A Nudge from Holy Spirit via Ezekiel

May 1, 2019

Jonathan McReynolds (song) No Gray

Yeah, I wrote this song. And I pray that you listen to all the words. 'Cause, I feel like at some point in everybody's life. We feel like this.

Verse 1:

So, what do I do, I wanna be saved.
But I got to stay cool, too.
And no, I'm not a fool
I know eventually I'm gonna have to choose
And, really, I don't wanna lose
My ticket into Heaven
And a chance to be used by You

[Pre-Chorus]

And if it's God that I'm after I just can't serve two masters
And before something happens
I gotta turn it all around
Because I know

[Chorus]

I can't just have my cake and eat it too
'Cause it's real easy to stay on the fence and still do you
And it'd be cool if we could love the Lord and still go do our thing
But see, it doesn't work like that
You gotta be white or black

[Verse 2]

See, I've realized
When it comes to sin
You just don't compromise
See, it's a matter of death and life
Be weak and do wrong
Or be strong and do right
And I don't wanna keep going to church

Singing all about how much You're worth
And then continue doing my dirt
Living as if I didn't care if You're hurt

[Pre-Chorus]

'Cause if it's God that I'm after I just can't serve two masters
And before something happens
I gotta turn it all around
Because I know

An Urgent Call to Prayer 5-2-2019

May 2, 2019

Lord Jesus, thank You for Your warnings and giving us new chances to prove our love for You. Dear Lord, I have not loved You with all my mind, because it has wandered. Help us to keep our gaze on Your hand, Lord, and to move when you say move. Amen.

Heartdwellers, we are at that point again. I do hope you've recovered a bit, because we really need to drench President Trump in prayer. He is going to England on Friday to see the Queen. It is extremely serious and vital that we keep him alive with our prayers.

I've been told that a secret service man died while he was there last time. And another time that he was in the British Isles. I don't have any proof, but we do know that she is at the very hub of evil in the world.

One of our senior prayer warriors believes that there will not only be attempts on President Trump's life, but also Netanyahu and Putin. It was revealed to her in prayer that the enemy has been praying, fasting, and casting spells for months. Gathering up power to make this attempt successful. No doubt the timing they set is also in accord with their practices.

Dear ones, I come to you again asking for your fasting and prayers from the time President leaves until he returns. If the attempts on his life are successful, WW3 will happen very soon afterwards. And of course, the Rapture will occur in the midst of the chaos.

Please, families. All over the world. This is not a national danger. This means the end of peace on Earth, and millions will be killed in every country. So, please consider this something we must pray against. No matter what nation we were born into, we are still citizens of Heaven. So, all that occurs on Earth belongs to us, as well.

I would like to suggest that you call your friends together for a 24-hour prayer vigil, assigning one or two hours to each person that can be done in their own homes—especially in the presence of the consecrated Communion Host. We want to cover President Trump, Netanyahu, and Putin in prayer—but especially, our President. The ideal would be to cover them for three days, when President Trump leaves for England. I don't if that's tomorrow. Especially when he is with the Queen, and when he returns.

I am bringing this to you now, because Ezekiel had quite an episode today. Brought on by his enemies. But the Lord allowed it to get our attention. And He delivered Ezekiel from his pain. He really was trying to get our attention that this is a very serious time-frame, and we need to cover President Trump, and President Putin as well, in serious intercession. I've basically dropped everything I was doing, except for prayer.

I am coming to the conclusion, there is time for music, and there is time for art—and there is time for prayer. And prayer always comes first. Especially in national emergencies. After all, what good would a song or painting do if the world blew up tomorrow? How many could it possibly touch?

So, I am asking you who are in love with Your Jesus, to cover our President during this short interval of time when he is at a very high risk.

Also, I want to announce to you that “A Hope in Winter Comes” has just been released on Amazon, and of course, we have copies here. These are messages given to me during our times of ministry with a very devout group of Philippino nurses in Florida.

It is interesting to note, I finished this book at 3:00 AM on September 11th, 2001. We were woken up by a phone call around 9:30 or just after the first building was hit. We actually witnessed the live detonation of the second building.

I thought it very strange when I saw President Bush with a smurky smile on his face, walking through the rubble. I asked myself, ‘Why is this man smiling—when so many around him are crying in agony?’ The answer came back, “Because it was a successful operation.” Back in those days, people thought you were looney if you believed that this was self-inflicted by our government. But now the truth has come out, thanks to the disclosure of confiscated computers in the CIA and FBI.

Dear Ones, our President is alive right now because YOU prayed. He is in office right now, because YOU prayed. And will continue to destroy the stronghold of evil on our nation, because WE prayed.

Lord, is there anything You want to add?

“Clare, it is imperative that everyone pray. I will tell you this much: the scheme is extremely elaborate and multifaceted. And if one thing doesn't work, he will be shuffled into another attempt—and another and another. They are not going to let him leave alive if it is at all possible.

“But they are men, and I am God. And if enough prayers and fastings go up, he will make it through alive. There will be numerous attempts while he is in the air, as well. They are not taking any chances on him living even one more day.

“Pray for supernatural coverage. Pray for the Secret Service agents to receive direction from Holy Spirit. Pray they will be sensitive, and especially prepared for a round of attempts causing chaos and throwing them off guard. They are highly trained—but this trip will tax their abilities to survive.

“Prayer will be the decisive factor in his survival.”

Lord, may I add something?

“Yes, you may, dear one.”

Let's also pray and ask the Blessed Virgin to wrap him in her cloak that no harm can come to him. Or to his wife, if she is there.

John Paul II was saved from assassination by the Blessed Mother's intervention. It has been told that his assassin was one of the best in the business. And when the Pope went to visit him in jail, the one thing the assassin could not get over was that he missed. He even said to the Pope he didn't know how that could happen. And John Paul II answered him very simply, “The Virgin, Our Lady of Fatima. That was her feast day on the 13th. That's when the attempt happened. On the feast day of Our Lady of Fatima. And she redirected the bullet.”

Later an official statement was given by the Pope, “John Paul II was convinced that Mary, in the form of Our Lady of Fatima, had personally redirected the bullet that hit him, saving his life. He gave a bullet recovered from the Pope-mobile to the local bishop in Fatima, who placed it in the crown of the official image of Mary in the shrine of Fatima.”

Jesus continued, “My Love, there is nothing superstitious about asking My mother to pray with you. In fact, it is the Marian multiplier. When she is praying with you, your petitions are presented to My Father with enormous blessing attached. For those who understand the Scriptures and are humble enough to ask for her intercession. For them, great favor is added to their prayer.

“Someday soon now, people around the world will come to know the power of her intercession and cease from reviling her.”

Lord, I remember Kim Clement's prophecy.

I looked it up, as I really wanted to share it here. I've shared it once before.

"There is a president that will come. He will have absolutely no fear. He will be decisive. In the middle of the restoration of America. As the beginning of the Restoration begins, there shall be a woman that will rise up, a woman that shall be strong in faith. Virtuous. Beautiful in eyes. Her eyes shall be round and big. 'I have crowned her', says the Lord, 'as I crowned Esther.'"

Now, that's in past tense that He says this. "I have crowned her."

"And the people shall receive her, for she shall have the oil of gladness for the pain and the mourning that has taken place. And she shall pour out the oil. She shall pour out the oil on this nation."

Now this is interesting. Obviously, somethings going to happen before she rises up. Or at least, I take it that way. 'Cause it says, "She shall have the oil of gladness for the pain and mourning that has taken place." So, it sounds to me like there is something big coming before she rises up.

"And God says," Kim continued, "'Healing shall begin, and then shall flow rapidly. Schools will be free from potential damage and danger: shootings, murders, drug addiction. Cartels shall be afraid of a woman—a woman anointed by God, a woman set aside'." And God says, 'They will say, "We hated her, but now we love her.'"

Boy, isn't that what's going on with Evangelicals—really, really revile her.

"For she shall take the oil of healing," he continues, "and she shall pour it upon the scars of those left, and those right, and of the new party that has come forth. Therefore, the healing that is necessary for this nation shall come at a time in the middle of the presidency. There shall be a woman that shall come, and God said there shall be oil that shall be poured upon the nation and they shall suddenly feel the healing.

"And they shall say, 'It is well with my soul,' for the soul of America has been corrupted; the soul of this nation has been corrupted with bitterness and anger. And God said, "She shall say, 'No more bitterness, no more anger, no more division.' And she'll pour the oil that shall come from the Spirit of the Lord Himself."

And I just noticed this as I was reading it. "And they shall say it is well with my soul." That song was written on the heels of a ship going down. It was written by a minister. His wife and children were on a ship coming to meet him. And that ship went down, and he lost his wife and children. And he wrote this song soon after that. Beautiful song. "It Is Well With My Soul."

So, this portends, I would say. Some kind of big event with a lot of death. That's what it looks like to me. The way that he has written this out. There's gonna be some kind of calamity. Somethings going to happen, and we're gonna be in a state of mourning.

Okay. So I said, "Lord, would you care to comment on this?"

Jesus said, "Who have I crowned Clare?"

Our Lady.

"Who has been hated by the Evangelical community?"

Our Lady, Your Mother.

"And who has touched you with joy and gladness in moments of extreme pain?"

You have, Lord. But also, she has, as well.

"And there you have your answer. But do not stop praying, for there are things to transpire before that day. A shake-up and wake-up call. And I wish for no man to perish, but those who have refused to reconcile with Me are in grave danger."

He continued, "What I love about this Channel is that you are all so responsive. Even though you have been tired out, still you rise to pray and intercede, because I called to you and you answered Me, 'Speak Lord. Your servant is listening.'

"And there are those among you who are truly saints on this Earth. And your prayers capture the hearts of the Cloud of Witnesses and the angels in Heaven. Never doubt it: your prayers have turned many a battle around and saved those, who before, seemed unredeemable.

"Be encouraged, Heartdwellers. I love you deeply and count on you for so very many things. Prayer and comfort. Dearly I love you.

"Rise to this occasion. Sleepers rise. I give you another chance to break the flasks of your heart to save your nation and be counted with the elect."

The President's Trip

May 3, 2019

Dear Heartdwellers, Clare isn't feeling very well today, and asked me to record this addendum to yesterday's message for you, from her.

She began:

I just got an e-mail from one of our Heartdwellers that the President has a scheduled trip to visit the Queen on June 3. Interesting. Because today is May 3. But the message I put up yesterday was not for his publicized trip to England.

I consulted with my source, and he is of the opinion this may have been a secret trip deliberately not publicized, and it may have something to do with the global currency reset. The President is in the habit of taking off and going somewhere without the knowledge of the general public.

But gauging from what the Lord told me, this is NOT about the scheduled public trip in June, but something altogether different. I asked my source if he had anything new to share, and he said that all his sources have gone silent.

I do know from the intensity of intercession that we are all going through that something critical is taking place. Right now. And the Lord NEEDS our prayers.

So, please don't stop.

One thing I hate is misinformation. And I do my best, but I'm not perfect nor are my sources. But the Lord confirmed the need for serious prayer. So, I am not backing down on that.

BTW guys, if I ever find out a familiar spirit was speaking to me, or I was speaking to myself, I promise to let you know. It is hard for me to imagine the enemy would ask for more prayers.

As I have told you before, I do have pride and the Lord does humble me with hearing the wrong voice sometimes. But judging from the reports of the prayer warriors, there is great need right now and we are continuing to press in. I love you all, dear ones. Please pray for my discernment and that I be humble. I need your prayers, too.

And that was the end of her message to me. The Lord bless you today, dear Family.

New Update -Trump IS in England

May 3, 2019

Dearest Family. PLEASE do not stop praying!

I want to give you an update on what is happening. And this is from our source.

It has been reported to me by our source that President Trump left the United States sometime between 9:00 pm and 4 am for London. All of you were praying. It is reported that he had a secret meeting with the Queen of England. And that he is shutting the door on the Federal Reserve and will soon be exchanging the dollar for United States Treasury Notes. And also, that the gold trim on flags will be taken down, as a sign of our break with Great Britain's control over our economy.

There has already been one attempt on his life by the Defense Minister of England, who has been relieved of his post, but is still under the protection of the Prime Minister.

Dear ones, DO NOT STOP PRAYING. There will be more attempts. According to the Lord, there will be several more attempts. Stay vigilant and pray. This is a decisive victory over the evil that has governed our nation. And if all continues as planned by the President, the global switch will divest the enemy of their dirty money and they will go broke, with nothing to sustain their continuous attacks against our legitimate government.

I was also told that a great many people have been arrested. Much more. Many more than what we know about. And soon the ones that are more visible will also be arrested. Let us remember to pray for their souls. Some of them have been involved in Satanic Ritual Abuse and will be given the death sentence.

Normally, I don't bring these things up. But because prayer is so imperative, I am calling on all of you to pray until Sunday, when he is supposed to return. Keep up the good work, prayer warriors.

And I wanted to put this out, because someone had mentioned to me that there was a scheduled meeting with the Queen on June the 3rd. And they were thinking that maybe I'd made a mistake, or our source made a mistake.

No. This was a secret meeting nobody else knew about.

Lord, is there anything You wish to add?

Jesus began, "My precious, precious People. You have again intercepted a plot to kill your President. Please believe Me when I tell you that the prayers of the Heartdwellers community are powerful and move on the Heart of My Father."

Lord, may I repeat myself, and the word from Kim Clement? It just seems too important to let it go by the wayside, without assigning great significance to it.

He said, "Go ahead."

Dear ones, there were several important things that God said through the mouth of Kim Clement in just that one prophecy given on March 25th, 2011 in Nashville. I really believe we should look at it again, so here it is, broken down.

And I will tell you in advance. I have had a premonition that there was going to be a great appearance of the Blessed Mother in America. Somewhere, there was going to be a very strong, full of miracles, apparition in America from the Blessed Mother at a time when we really need it.

So. This is what Kim said.

"There is a president that will come. He will have absolutely no fear. He will be decisive."

That was five and a half years before President Trump was elected.

He goes on to say, "In the middle of the restoration of America...when restoration begins, a woman shall rise up. Strong in Faith. Virtuous, wearing a crown. Kim says that the Lord said her eyes shall be round and big. I have crowned her."

Past tense, that is, guys.

"... says the Lord, as I crowned Esther."

And Our Lady is crowned in many, many images of her. And the crown represents miracles that she has done. The different apparitions, like for instance, the apparition of Our Mother of Mercy in Florida. She was wearing a crown of stars, but she was not wearing a queenly crown in that apparition. And I don't know what kind of miracles may have taken place at her hand, but by now she probably is wearing a crown. Because they crown the image when miracles start to take place.

Okay. "She will be given oil from Heaven to heal and bring joy, which she will pour out on the nation."

Here he also implies there will be some situation that will cause national mourning, "She will have the oil of gladness for the pain and the mourning that has taken place. She will be received by the nation, healing will flow rapidly, schools will be safe again, Cartels will be afraid of her."

Kim continued, "People who have hated her will love her."

And you know the Blessed Mother is denounced in almost every Christian circle except the Catholic and Orthodox. But when she appears, as she has so many times before around the world, there will be such an outpouring of healing and joy that the people will love her.

Family, remember the Lord has put America under her dominion, and placed her on the Capitol rotunda with countless angels.

I gave you that message on August 28, 2018. The title of that was "Kim Clement's Prophecy About the Nation and the Blessed Mother."

And Kim continues here, "And the people shall receive her, for she shall have the oil of gladness for the pain and the mourning that has taken place. And she shall pour out the oil. She shall pour out the oil on this nation.

"And God says, healing shall begin and then shall flow rapidly. Schools will be free from potential damage and danger, shootings, murders, drug addiction. Cartels shall be afraid of a woman—a woman anointed by God, a woman set aside. And God says, They will say, 'We hated her, but now we love her.'

"For she shall take the oil of healing and she shall pour it upon the scars of those left and those right and of the new party that has come forth..."

Kim says there will be scars. Well, that means there have been battles and the events have left deep, deep wounds

The middle of the Presidency, I believe has to do with 2020 elections the mid-term of 8 years.

"Therefore, the healing that is necessary for this nation shall come at a time in the middle of the presidency. There shall be a woman that shall come, and God said there shall be oil that shall be poured upon the nation and they shall suddenly feel the healing."

The prophecy that Kim gave had much more insight with it than at first glance. For instance, "There will be suffering and pain that needs healing." Whether it is an event that has not transpired yet, or the carnage from all the arrests and prosecution of those the country thought could be trusted. Our Lady has already been appointed intercessor for America and is administrating from the Capitol Rotunda.

Lord, do you have anything to add?

Jesus began, "Keep praying. The battle is not over yet, but your prayers have made a substantial contribution to turning the tide, and they always do. So, please stay at your prayer stations through Sunday.

"I am with you, Heartdwellers. There is no place I would rather be than in My Heart, dwelling with all of you. I know things have been difficult, but the fruit that is manifesting is major, and of major import to the whole world."

Amen. Thank You, Lord.

A Life of Solitude and Prayer

May 5, 2019

Thank you, Lord Jesus, for the wonderful springtime joy you are bringing to us.

I have some wonderful things to share with you, Family. Especially those of you who have been wanting to withdraw into prayer, and not be a part of the world anymore. But be praying FOR the world.

I like to quote a famous author (can't remember his name right now!) who talked about being at the hub of the wheel. When you live the lifestyle of seclusion and prayer, you're at the hub of all life. You can reach out and touch the spokes from the hub, and the wheel is what turns the world. And the spokes are the individual ministries and works that people do. And when you're at the hub, you're actually at a point where you can pray for all of those things. It's a very exciting life of intercession.

