Dear WRVM. Thank you for being there! When we had that cold weather Sunday, our church did not have services, so I had a chance to listen to two of my favorite programs – The Lutheran Hour and Moody Church Hour. The Moody Church started by praising God with music, singing and instrumentals. I will never forget. It made one feel like “a bit of a taste of heaven.” Thank you for your programming.

Bruce & Delores – Email

Playing instrumental music on Sundays at 5:32 pm. My wife Dolores and I enjoy the instrumental music very much. It is so relaxing and peaceful.

Deb – Email

WRVM is a 24-hour radio station in my life. I have it on in my car or the app on my phone. It's been a blessing for at least 30+ years and is the way the Lord often comforts me in the middle of the night with the encouraging songs. I enjoy Unshackled, Managers Desk, Creation Moments, Joni and Friends, Adventures in Odyssey, Nightsounds, Brinkman Adventures and Lamplighter Theatre.

God uses your station to bless and draw people to Himself. I live in southwestern Wisconsin now and have a friend here who loves the app and I have the WRVM sticker on the back of my car. Probably some people have tried the station because of it. Blessings to all of you who serve Him this way.

Daren – Green Bay, WI

Greetings in Christ. I listen to you from Green Bay. I found your station back in 2016. When I was in a dark place and homeless. I want to thank you and everyone involved, for the season of listening I had with you. Even though I have moved on to other Christian radio, does not mean that your part was not influential to me. And I still tune in to hear Moody Presents, with Dr. Mark Jobe and Truth for Life with Alistair Begg every Sunday before I go to church. I also like to listen to Grace to You with John MacArthur, Turning Point with Dr. David Jeremiah, and Insight for Living with Dr. Charles Swindoll, Unshackled and Nightsounds with the late Bill Pearce. These teachings are not available on other stations. So, keep up the great work. Thank you again. Daren- Celebrating 7 years of sobriety!

Bryan – Two Rivers, WI

Dear Folks at WRVM. Happy Spring Letter Month. Wow! Spring! Where did the winter go? I'm glad I don't own a snowmobile anymore. I feel sorry for the people who do. We just don't get the snow like we used to. Thank you for being there for us. Don't change a thing. Enclosed please find a check. Thanks!

Kent – Marion, WI

My dear Voice of the Master. Another Spring Letter Month. I've written many times and have been listening even longer, 35 years to be exact. What a holy ride it has been. I started with one radio in my kitchen way back in 1990 and found WRVM by going through the whole dial. I never turned the channel after that. And years down the line, I got more radios and today; I have 4 going 24-7 in all my rooms. So I hear it all day and night. My favorites remain David Jeremiah, Chuck Swindoll, the Moody Church Hour, although I really liked hearing Erwin Lutzer but the new pastor is also good, Janet Parshall and, of course, all the heavenly music that flows through the airwaves. You have been a big part of my walk with Jesus these many years. Here's to 35 more. Of course, I would be 108 years old. Who knows but the almighty God.

David – Reedsville, WI

Good afternoon WRVM, and happy Spring Letter Month. I have been listening for many years, and I found your station back in the days when you would turn a radio dial to tune in a station. At the time you were broadcasting a praise hymn, and I have been listening ever since. Today of course, I push a preset button on my radio to tune in your station. This morning when I listened to Morning Watch on my way to work, I found myself singing along with a praise hymn, which is a great way to start the day. On my way home from work I listen to In The Market and the Family Drama Hour. I very much enjoy these programs. I listen to the news reported on Christian Radio and compare it to the liberal mainstream media. One of the Elders in our church recently advised to be careful where you get your information from. This is as true today as it was when Eve was in the garden listening to a snake. Keep up the good work.

Deb – Onalaska, WI

Thank you all for serving the Lord the way you do! You've been a part of my walk with the Lord for over 40 years and I am so grateful every day to be able to listen to you no matter where I live. Love listening to all the encouraging music whether it be during the day or in the middle of the night, Saturday afternoons with DeYoung and the Gaithers is wonderful, as well as listening to Lamplighter, Brinkmans and Odyessy in the morning. Yes, I'm older but there's something very special knowing that the younger generation is learning about God and His ways, I go to bed with Night Sounds. Unshackled and Janet Parshall are also good ones. Blessings on the New Year! Praying for you all! God bless and keep you!

