

Standish, Kenneth C.

Kenneth C. Standish, 44, of Caseville, died Saturday afternoon, May 5, 2007, at Bay Regional Medical Center, Bay City. A team of doctors from "Gift of Life" immediately took him to surgery to retrieve the organs he donated, so that others might get a second chance. He was born October 8, 1962, in Detroit to Charles and Rosalie (Lines) Standish and grew up in the Roseville area. In 1991, he moved to Caseville with his parents and worked in the Caseville area providing residential cleaning services. Kenny enjoyed all types of sports while living in Roseville; he attended many Tiger, Red Wings, Lions and Piston games. When they moved north, he watched them on television. Surviving are his parents, Chuck and Rosalie Standish, of Caseville; his brother, Craig Standish and his special friend, Rhonda Hager, of Chesterfield Township; two sisters, Colette Durphey and her husband, Tim, of Ortonville, and Donna Lincourt and her husband, Mike, of Farmington Hills; several nieces, nephews, and cousins, and Michele Niebel, of Fort Wayne, Indiana. Funeral services were conducted at 11 a.m. on Monday, May 7, 2007, at the Champagne Funeral Chapel, Elkton. Burial was in St. Francis Borgia Catholic Cemetery, Pigeon. Memorials may be given to the family. Words of condolence may be shared at www.cfcElkton.com.