And I want to share with you a vision I had about 30 years ago of a community of monks and sisters, living in very primitive setting. Very plain dwellings in the deep woods high up in the mountains. Ezekiel and I had moved to the mountains after he became a priest. We wanted a place of substantial solitude away from all the busyness in the world...the EMF's and electronic pollution. A place to pray and seek God unhindered.

To make a long story short, St. Francis had already picked out this land, 3 miles from the road. Three rough, rugged miles from the road. Steep terrain, an old logging road with a few precipitous drop-offs. I knew it was the place when I saw it, because the Lord had said to me, "Look for what's in your heart. What's the vision in your heart." And the vision in my heart was aspen trees and fir and spruce. And just a very green and forested area.

Well, we were searching different properties to see what was for sale. And we came across this one. And after quite a struggle, got up all the way to the place where we had to start walking from, actually. And this place couldn't have been more perfect. Beautiful, beautiful aspen forest with ferns and very green grass. Elk, bear, lion...everything you could imagine up there.

We built a few small buildings for solitary living and prayer, called Hermitages, which we later found resembled the Russian Orthodox monk's dwellings. Just a simple, maybe 20x20 square with a slanted roof and huge window overlooking the forest. And a bunk bed and a desk beneath. And a little kitchen counter - and that's it. And of course, the outhouse had a spectacular view, because you could take your bucket and go anywhere in the forest! And had a different view every day.

Well. We had to use horses to get up and down the mountain and pack in our supplies during the winter and spring months.

From this place, we came into the small town of Penasco, and served the poor with a food bank every week. Life there was very holy. People would hike the three miles to receive counsel and pray in the chapel. We had a small glass-roofed chapel with glass doors, hidden deep in the aspen forest. What a blessed place it is!

After living there for 5 years, the Lord moved us into Taos. And some years later, we started our YouTube ministry.

I have held onto the dream of returning with a group of souls dedicated to prayer, because the Lord promised this would someday happen. The few that did come to try the life out within that five-year period were very attached to the world, and they just weren't ready to forsake everything.

So, I am going to share this calling with you, dear ones. Because I know there are those among you who long for this life. And the Lord is telling us that now is the time.

And "Hope in Winter Comes" is our latest book. It's the visions, apparitions of the Blessed Mother in Florida. And her counsels. This is from Chapter Twelve. And btw, if you want a copy, Amazon has it. Or you can get a copy from us if you send us a postcard or something, letting us know what your address is.

The Chapter title is: "If You Would be Perfect: To Live For Him Alone." And I remember from the Gospels, when the rich man came to Him and said, "What should I do?" And the Lord said, "If you would be perfect, go. Sell all you have, give to the poor. Then come, follow Me." And that's the calling for basically a Franciscan. Who wants to live in the forest and pray?

The Lord said, "Not all will be willing to lose their life for the Kingdom."

So, here's the first quote from the book, from Our Lady. "Not all will be willing to lose their life for the Kingdom. My children, those of you who would lose your life for the Kingdom of My Son, I tell you truly, YOU SHALL FIND IT."

After the sweet visitation from God the Father, Our Mother of Mercy appeared. I began crying out to her in my heart for vocations to this holy way of life. She reached over and took something into her arms, placing it over my outstretched arms. I saw that it was a habit. Then she reached over again and placed another one over my arms and another, and another, and another. I was incredulous. Finally, the stack of habits was twelve or thirteen deep and she placed a handmade crucifix on top and said, "And there are more coming."

Okay! Well, this was... golly! Zoom back 20 years ago, actually, when this all happened. Maybe 25 years ago. And we've been waiting for the vision to materialize. The mandate was there, but you know? You just have to wait sometimes.

Well, I began to suspect this vision, because when we want something really badly, or have an attachment to a certain result, the enemy can come in with counterfeit messages to lead us astray. I was about to dismiss this visitation when I began to see not Our Lady, but another smiling face before me. It was Mother Theresa of Calcutta. We use her teachings for formation and guidance, and I consider her a second St. Francis. I saw her smiling at me and she was stooped over a sewing machine. She was working steadily, sewing habits. Wow. And I wore a gray habit, by the way. That was the original color of the habits, was gray.

I was tickled and began to laugh. Certainly, Our Lady knows how to break through my doubts. There was such a sweetness and spontaneity about it that I knew it was authentic.

The Blessed Virgin began to speak, "I have many souls for you. Many vocations. As your structure becomes firmer, as the bones develop and become solid, and you are able to bear the weight, I shall send you souls.

"Many souls, my daughter, are in need of this instruction and structure. Many are seeking A LIFE WORTH LIVING. A life with meaning, with purpose, in truth, enduring throughout eternity. Structure is so very important to you to be able to stand. You must not be a jellyfish."

(Here she is using an expression that I am very familiar with.)

"I wish to have an army of committed KNIGHTS in ARMS."

(The arms being prayer and fasting with good works of every kind.)

She continued, "An army of intercessors. Not many. Carrying my Holy Banner of Love, marching through the world of hatred and opposition to God's will."

I saw in the spirit an army carrying the banner of the Holy Cross. When she said, "not many" I thought of Gideon's 300. They were men picked out of thousands, because they drank water from the river a certain way. In my Bible, the notes from the seventh chapter of Judges says:

"The Lord desired not numerous but reliable soldiers. Those who drank from their hands were alert, standing ready to resist attack, whereas the others were careless and undependable, and the cowards had already been weeded out."

Chapters six and seven of Judges is all about the call of Gideon, who said, "Please, my Lord, how can I save Israel? My family is the meanest in Manasseh, and I am the most insignificant in my father's house."

Wow. Today in prayer, after Ezekiel and I had talked about this, that the Lord was bringing this to fruition now. I just sat and cried in front of the altar. And just told the Lord I am way too small for all of this. This is just not... I'm just not fit for this. And we know what His answer always is about that. "You're not fit, and that's what I wanted. 'Cause I want all the credit for it!"

It was difficult for me to grasp. Because the reality now is coming home.

Mannasa's heart was not unlike that of St. Francis who declared that the Lord searched the whole Earth for the most contemptible, unlikely candidate for restoring Holy Mother Church—and in all His searches, could find no one more unsuitable than Francis. In this way, only Christ would be glorified, not a man. And so, the Lord continues to call those who see themselves, rightly so, the most unsuitable to serve Him.

There are some remarkable lessons in these two chapters of Judges to teach us about the supernatural call of God on our lives. I encourage you to read them.

Our Lady continued to speak, "Not all will be willing to lose their life for the Kingdom."

Then she began to address all of us in this way, "My children, those of you who would lose your life for the Kingdom of My Son, I tell you truly, you shall find it. Those of you who will not, shall lose even what little you have. For to those who have, more is given. And to those who have not, even what little you have shall be taken from you.

"Do not marvel at this saying, for unto him who was given ten talents and reproduced those ten more, more was given. But to him who buried the one and reproduced none, he was put outside and soundly beaten.

"My children, you will be held accountable for what God has given you: your life's breath, your time on this Earth, your abilities. If you do not put your best effort forward, you shall be held accountable. My children, no halfway measures, please. Give it your all. My Son gave His all. You owe it to Him. Do not withhold your best efforts.

"This I say to you, not to shame you, but to call you to account now while there is still time to repent and live a life worthy of the name Christian and full of the promises of Heaven.

"If you are slothful, you shall spend much time in the fires of Purgatory doing there what you should have done here. A serious opportunity has been set before you. It asks of you a serious response.

"For those of you who take my words with the utmost seriousness, I shall be by your side and all of Heaven shall be your help and entourage. The more you strive for perfection, the more the Heavenly Host will protect and assist you. I tell you solemnly, not one drop of suffering shed, not one supernatural effort shall go unnoticed.

"Satan's scheme is to undermine your good works by saying they are too little." (In that moment, I thought of that afternoon treat I could go without) She continued, "Nothing, my children, is too little. Everything shall be rewarded. I beg of you, put your best foot forward. I shall not fail you in the blessings that will follow."

And you know? When I withhold my best from the Lord, because of some personal advantage, those things that I gain are the very things that I will completely lose at death. But when I give up that personal advantage, as a fast offering unto the Lord, it will bear fruit that will proceed me into Heaven.

During the second Joyful Mystery tonight, (and this talking from the time of the apparition) Our Lady came dressed as a peasant woman with a bushel of walnuts in her arms. She poured the walnuts out onto a table that was set before me. This was such a curious vision, yet I knew instinctively that she was demonstrating vocations to me. (In other words, people who are called to this kind of life.) I became even more convinced when she allowed me to see that within each hull was a precious diamond.

Then she began to list words to me, words that I was familiar with.

"Outer covering, common, poor, rough, plain, nothing extraordinary or unusual, commonplace, plain wrapper, simple, humble. All these things and more are what we want you to be. Nothing, nothing, to draw any attention to you as being special."

As I looked at the table full of walnuts, I saw that it was in a very rough room in the wilderness. While I was watching, little diamonds went on fire with light, emerged from the hulls and went off in different directions. Our Lady took me by the hand to follow one and it went off into the forest towards a precious spot that we planned to build a hermitage at the Refuge.

Then she resumed speaking, "They are vocations. Souls who love to pray. Souls I am entrusting to you. Soon, very soon, there will be much excitement in your lives. I will teach you how to serve them. Don't worry, I wouldn't give them to you without the grace to direct and serve them. Each baby comes with instructions, and special helps from Heaven."

In the background, the meditation, Father was saying, "We are not to hold our heads down and cower in fear." That sure described what I was feeling while she was saying this. Our Lady took a diamond from a walnut shell and held it before me.

It sparkled in her fingers, as she continued, "Each one is so different, special, unique. No two are the same. Oh, how lovely is Your dwelling place, O Lord, my God. How special Your virgin souls, called to love and serve You. I give You praise, Father, for you have hidden these things from the high and mighty but given and revealed them to the lowly and poor in spirit.

"Continue to be lowly in spirit. I will send you pure gemstones to build this community."

Wow. It's been a long 20 years! A really long 20 years...

Dearest Mother, I entrust myself to you. Even today I found that I had to keep a serious guard over my soul, because I could feel my thoughts drifting in the wrong directions, contrary to this commonness you are teaching me. I feel most at home with this and it is most conformed to my holy state of life, this rule of life. Yet so very difficult to protect.

She continued, "I will not let you down in this; only just Trust me. I will show you what to do. Don't worry, it's going to be very beautiful."

Well, I have to admit that during this conversation, I looked down—half incredulous, half disturbed, knowing how unqualified I am. I did not want to grieve Our Lady in any way, so I kept very quiet. For surely the Almighty can do anything He wishes with anyone He wishes to do it with.

The Blessed Virgin was very tender with me. She touched my chin with her finger, lifting my face so that she could see my eyes. As I looked at her, I noticed that she was wearing a woolen veil dyed the very color of indigo that I just dyed and spun for Father's stole. It is very finely woven, but more like a scarf a Ukrainian peasant woman would be wearing. In fact, she appeared like a matron from a cold climate, not queenly at all. This is now her second visitation to us as a poor simple woman.

She spoke to me in gentle but reassuring tones, "Just Trust me... That is all I require."

Wow...

The Gift

May 6, 2019

Lord, I thank You for the Gifts that You give to us. Life. Love. Family. Healing. Comfort. And Hope. I pray that You will use my Becky's story now to bring these gifts to the ones who most need it, as we watch our society and our families coming continually under the blows of the enemy's plots against us. Amen.

Clare has asked me to share with you something I wrote as a eulogy for my second-born daughter. It has been 15 years now since the Lord took her Home, and through time, we have abundantly received from His hand Healing. Comfort and Hope in her passing.

But I have come across many comments from our Heartdweller family over the past few years, filled with pain and anguish over their family and and their children; fear over the future of their loved ones. It is my hope that Becky's life-story will share my Assurance in the Mercy of Jesus with you. The Assurance that Jesus loves these precious souls. These precious jewels of our heart far more than we ever could. And because we have loved them and prayed for them—the Assurance that He will do everything possible to reach them, keep them, and in the end, carry them Home.

His Mercy is great, His compassion never-ending. And His Love for every soul is far beyond our understanding. Praise God for that.

My God...is a Wondrous God!

On October 15, 1982, God entrusted my husband and I with the care and nurturing of a beautiful baby girl. He led us to name her Rebecca Lynn: Servant of God, Pretty One. Or Boo Bear, as she was better known at the time! And our days were filled with sunshine.

She was an incredible jumble of bubbles and smiles, tender-heartedness and fierce independence. Afraid of nothing. More comfortable playing football with little brother Davey and the guys than playing dress-up with big sister... Becky tore through life gathering friends and touching hearts wherever she went. She loved passionately. She judged “fairness” keenly; she protected those dear to her unashamedly. She was a treasure, born for Heaven’s purposes, bestowed for a season.

My God... is a Joyous God!

Anyone who has known Becky—as Becky really was—has seen her rays of sunshine, laughed with her waves of exuberance, rejoiced at her demand to live life to the fullest.

By the time she was 10, God had touched her tender heart with C. S. Lewis’ tale of Narnia and Aslan, and she gave her life to His salvation. Her road was not to be soft, but a path strewn with the boulders of self-doubt and temptation, pockmarked with the pitfalls of falling away and struggling to regain her steps.

Even so, by the time she graduated from high school, she found immense joy in being able to look me straight in the eye and confidently announce to me: “My faith isn’t yours and Daddy’s anymore, Mommy. I’m not trying to ‘ride into Heaven on your coat-tails.’ My faith is my own, and I KNOW Who has redeemed me.”

In a journal entry in her diary that year, she tells God, “As You know, I have given You my life; I am no longer my own. Anything I have in this world is not mine.”

My God... Is a Faithful God!

Passionate life can be dangerous. Once out in the world on her own, surrounded with “real life” on a college campus, Sin encroached on Becky’s life. Insidiously, one small step; one unchecked decision at a time. Link upon link, chain upon chain, it bound her passion for God, her stand for Truth.

Shame replaced Security. Despair replaced Dependence. And before we knew it, our Becky had become a stranger caught in a spreading web of the World of Darkness and all its lies and deceptions. She fled from the constraints of her Savior's Life Rules and experienced the devastation of poor decisions, "me-centered" thinking and the misery of a life lived without the tender, guiding Hand of her Shepherd.

But...my Jesus never left her side. Quietly, forcefully He honored His promise to us, her parents, that He would never leave or forsake her. Though Hell meant to destroy her, God restored Becky to us just after her 22nd birthday. Our lamb had been brought back to the fold.

My God... is a Tender God!

Every moment in life offers us a choice: it can be "all about" US—or it can be all about the reason we are placed here in the first place. To be servants of the Most High God, and a testimony to His Name.

October 18, 2004 found me on the maternity floor of Grandview Hospital, praying and crying my way through the sounds of Becky's delivery of her miracle child, Dami. Her cries of pain ripped and tore at my heart, yet the sound of his little cries sent my heart soaring in worship of my Loving Father. Life had once again come!

Still... Life, of necessity, must be salted with what we perceive as hardship, as trouble. Without this seasoning, we cannot be molded and shaped into as close an image of Jesus as He has deemed us to be.

The day after Dami's birth, Becky confessed to us that a year before, she had become addicted to heroin. And had, in fact, used it the day of Dami's birth and had gone into labor as a result of that use. The tenderness of God flooded my soul, and my only response was to hold her, to listen, to love, and to pray.

My God... is a Healing God!

As the days passed, she and I would sit by Dami's hospital crib and talk. Becky poured her heart out to me. Told me her life as it had been the past year. Told me things no parent wants to hear; no parent could bear to know about or watch without their hearts failing within them.

Each day, each conversation, the Lord met us. And each day a little bit more of our Becky came back to us. Her love for Dami was fierce. She had a "mother bear" protectiveness for him and vowed before us and her God that she would beat the poison in her life, the drug that wanted to consume her—for Dami's sake.

Life was hard the next 5 months—sometimes impossibly so. The malicious call of the drug, the mindset of the drug culture, the feelings of worthlessness and shame ever threatened to destroy her, to tear her down. But God walked before us, and gave us time after time to talk, to cry, and to love. He gave me words of encouragement for her that buoyed up her spirit, gave her the strength to face the next decision, the next stress, the next mountain that demanded to be scaled. And, I saw Healing. And Blessing. And Hope.

My God is a God of Hope!

Never think for a moment. Never deceive yourself for a breath that you will be able to dance and flirt with sin, without one day having it turn and try to ravage you. It is true, that in His grace, in His mercy, God forgives and receives us joyfully back to Himself the instant we reach out to Him. And in His tenderness, He sometimes heals us of the grotesque deformity that sin wreaks on our hearts, our bodies, and our souls.

But... sometimes, in His Wisdom that surpasses all our attempts of understanding, He allows us to live under and suffer the consequences of our sin.

Becky's last 24 hours began as a time of hope for us. She had passed through yet another fiery trial—another in a long, long string of suffering—and the sunshine was beginning to break through the clouds of her life yet again. She had started working again at the beginning of the week, had spent the day on Thursday loving and caring for Dami. That night, she asked if I would watch him while she attended a Narcotics Anonymous meeting.

She left the house around 7:00 that night, picked up by a man I had met once, yet was uneasy about her being alone with. I cautioned her. I questioned her about her safety. But with typical Becky bravado she assured me she could handle him. "He knows he's not to think anything funny about me."

I gave her my cell phone and told her that it would be good if she were home around 10:00, but that I would be concerned about her if she were still gone by 11:00.

The evening passed, as did the 10:00 hour. By 11:15 my "mother worry" had kicked in, and I asked my husband to give her a call. We laughed with relief when we found that she was fine, enjoying a glass of soda with some of her friends from the meeting. And time—which had never held much meaning for Becky—had slipped away from her. "Daddy, I'm so sorry! I'll leave in ten minutes..." she told my husband. And she was home again shortly after.