Dennis

I have listened to WRVM for many years and continue to provide support for your efforts as I think that you are providing a valuable service to the Lord. I like your teaching programs that you put on during the day such as Turning Point and the Bible Bus. Since I have retired I have been able to listen to you during the day as well as at times in the evenings. I think that you have a very good weekend program and especially enjoy listening to Prophecy Today on Saturday with updates on happenings in the holy land and the lands around it. There is much happening in that area that you don't hear about on most other media. Moody Church on Sundays along with Songs of the Night are also favorites that have taught me a lot over the years. And last but not least I enjoy your format of Christian music that you provide. Happy Letter Month!

Pamella – Kaukauna, WI

Hello WRVM Staff. I give thanks that wherever I go I can connect to WRVM. I have been doing that a lot lately as I travel back and forth from WI to CO to care for my 90-year-old Mother. She has enjoyed hearing the older hymns and often sings along. I give thanks for such airwave technologies. If I were to name all the programs I am thankful for on WRVM my email would go on too long. I wake each morning to hear your voices at 5 AM and give thanks as I am a new widow. My dear Randy passed away last October and hearing your voices is comfort to my ears. I love the children's and financial programs. The political programs are not my favorite yet I know as Christians we are to be aware of the political events in our country. I enjoy hearing the temperatures across the country as I have family members in CA, CO, OK, NM and VT.

Emeryl – Sturgeon Bay, WI

Thank you especially for airing all the good music. My favorite programs are Pastor John MacArthur, Pastor J. Vernon McGee and especially Bill Pearce on Nightsounds. I have listened to him since 1984. Thank you for the news and weather too.

Carol – Oshkosh, WI

I am so thankful for all of you. Your station is such a blessing to so many. Music has a special way of touching my heart. I really enjoy the song request hours. A favorite program of mine is Prophecy Today on Saturday. It is so good to get news that you can trust.

Lolita – Little Suamico, WI

WRVM staff. Thank you for all you do. My husband and I have been listening for more than 30 years. We find so much comfort. Your music is uplifting. The messages are lifesaving. God bless you all.

Joanne - Email

Dear WRVM. I started listening to WRVM in 1980 when I got saved. I loved listening to John Mac Arthur, J Vernon McGee, Joni, Night Sounds and all of the beautiful music but could only listen to it in my car. 44 years later my husband got saved. He didn't really care for Christian music before he got saved but now is hooked on every song you play. He bought a radio for the house just to listen to WRVM throughout the day. Your programs truly encourage us to live in God's Word. My husband wanted to pick a time that we could read the Bible together so now we read it every day right after supper. Thank you for your constant encouragement to stay in God's Word.

Barbara – Brillion, WI

I'm still annoyed getting a weather update every hour on the hour! I don't need to be reminded unless there's a sudden change. Especially overnight. Ditto on the news; thankful for factual, updated and media distorted but don't need the repetitive; especially on Sunday. Praising the Lord for WRVM ministry.

Jeanie – Seymour, WI

Happy Letter Month WRVM staff! Thanks for all you do! I have been listening for several years and enjoy most of your programming. Of the preachers and sermons, I like John MacArthur the best. Despite the fact that I don't play any instruments and I really can't sing very well, I love all the music. Sometimes my husband and I make a request when you have those times. May God bless all of you for what you do to spread God's Word over the air and radio waves. I always send a gift along when I write you for Letter Month.

[LYNNE – OSHKOSH] Dear WRVM. Hello. I started listening about 2 weeks ago. I was looking for a Christian radio station on my FM radio. I was so glad when I found this station. I am getting to know your programming. A program guide would help a lot. I am retired and listen a lot. I love music. I was in choir since age 4. I am no longer able to sing. It's very hard to get used to.

