

September 2023 Newsletter

President's Corner

Hello everyone! - As we head into September i just want to say how incredibly awesome all of you who participated in/at/for the fair. If you got a chance to participate during the fair, you will know that it was an excellent way to get to know each other on a deeper level. We couldn't have done it without you.

was reading an article the other day that was talking about the future of quilting - and not surprising to me it looks like many quilters are again using traditional patterns like "Log Cabin" and the "Irish Chain" to create new looks with a fresh new emphasis on bright vibrant colors... Looking forward to an awesome fall! -Dani

NVQG August 12, 2023 Meeting

The meeting was called to order at 10:00 AM by President Dani Neuman.

After the pledge of allegiance, monthly birthdays for members were announced.

Mary Jo Kent, secretary, stated that the minutes from last month's meeting had been published in the newsletter. As there were no corrections or additions proposed by membership, the minutes were approved as published.

Ellen Wulf, treasurer, stated the bank balance.

Margret Gaeddert, VP, had no update.

Membership had no announcement – volunteers at the fair have been soliciting new members - if any member sees a new face, please extend a welcome.

Welcoming committee had no update.

The newsletter deadline for submission of items is the 25th of the month. Nikki Luce Feil continues to request submissions by members of quilting interest/events, recipes, tips-and-tricks, etc.

BOM committee had some blocks from previous months to distribute. There was a drawing for one winner for the current month's block. Next month's BOM was on display - a printed version of instructions was available; directions will also be published in the newsletter.

Cathy Stegman, prize drawings, pulled four winning tickets.

Patti Glenn, communications, had no update.

Carol Holmes, historian, stated that the guild scrapbook had been brought up to date, and was available for viewing at the meeting.

Peggy Hart, opportunity quilt, announced that the quilt is on display at the fair; some future trips include Fremont in September and Santa Rosa in October.

There were no updates from quilts to share, sunshine, website, or hospitality.

Linda Feutz reminded members that she needs to receive quilts for exhibition in the Art in the Library program. Quilts will be displayed during the month of September.

Dani N. asked for any quilt-related announcements.

All business being concluded, a motion to adjourn was made and seconded at 10:15 AM, with show and tell to follow.