Thursday was just another night, like so many before. Becky came in from her meeting all bright and bubbly, scooped Dami up out of my arms and went to bed. It was the night before Good Friday that year. But...then came the dawn.

And our World turned upside down...

My God is a God of Mercy!

It was now the morning of Good Friday. At 10:20, my Mother came into my room to call me. We could hear Dami frantically crying, yet the door to Becky's room was locked. Thinking she had maybe slipped outside for a moment and the door inadvertently locked behind her, one of my other daughters and I broke the door in—and found that, though her body lay doubled over on the bed... our Becky was no longer there.

She had struggled to stay “clean” since the day of Dami's birth. But someone, somewhere the night before, most likely thinking that he was doing her a “favor”, provided her with the demon drug that had enslaved her for so long.

She once told me that she could be strong and resist, as long as there was someone by her side in the bad times, in the times when Hell itself raged through her body with desire for that drug. I had walked her through one of those times. When she was done pacing, and sweating, and crying out in mental anguish, and finally found rest from the desire—all I could do was slip away to my room and shed bitter sobs for her agony.

This night, with temptation in her hand, and in despair over an emotional blow her life had recently taken, she failed that test. This night, she had tried yet one more time to find relief from her pain. Never knowing, never expecting that this was the day God had decreed, before she was even born, to take her HOME.

So... where is the Mercy, you ask?

Listen to what the Lord revealed to me. Two days ago, it was Easter Sunday—a day of rejoicing, of worship, of awe for what our Saviour has done for us. On this day, in His mercy, He gave me this word: “The moment the needle entered Becky's arm on Friday morning, I met her there. All the teaching, all the hope. All the lessons I had guided her through in her walk with Me were revealed again to her in a moment. Becky repented—and I healed her of her pain. And I welcomed her into My arms with full assurance of forgiveness. For the first time in her life, SHE KNEW, without a shadow of a doubt, My unfathomable Love for her, and My abounding Joy IN her.

And then... He took her Home with Him.

Of all the things my God is to me, it is His Kindness that consistently, miraculously overwhelms me. Listen again to how His kindness was poured out on me that day.

Even though my sweet daughter's body lay somewhere being prepared for her burial, and our grief was almost more than we could bear, Easter Sunday we were compelled to attend our church and worship, to be surrounded by those who love us and support us. During that worship, grief overwhelmed me yet again, and I closed my eyes and cried out to my God for His touch of comfort.

And in His kindness, He did what only He could do to heal my pain: He brought my Becky to me.

Through my spiritual eyes, through the eyes that only God can open, Jesus pulled aside the veil and I saw my Becky dancing with delight before her Lord at the front of the church, worshipping and singing along with the band. The music leaders. The congregation. Her hair was a golden red, with gentle, curly tendrils around her face. And there was Peace and Joy in her face.

She came to me then, and told me, "I love you, Mommy. I'm so sorry." With tears in our eyes, we smiled, and I told her of my never-ending love for her and assured her that we would take really good care of her Dami.

And then... Jesus took her by the hand and gently led her Home.

I was reading this eulogy to a group of people who had no understanding of being able to see in the spirit. Had no concept of being able to visit Heaven. Had no idea that Heaven is right where Jesus is, and He is within us. And so, I continued this eulogy by saying this to them:

Lest you think that this "sight" was the product of an overwrought imagination; lest you doubt that God is real and has the power to move between the world of sight and the world of the spirit; listen to me again. As I watched them go, I turned to my dear sister in the Lord, who stood beside me. And in awe I said to her, "The Lord just brought Becky to me!" She smiled even before the words were out of my mouth, and said, "I know. I saw her, too."

My God is so many things – all of them wonderful!

I know without a shadow of a doubt where my Becky is, what streets she dances now. My grief will go on—I know this. But someday I, too, will live the last day that God has measured out for my life, and I will go to join her dance. My prayer, my plea for you is that the hope that dwells in the depths of my heart, dwells also in yours. If, perhaps, it doesn't? Please. Take this story of a young woman's life to heart, and seek earnestly until you, too, have found the God Whom she now walks beside.

I pray if you are stressing. I pray if you are anxious about the fate of your loved ones, your children. Your family. And you have been praying for them. God is not deaf. He hears your every word. Have Hope. Have Faith and Trust. That He knows exactly the best way to draw their hearts to Him and draw them Home when the time comes.

May the Lord bless you, dear Heartdwellers.

This testimony of His Faithfulness was delivered to a gathering of over 500 people at her funeral—a miracle in itself...

Many Are Called. Few Are Chosen. Even Less Respond.

May 10, 2019

Thank You, Jesus, for Your invitation to lead a life dedicated to You, even in lifestyle. Amen.

Well. Many are called. Few are chosen. Even less respond. That's been our experience. And what causes a soul to respond to the Lord, to want to leave the world and be totally His is really a disgust with world. You know? You just live with the world, and so many things happen in the world. And there are so many disappointments. And there's victories, too.

But after a while, you get tired of the world! And that cycle.

Why? Why is it that the grace of God calling us to deeper, fuller, and more total consecration is greeted with hope and enthusiasm? "Wow! That sounds great!" But is soon doubted and forgotten in the ho-hum business of daily routine?

In my agonizing efforts to discern what God wanted for my life, it was finally resolved that I was called to a penitent life St. Francis once lived. Penitent means going about, praying and making reparation to God for those who don't believe in Him. And penance can be fasting or denying yourself something for a season. And we've seen how rich the fruit is from that practice.

So, a penitent life is one that is so focused on God it has no place in its heart for the frills and the outside pleasures that we have indulged in before in the world. And that is normal in the world.

I mean, it's normal to come home and watch television, fall asleep and go to bed. Get up the next morning. Go to work. Come home, watch television, eat dinner. Fall asleep. Get up the next day, go to work... This is normal!

But for someone who serves God, it leaves no room for Him. So, He's called us OUT. The ones of us that are called out. That doesn't mean that we're any 'better'. It just means that we want more of Him, and less of the world. And that that is our calling. That's what God designed for us from the beginning of Time. That's what He designed for us.

For other people, He's designed them to be IN the world, to serve Him in the world. To be dedicated to Him in the world. There's nothing wrong with that.

And then, for others, they just don't know yet. They haven't discovered God and how sweet and wonderful He is. So, they're just living in the world for their own flesh.

And there comes a time, I think... Some people call it a second childhood. I don't know what it's called. But there's an expression for that. Where at 40 years old, somebody has a whole new way they want to lead their life. Duh! I can see it! That's exactly what happened to me at 40 years old. I didn't want to be in the world anymore. And I was a Christian! But I was a worldly Christian.

Even though I spent a lot of time in prayer and was in prayer groups. And did all these good works for the church. I was still IN the world and worldly. Thinking of worldly benefits. But I got to the point where, the world didn't hold my attention anymore. And I got very excited about the idea of leaving the world altogether, just to serve God on His terms.

So. With a lot of folks, there's a lot of enthusiasm. But then when they think, 'Oh, I'm gonna lose being able to take a bath. I may have to take a bucket bath and not a shower?? I'm not gonna have the Internet or watch TV? Oh, geez. I don't think I can handle that. I won't be able to see my kids growing up. (talking about grandchildren or whatever) My family is here. I get to see my family once a month, maybe. I don't want to ...you know. I don't want to disappear and go serve the Lord so that I don't see my children. My grandchildren.'

Well. Guess what. The Lord said, simply. "Anyone who desires to serve Me and is not willing to leave their family behind. Is not worthy of Me." And that's a harsh saying. But it's very important that we marry the right person! So that our husband and our children also come along on this journey. Which is what happened with me. We, all of us. All six of us went along on this journey.

So. In my agonizing efforts to discern what God wanted for MY life, it was finally resolved that I was called to this penitent life of St. Francis, that he lived. Clothed in a poor habit. How often do we spend money, time, and energy on clothing? How nice it was just to have a habit, and not have to worry about wearing anything else.

Living in very primitive housing, like that of the migrant worker, without electricity or running water. This discovery left me feeling so unworthy, so humbled, and joyful. That He was calling me up much higher. And that there would be things we would deny ourselves of. And I think not getting to take a shower every morning is penitent. Absolutely...

Now, after walking in His holy footsteps in my own meager way, I know more than ever, I am unworthy. In the unfolding of this life and vocation, I have learned well that my frailty is greater. Far greater than I ever imagined. In looking back, I see that I am more prone to sloth, weakness, and sin than I ever thought.

And it has been precisely this knowledge of self and the unwarranted attention I gave it that has been the most formidable enemy in my attempts to be faithful to follow God's will for my life.

To see the dream of a consecrated life held out to you. Desiring it with all your heart. Discerning that God is indeed inviting you—and then to go home and be swallowed up by the mundane daily concerns of the old life can cause us to flounder around in prayer. Feel deeply insecure in our hearts, secretly fearing that we have lost the better portion.

Which, by the way. If we go that way... Yeah, we have.

And can eventually lead to lukewarmness or even despair.

When we fall prey to this self-defeating deception, it becomes harder and harder to hear God's voice. We lose the peaceful conviction that we are able to hear Him, and we are in His will. And the grace He shed in our hearts when He called us to that deeper conversion lies dormant under a mountain of mundane 'realities' of everyday life.

We may forget—but He never forgets. The gifts of God are without repentance, and He is waiting for us to turn around and go back to that place of commitment when we loved Him more than life itself—and make a giant leap of faith into the Chasm of the Unknown.

In Matthew, 13, the Lord told this parable, "A sower went out to sow. And as he sowed, some seed fell on the path, and birds came and ate it up. Some fell on rocky ground, where it had little soil. It sprang up at once because the soil was not deep, and when the sun rose it was scorched, and it withered for lack of roots. Some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked it. But some seed fell on rich soil, and produced fruit, a hundred or sixty or thirty-fold. Whoever has ears ought to hear."

Then the Lord later explained to the disciples the meaning of the parable, "The seed sown on rocky ground is the one who hears the Word and receives it at once with joy. But he has no root and lasts only for a time. When some tribulation or persecution comes because of the word, he immediately falls away."

"The seed sown among thorns is the one who hears the word,"

Boy, this is the one the Lord taps me on the shoulder with.

"...but then worldly anxiety and the lure of riches choke the word and it bears no fruit. But the seed sown on rich soil is the one who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and yields a hundred or sixty or thirty-fold."

At first glance, failure to act may be attributed to a love for money and security, as in the rich young ruler. But going deeper, do we really believe that the Lord of Heaven and Earth is holding out to us the very pearl of great price: a personal invitation to join the courts of Heaven while yet on Earth? To work for His glory and for souls every day of our remaining lives? To rely on Him for empowerment and resources? Isn't the most nagging doubt in our hearts not His faithlessness—but our frailty and unworthiness?

This is where the Lord intervenes in the life of souls. And by His Own Holy Will, constructs a highway to Heaven by which we unworthy mortals may ascend to holiness in the consecrated life. This highway is His Divine Mercy.

The Imitation of Christ exhorts us, "Pay more attention to My Mercy than to your own unworthiness."

Last night during adoration, Our Lady said to me, "It is written: the just shall live by faith." She pointed to me to open the Scriptures and I opened to Galatians 3: "The one who is righteous, by faith will live." This was not spoken just to me, but for all of us who are struggling to fulfill God's highest calling in our lives. Each one of us, right now, in this moment is facing a challenge, a decision to give some part of our lives up for the sake of the Kingdom of Heaven.

You know? This is Springtime. And all kinds of wonderful new things are being birthed. So, this is a time now to spring forward, so to speak.

Mark these words well; the issue is not worthiness. The issue is willingness. Will we believe, with Mary, that what was spoken to us shall be accomplished by God and the supernatural working of His grace? Or are we so mired in our unworthiness and self-defeating preoccupation that we are deceived by the devil into thinking that God's arm is too short to accomplish such a work through us?

The false theology Satan has used to deceive many a soul into abandoning the call of God on their lives is simply this lie: "You are not worthy. Look at your life, look at your past sins, and continual temptations. You're so weak, look at your mistakes. You can't even live up to the simplest works of holiness without blowing it! Ha! You? Chosen by God? You can't even walk out of the confessional and stay clean for 15 minutes, let alone hang onto enough grace to serve."

Wow. Brutal? With good reason is he called the, "Accuser of our brothers" in Revelation 12.

And it's true. You know, I would go to confession. Really be sorry for some of the things that I'd done. And within 1/2 an hour, I would get tempted in a situation to pass judgment. And I'd do it. And I'd realize I couldn't even stay clean for 30 minutes.

And I think when you come out of the confessional, there's demons waiting there to put you right back where you were before you confessed your sins and received the grace of absolution from the hand of the priest.

Of course, you can confess to the Lord and receive absolution. Of course. And it's mostly important that your sorrow over your sins is from the heart. Because the Lord is looking for true contrition.

So. Simply stated, what Satan is saying: this is works-equals-righteousness theology. This is that same teaching that Paul warns the Galatians of in chapter three, "Oh, stupid Galatians! Who has bewitched you, before whose eyes Jesus Christ was publicly portrayed as crucified? I want to learn only this from you: did you receive the Spirit from works of the law, or from faith in what you heard?"

Wow. This principle is a dynamic based on legalistic thinking. And that's what the devil uses against us, to try to trump up false guilt. We negate the invitation by imagining that we have not earned the grace and calling of God by being perfect Christians. Therefore, since we have not lived according to the Law, or the Christian precepts perfectly, we are unworthy to be called and chosen.

So, we do not respond. We negate the grace of God in our lives, because we do not believe we deserve it.

Consider Abraham: "Abraham believed God and it was credited to him as righteousness." Paul addresses the Galatians again and says: "Are you so stupid? After beginning with the Spirit, are you now ending with the flesh?" Right. We are in the flesh whenever we think we can earn or must earn the grace of God, or His calling. Or His Love. We can't earn a thing.

"Does, then, the one who supplies the Spirit to you and works mighty deeds among you do so from works of the law or from faith in what you heard?"

Did Moses part the Red Sea because he knew his arm had great supernatural powers? And he knew he was so holy that he earned and merited such a miracle? Or did Moses know God's character so thoroughly that he believed that whatever he asked for in prayer, whatever answer he received from God for the good of His people, would be done for them? Moses had faith in God's power.

In the first mentality, which is a lie from Satan, you must first be good enough to be a Christian. But the Lord said, "I did not come to call the righteous but sinners to repentance ... and it is not the healthy who need a physician but the sick."

Another lie to delay a vocation is, "But I still have so many faults! I am unworthy of such a high calling." And that might be very true. In my case, I knew it was true. But again, the Lord has said, "He who has begun the good work in you will perfect it."

A vocation is not a reward for a life lived perfectly. Rather, it is an invitation to learn how to live life perfectly. We will never be worthy. We will be covered in heavenly graces and rewarded abundantly in this life and the next with the fellowship and familiar friendship of Jesus, the Lord of Love. And we will be continually empowered to overcome our many faults. To get back up on our feet and try, try again—for Our Lord longs to see us succeed.

Therefore, He gives us another chance. Another chance. Another chance.

God does the doing. Again, this is not about worthiness, but willingness. God puts the desire deep in our hearts. Then brings vessels to stir us to desire greater holiness. Then makes the invitation. And if we will respond, He will form us in holiness. He's calling us to an environment where we can be perfected. All is done with Him and through Him. We do nothing but say "yes" and be obedient to what He has asked us to do next.

A companion of the holy St. Francis once asked, "Why you? Why has God chosen you?" Since so many miracles and signs were accompanying his way of life and teachings, the brother wanted to know why God had chosen him.

St. Francis, simple and true, answered, "Because the Lord could find no greater sinner on Earth." And I'm sure he meant that with all his heart. Because the Lord has said similar things to me, and I know He means it. But He could find no-one less deserving.

This was not said out of a false sense of humility. St. Francis had lifted his heart in prayer to the Almighty God, asking this question. The answer came simply from the Lord of Heaven and Earth, who had surveyed the entire world and found none as insufficient and lacking as this poor man of Assisi.

His answer is surely our invitation, only if believe.

Will you believe? Will You Respond? IS God calling you?

This night, I saw our Mother of Mercy holding a very exquisite and grand-sized pearl in the palm of her hand.

She put it into a red velvet bag very gently and set it down beside me. I snatched it up and held it firmly to my heart, feeling enkindled with great love. To me, it represented The Pearl of Great Price: Jesus her Son.

Our Lady began to speak, "You see, my child, to have this very Great Treasure, you must forsake all. There is nothing worth having more than this precious Treasure. But oh, how few there are who are willing to treasure Him as He deserves. How very few are willing to abandon the purse of their own opinions. How few are willing to exclude all kinds of clutter from their lives; noise, as well as possessions.

"How very few trust Him. Trust that He can truly be their Everything. There is nothing in this world worth having over Him. Nothing.

She continued, "This is this soul's test. She is called, she is chosen... will she respond? I want her to respond. She is chosen of me, one of my hand-picked ones. I wish her to abandon the world to make an oblation: an offering of her own will, her own plans, her own opportunities. For my Son has His will, His plans, His opportunities.

But will she respond?

I am calling her to respond."

Our Lady is now addressing the soul directly, "My daughter, there is nothing that you have planned that can even begin to compare with what God has in store for you, if you will respond. There will always be those who hold the purse strings. But you, daughter, have been called to a higher calling, where the sweat and toil of "provider" shall be delegated to others.

"This I will confirm to you. Many times, it is not circumstances that conspire against you, rather the gentle Hand of God orchestrating change."

Yeah. Like, you hit a place where there's opposition after opposition. There's confusion in your readings and you don't know what to do. And we don't think that maybe God is doing this to get our attention. To move us in an opposite direction from where we've been going.

And this is what she's saying. Many times, it's not the circumstances that conspire against you. Rather, it's the gentle hand of God orchestrating change.