Kathy – Email from Branson, MO

I thought you might find this interesting. My sister and I were signed up for the Branson bus trip and were so disappointed when it was cancelled, so my dear husband offered to drive us down. We were able to get tickets for everything, PTL! When I went to Priceline to book a hotel, the Spark Hilton, where you had planned to stay, came up, so I booked it. Perfect, right? When we arrived to check in this afternoon, we found the hotel surrounded by fences, and we couldn't figure out how to get in. We pulled into a lot at another hotel nearby to make a call to them. An answering machine said that it was closed! We had never been notified, but were able to call Priceline and get a credit, with a 20% bonus. We decided to go into the hotel whose lot we were parked in, and they had 2 rooms available. They informed us that there had been a gas explosion there, and no one has been allowed in the building. Perhaps that's why we weren't notified. At that time, I imagined WRVM pulling in with a bus full and being confronted with that news, then trying to find rooms elsewhere. Oh my! Maybe God had a hand in keeping you from going?! Not only that, but the hotel where we are staying was offering a 20% discount for those who had been cancelled out. And the hotel is wonderful! God is so so good!

Can't wait for the first concert tonight!

The Gustafsons

Dear Folks at WRVM. Thank you for proclaiming life through music, encouraging words, truth and wisdom. We have been listening in Rhinelander for 30 years, since we moved to the Northwoods. Now I am listening online in Galveston TX as we are on vacation. We enjoyed the morning wake up program, Family Life, Haven, Nancy Lee Wolgemuth, Odyssey, Saturday morning and evening programs, The National Choir on Sunday, along with Alistair Begg and Pastor Jobe, Joni Erickson Tada and all the music programs. Thank you for your faithfulness and thoughtfulness in programming. Praying God's continued leading providing and protecting and encouraging you in your mission of making Christ known.

Kevin & Gail – Green Lake, WI

Hello to all at WRVM. During this Spring Letter month of 2025, we wanted to reach out with a note of appreciation for your ministry. We listen to your music and programs Sunday thru Saturday via traditional radio, the WRVM phone app, website live streaming and Tune In, depending on where are and what devices we have. Thank you for serving your listeners with good selections of music and programs. May God bless you richly.

Algoma Listener

Dear WRVM. The power of radio. As a young child, there was not TV. I remember sitting on my father's lap listening to Fibber McGee & Molly, The Shadow Knows and My Little Margie; developing my imagination. We didn't have Christian radio. But 20 years ago when I discovered it, my life has changed. While going through a divorce, I searched the dial and found WRVM to be the best music and Bible teaching I needed. It became my constant companion wherever I went. To me it is much more satisfying than TV, visualizing the events in my own way and picturing what the announcers looked like. I enjoyed meeting them, putting a face to the voice. It is so heartwarming to hear stories of how people's lives have been changed hearing the right song at the right time. Recently I was having some worry & anxiety problems. I turned on the radio and a preacher was addressing that same issue! Later in the day, I tuned in and heard the same topic giving me hope that Jesus would get me through! Radio is very powerful in my life. I pray for you daily. God bless you all.

Sandy – Internet Streaming from Waukesha, WI

Greetings WRVM staff! I am changing my ways and not waiting until the last day to write my letter. I am listening to Brian and the morning show music. I am a night owl and the music overnight is such a blessing! I keep WRVM on all night and when the morning show begins at 5:30 I should be sleeping. But I love the quiet early morning and my time with God as the music speaks to me. I love the song request time Monday through Saturday. Since Roy and I live in Waukesha, hearing the weather forecast for up north is good. (You've had a worse winter than us.) The announcers are doing a super job! I love when they pray and read scripture, too. I look forward to the Saturday morning programming. I don't catch the weekday programs as much as in the past. Even though we have local Christian radio stations, my go-to station is WRVM! Keep up the good work!

Fred & Colleen

Thank you for your wonderful station. We will continue to listen to WRVM as much as we can. Thank you staff.

Ron & Dorothy – Comments Box

We very much enjoy WRVM and its programming. We listen in our home and in our car. Favorites include preaching and teaching, uplifting and joyous music, song request time, and travel opportunities. Keep up the great work, staff! I Corinthians 15:58, 'Therefore my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.' God's continued blessings on WRVM radio and staff.

Richard

Dear WRVM staff. Thank you for all the hard work that I am sure we who benefit from your radio station are unaware of all that goes into what we hear. I really like the short version of the Unshackled program, as well as the music and teaching, especially Alistair Begg. May God bless all your effort.

