

8. EXCURSION AND PROMOTIONAL FARES - Most discount fares involve certain restrictions. A change in carrier(s), flight(s), time(s), or routing(s) could result in carrier demanding a full fare. Obtain agency or airline assistance before making changes.
9. HOTELS - most reservations are prepaid and non-refundable. However, if your reservation is confirmed on a guaranteed basis only and need to cancel or change plans, please notify your hotel(s) within the time period specified by that hotel.

10. SPECIAL REQUESTS - Room views, complimentary upgrades, room by, connecting, seat requests, etc... CANNOT be guaranteed by the travel agency or the tour operator. While every attempt will be made to accommodate such requests the travel agency/airline/tour operator will not be held responsible if such requests cannot be fulfilled.