Will you respond? Will you respond to what He is doing in your life? These are the times of opportunity; are you ready to respond? Heaven is waiting. I am your Mother of Mercy.

"Mercy has come to this house this night."

It is a joy to add to this message that the sign Our Lady promised came, in the form of a very large sum of money, to undertake this book and help the poor and meet this soul's needs. She responded beautifully to this grace and is moving towards a total commitment to the Kingdom of God, and His plan for her life in working for the salvation of souls.

Rapture Delay 5 Years and The Refuge

May 13, 2019

Thank You, Lord, for your tremendous Mercy. But will anyone believe it??

Precious family, the Lord has given me some news. Some of you will stone me for this. Like you did three years ago when I said we had three more years before the Rapture; others will leave the Channel. But I will not compromise for any man. What I am going to tell you has been confirmed over and over again.

During this time, the Lord is going to catapult us into a new personal springtime of our lives.

Jesus began, "I have given you this time, because you prayed and have worked with the gifts I have given you. I have seen your tears and heard your pleas for loved ones. I have seen My People rise up in government and confront the enemy's plan.

"I have seen all of you struggle with breakthroughs, and I am the God of breakthroughs. And they are coming. Unexpected progress with your gifts. Going from plodding along to sailing along. Singing a new song of victory.

"Many of you have worn yourselves out with effort in your gifts. I say to you: come into the slipstream of Grace where I will carry you effortlessly into a new competence, a new ability to master the things you have struggled with.

"Many of you will have breakthroughs in your relationship with Me. You will be leaving the World behind and embracing Me in solitude, in the wilderness. Mother Clare is not the only one preparing prayer communities. There is a wave of anointing coming upon you that will cause such dissatisfaction with the World you will finally make a break from it. I will give you the courage to see clearly what you must do and to follow through on it.

"Yes, you have suffered much, My dear ones. But on the heels of that comes breakthroughs and the contemplation of My sweet Presence. You are learning and have learned that deep joy and satisfaction come only from Me. So, I am accompanying you on this journey to holiness by providing all that you need to live a life of prayer and sacrifice, honoring all My deepest desires.

"Yes, I am telling you, you will walk into a renaissance of opportunities to love and serve Me, with a greater anointing and greater power. Indeed, I reward My servants who give so much of themselves to bring My Kingdom to Earth."

And that was the end of His first message. There's another one coming up after this.

There is a very real reason why the Lord wants us to establish what we have named The Refuge of My Sacred Heart. This mountain property with two hermitages and a chapel. There is much work to do up there. We have been gone for 20 years. The animals, the wind, and vandals have made a mess! But we are on it like white on rice, cleaning it up.

Dear ones, the Lord has announced to me that we have 5 more years before the Rapture. He said this without conditions, but I believe it is important that we are about Our Father's business in order for this to stand.

I will not presume to declare that it's dependent on us in any way at all. All He said is that we have five more years. And I can see that if there's a great move of God in this nation and around the world, intercessors up on a mountain fasting and praying will be a major, major influence to positively enforce that movement.

In that time frame, He wants to establish a prayer community on the mountain. Our enemies have already begun to try and block it, but the bottom line is that when Jesus opens a door, no one else can close it. Amen.

I came to Him this morning with all kinds of fears, because this is a huge undertaking.

Lord, please hold me tight and never let me go! Please Lord, hold me tight. I come to You in fear and trembling.

Please, can I see Your face?

I made the sign of the cross and He became very clear. And we were almost nose to nose.

He replied, "We are together on this, dear one. I have not left you helpless or lonely. I brood over you with great longing. I am well aware of your numerous fears, especially of yourself and your pride. But I am here to tell you that you are right on target, and not one minute too soon. We are beginning a work that will be finished by summer's end.

"More and more will want to come, and you will have to be very, very selective. We will help you."

St. Joseph, pray for us. Cover us. Protect us. St. Joseph, please take us under your wing.

Ezekiel had seen St. Joseph in prayer. He came and visited him. And I've been aware of him. Plus, I got a rhema to ask for the intercession of St. Joseph. So... He was responsible for taking care of Mary. For nurturing and protecting her. So, this is very apropos. He was also the patron saint for doctrine of the Church, to keep the Church on track with the teachings of Jesus. He's a lovely, lovely soul. Very, very quiet. WAY in the background. You really have to pay attention to sense his presence. And SO kind. And so gentle. Just unbelievably gentle.

You and St. Francis and St. Clare. St. Therese. St. Pio. St. Casey, St. Seraphim, St. Philomena. Please help me do what is right when it is needed.

Well, the Lord replied, "They are on the same page with you, Clare. By no means are you alone in this endeavor."

Hold me, Lord. I'm feeling so insecure!

"Please don't be afraid. Please don't cry. This is My will, and I will do it through you, My very lowly and fickle instrument."

I deserve that, Lord.

"It isn't a bad thing to have many interests, as long as you keep your focus on Me and My will and timing. I am bringing this together. The fruit is falling off the trees ripe; this is very timely."

And you know, guys? It just occurred to me that yes, this IS very timely. There are a lot of people who are very anxious to get out of the world and do something different. And I believe that the Lord has arranged this so that some of those that have been with us for quite a long time, and I know are sincere and very serious. And can handle the stress. Will have a place to go. He's asked me to build five more hermitages. So, right now we have two hermitages. And there'll be a total of seven hermitages and a main house. And a small recording studio. So, there'll be enough room there probably for at least 12 people to sleep.

So many things are swirling around in my head. Ahh - that's for sure!

So, the Lord said, "So many things are swirling around in your head, dearest little one. So many things. Even things I have not yet talked with you about. Are you picking up on something?"

I said, "I don't know, but I think I am. A special assignment that involves singing in public before an audience, which a prophet told me I would do someday. Did you put this desire in my heart, Lord?"

He looked at me with a broad smile and said, "What do you think?"

I'm afraid You did.

"Well, at the very least, it will get you motivated to singing the way you should with all your heart, even as you have told Me you wanted to do. Reach higher. Think higher. Think ANOINTING. Think the fullness of your heart."

"Think about your past. Chicago—the pit you were in. Think of that assignment in the Poconos, when you knew something was missing in your life. It was a turning point. Think of the darkened, bankrupt heart, the dead ends, the dead relationships. The feeling of not knowing where to go or what to do? Think of those times when you felt utterly lost in the darkness."

"Now—think of the present. Think of the beautiful music we have made. Think of the wonderful husband you have and the hundreds of fans on the Internet, all over the world."

Yes, we're in 100 countries now. It's amazing!

"Think 5 years to reach them all and make an impact for Me."

"Now look down upon the work that needs to progress at a more rapid pace. Commit. And act. Yes, act."

"Call together a force to discern who is truly called to this life. And delegate. Ask for wisdom. Ask for the wisest counselors. Ask for provision.

"And in the meantime, sing, sing, sing! Form a new habit, Clare. Form a habit of being noisy, shouting out and whispering when you sing."

You know, guys? I have this crazy habit of being quiet all the time... It's like you have to pry a song out of me. He's really wanting to change that, so I can strengthen my vocal chords. So I can do what I want to do with my heart, through my vocal chords.

But I was silly with the Lord. I said, "But the Scriptures say, "Not shouting out, nor breaking a reed!"

"Lord, and Ezekiel needs a new nervous system."

He said, "I know that. You both need bodily improvement."

I am believing You for those, Lord.

"Wise choice." He replied. "I want to release passion from inside of you, Clare. You are bound up tight like a rag doll, tightly wound into a softball. I want you free to fly high like a kite."

But how?

"Practice makes perfect..." He smiled. "Take it up another step. Don't be afraid to go there—passion does go deep."

But I thought my songs should be gentle and slip into their hearts by the anointing—not by the force of my voice.

He replied, "When you feel something keenly, and you communicate that, don't you change the intensity of your voice?"

Yes, I guess so.

"Well, then look at your past, in the pit in Chicago. Now look at what is laid before you. Is that something to get excited about?? Not only have you found the Truth, you have helped others find it—and their lives have taken off. Shout it from the roof tops! Draw My Bride into My arms. Be down there on the same nitty-gritty level she's suffering at.

"Be My Moses, taking My Bride to the Promised Land. Why do you suppose I played Moses' songs today? Is this not a confirmation? Or was that just a coincidence?"

I answered Him, "I guess not."

"You are right. I have been preparing you to be a Moses and lead My people into the Promised Land of Intimacy with Me, all these years. You've been at the bottom of the barrel and in the darkest places so you could relate to just about anyone.

"I have taught you about Love and given you a share of My Love for them. This was the first prerequisite after knowledge of self and humility. A humble soul can relate to anyone without forming judgments, because they see themselves in My mirror.

"Your voice and piano playing were easy to bring up, once these other things came into being. I'm not done with you yet, Beloved. This is just the beginning."

Wow! Hallelujah!

He answered, "Yes, Hallelujah!

"There are so many in this world right now that are just waking up. Should I pull the plug on them and let them be swallowed away into eternity without an opportunity to change things? Those who can only see judgment falling from Heaven, because of men's sins, are lacking in perspective.

"My heart is so much grander than anything they have ever imagined.

"If the children who are becoming adults now had been raised properly. If their parents had been godly, and Satan had not been loosed for a 100-year season to corrupt the Earth, abortion would not be taking place now. But you see, from the 1920's, mankind began to deteriorate and teach lustful passions to their children and children's children.

"Without those influences on the minds of children, their thinking would be so different. So, it is the enemy that has twisted and perverted the minds of innocent children, so they would grow up blind, thinking nothing of slaying babies in their wombs for the freedom from having to raise them.

"Now we are two more generations down the line. And of course, these in power have no scruples—because they were not taught. Shall I not extend mercy to them?"

"This is why I say that those who can only see judgment falling, because of these sins, are lacking in My perspective. I see how they were formed from kindergarten to graduating college. I see that they have been made blind by carefully sculpted programs to call what is good, bad. And what is bad, good. Now is the time for My power to come forth and bring in the Harvest of these poor ignorant souls. Now is the time for My Glory to completely deprogram them from Satan's agenda.

"This is why I have Mercy, Clare. This is why.

"It is the smug and self-righteous Christians that judge and undermine these who do not know their right from their left hands. Nor do they see from My viewpoint why I have spared so many and continue to stay My Father's hand.

"Tell them, Clare. Tell them about My Mercy."

Lord is there going to be an event... like 911?

"At this time, My Love, I do not want to comment on that. Let's just say that different wake-up calls are being considered. They will only be implemented if there is no other way. But as I have told you, My people are responding and rising up to take this country back and make it righteous. And that is what We have been waiting for.

"I love you, My People. I love your children, your families, your pets. Your giving to the poor, your worship. Father and I want nothing more than to see a true revival and period of grace flooding the land. Lifting up the poor and sick, putting a stop to abortions and crooked judges and law enforcement. We want to see justice reign in this nation like never before.

"This is our goal. And Heartdwellers are a part, an important part in bringing this to pass.

"I am with you, My People. Rise up in courage. Take back your land. I am extending this time for your sakes. Many of you are highly gifted and have not done as much as you could. I'm extending the time to make room for your gifts, as well as to continue the movement in this country to take the government back. And to live in righteousness.

"Not only in America. But around the world. I am with You, My People. Rise up. Rise up!"

Purgatory - Where Is That in the Bible

May 14, 2019

Thank You, precious Lord Jesus, for explaining to us the laws of Heaven and Holiness. Mercy Lord, Mercy. Amen.

My dear ones, all the prayers in the world will do little for the man or woman who belittles and emotionally injures their spouse. What do you suppose... You can go to church, tithe, go to men's breakfast or women's Aglow meetings. Come home—and despise your spouse? Do you really think that will make up for your meanness of heart?

Let me tell you plainly, it will not. And I have not discussed this topic yet, but it is time.

People are of the impression that when they die they go to Heaven or Hell. That is not the case. Not according to Jesus or the teaching of the Apostles. The Early Church. Or even the Jewish people. They most frequently go to a place of purification that Scripture describes as Prison in:

1 Peter 3:19 After being made alive, Jesus went and made proclamation to the imprisoned spirits.

1 Peter 4:6 For this is the reason the gospel was preached even to those who are now dead, so that they might be judged according to human standards in regard to the body, but live according to God in regard to the spirit.

Purgatory comes from a Latin word that means purification. And after-life purification is based on the practice of praying for the dead, which is mentioned in 2 Maccabees 12:42-44

The Catholic Church gives the name Purgatory to the final purification of all who die in God's grace and friendship but are still imperfectly purified.

Judaism also believes in the possibility of after-death purification and may even use the word "purgatory" to present its understanding of the meaning of the similar rabbinical concept of Gehenna.

Reconcile quickly with your adversary, while you are still on the way to court. Otherwise he may hand you over to the judge, and the judge may hand you over to the officer, and you may be thrown into prison. Truly I tell you, you will not get out until you have paid the last penny. Matt 5:25-26

This is not a doctrine of the Catholics. This is the doctrine of the Early Church from Peter to Tertullian. But because of the perversion of the doctrine, where people were told their loved ones wouldn't go to Heaven unless they paid for a Mass, or paid their tithes, etc, etc. It became a lever to force more dollars out of the poor and the widows. This was one of the most despicable things that was done and caused Martin Luther to leave the Church.

But that does not excuse Christianity from not following the teachings of the Apostles. Purgatory is very real. A very real place. And if I died today? I think I would go there. You see, my attitudes are at times sinful and not holy. This leaves a filthy stain on my Bridal Garment and ways in which I have damaged others and not repented for.

Christ atoned for our sins on the Cross, but He did not repair the damages we incurred. We still have reparation to do. And if repentance is only skin deep, we are not under the conviction we need to be to dissolve those ugly stains off our wedding gowns.

Matthew 12:36-37 "But I tell you that everyone will have to give account on the day of judgment for every empty word they have spoken. For by your words you will be acquitted, and by your words you will be condemned."

So, if we mentally, physically, or emotionally injure others, there will come a time when we have to repair the damages and change the state of our heart that caused us to think that way and do those things. If it doesn't happen before death, the Lord has mercifully made a provision which has been referred to as the Prison—and has come to mean a place of purification.

Purgatory is a place of suffering where those who die in the state of grace but have not yet changed their toxic attitudes can work with grace to arrive at purity of heart and perfect brotherly love.

Let's say that a Christian man gets into an argument with his wife and says cruel things to her, then he walks out the door and is hit by a car and dies. Let's say that man is a good Christian—with a temper he has never mastered. Not a criminal, doesn't beat his wife physically. Feeds the poor and takes care of his children but indulges in a bad temper and wounds her with words.

When he dies, he should go to Heaven. But there is only one problem: a toxic attitude like his cannot enter Heaven, which is a place of eternal joy. At that point, he sees himself as he is. Without the distractions of a physical body, clothing, and such. He sees the state of his soul and knows he cannot enter Heaven that way. And it hits him like Mac truck. But instead of being run over, it ignites his heart with true contrition that burns like an atomic fire in his soul. He sees his sinfulness and what it has done to others—and the flames of remorse consume him.

Have you ever had that happen to you? An unpleasant reality you were avoiding looking at, or were blind to, all of a sudden becomes real... Like getting a positive result on a pregnancy test when you're 16—and your whole world just collapses in waves of fear all around you.

Purgatory is a state of such grief over the habits of sin in your life that you refused to give up. That you are consumed in the spiritual fires of purification without any one to comfort you, anyone to talk to, any food to eat or distract you, any water to drink. It is a place of total spiritual torment.

Yet, if you were to ask the person if they wanted to get out, they would answer, "Not until I can go to Heaven!" Heaven looms before them. Jesus visits them. The Blessed Mother visits them. And they do get occasional consolations and strengthening graces.

Jesus has made a provision. Whether this place is physical place (which I tend to believe) or not. The man is shocked by the state of his soul and is on fire in his spiritual body, with pain and remorse for this terrible habit. So, Jesus takes him aside into a place where other souls are undergoing purification, and grace works with him until he totally repents and is free from this attitude.

Then he is cleansed and ready to enter Heaven.

I remember Jesse du Plantis talked about a building in Heaven that he was not permitted to enter. It was very, very large, and I guessed that that was Purgatory.

I had a dream one night, that Ezekiel and I were in a plane. And it crashed and we died. Now we were in a place that looked like a large theater with several doors leading to the seating area. We were not alone. Many were there and everyone was assigned to a certain door. I woke up from that dream feeling very strange. The Lord revealed to me that if I died then, or now, I would not go to Heaven but Purgatory—because I lived for myself, not for others.

Well that shook us up.

In fact, when I first heard about Purgatory, I had an immediate reality check on my life. I asked myself some hard questions. Would I go to Heaven or Purgatory? That brought on some serious personal changes. Especially in my determination not to lust after things or be lazy.

Ezekiel has said, “Please, Lord. Let my purgatory be here on Earth!”

Ezekiel’s father was a violent alcoholic who abused him and his brothers, but mostly him. His dad just had it in for him. And that is quite common with victim souls and those called to ministry—Satan persecutes them from childhood. To this day, Ezekiel has trouble sitting at a table to eat. Because when he was little, very often something would come over his father and he would attack and beat him. He was a lightweight boxing champion and he knew how to land a punch. No doubt the problems he has with his GI tract are attributed to that.

Well, when his father finally passed away, and was buried, the family did the traditional prayers for the dead. And the Jewish people do that for a year, actually. But 10 years later, his father came to him in a dream and asked him to have three more Masses said—and he would be released from Purgatory. Ten years! He was detained in Purgatory, in the purifying fire, for ten years!

For those who are abusive to your spouse, your children, or even your elderly parents—this is a major wake up call. Please, change your ways while you are still on this Earth, dear ones. You don’t want to go to Purgatory for even five minutes.