Theresa – Green Bay, WI

Hello WRVM family! Hope you're cleared out from the deluge of snow and ready for spring - Spring Letter Month is a great way to start! We, sadly, are sick in bed - not the best way to gear up for spring. We have three radios on 24/7 - two in the house and one in the garage, so I don't miss anything when I go downstairs or outside, and I do use the app when a radio is not available.

I started listening to 102.7 full-time 10 years ago last October, when it brought tremendous peace during a stressful time. Now it's like a comfortable squish-mallow pillow. :) Favorite programs include Breakpoint, Creation Moments (so many fascinating episodes! Who knew bumblebees were warm-blooded?!), Viewpoint, Family Life Today, Focus on the Family, J. Vernon McGee (he is still so relevant!), Stories of Great Christians and the kid's programs on Saturday morning, Alistair Begg and the Manager's Desk. My husband enjoys Psalm 95, but I like the overnight, Maranatha-style music. Thanks for being there 24/7. Wishing you a great year!

Mary – Sturgeon Bay, WI

Dear WRVM. I probably have been listening to your radio station since day one when we moved to Door County 40 yrs. ago and I was happy to hear the great programs that have made such a difference in my life. Unfortunately, I didn't enjoy the music and still do not (esp in the a.m.--so many of the same songs/artists are played so often) I vote for more instrumental (other than just Sundays @ 5:30). Some of my favorite programs are Janet Parshall, Cal Thomas and Kirby Anderson who have been so informative and important to me. Family Life program is great with fun and relevant topics. We were able to go on a few of their "Love like you Mean it" Cruises that were just lovely. I don't listen often in the evening but do thank you for carrying "Unshackled". Thanks for SRN news also. We love WRVM being there – Don't know what we'd do without it as a part of our daily living.

Dennis & Lana – Coleman, WI

Dear Staff at WRVM. We so appreciate all that each of you do to make WRVM available to us. We have listened since the very beginning and what a blessing the station has been. So many programs over the years that have helped us grow in Christ. We especially are blessed with the Lutheran Hour and Moody Church Hour on Sunday's when we are unable to attend our local church. Love most of the music, it's a wonderful mix! We enjoyed so much the 2 bus trips we were able to do and hope to do more in the future, Lord willing. Thanks and God's blessing.

Dave – Appleton, WI

Happy March Letter Month! I need to tell you about an old clock radio that sits on my workbench. It was my dad's. I don't really listen that way anymore, but I am having a hard time getting rid of it. It was dad's birthday today. He would have been 98. He went on to heaven in 2009. That radio has WRVM marked on the radio dial with a little white tape arrow. Dad took his faith seriously. Studied his Bible and attended church and studies regularly whenever he could. For the last 25 plus years of his life, he dealt with an excruciating, debilitating nerve disease. Nights were the worst for him. He could not sleep in a bed because of the pain. I steered him to WRVM and to Nightsounds because it gave me such comfort each night. He became a big fan of your station and had it on many nights. So, for dad, I am thanking you for your comforting Gospel messages all through the day and the night. It meant so much to him and so much to me and our family. These days your station continues to be the 'go-to-radio-station' in our home and car. We listen from Appleton on 102.7 and sometimes on 101.7, depending on interference. Now that you have a phone app, that's what I listen to at night. Also love your web presence. You serve a great need. Keep doing what you are doing. Thank you for your dedicated service to your Savior and us, your listeners. I am enclosing a gift for your ministry. May God bless your efforts and let our little gifts add up to big blessings. Also, thank you so much for not having those monster share-a-thons! The Lord be with you all.

Phyllis – Antigo, WI

Dear WRVM. You are a gift. You are a gift from God that seeks to bring the Word of God to people. You are a gift that gives in many ways. My monthly donation, though small, doesn't reflect what you do for me through Christ. Just when I need a bit of help, here is the message or talk show host or song that helps me with my attitude adjustments. Thank you to each of you!

Hope – Pembine, WI

Dear Friends at WRVM. Thanks for your ministry over the radio waves. The station is such an encouragement to me. In long, sleepless nights, the music comforts and challenges me. And I learn so much from the sermons. My almost adult children still gather around on Saturday mornings whenever possible to hear Lamplighter Theater and Adventures in Odyssey. Thank you so much for sharing the Gospel and pouring into our community and beyond.