And I was reminded of these Scriptures:

Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets. I have not come to abolish them, but to fulfill them. For I tell you truly, until heaven and earth pass away, not a single jot, not a stroke of a pen, will disappear from the Law until everything is accomplished.

So then, whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do likewise will be called least in the Kingdom of Heaven; but whoever practices and teaches them will be called great in the Kingdom of Heaven. For I tell you that unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the Kingdom of Heaven.
Matthew 5:17-20

Wow! And then:

2 Corinthians 7:1 Therefore, since we have these promises, dear friends, let us purify ourselves from everything that contaminates body and spirit, perfecting holiness out of reverence for God.

Hebrews 12:23 To the church of the firstborn, whose names are written in Heaven. You have come to God, the Judge of all, to the spirits of the righteous made perfect, their work will be shown for what it is, because the Day will bring it to light. It will be revealed with fire, and the fire will test the quality of each person's work.

And again, they are references that refer back to Purgatory.

1 Corinthians 3:11-15 For no one can lay a foundation other than the one already laid, which is Jesus Christ. If anyone builds on this foundation using gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, or straw, his workmanship will be evident, because the Day will bring it to light. It will be revealed with fire, and the fire will prove the quality of each man's work. If what he has built survives, he will receive a reward. If it is burned up, he will suffer loss. He himself will be saved, but only as if through the flames.

1 Corinthians 15:29 Now if there is no resurrection, what will those do who are baptized for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why are people baptized for them?

1 Peter 3:18-22 For Christ also suffered once for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, to bring you to God. He was put to death in the body but made alive in the Spirit. After being made alive, he went and made proclamation to the imprisoned spirits—to those who were disobedient long ago when God waited patiently in the days of Noah while the ark was being built. In it only a few people, eight in all, were saved through water. And this water symbolizes baptism that now saves you also—not the removal of dirt from the body but the pledge of a clear conscience toward God. It saves you by the resurrection of Jesus Christ, who has gone into Heaven and is at God's right hand—with angels, authorities and powers in submission to him.

So, here he talks about the Lord making proclamation to the imprisoned spirits.

Saint Catherine of Genoa. This is really good. I found this in Wikipedia, actually.

Saint Catherine of Genoa, for whom Purgatory is not an external fire, but an inner fire: "The Saint speaks of the soul's journey of purification on the way to full communion with God, starting from her own experience of profound sorrow for the sins committed, in comparison with God's infinite love. 'The soul', Catherine says, 'presents itself to God still bound to the desires and suffering that derive from sin, and this makes it impossible for it to enjoy the beatific vision of God'.

"Catherine asserts that God is so pure and holy that a soul stained by sin cannot be in the presence of the Divine Majesty. We, too, feel how distant we are, how full we are of so many things that we cannot see God. The soul is aware of the immense love and perfect justice of God and consequently suffers for having failed to respond in a correct and perfect way to this love; and love for God itself becomes a flame, love itself cleanses it from the residue of sin."

I just wanted to mention one other thing. Around the time I was putting Our Lady Light of the Woods.org website together, I had to do an article on Purgatory, which is there. And I needed a photograph. A woman had just died, recently. I went to my stove, my wood-burning stove. And I took a few shots. And when I looked at them, I discovered that one of the photographs looked very clearly like a woman dancing in fire. It was just so clear. That's what I used for this teaching. It was definitely a gift from the Lord.

Jesus, have you something to add?

"My heart for you, My People, is that in the hour of your death, you fly Heavenward. Unimpeded—straight into My waiting arms. That you eat the fruits and herbs of the trees along the River of Life and are fully healed and restored from the damage done to you on Earth.

"I want every one of you to see Me face to face. But this cannot happen clearly and completely until the layers of film from sin are washed clean.

"Each day, I come to you with the things that must be changed in your nature, by an act of your will. I shower you with love and affirm you. So that strengthened, you can avoid occasions of sin. I love you tenderly, so that you can in turn change your anger and rancor to love for others and avoid the fires of Purgatory.

"But if you will not come to Me each day and spend the time necessary for these healings to take place, you will walk out the door and continue to offend one another—because you are lacking in compassion and love. You are lacking, because you are not putting the right priority on being with Me, One on one.

"When that Day comes, the day of your departure from Earth, stripped of all earthly distractions and sensations—you will stand before My mirror and see every imperfection and habitual pattern of sin. You will feel your lack of love and your anger keenly and recognize yourself as being full of the toxic poison of rancor, greed, lust, and so many other sins that you have allowed to take root and live in you.

"You have known those things were there, but you didn't realize that a time would come when YOU, not I, would have to work through them to pass through the gates of Heaven.

"Oh, what a day that will be!! Glorious for those of you who wept over your shortcomings and sins. Because though you may have been weak and fallen before coming to Heaven, if you were resolute and daily conquering yourself, mercy will be extended to you. It was your resoluteness, backed by action, that gained the pardon.

“But for others who have been avoiding that Day, it will be terrible. You will shake before My mirror and want to run and hide, so filthy will you appear to yourself and all in Heaven. Please, please, make it the number one priority to spend deep prayer time with Me and repent for your indiscretions. Repent and repair the damage you’ve done to other souls.

“Come to Me asking for the grace of true contrition and Mercy. I, on My part, will do what I can to bring you along to the state where you can finally be with Me and the Saints in Heaven.

“But My children, you must pass through the fires of remorse for your habitual sins you have refused to conquer. These cannot come with you into Heaven; they must be completely overcome.

“I know that you who are from a Protestant background are going to kick at this teaching and this reality. But should I refrain from giving it to you because others lied to you and did not form your conscience properly? Or should I give you the opportunity to change while there is yet time for you? I love you dearly. I cannot withhold the truth from you, lest you incur greater debts in your lives.

“When I told the parable of the guest at the wedding feast, I mentioned that one was improperly clad. That one had not put forth any effort to correct his faults and repair the damage he did to others—that is why he was excluded.

“And so, you can ascertain from this that you will not be taken in the Rapture—unless you have either conquered your faults, or are sincerely committed to conquering them everyday. In which case, you will be sure to receive Mercy and come with Me.

“I love you, Beloved Brides. I love you so tenderly as I see you struggle each day to overcome temptations and sins. You bring great joy to all of Heaven with your commitment to be Mine and Mine alone. Oh, how I cherish you!”

Refuge of My Sacred Heart

May 15, 2019

Thank You, Lord Jesus, for the hope you have given us and the opportunity to support the Remnant in their needs. Amen.

Dear Family, the Lord is making it clear to us, through confirmation after confirmation, that this will also be a Refuge during times of trial. The Tribulation. The land is very remote, has groundwater that we collect in a 20-foot culvert that is sunk into the ground. For now, it is going to be a special place to pray.

But when the time comes, it will be a refuge for the Remnant. And He's warned us many times that we have to be extremely careful about who we receive into the community. I won't be with you. But there will be good leadership in position. And it will be so important. So important that the ones that come are truly saturated in the love of God. And dwell in His heart. As we've learned from recent experience, things aren't always as they seem with pious people. So, we have to be very, very careful.

And it's interesting, because 22 years ago when the Lord obtained this land for us, I just felt very strongly that it was going to be a refuge in the time of trial and for the underground Church. I really felt that. And when we had to leave, I didn't know. I thought, 'Well. Maybe this is going to be after the Rapture. Maybe we're not going to be doing this until after the Rapture. I don't know. Or it'll be there for our families during the Tribulation.'

All I knew is that the Lord was asking us to leave. And during that time, He sent us down to Taos and put us on the Internet. And a lot of people have collected around us now who are very sincere and authentic in their love for Jesus.

And several of them are quite ready, and we're bringing them together.

So, the Lord is so serious about getting this done and is bringing it together. And people are coming that I never expected to come, to help with the preparation.

The first thing we have to do is make the road passible. It is an absolute nightmare! Right now, it's extremely difficult because of water erosion. From very deep mud ruts, to huge rocks, to running water coming down the mountain. It is going to be a very big job. And we're having someone with a back-hoe look at it tomorrow.

We will get word tomorrow on how much it will cost for us to repair the 3-mile-long road so we can haul the refuse down. When we built these hermitages and chapels, we did not make it rodent-proof. And my goodness! Those mountain squirrels sure know how to destroy things. And they've been living in those buildings for 20 years. So, it's gonna be a massive clean-up job to get that taken care of. They've torn down the insulation from the ceiling and left their calling cards everywhere. And ruined the wallboard.

And of course, there's been some vandalism. Some people took our woodstoves and things like that. So, we're gonna handle all of that. It's no surprise to us.

So, we are gathering a team of Believers right now to gut the two hermitages and the chapel, which also has broken glass in the skylights. The chapel is glass on two sides and on the ceiling. We will also have to re-route the runoff that is coming down from the mountain. I would like to put it in a pond. I think that would be very nice. The water usually runs all year round.

There are many places on this land for hidden hermitages. We walked it Monday. Oh, my goodness! The Lord's gonna give me new knees, I hope. But we walked it on Monday and I'm really amazed at how much land we actually have. And the amount of places that are so hidden, you don't see them from the road. They're very, very secluded.

The land is very heavily forested with spruce and aspen on the north-facing side of the canyon. And on the south-facing side it has pine, pinion, and scrub oak. We are wanting to purchase much more land, but things are done differently in northern New Mexico, and there are hurdles to overcome. Ancient family hurdles.

In the meantime, we have what we need in land to continue. We also have some alternative living Christians here. Really, really beautiful people. One happens to be an architect, does drawings. They're very good friends of ours. We've known them for a long time. And he designs and builds tiny houses. Off the grid. Totally self-sufficient. Which is just what we're looking for. Composting toilets and completely finished interiors. Although, on that note, everything will be very rough and simple. Just functional.

I am presenting this to you, dear ones, because we need help to do this project. And after it is cleaned up, to restore insulation interior and exterior walls. And make it rodent-proof.

And for those of us who know we are going in the Rapture, this is a work of great, great mercy. And we're preparing this place for those who are part of the Remnant. But until then, we will have five more hermitages, a main house (to gather in) of modest size. A small chapel, very much the same size as the first one, a Franciscan chapel. Everything is going to be primitive and basic for our needs.

We will also have to buy a Samarai, or a jeep, although I really much prefer a Samarai to get up and down the mountain. Our vehicle is not suited to that. We need something with a short wheelbase, strong 4-wheel drive and narrow from door to door, with aggressive tires and chains.

If any one of you want to be a part of building the Refuge of My Sacred Heart, we would deeply appreciate your help. I do not want to take money from the poor that we are supporting.

As you can see from our outreach page, we've made commitments for the trafficked children, help with safe houses. And we do that all over the world. India. South America. And I'm not sure where else, exactly.

And then we have the local people here. We had a lady that had very serious medical needs that we gave her enough money to go to Mexico to get what she needed. Paid medication for others too poor to be able to buy medication. And we pay their utility bills, food bank supplies. Rent and utilities for the free store here in town that supplies hundreds of pounds of clothing, food, and household needs to the poor.

For this reason, I am asking for donations above and beyond what you usually give us to support the Channel. So, we can get this done by the Fall of the year.

We will also have room for those who want to come and visit and want to make a retreat. I hope you enjoy these pictures. This is truly holy ground, anointed from Heaven and designated as a place of prayer by our Lord.

One night, I was praying for the refuge. I was praying for vocations to the monastic life. Nobody really knew us, so I didn't have any form of outreach to share the teachings the Lord had given us. Well, while I was praying, the Lord lifted me up in the spirit over the entire canyon. And Elijah came from the East with a censor full of hot coals. He hovered over the land and dropped them in different places, so that this would be a place of intense spiritual intercession.

Then Jesus sent us down to Taos, got us on the Internet teaching and gathering Heartdwellers together. Now He is providing a wilderness environment where He will speak to their hearts and be filled with the love of God and cleansed of the worldly lives we've been living until now.

That includes me. I definitely am not in the same pure place that I was then.

When I made this change, dear ones, the Lord so flooded me with His presence that I would never be the same. You cannot out-give the Lord.

We know the Rapture is soon. And the Lord continues to tell us soon. And the reason He's doing that is He's keeping us moving to the goal. Keeping us busy about His business.

So, let us live our lives to the maximum for Him, and not feather our nests, which will soon be blown to the ground and consumed with fire. It is time for us to get serious about really wanting Him with all our hearts, our minds, and our strength. And those of you that have joined us on the journey up the mountain. He's doing this for you, as well. He's been preparing you. And He's going to bring you to a place in the wilderness where He can speak to your heart.

The day will come when we will stand before Him, and He will ask to see what we did with what we were entrusted with. We will have to give an accounting. I pray for all of us, that He will not have to burn the wood, hay, and stubble in our lives. But that He will see how generous we were in supporting His agendas and living a Christian life. Good to the poor, our brothers and sisters without judgment. And always loving.

This will be a place where people dwell in His Heart and live in utter simplicity. Please remember our needs in your prayers as well, dear ones. I love you and am so excited for the precious souls who will wet this holy ground with their tears and cry out to God for humanity. I hope to see some of you there.

Thank you, dear ones, thank you ever so much for believing in His work through us.

God bless you.

Come, Let Us Talk About the Delay

REPOST: May 17, 2019 ORIGINAL: July 25, 2016

Well dear family, my heart has been heavy for the last few days, and I suppose yours is, too.

I had been listening to Terry MacAlmon's song, 'How Long' which is all about the Rapture, and really grieving, knowing that everything truly is being postponed.

Then I heard Jesus say, quite unexpectedly, "Can we talk?"

So, I came to sit before Him. And I said, "Lord, You know how I am feeling."

"I know how I am feeling. I miss you. I, too, am longing for that time when we can finally be together for eternity.

"Clare, look into My eyes."

They were bright, yet deep and so full of love it made me cry.

"I, too, am missing you and grieving at our separation, yet I do have much work for you to do. And you know how you love to work."

Lord, if you will maintain my body, sure. Yes, I love to work, to create. To do it with You, as well.

"But your heart is heavy...you don't know what to expect, or how long you will stay healthy or how long you'll live. Or how long I will truly be delayed...do you?"

No, that's all true, I don't. It leaves me open to speculation of the worst kind.

Jesus replied, "You are being buffeted by demons".

I asked Him, "Is there a chance this whole program will not go through as we are expecting? And the war and the Rapture will happen more quickly?"

He replied, "Yes, there is. Wrath is being held back, but the situation is still shaky and definitely not cast in concrete. But I know you will pray faithfully for it to succeed. And that's all that counts: your heart is one with Mine, though it pains you deeply."

I began thinking of those who had objected to my last message.

And the Lord answered and said, "There are many who hear My voice and hear it clearly. And they are not any happier than you are."

How selfish of me.

"You are only human, but that will change...you are growing in reflecting My Heart everyday. It is so slow you do not notice it, but I see it. The interim between now and the Rapture will be worthwhile. I promise you that."

Lord, nothing I do for You isn't worthwhile.

"No, but I mean it will be very worthwhile as you get to finish off some of your dreams and songs. And what a wonderful support group you have."

"Oh, Clare, I wish I could say differently, but here we are talking about the best possible outcome. And wanting for everyone to know, to love and serve Me. At least as many as will come"

I know, Jesus. But I still have some questions.

"Fire away. I do have surprises for you. There are not going to be dull moments, that I can assure you of."

Well, Carol and I had talked about the people on the channel who were having a difficult time over the last message about the delayed Rapture.

"Lord, you heard that conversation with Carol..."

"I did."

What do You think?

"I think you should stay with what I've told you and not waver."

But what about all the Rapture songs You keep playing? I almost feel teased...

"Clare, I want to keep it fresh in your mind. I am coming for you, My Darling Bride. I am coming for you and nothing will stop Me. It is a matter of timing and you know what to watch for."

But I am confused. Is this directly after his election or will we be here a while? Jesus, would you please override my supposed intellect and just tell me straight?

He began, "There is so much to consider. It just isn't that cut and dried. The major deterrent to world war is prayer, and as long as you are all praying and repenting for the nations, My Father's hand holds back the wrath."

But that could be for centuries?

"Not hardly."

Decades?

"NO. There will be judgment in different parts of the world at different times, as it has been for the past few decades. Earthquakes, tornadoes... You have just to trust Me, Clare."

He said that because I was wondering if I was making up this conversation or it was really Him... He broke in and said, "You have to trust Me, Clare. Would you give a snake to your spouse when he asked for a fish?"

And I have been asking Him all afternoon to clarify these events.

I'm sorry, Jesus. I sense Your kindness and love and see Your beautiful face, which I am so much wanting to finish off the painting of.

"It's coming along. But little breaks are a good thing. That's why I asked you to work on a song next."

He continued, "Wars, rumors of wars, earthquakes, famines, floods, tsunamis. But this is what I have planned. I want America to be ready. I want this man in office."

He's speaking about Mr. Trump here.

"I want to see changes in the laws. I want to see if My people called by My Name will continue to pray, repent and support the right things. I want to see this very much. Then it will come, like a flood: one event after another. But America reformed will handle it all much better than she would have handled it now."

"Because of the evil man in office this nation is slated for destruction. But Mr. Trump could be the wild card that turns it the other way."

"Who will come after him is key; and that will determine much of what happens here. There will be an attempt to overthrow him. The ruling elite will not take this laying down. Much too much has been prepared, even since the French Revolution, to prevent it from somehow manifesting. Yet I have thrown certain of the underground cities into confusion and the infra-structure is weakening. This is most disconcerting to them, considering that the people on the outside are waking up to how they have been used and manipulated throughout the years."

"But I do want to give Mr. Trump the opportunity to restructure America according to what is right and that is why I need your prayers and fast offerings, as well as repenting for your nation. As long as this continues substantially, the flood of evil will be held back."

"Clare, you are hearing My heart and intentions loud and clear. Please, put your fears to rest."

I just don't want to mislead anyone, Lord.

"And this is commendable. But there are those who will not hear. Yet time will reveal that what they were told was reliable. For those who have ears to hear, continue to grow spiritually in carrying the burdens of the world with Me. Continue with your cross and Simon's cross, as well.

"What you have lifted to your shoulders out of Love for Me has brought forth nothing short of miraculous results. Most of you are not privileged to what has taken place behind the scenes, and how close to the brink of war We were. Most haven't a clue. To the ones that have seen, and acknowledge My Name, they know that prayer has once again staved off a nuclear holocaust.

"For those who are looking for a Rapture watch channel, this is not it. This is a place to grow in virtue, learn My ways, and serve - even if only through prayer and sharing. This is a place where My Bride learns to resemble Me as she carries her cross and her crown of scorns.

"Any mention of the Rapture is incidental to the hard work of personal holiness. I bring it up only to encourage all that the end is indeed in sight. But until that fateful day, I expect to see all who are instructed here busy about My business.

"As you become frustrated and upset about the Rapture being delayed, understand that I have invested you with certain talents. Some received one, others two, others yet five. I am coming back to receive an accounting of how you have invested them. The family you were born into with all its detriments and blessings. The years that you have lived. The wealth I have blessed you with. The gifts of music and art. The ability to affect change in the political sphere. Law enforcement and the military...all of these and more were gifts to you.

"If you are sitting around waiting to catch a ride to Heaven, you will be shocked when you are left behind. If you are busy about My business, immersed in doing good and using your abilities to the very last drop, you will be joyfully surprised and received into Heaven where I, Myself, will serve you.

"So, please. No complaining over delays. Those of you who are complaining - either you do not see what I have given you and how you are to use it, or you are totally wrapped up in yourself and not about My business at all. I am showing Mercy to you, since you, too, are not ready.

"This I spoke for your benefit, '...it will be like a man going on a journey, who called his servants and entrusted his wealth to them. To one he gave five bags of gold, to another two bags, and to another one bag, a each according to his ability. Then he went on his journey. The man who had received five bags of gold went at once and put his money to work and gained five bags more. So also, the one with two bags of gold gained two more. But the man who had received one bag went off, dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money.

“After a long time the master of those servants returned and settled accounts with them. The man who had received five bags of gold brought the other five. ‘Master,’ he said, ‘you entrusted me with five bags of gold. See, I have gained five more.’

“His master replied, ‘Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master’s happiness!’

“The man with two bags of gold also came. ‘Master,’ he said, ‘you entrusted me with two bags of gold; see, I have gained two more.’

“His master replied, ‘Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master’s happiness!’

“Then the man who had received one bag of gold came. ‘Master,’ he said, ‘I knew that you are a hard man, harvesting where you have not sown and gathering where you have not scattered seed. So I was afraid and went out and hid your gold in the ground. See, here is what belongs to you.’

“His master replied, ‘You wicked, lazy servant! So you knew that I harvest where I have not sown and gather where I have not scattered seed? Well then, you should have put my money on deposit with the bankers, so that when I returned I would have received it back with interest.’

‘So take the bag of gold from him and give it to the one who has ten bags. For whoever has will be given more, and they will have an abundance. Whoever does not have, even what they have will be taken from them. And throw that worthless servant outside, into the darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’ Matt 25:14-30

Jesus continued, “Those I love, I reprove. My Children, cease your complaining and deny yourself; take up your cross and follow Me. I have many blessings for you. Do not associate yourselves with naysayers and cowards, for they will not share in the great reward I have in store for those who love Me with their whole hearts. And remember: faith without works is dead.”

Coming Up Higher - Are You Called?

May 18, 2019

Jesus began, “I wish to tell My Brides that beautiful things are in store for them if they will really, seriously apply themselves. Changes are coming—breakthroughs in equipping. And it is vitally important that My Brides handle these with respect and care. I am clarifying missions and extending anointings.

“But you must be on the alert for what I am doing. You cannot doze off and say, “Oh, another day, just like yesterday. Same old, same old.”

“You will miss Me if you do this. Many of you are living in the consequences of wrong choices. Your flesh and affections have led you astray for many years. And if you are feeling dissatisfied with your life, it is because I am stirring up your nest of complacency. I’m sending My wind to blow the nest apart and free you. Most of you don’t even know you are living in bondage to the past. Living in the past, the status quo, is no longer right for some of you, My Brides.

“You have matured spiritually and now is the season to move forward into the unknown. As your anointing grows, as you use it, you expand. And what was a little job becomes a substantial job. And those who have held up under pressure and been loyal to Me, what was substantial is now moving into a work that will affect thousands and eventually millions.

“But that is beyond you to see or even contemplate.

“Remember: the Kingdom of Heaven is like a mustard seed. Once it is planted, it grows to a great bush, hardy enough to become lodging for many birds.

“I am drawing My people into cohesive groups and works. This Channel has far surpassed just being a Channel. It is a great work that reaches around the world and will draw souls that are serious about Me into a cohesive group.

“Groups do not become ‘a thing’. I am always the Thing that holds groups together! And those of you whose lives have substantially changed are being called up higher and wider to occupy spiritual territory, to train and equip others who hunger for what you have.

“This relationship must be the bedrock of any ministry—with a covering of Humility to keep it safe.

“I have told Clare that people will be coming and going from the Refuge. This is in confirmation to the word I gave to My prophet, that she would be in a dark forest carrying a torch. And with her were young people as they were making their way through the forest ever so carefully.

Then, all of a sudden, the torch would become brilliant, lighting up the entire forest. And each soul would come with a torch to light from hers, and then go out into the world in four directions to circle the globe.

“What you have been taught here is truly the foundation of My Early Church, before man got ahold of it and began to exploit it. Many of you have Bible teachings from evangelical church groups. But what they were lacking was the presence of the great Cloud of Witnesses and interaction with them. As well as My Body and Blood, in which you receive every day all that you need to stay humble, pure, steadfast in faith and strong in temptation.

“My priests. When you elevate Me above the altar, I want you to proclaim this to Me: ‘I love and adore You beyond all things, Jesus. You have all that I need. As I receive You, please equip me with (and then fill in the blank space) Please equip me with _____ to do your perfect will today.’

"Or something similar. You can even make note of what you feel most acutely. 'Lord, give me Your courage.' Or 'Give me Your stamina and patience. Or 'Help me to be longsuffering. And give me Your love for Your people. Let Your heart beat in me; let Your mind think through me.'

"All of these sentiments will draw the graces within Me for you. It is an act of faith, an act of obedience, an act of Love and all that I stood for from the Cross.

“Heartdwellers, you are most unique among My Christian people. You have the Scriptures, the Saints—especially the express corridor to holiness in the example of St. Francis, who lived every day in great Divine Intimacy. You have My Mother, who adores you. And all of Me—Body, Soul and Spirit complete in the host that you receive. Plus the secret place in My heart when you practice dwelling prayer.

“Draw on Me in great faith and I shall supply your need. You indeed are blessed; you have it all.

“For those who want to be equipped to go out, I am making the Refuge available to you. As well as for those who want live in seclusion, too.”

You know, I just wanted to share with you. I've been inspired to ask the Lord for specific graces when I elevate the host. Because I know that He has all the virtues. So, whatever I'm lacking, or feeling insufficient of. And believe me, it's a lot! I ask Him for those things before I receive the host. And He is really strengthening me. It has made a big difference.

“As the days go by, Clare will be given more specifics about timing and lifestyle; leaving the world behind to embrace Me more fully. This will give you the foundation you need to reach your pinnacle of holiness.”

Notice He said YOUR pinnacle of holiness...

"I will set out examples for you from many of My Saints. But you will be a saint in your own unique way, because I made you different from all others. What you will all share is the desire to be holy and pleasing to Me.

"Your identity and how you arrive there will be totally and uniquely you. No cookie cutter Christians, because you did not come forth from a cookie cutter. There is only one you that fits into My Father's heart.

"You will learn to discern and form relationships out of the Great Cloud. Souls who identify with you and your purpose, and will always be there to guide and help form you.

"You will learn of the great intercessory force of those in Purgatory.

"You will be physically, emotionally, spiritually strengthened when You receive My Body and Blood.

"You will have the Scriptures to teach you and even guide you with Rhemas. You will have My Spirit and speak in new tongues.

"Your lifestyle will be admired and desired by those who sincerely want Me, but you will receive scorn and contempt from those who limit themselves to popular Christian culture.

"You will bask in the great rivers of peace that flow through your garden as We fellowship with you in dwelling prayer.

"You will be in a community environment where it is safe to be honest, transparent, and up front about your feelings, fears, struggles and how to overcome them spiritually. It will be very much like it is online now. But instead of being stuck in a hostile world, where everyone is picking at you and accusing you. You will be surrounded by My Brides seeking intimacy with Me."

And here I want to say, guys. I don't envision a large community. I envision a very small community, actually. Twelve or thirteen people. But people coming and going. You know, that's another story.

But one of the things that we did on the Mountain is, we would get together after our prayers. And we would talk about what the Lord was doing in our life and what our particular challenges were. And then we'd pray for one another. We'd know what to pray for. There were no facades, and no trying to look like a really together Christian. Nothing like that. More or less, we just bared our hearts, like I do on the Channel. And said, 'This is what I'm really struggling with. This is serious.' And we weren't ridiculed for it. We were reinforced and encouraged by those around us. It was a very sweet time.

"But I will tell you in advance," the Lord continued. "the struggles against your nature will be very difficult at times. You will struggle with letting go of certain personal freedoms—like getting on the Internet any time you want to. The Internet in this environment will undermine intimacy with Me—unless you are working on the Channel. And even then, there will be times when you need to fast from it.

“Focusing on the world puts your attention off of Me and onto the enticements of your culture. You will be free to leave any time you wish. But My heart is that you will stay and purify your heart so you can belong totally to Me. That may take some time.

"You have followed My teachings through Clare; there you will be living them. Your pride will not survive. I was the same way with My Apostles. We lived the life of what later became My Gospels.

“My people, it is not what you learn—it is how you live once you’ve learned. This life is not for those who consider themselves intelligent and gifted people. It is for those who have seen themselves in My Mirror and are ever so grateful that I have called them anyway. It is for ordinary souls like you and Clare.

“This is what I came to do, but the upper class exploited it. You, on the other hand, are simple little ones whose heart beats only to please Me. Your choice to live in detachment from worldly things will protect you from Avarice and Pride. It will also be a clear message for those who are seeking to be exalted, recognized, and influential—that there is nothing here for them.

“Many are called. Few are chosen. And even fewer respond. But are you called? You will feel an exhaustion with worldly dramas, yet you will pray with great compassion for the world.

“Those of you with children, I will not leave you out. Be patient.

“Your detachment from worldly comforts, dear ones, will shout out, ‘JESUS is ALL I NEED to be happy!’ There will be many tests of your resolve to conquer yourself. The hermitage is not for sissies. In fact, it is a place where devils love to come and taunt you with all manner of temptations. But many of you have already been through that, so you expect it. The more productive you are in My Kingdom, the more you will be attacked.

“But it is also a place of victory and encountering Me deeply, Divinely, in a way that will cause you to never be the same.”

Urgent - Cover Melania With Prayer

May 19, 2019

Thank You Lord for alerting us to danger. Lord, hear our prayers. Amen.

This is an alert to pray for Melania Trump. It came from one of our prayer warriors and priests, a woman of great prayer. And this is what she sent us.

"My rhema message today was Pray Harder, Enemies Advancing. After reading it, I felt the Lord wanted me to go into intercession and I saw Melania Trump on the balcony waving at people the White House and she got shot. An assassination attempt right in the chest.

"I asked Bible Promises if this was a true vision or a lying vision, and I got Holy Spirit."

So, I'd like us all to pray very hard. Cover Melania with intercession and pleas.

And we got a Scripture also, on the heels of that.

Let all the earth fear the Lord; let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him!

This is Psalm 33 and it was given to Ezekiel.

For he spoke, and it came to be; he commanded, and it stood firm.

The Lord brings the counsel of the nations to nothing; he frustrates the plans of the peoples.

The counsel of the Lord stands forever, the plans of his heart to all generations.

Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord, the people whom he has chosen as his heritage!

The Lord looks down from heaven; he sees all the children of man; from where he sits enthroned he looks out on all the inhabitants of the earth, he who fashions the hearts of them all and observes all their deeds. The king is not saved by his great army; a warrior is not delivered by his great strength. The war horse is a false hope for salvation, and by its great might it cannot rescue.

Behold, the eye of the Lord is on those who fear him, on those who hope in his steadfast love, that he may deliver their soul from death and keep them alive in famine. Our soul waits for the Lord; he is our help and our shield. For our heart is glad in him, because we trust in his holy name. Let your steadfast love, O Lord, be upon us, even as we hope in you.

So, that was a beautiful confirmation in the Scriptures that the Lord will intercede on our behalf.

God bless you, Heartdwellers. Let's get to prayer for Melania.

Purgatory in the Early Church

May 20, 2019

Thank you, Jesus, for Your promise to finish the work You have begun in us. Even when it means after we depart this Earth.

Well, my dear Heartdwellers, there needs to be some clarification about the doctrine of Purgatory. And the Roman Catholic Church. Which is NOT the same Church that we're following. We're following the Early Church. Pre-Rome. Before Rome. And all the changes that came.

First of all, I am going to change the name of Purgatory to correspond more with the Gospels. Because Purgatory comes from a Latin word. So, we will call it the Bible's name for it: Purification.

And I know you will say, "That get done on our way to Heaven, doesn't it? You know, like a great spiritual shower, washing away the spots, wrinkles and blemishes?"

Well. Apparently not—or Jesus wouldn't have said in Matthew 5:26 "Truly, I say to you, you will never get out (of prison) until you have paid the last penny."

The "prison" alluded to in verse 25 is Purgatory, according to Tertullian, St. Cyprian, St. Ambrose, and Jerome. While the "penny" represents the most minor sins that one commits.

1 Corinthians 3:11-15 If any man's work is burned up, he will suffer loss, though he himself will be saved, but only as through fire.

My dear ones, let me share with you what I believe this purification truly is. Have you ever done something really, really wrong that you didn't acknowledge as wrong before you did it, but tried to explain it away? Have you ever gossiped and hurt someone's reputation, causing them to lose their job or trouble in a marriage? Or perhaps you were in an accident where a child or adult was killed, and the accident was your fault.

When you found out that you were in the wrong, and were responsible for the suffering of innocent people, how did you feel?

I have done things in my past that I was very ashamed of. And when the Lord confronted me with what I had done and who I had hurt, it was like molten metal being poured over my body. My face turned red, my knees started to shake, and I had to sit down.

Possibly you got some bad news that caused that reaction in you.

I believe that feeling is the fire of purification in realizing what I had done. It was shock, and I couldn't put my mind around it. All I could do was be dumb until God gave me the grace to acknowledge and face it.

Now for us on this Earth, we inhabit a body which acts as a buffer or insulation from the spiritual world, which is very intense energy. But when we leave the body behind, there is no longer any buffer. We are without food, water, distractions, bodily comforts, friends to call, excuses to make. We are stripped down to the naked soul, which is now under the fire of conviction. With no Ben and Jerry's to eat, no wine to drink, no one nearby to blame. We are like raw skin before the Lord. Every slight little breeze stings and burns when the top layer of skin has been removed.

At this point I thought, 'You know, Lord, maybe You should explain this?'

And Jesus answered me and said, "No, you are doing quite well. And this should be explained from a human point of view to understand what it is that burns. So, please proceed."

Okay.

For example, when I was in the world and sinful, I thought I had a health problem, because my feminine cycle had stopped. I just shoved it under the rug and kept on getting photography assignments. And right in the middle of a National Geographic assignment, I noticed some body changes. My belly was getting bigger and my pants wouldn't zip. And I thought, 'I must be sick.'

Well... I went to the doctor, and after testing me he said, "You're pregnant." I nearly fainted. I had been in denial. I have never ever felt anything so earth shaking. Conviction flowed through me like fire. I was paralyzed and didn't know where to turn or what to do. I was in shock.

Well, I believe that this is what purification by fire is all about. Burning conviction with no way to escape. Your life rolls out before you and you feel like a complete fool. You're stunned, because you are seeing the consequences of your sins for the first time in God's mirror.

The Lord said He was coming for a Bride without spot, wrinkle, or blemish. A spot comes when you are involved in something unclean, and it splashes on you. Like gossip. It splatters all over your wedding gown. A wrinkle is what you develop from habitual patterns of sin that you refuse to deal with. A blemish is an uncleanness from inside of you that manifests as a stain from beneath your gown. It can also be a rip or a tear from being careless.

In any case, these are things that you know you should deal with, but you cover them with denial until they hit you upside the head, and you can no longer avoid or deny them.

And I believe that if you have these patterns of sin and have not addressed them, that you will need to be purified before you can enter Heaven. But I also believe that if you are not in denial, and you have been working on them with all your strength, I believe the Lord in His mercy may wipe them away. That is, however, if you have exercised mercy towards others.

He who shows mercy will also be shown mercy.

So, I relate to the place of purification by fire as an inner state of searing conviction that causes me to review my actions and repent. God in His Mercy has established, I believe, a place where we can go through this purifying fire and come out ready to enter Heaven.

Think about it for a moment.

Let's say I was jealous of someone and spread malicious lies about them to ruin their reputation. I knew it was wrong, but I was driven to do it anyway by my bitterness. I tried and tried to smear them so they would never have a good reputation again. And this was a lifelong habit I kept hidden from others, but still did to every person that offended me or made me jealous.

Then let's suppose I got into a car wreck, was thrown 50 feet in the air and died on impact.