Debbie – Freemont, WI

To everyone at WRVM. I enjoy listening to Turning Point, Nightsounds, Keys for Kids and all of your music. I have my radio on all night. I enjoy the Morning show as well. Your programs and music are very inspiring to me. Also encouraging and comforting. I like your Bible verses. Keep up the good work. You help me grow in my faith and give me confidence.

Adam – Mosinee, WI

I love listening to your station while I am plowing snow. The break up of music and speakers helps the day go by faster.

Keith – Rothschild, WI

Love the variety of your music, song request hour, The public square, hymns played Sunday afternoons and SRN news.

Rick – Clintonville, WI

Good morning WRVM Staff. Just a letter from a thankful listener. I enjoy the work God has placed you here for. So many times over the years just when I needed to hear that perfect scripture, that blessing has come across the air waves. Thank you for your dedication to sharing the word of God and a wonderful selection of music. God's Blessings to each and every one of you.

John – Wallace, MI

Hello again WRVM. I was thinking the other day (and chuckling to myself), if you are running short on letters, could play some Petra music...that would be sure to bring in a lot of mail, both good and bad. Mine would be good of course. I've really enjoyed their music over the years, and the message is loud and clear. But hey, you know what they say about free advice...Have a great day!

Michael – Merrill, WI

Happy Letter Month! I am so grateful for WRVM. I listen daily. I appreciate the staff and their positive attitude. I have listened for many years, and found salvation while listening to Unshackled in 2009. Changed me, changed my life. Thank God for your programming: John MacArthur, Adventures in Odyssey, SRN news, Chuck Swindoll, Through the Bible, and the uplifting music too! I get to listen sometimes on Saturday and enjoy the kids shows too. I have learned a lot, and hope to learn and grow more. God's voice coming to us through you is much needed and changes lives. Thank you for serving God with truth and love. Here's to many more years! Amen! God bless all of you and your work.

Jenny – DePere, WI

Dear WRVM. I saved this Valentine's Day Card for WRVM because I love this station and all who help make WRVM what it is. I've been a regular listener for the past 13 years. The programs I regularly listen to are Morning Watch, Manager's Desk, Haven Today, Faith & Finance, Janet Parshall, Turning Point with David Jeremiah, Insight for Living with Chuck Swindoll, Unshackled and Nightsounds. I especially enjoy the Morning Watch announcers, each giving their unique flair for those early mornings and Manager's Desk to find out more details about the station. So thankful I can give a little to this station to keep it running. It makes me smile to know I am a small part of something so vast that God is doing through this ministry. It's humbling that God will let us partner with Him so we can store up treasures in Heaven. God wants us...God loves us! Keep fighting the 'good fight' WRVM. I'm praying for you all in Jesus' name. P.S. I love the local concerts you set up each year.

Diane – Goodman, WI

Dear Everyone at WRVM. Blessed Spring Letter Month. Thank you for all you do to bring joy into our days. We love your announcers and their voices are a part of our home! A day doesn't start without Morning Watch. God bless.

Chris – Suring, WI

Hey folks. The WRVM radio tower is my 'lighthouse', physically and spiritually. Living in the Suring area, I drive by the station and tower almost every day. Believe me when I say all of this is a blessing. Being able to stop and visit with the staff is amazing. All your hard work will not go unnoticed. Thank you.

Polly - Email

Dear all. I'm so grateful for your ministry. I've been listening for over 40 years. First on 102.7, and now on that and 88.5, depending on where I am. All of you announcers are amazing! Good natured, professional, and honest. I like the Bible questions at 3 pm. Programs I listen to are: Revive our hearts, Faith and Finance, Janet Parshall, Focus on the Family. Of course, I like your song selections and commentary. I consider it an honor to be able contribute to your mission in a small way. Thank you all and may God continue to bless your work until Jesus comes!

Dana – Merrill, WI

Thank you for your service to our LORD JESUS. I moved from the state of Maine 6 months ago and after listening to a couple other stations. I found yours on 88.1 in Merrill. I love your mixture of teaching; especially the evening lineup starting with Adventures in Odyssey, and music, I wake up at 5:30 to you guys. I retired from the P.O. 6 years ago and you have made my new home joyous. I have you on almost constantly. I don't even miss my TV. May GOD richly bless you!!!