Now, I had accepted the Lord as my Savior, gone to church, prayed, tithed and fed the poor. And I really did love Jesus. But I was self-righteous in my thinking, and thought of the persons that offended me, that they should be brought down. So, I continued in this evil habit, ruining the lives of many people along the way.

(Now, I didn't do that. I'm just giving you an example.)

So, what do you think? Should Jesus take such a person to Heaven where they will no doubt be jealous of everyone?? Should He send them to Hell? Or should He take them to a place of purification where they can truly learn that what they were doing was wrong. And at the same time, truly want to stop?

You see Purgatory, or the place of Purification, is God's great Mercy at work. Have you ever wondered why people take so long to die? I believe they have unfinished business: unforgiveness, lack of repentance for the sins of omission and commission, and the harm they've caused others. And rather than sending them to be purified, the Lord lets them live and suffer for a very long time. And I believe a great deal of business is taken care of when they are sleeping, or suffering, or lonely.

The Lord gave Ezekiel a very real example of this the other night. He was suffering and knew that it was for someone but didn't know who. Then he saw a man dressed in a suit walk across the room and come and stand at the foot of his bed. This man communicated to Ezekiel, "Thank you for praying for me. I can go Home now." This was a man who had been in Purification and was suffering deep remorse. And because we on Earth prayed for him, he was released. And able to enter Heaven purified.

Now the good news: the souls in Purification can pray for us! They have already made the same mistakes we are making, and they can relate to our weakness. In their situation, they have nowhere to go; only time to repent and cry. So, the Lord gives them an opportunity to be charitable to others soul that are on Earth and do not know how bad off they are in God's eyes.

And we in turn pray for them to be released quickly.

As I had mentioned about Ezekiel's father, after 10 years he was detained in the place of Purification but was allowed to visit his son. He said to Ezekiel, "All I need are three more masses and I can go Home."

Lord, do you have something to share?

"My Dove, you have done very well. Yet no one can plumb the depths of My Mercy and predict who will be detained in the purifying fires, and who will not. This is one reason why My Father is taking so long to give the word for the Rapture to begin.

"I do not want to see any of My Brides excluded from the wedding feast because they were detained for purification. Yes, there will be some who will. But the ones who were willing to suffer and work hard on their faults, they will come with Me to the Wedding banquet.

"This is another reason why I told the parable of the wedding feast and the man improperly dressed. His sin had worn his clothing threadbare, filthy, and unfit for a celebration. He had a long habit of not repenting, and therefore he was unfit for the Feast. He was saved, though, by his confession of Me as his Savior,

"But the others came to Me each day and wept over their sins, begging Me to deliver them. And doing many acts of reparation—not only for their sins, but for the sins of others.

"You ask, what is reparation? It is the soul who sees the evil that is done in the world, and is struck to the core by insults against Me, abortions, dishonest governments, and all manner of unrighteousness. And there are those who are so united with Me—when I grieve, they grieve. And in this way, they are repairing the damage of those who sinned against Me. And that brings Me comfort.

"There is no pat answer as to whether or not you will need purifying. But if you love Me with all your heart, your mind, and your strength and love your brother as yourself, you have very little to worry about. Rather, you will constantly be aware of temptations, faults, and lapses—and you will repent immediately.

"Remember, My Heart is a heart of Mercy. And I see every tear drop you cry over others and cry over your sins. And though you are weak, I am full of Mercy for you, because of the way you have been merciful to others.

"Purify yourselves, My Brides. Especially in this hour from sloth, which hurts the entire Body and deprives them of the nourishment you could have given if only you had tried a little harder."

And that was the end of Jesus' message.

And I feel very convicted about that: Sloth. I'm working really hard on my music. It's important to me, because there's so many messages from Heaven there. I don't want anyone to miss the comfort they could get from these songs. So, I'm really pushing it on this end.

Well, in conclusion, dear Heartdwellers. I want to say that we are returning to the Early Church, the way it was before Rome. The truths the Lord has given us are the living fulfillment of His many allegories and teachings that were strictly defended and adhered to by the famous Christian leaders such as Sts. Cyprian, Ambrose, Jerome, Pope St. Gregory, Tertullian. St. Anthony, other early church apostles and martyrs that formed the bedrock foundation of His Church. Living Stones.

I want to take a moment and thank you who have been supporting us every month. Your generosity means so much to us, both because we know that you believe in us. And also because you want us to continue to do the work we're doing.

And we are moving ahead slowly as donations come in for big projects on the Refuge of My Sacred Heart, a remote and beautiful place consecrated for prayer in the Sangre de Cristo Mountains. We will share more about this in our newsletter, so be sure to sign up at heartdwellers.org for more details.

Please, try to be patient with me. Some of you have sent us letters and donations, and I haven't answered you yet. But I will get back to you as soon as I can.

And you know? I continue to ask myself, 'Why are we doing this?' 'Cause it's a huge, monumental project! And the answer comes simply: because it is really, really needed.

Not only will be this be a place to live for a few dedicated souls, but also we will be training and equipping those to go out in the world and bring in the harvest through dwelling in His Heart. Souls that are not legalistic but dedicated to truth. Souls who do not judge others, do not argue doctrine, or get entangled in worldly affairs seeking money. Souls that have the complete Truth from the Early Church, and Bible Truth from the contemporary church. But love their brothers as themselves and are longing to bring others into this deep place of intimacy.

Thank you so much for believing in us.

Heart Dwellers in China

May 24, 2019

Jesus, we cry out to You. Save us from our enemies.
Please, make the Chinese Christians invisible. Amen.

Dear Heartdwellers, I am most concerned for the Chinese people, because the government is now on an intensified campaign to eradicate hidden house churches and believers.

We have thousands of Chinese viewers, and many are very generous sending us contributions to help. They are precious, precious souls who are risking their lives for their faith. Something just about unheard of in America.

In America, we get persecution and blacklisting. In China, it's prison time, torture, and death. Family, please pray intensely for these dear souls. We do not risk losing our families here in the United States. But the head of the household could be arrested and murdered with just a wife and children to fend for themselves. Pastors routinely disappear in China. The persecution is horrendous.

Imagine living in a place where a neighbor could report you for having a home meeting. They have to cover their meetings to make them look like birthday parties. Loud and raucous parties, to protect themselves from being reported.

I am asking you to please make a small fast or sacrifice offering, such as no meat on Wednesday or Friday, or no dessert on Friday. Or staying up later on Saturday night to pray for them specifically. The blood of the martyrs is the seed of the Church. And China is going to have an unheard-of revival on the heels of this heavy persecution.

Every day, you put your lives and your children's lives in jeopardy, because God means more to you than life itself. I am so very humbled by your devotion and what you're willing to lose to worship Him. My heart is overwhelmed with love for you, that you have chosen Jesus over life itself. Even as He did for you.

Now, I would like to make a suggestion to you. In these times, when it is especially dangerous to meet as a group, know that Jesus is your Shepherd. He is at your right hand 24/7. Yes, we do need pastoral care. But every day you should go to Him, worship, read something holy, get a Rhema, and pray. Especially in times of danger.

Pray with Mary. Pray a Rosary and ask her to protect you and make you invisible. If you nourish yourself every day on worship, Scripture and prayer—the Lord Jesus will guide, perfect, and comfort you. Then if you meet in smaller groups, less conspicuous—maybe 3, 4, 5 people—have a mini-church using the same formula. Worship, Scripture, prayer and waiting on the Lord. Resting in the Lord. Praying and singing in tongues and resting in the Lord. Waiting for Him to give each one of you a vision, a Scripture, or something encouraging that comes to mind. Then you will be well nourished until the heat is off, and you can return to bigger meetings.

This is how the enemy goes undetected in Western nations. And I'm talking about terrorists. He has cell groups 3-5 that are ready at any time to take on an assignment. Our assignment is to love our brothers, especially those who persecute us. I say this to you while admitting I am not a great example. I feel sorrow for my enemies knowing that they are living a life that is a dead end. But I would like to be more affectionately praying for them. Bitterness is a terrible thing and we don't want to grow that nasty weed in our hearts. Having genuine concern for our enemies is one way to stop a root of bitterness from growing.

In America, we are free to go to churches, but people are leaving them. Here you are, in China. And the churches are being destroyed. And here we are in America with churches that are empty. Why is that? They are not getting the truth nor the nourishment from their churches, which have become more like social clubs.

So, I have a large Internet ministry of people who are seeking and finding the Lord at home in the peace and quiet, set apart from the world. We're in over 192 countries now. And the stats on Vimeo are not accurate, because so many visit our website and download massive downloads from our website. And we are trying to ascertain how many people actually are watching the videos to the end, or what have you.

Unfortunately, we've noticed that there is discrimination against those channels that don't fit into the socialistic agendas. We don't always know how many people see things. People can't access the Paypal button. For some reason, it won't work. People say they signed up to get notifications, they don't get any notifications. It's a hidden thing that's going on with social media that Christians are being minimalized and persecuted. And having certain functions turned off, so that we're not able to really connect with our people as we should.

And that's why we're growing our own website. And that's where most people come.

So, again. We have a large ministry to people who are seeking and finding the Lord at home. In the peace and quiet that's set apart from the world. Dear ones, Intimacy with Jesus. (Pure intimacy, heart to heart, not sexual intimacy) Intimacy with Jesus is the very nourishment of life and He desires this with you, with all His heart. Each one of you are so dear to Him! And His heart just pounds out of His chest when you look at Him. When you seek Him, He is so touched. Because most people just don't care.

Pastors can only take you just so far. After that you must labor, seek, and find Jesus on your own. He longs to have this intimacy with you. And while the shutting down of churches may seem cruel, God is using it to get His people to seek Him until you FIND Him. Then intimacy begins. He holds your hand or hugs you to Himself. He sits and listens to you for hours. He sends His comfort to cover and penetrate even to the marrow of your bones, every thought, pain and desire. He gives of Himself in time. He is ALWAYS there with you at your right hand. Oh, my dear ones, in this nation they are learning that church programs are not the answer. People don't want another social club; they want Jesus. Then, when they get together, each brings the joy of knowing Jesus to a meeting. Each one brings their own Rhema (their inspired word from God just for you in that moment) and shares it with others.

Even in the midst of persecution, your lives can be so POWERFUL with Godly joy that others will hunger for Jesus. America will someday be subjected to brutal persecution, and it is now that the Lord is teaching us to survive on our own with Him.

This is His joy, to see you coming to Him to encounter Him and for no other reason. You are exquisite to Him. Each and every one of you is exquisite and brings Him such joy and comfort. That is the very pinnacle of His day.

And as He reveals these feelings to you, no matter how much you have done wrong, He draws you into His Heart. He wraps you in a cloud of peace and forgives you.

Receiving the Body and Blood of Jesus every day is POWERFUL and life changing. As I have said many times before, as an evangelical Christian of over 7 years, there was STILL something lacking. I knew there was more, but I didn't know how to access it. Dear ones, it is His Presence under the appearance of bread and wine that gives us His very DNA and all the virtues we need to survive the day.

If you come to America, or to a country where it's safe, we will ordain you. So that you can have the precious Body and Blood of Jesus. We'll ordain you over the Internet. We've been and been tremendously successful. People are really feeling the difference.

I am not talking Catholic. I am talking Early Church—the first 300 years. Jesus gave us many things in His Church, which Satan has managed to discredit, because the graces were so powerful, they were destroying his work. So, he used uninformed men to change what Jesus gave us as a gift into some superstitious, New Age tradition. He gave us His very own Body and Blood to nourish spirit, soul, and body.

He gave us His very own Mother to look after and guide us. He gave us the great Cloud of Witnesses to commune with. These are perfected souls in Heaven. Just like Moses and Elijah spoke with Jesus, you too can speak with the Saints in Heaven. Because Scripture has it that we're surrounded by them. How do you tell the Saints from the demons dressed up like saints—the familiar spirits which are demons made up in whatever costume suits your fancy? The same way you tell apart the real Jesus from an imitation Jesus that tries to deceive you.

And we have many, many teachings on Discernment that the Lord has given us. In fact, we're working on a book right now. Carol is putting together a book on Discernment, taking from all the messages. And that'll be a very helpful book.

My dear ones, the Lord has something new coming forth. He wishes with all His Heart that we come into union with Him. That we hear Him clearly. That we allow Him to live and move and have His being from within us. And He is using the communist government to aid Him in that endeavor, so that you will press in and make communion and dwelling with Him your number one commitment. Then you will have learned the secrets of His Heart, and you can share them with others and draw them in.

And I want to recommend to you for dwelling music. Pick the things that are intimate, where the singer is talking to the Lord. Or pick instrumentals. We have quite a few of those. It's called Heart Dwelling songs. That's our channel on Vimeo, where we have all the music that Ezekiel and I have written and composed songs to. And there are a couple of other singers that we've put on our channel just for you. Because they were very, very special.

I know you may not be able to find this movie in your country. But if you ever get to watch it, you will see the TRUE CHURCH OF Jesus Christ, the living stones, who we can become. "The Reluctant Saint" is the name of the movie. And it really strips down to the true Christian in love with Jesus. It bypasses the role playing, posturing, intellectualism, professionalism, and arrogant Pharisee mentality. It gets right down to the heart of Jesus' Heart, to be in love with Him.

And exposes the lie that we must be intelligent Bible Scholars to be good Christians. Yes, we need the Scriptures. But love surpasses all knowledge, and the Lord is standing ready to give us this love if we will only seek Him and dwell with Him until He relents and gives us this grace.

My dear Heartdwellers in America, please pray for our Chinese brothers and sisters. That the officials will be converted, and that the Believers will be invisible to authorities. Lord, have mercy on our brothers and sisters in China. We love you, dear family. And thank you for all you've done for us.

Persevering in the Fires of Refinement

May 27, 2019

Thank You, Lord, for these times of trial, fire, and refinement. For though they may seem to burn, and the intensity can take our breath away at times, we know that what You are making of us and our lives is a Beauty that is marvelous to behold. Amen.

One of our prayer warriors, who is also a priest, sent an email to Clare with encouraging words for us. And we wanted to post it for you today.

His email began, "The random Rhema message I received yesterday was from the message "Your Beauty is Marvelous to Behold" This word from Jesus in this message was so appropriate for this time, I wanted to share it with you all, this particular portion."

Jesus began, "You see, My Church, you are giving birth to souls and each new labor pain brings with it another push. And the birth is difficult, so you continue to push and push. Just when you feel you can't manage one more push, I breathe My grace into you, and you continue to push. One of these moments, your pushing will be at an end, and the child will be born.

"In the meantime, you are going from glory to glory. By the generosity of those who hate Me and hate you, your so called 'enemies', you are not only learning the ways of the dark ones and broadcasting what you have learned around the world to those who need to hear it. You are also growing in spiritual power and stature. You are literally rising to the occasion. They don't realize they are actually facilitating a classroom and gymnasium where you are coming into great power and glory. But I am using them. They think they are doing you harm. Quite the contrary, they are serving Me well in raising up My Body in glory.

"Soon enough, the tables will turn, and they will suffer major defeats, because they are the ones who helped teach you how to rise up and fight. Iron sharpens iron. And their master does not care for their future. He looks forward to the day when he can finally reveal to them, they've been had. And their kingdom is the fire that never abates and the worm that is never satisfied.

"So, you see, you are growing, you are reaping a harvest, you are shining, My Bride. You are becoming all I have called you to be.

"Even as it is written in James, 'Consider it pure joy, my brothers and sisters, whenever you face trials of many kinds, because you know that the testing of your faith produces perseverance. Let perseverance finish its work so that you may be mature and complete, not lacking anything.' James 1:2-4"

Jesus continued in that message, "I have brought this up as an example to you on how I move when My people humble themselves, repent, and cry out for My help. Is there faith among you? Do you wish to see great exploits as in the days of old? I long to reveal to you the strength of My arm, but you must hold it high with your prayers, offerings, and sacrifices."

That was the end of that message.

And around the same time as this email, Clare had received Psalm 18 from the Lord, and sent it around to the prayer warriors for us to read and comment on. This is the first portion of that Psalm:

Lord, I passionately love you and I'm bonded to you, for now you've become my power! You're as real to me as bedrock beneath my feet, like a castle on a cliff, my forever firm fortress, my mountain of hiding, my pathway of escape, my tower of rescue where none can reach me. My secret strength and shield around me, you are salvation's ray of brightness shining on the hillside, always the champion of my cause.

All I need to do is to call to you, singing to you, the praiseworthy God. When I do, I'm safe and sound in you.

For when the ropes of death wrapped around me and terrifying torrents of destruction overwhelmed me, taking me to death's door, to doom's domain, I cried out to you in my distress, the delivering God, and from your temple-throne you heard my troubled cry. My sobs came right into your heart and you turned your face to rescue me. Psalm 18:1-4

That was just the first four verses, and I'll leave it to you to read the rest of that entire Psalm. But I will mention that David wrote it in praise of the Lord for delivering him from the hand of his enemies, including Saul.

If you have been going through an especially fiery-fire time the past few weeks, (MANY of us on the prayer team have been experiencing this!) I know it will do your heart good to take the time to dwell with the Lord and this Psalm together.

Then, in response to Clare's email, one of the prayer warriors wrote back with his insights:

"Psalm 18 means for me 'the turning of the tide.'

"We were in grave danger, but the Lord has turned back our spiritual enemies, and has given us new life. In other words, an extension of Time. Now, as St. David says in the Psalm, we should pursue and strike down the enemies that plague us. The sin in our own lives, I mean.

"The Lord said to me this morning during Communion to treat my interior self as His Kingdom. For in Proverbs it is written, 'He who rules his own spirit is better than he who rules a city'. To let no evil thought or emotion run to or fro within the city of self without detaining and searching it out. Taking them captive like enemy spies and combatants in the Name of Christ.