Alice - Wausau, WI

FIRST TIME LETTER WRITER - Dear WRVM. Just a first time note to let you know how I appreciate and enjoy your song request segments. I love being able to make requests for all my family and friends. Also enjoy songs in the night. Thank you for sharing God's love and Salvation to so many listeners across Wisconsin. The Lord continue to bless your ministry.

Jane – Antigo, WI

Dear Friends. Appreciate WRVM so much. Living alone it makes you feel like someone is with me and, of course, it helps us to know God is always with us. Thank you to each one that helps us know Christ better. I've listened many years.

Karen – Gresham, WI

To all of those who work at WRVM. I have told myself for years I should write on Letter Month, but one year turns into another and here I am sitting and retired for years with no excuse! Just old age and laziness. I have been listening, I think, since you started WRVM, back when my boys were babies. My husband is now with the Lord and I am going to be 80 this year. The four boys we had are now 56, 55, 50 and 45 and still come up to Gresham, where my husband and sons built me the little cabin I now live in and I still hear WRVM. The Lord has always been a first in our home, so the station is the only one we listen to at home and in the car.

(cont.)

There are too many programs that I enjoy to pick just a few. The Lord has been my life's blessing. Hope He keeps blessing all of His people and media like yours.

Jeff – Crivitz, WI

Dear Mike and Staff. As a seven-year-old boy, I remember looking out the window from the back of our family's station wagon while heading to our little cabin in Langlade. While ascending Suring Hill, my father would often mention, "That's the new radio station we're listening to." Well, neither I nor WRVM are still in the 'new' category but the Lord has kept us both going all these years. Praise be to God. While facing numerous challenges throughout this life, including the home-going of my wife at a young age, a house full of children to care for on my own and medical conditions related to my military service, I rarely had funds available to help support your ministry. Well, the Lord has blessed me with a Godly new wife and the children are all grown and out on their own. Your station is on at various times nearly every day, whether at home or in the car. Thank you for always maintaining a Godly, Christ-centered focus. You are much appreciated. Each listener has different needs and preferences, so as far as programming goes, I wouldn't change a thing. Please accept this modest gift to help in spreading the Good News.

Kathy – Green Bay, WI

Happy Spring to WRVM. Hearing about the Wisconsin Gospel Music Festival coming up in May brings back good memories of the first bus trip we took with WRVM last May. We thought we would be the youngest people on the trip but our hosts, Ken & Alisha Bishop, were the youngest, I believe. The concerts were just wonderful to experience. Emcee Michael Booth was fabulous. Every time I hear one of the groups on the radio now it brings back memories. We are blessed to have this station to listen to every day. I have really come to appreciate Haven Today and other Bible speakers, always making sure to bring my discerning ears. In the Market with Janet Parshall is always so informative (and scary with this culture and their beliefs). Hearing the old hymns is always a delight. Does it get any better than listening to the Gettys? By the way, how many artist renditions do you think you have of "When the Roll is Called Up Yonder"? I have to chuckle every time I hear that and start to wonder.

Paul & Lynn – Larsen, WI

Thank you for providing excellent Scripture Teachers and a variety of music for your varied listeners

Dee - Three Lakes, WI

Your station has been a Godsend. I'm 81 and have listened for years and always blessed by your programs. I love In the Market, Turning Point, Grace to You, Insight for Living, Public Square, Lutheran Hour, Song Requests, Cal Thomas, Thru the Bible, Prophecy Today and Creation Moments. I like most of the music, especially the Booth Brothers and the like. I include you all in my prayers and know you have God's blessings. You are a light in a dark world.

Steve – Rhinelander, WI

WRVM is instrumental in our ability to maintain focus on our spiritual walk with Jesus. I will listen to In the Market with Janet Parshall almost daily. My wife, 99-year-old father and I listen to Phillip Miller and Moody Church on Sundays since my father does not feel up to getting out of the house for church anymore. I am blessed to have had parents who took me to church every week and kept Jesus front and center in our lives. It is a gift I can never repay.