"He sits on the throne of our hearts and proclaims peace within us. But there are still areas in our life where there is no peace. These are rebels in our interior walk and must be rooted out by prayer and watchfulness. This is not a time of easing up, but pressing in.

"There are also spiritual enemies that are arrayed against us in the world. Let us war against them with prayer and offerings until they no longer rise. We see the tide turning in the abortion battle, with a total ban made law in Alabama. May the Lord bless with Mercy every state that bans this wickedness! The prayers of the faithful played no small part in this victory.

"This battle is one of many fronts. But with pad and paper in hand, a list of Prayer needs and causes, a heart full of petition and faith—we can chase these spiritual adversaries, external and interior, and cut them down with prayer and offering. And disarm them, cutting their bows in pieces and knocking down their arrows.

"If I sound intense, it's because the temptation to laxness is strongest on the heels of victory. I do not intend to grow lax with this new extension of Time. I am so thankful for it, and I wish to make the best use of it in my prayers and proclaiming the Peace of Hearts in the Mercy and Lordship of Jesus Christ.

"This is what psalm 18 says and means to me. It may be different for you. I have found that we are all going up the same mountain, but on different paths.

And then he ended his exhortation with, "Silver is refined in the furnace. The heat is increasing with each new battle, and likewise our refinement. I feel like very soon the Death Crawl scene from the movie, "Facing the Giants" will be playing out in our walk. With Jesus as Coach Taylor lighting a fire under us to go the last few yards. I love that scene. Let's rise to the occasion, my family. Very soon the blindfold will come off on the Church, and the valley of dry bones will come to life."

God bless you, Heartdwellers.

The Church of My Father's Heart

May 28, 2019

How wonderful are Your ways, dear Lord. Please keep us pure and faithful to Your vision of who we should be. Amen.

Well, we are living in some exciting times and the Lord is always up to something new. I am quite amazed at how He is bringing the Refuge of My Sacred Heart together. Every day another piece of the puzzle just drops in from the skies of Heaven as we continue to obey Him.

Today I met a lovely couple from Texas that will be coming here to care take the property and work on projects. They are used to living off the grid and home schooling their children, as well as being very devout and prayerful. I was just amazed how the Lord did this. These are people so committed to Him, that if He says go, they drop everything and go. But they had all the qualifications they needed to be able to handle the rough living conditions until the main house or the commons center is built.

He had just been let go from his job of nine years, because he was entitled to a raise and some other benefits, and they were cleaning out the older employees who had been there, to avoid having to do some of these things. I guess this is what corporations do.

But in all reality, it was the Lord saying, "No more call center for you. I have something much better for you to do." They have been Heartdwellers for four years and couldn't be more excited that their lives are taking a wonderful turn.

Dear ones, the Lord wants this project completed by September, so we NEED things to fall into place, quickly. Just like this. It's another confirmation, every time He sends another piece. And we already have two people coming to live there. So, they'll be in tents until their little hermitages are built.

Thanks to a few very generous gifts to the refuge we have been able to get the road fixed and get a four-wheel drive vehicle that can get up there in the winter time as well. And the Lord provided a very experienced friend of the family to do this.

Now we need to rent a BIG construction dumpster and start moving the things that can no longer be used. And if donations permit, get a work crew going up there to clean up, as well as getting ready for building. Well, I'd written this a few days ago, and the donations for the work crew and volunteers are coming in. So, praise the Lord. He really, really is serious.

We also have to draw up the plans for the commons center, and have an architect, who is a Christian friend, give us advice on where to put the buildings. In all honesty, I don't think we need plans. It's going to be very simple. I never had plans for the other buildings that we did, and they turned out perfect.

But the Refuge is so very important to the Lord, because it is a cradle for the renewal of His Church. He wants it raw, rough, and very, very simple. So simple that indigent farming families would be right at home there.

This is what He has said to me, "It's all about love, Clare. The Church only exists to demonstrate My Love. In the past, she has demonstrated her power, her wealth, her ability to subdue peoples and manipulate governments. No longer. She is being stripped down, naked so that the true Apostles may rise up and clothe her in My Love and Glory."

And I think I quoted this statement to you in one of the messages we've just had.

My dear ones, it is very exciting what He is wanting to do. And we all know I am not qualified for this job at all. And THAT was deliberate on His part. I am seeing how those who have had training in the world are too hard to re-train. Better to start with little nobodies that only love the Lord and don't have a clue how to do anything is done without Him. YES!!! I hope this inspires you Heartdwellers. We are making a difference on a small scale, in the church. If He is doing what He seems to be telling me He is doing, this tiny work will perhaps merge with other tiny works for Him and will arise as the newly reformed Church He intended it to be from the very start.

And we have seen Melchisedech at the very start of the renewed Earth in the incredible dream that Ezekiel had. And he was present as if to say, "This is the real deal. We are doing this for the Church our Jesus began."

I have seen that others have caught the vision and kept it small and simple. Home groups, with fathers and mothers to guide the communities they live with, but on a small scale. The moment you gather large groups, you must have large extravagant buildings. And money invites the wrong element into the very foundation of the church.

Truly we must be virginal in our approach to rebuilding what the Lord has left with us.

His plans for the Refuge is to train up young apostles to circle the globe and bring His love back into the very foundation of the Church.

Yes, there will be healings and miracles. But the GREATEST miracle of all will be to see every Believer connected intimately to Jesus. And to have that as the very foundation of the Christian walk. Every Believer getting up in the morning to spend time with the love of their lives. Then healings and miracles will follow.

He has steered me totally clear of wanting all the supernatural signs, gifts, and miracles in operation. His focus is not on miracles. His focus is love and holiness. Then miracles will follow.

We don't want to cultivate those who focus on the gifts, but do not have this intimacy with Him. Without His Heart beating in our chests, we will misuse the gifts and start to worship them—or start to worship men who exercise them— instead of Jesus. I believe that is a reason why we are seeing miracles that do not come from God—because people seek miracles instead of God. The enemy exploits that weakness and the pride and idolatry Christians fall into when miracles happen.

"My sheep hear My voice, My sheep seek My face." Jesus began. "My sheep are Mine and none other's. I am breaking away all the conventions of My church that are not relevant to a holy life. In the past, idolatry has gone unnoticed, and people have listened to anyone who is flashy enough to impress them. And so, they are easily led into error.

"What I am doing in this generation is emptying the baggage from the hearts of My people. No more Hollywood superstar Christians. It only breeds greed, idolatry, and error. What passes for church is theatrical manipulation of My people, who have been taught to worship personalities.

"I taught you by example, and while crowds followed Me everywhere I went, never once did I exact from them tribute and monies. Rather, I fed them, healed their wounds and taught them to repent and sin no more. These are the lessons that cultivate the rich soil and bring forth a thousand-fold harvest.

"My people, we are returning to the church of My Father's Heart. For He longs for a people who worship Him in spirit and in truth with no thought of pleasing crowds and building a citadel. Rather, they are little ones, ministering My Love, one on one, tending to the wounded and those excluded. And from this humble beginning I will build up my Church into what I always meant for Her to be."

How We Lose Our Desire for Holiness

May 30, 2019

Thank You, Lord, for the warning dreams to help keep us on track.

Well, dear ones, Ezekiel had a dream about a week or two ago, and I lost track of it - and just found it now. And on that particular day, when he had the dream, I kept getting rhemas about Lust and the Flesh, the World. Avarice. Just things of the World, Worldliness. And after he had this dream, he got the same thing! All kinds of Scriptures on Worldliness.

A young couple had come from Israel to live here. A very, very holy couple. Completed Jews. They've received Jesus. And they came here to live, and we'd helped them find a little house out in the country. And I was helping her set up her kitchen, and Ezekiel was helping the young man set up the rest of the house. And at this point, I'm gonna share with you Ezekiel's part of the story. I had to erase the beginning, 'cause there were a lot of silly sounds in it, like crinkly things and what have you. Very distracting. But that's the gist of it. And he'll pick up from here.

Ezekiel: And his wife, very sweet. We were trying to help them, you know, get a few things and kind of get their little place established with some furniture and some things. Very, very humble. Very humble and holy. Very holy couple. I mean, the first thing they wanted to do was put up this huge... He would take, like, stumps and pieces of bark and things. And make them. You know, sand them. Polish them. Shellac them and put them up, like, on the walls. And put a huge picture or image, or crucifix. Which he would make, you know, like, three feet high.

And he would mount them on these big, thick slabs of wood. Like you would just cut a circle out of a tree or something, you know?

So, we're helping them do stuff. Day goes into night. Night goes into day. And you and the young wife, helping her with anything you could, you know. And you guys, you and the wife are keeping it really simple. You were keeping it really simple and just special. Like I said, they were very, very tender in the Lord. And I noticed the guy started... It looked like things were just being delivered and were showing up. I'm talking about state-of-the-art entertainment systems with everything, you know. Wide screen this. The top-of-the-line audio. Speakers and this thing and that thing. And players and gizmos and gadgets.

And then things... I turned around and there's all this. A HUGE double waterbed thing. And I mean, this place went from a little, simple little house 'til like it almost looked like the guy in South America that we knew that owned the Emerald mines. Just everything was new. The most modern. The nicest. And I could see the concern in his wife's eyes.

You were kinda busy, so you didn't. You didn't notice it, but I could see that she was getting concerned. And eventually, she did come to you and tell you that she was concerned.

Meanwhile, rewind just a little bit on a split-screen kind of thing. I'm with this young guy. And we'd been talking about the Lord and sharing the Lord. And he was so excited in a very calm, peaceful way. But he wanted to know more and more and more. And he shared more and more and more with me. And when all these things started showing up - it was like I was looking at this from a third-person view.

Clare: Who was ordering all this stuff?

Ezekiel: First of all, it just started...kind of appearing here. Like...

Clare: things would appear.

Ezekiel: Little tokens and things to kind of get himself together. And I got pulled out of the scene. And guess who took my place?

Clare: Who?

Ezekiel: Satan himself. As a middle-aged guy. Middle-aged business kind of guy, but in leisure wear. But he wore, like, a sport coat. Older than the young man, maybe in his 40's. Not too far away from 20's and 30's. He's just laid back, you know. Hair just right. I mean, the quintessential, perfect, on-the-way, upwardly mobile.

Clare: Already mobile...

Ezekiel: Right. Already. And he's complimenting him on all these things and all this stuff in the house and everything.

Clare: And the insinuation was?

Ezekiel: 'That's the way to LIVE, man!' I mean, wow!

Clare: Oh, out in the woods, jetsetter.

Ezekiel: Jetsetter. All the most modern, new, bells-and-whistles. All the little trinkets and... 'This is the HIGH life! We're living LARGE, man! You know, this is the way to DO it!'

Clare: Yeah.

Ezekiel: And these are very young, Jewish Christians. And although the wife isn't particularly buying it, and it's bothering her. And you're busy trying to help her set up her house, and the kitchen. This that and the other. And you don't get it, because you're busy with stuff. But. She comes over to you at a certain point and says, 'I'm not comfortable with this. I mean, something feels really wrong about all this stuff.'

And so, you talk to her and you start to pray.

Meanwhile, Satan is walking in his young personage, all slick and cool and got-it-all-together. And he's distracted this young man to the point that he's kind of stunned. He's kind of confused. He's kind of foggy about things. And he goes over to this big, beautiful piece of wood that he'd put up high on the wall, with the three-foot crucifix that he'd made. And he takes the crucifix off of there. And just kind of pitches it off on the side somewhere.

Clare: It didn't fit with all the other stuff.

Ezekiel: Partly that and partly all Satan's influence. And I had been pulled out of the picture, and Satan took my place as the rich young man persuading this young, innocent, new babe in Christ who was a very holy, faithful, Jewish young man. And now a very faithful, holy Christian. And placing this mist over his mind. So that, all he could hear and sense and feel were the insinuations of the enemy.

And even though he still wasn't comfortable with it, he knew something was bothering him. He was convicted that this isn't right. Part of him began to enjoy those things and want more. That's the way the dream ended. And it's such an analogy to me of how the enemy puts a fog over us. And we start doing things that we normally wouldn't do. Like taking down the Cross and pitching it to the side.

And we start to like the pretty things and the nice things. There enters the seed of...

Clare: Avarice.

Ezekiel: ...material lusting. I mean, wanton lust, eventually, is what it grows into. For things. And the World and everything in it. But it starts slowly. It starts subtly, very subtle. And it grows by stages. And then, when we find ourselves in that place, we're actually threatened if someone tries to even begin to bring it up or talk about it.

I mean, the wife wanted to take all those things out of the house, because it was so pure and so simple. We were just going to set it up as a sweet, simple household that Jesus Himself could make Himself at home in. And they could learn and grow, you know?

So, we have people even in the Heartdwellers who struggle with that. We've had some who've left in the past. And in that Rapture dream that I had, the first Rapture dream I ever had. I remember that we'd be walking. We were so expectant that the Lord was going to come, and we knew He would. And He did. But it took a while to walk a couple of states away, you know? And by the time... We were from New Mexico halfway into Oklahoma, walking along the side of interstate - people were looking back at the shopping malls and the men's gadget stores and you name it. Anything that would appeal to a man's flesh. Anything that would appeal to a woman's. And they started to leave the group and kind of veer off, down the embankment, almost hypnotized for stores. The things. The Avarice that was growing in them.

And the Lust for the World and things that blinded them. But as they would leave, others would come from the World and take their place. So, that's the practical application of the dream, I think. And it's yet one more caution. It's more than a caution, it's a serious warning.

Clare: Yeah. Keep it simple.

Ezekiel: Stay out of the World. Stay out of the World. Stay off of the television and flipping through the channels. Stay out of the magazines at the grocery store and God forbid, the gossip scandal sheets and newspapers, things like that. Just stay OUT of the World, 'cause if you don't. If you give it an inch, it'll take a mile. All it takes is that little hole in the boat. That little way in. And the World will come in slowly, slowly. And the hole will get bigger. And pretty soon, ultimately, it's gonna come rushing in like a huge wave with the World and everything in it. And it's gonna totally possess you and take you over. It's that serious.

We think, 'Well, that's just one of my flaws. Or that's kind of... Probably, the healthiest answer would be, 'Yeah. I struggle with that.' I mean, it's so important that we just be honest with ourselves, with the Lord and each other sometimes. If we at least will admit that we have a problem. And ask for help, the Lord will rush to your side. And your brothers and sisters will rush to your side to pray for you! And in time, when you're able and you're ready to hear it, to encourage you and give you good counsel. And help you back up. Like the Good Samaritan.

And we don't even realize when those things come in, that we're just taking a big knife and making cut after cut. I mean, we're killing ourselves from the inside out.

Clare: Well, all those things just, they gain total control over you.

Ezekiel: At a certain point, you really... The Lord has told me so many times, for myself and others. You know, like I'd say, "Lord, I don't understand this. I'm not in my right mind!" From that day forward, the Lord's mentioned many times. Sometimes we're not in our right mind. It's not who we really are, or who we're really meant to be.

Clare: Yeah.

Ezekiel: But it's who we've been strongly influenced by - and if we don't turn around at the very beginning with that little hole and plug it up.

Clare: Yeah

Ezekiel: That's...it's gonna consume us.

Clare: Alright now, so was this about the Refuge?

Ezekiel: The Scripture that comes to mind is 'He that loves the world makes himself an enemy of God.' In other translations, 'puts himself in enmity from God.' And 'you can't serve two masters. You'll either love the one and hate the other. Or cherish the one and despise the other.'

Clare: Well, it just seems to me...

Ezekiel: You begin to be defensive.

Clare: Yeah.

Ezekiel: And push people and things away that are not in your reality. And you'll bring people and things around you on purpose to ratify your 'reality'. To make you feel good about it, to push the guilt down.

Clare: Yeah. It just seems to me that it's a warning about the Refuge, to keep it very simple. And guard it. Protect it. That's what it seems like to me.

Ezekiel: I can see that. I think it's a message. A message of caution. And those who have allowed that little hole, and they were just too weak to close it. And the Enemy came in, deeper, stronger, wider. And then they didn't want to. They just weren't themselves anymore. They weren't even in their right mind. And they began to shun anything and everything that would threaten that, and everyone. But to replace that, they would find new friends and new this and new that. People who would be in agreement and support them.

Clare: Right.

Ezekiel: In this life and lifestyle. All of it drawing them further and further and further from the Lord. And the Lord is merciful. Like you say. You get a nudge. You get a tap. You'll get a push. And sometimes, He'll let you walk right off the cliff and hit the rocks hard. And it could be at the very last moment.

Lord, help us. Give us Your heart, Your mind, Your strength - because we're weak. You know our frame and that we're weak.

Clare: That's what I've been praying non-stop about, every morning.

Ezekiel: You know, let this not be guilt, guilt, condemnation, guilt, guilt. 'Cause you're already feeling some of that from the Enemy. But there's a healthy conviction they've felt from the Lord. Those who are compromising.

Clare: Hmm. Okay. So, you think it's just a present-time message for them.

Ezekiel: I sure do. This is not all of you.

Clare: Yeah.

Ezekiel: But the Lord has been speaking to Ezekiel for a while that there is... It started with a little head cold. Then it became the flu. And now, those of you who are in that place. Might be in the...just the little head cold or allergy or sneeze phase. But some of the sheep. Not many, but there's a cluster that are either going to be tempted with this. Or have already been in it. And you've been living under this conviction for a long time. And it's time to take the medication, because it's so dangerous and so contagious. And you're a carrier. It spreads to the other lambs and sheep.

Clare: mhmmm.

Ezekiel: If we, the shepherds. The Lord - the Good Shepherd. Doesn't check it and vaccinate and medicate and get this thing stopped.

Clare: Okay. So that was your dream huh.
