Biography

Jean Ann (Mischung) Wissner, age 87, of Sebewaing, passed away on March 7, 2020, surrounded by her daughters. She happily went to be with her Lord and Savior and to join her husband, Glen (Goose) O. Wissner in heaven. Jean A. Mischung was born on January 30, 1933, in Sebewaing, to Andrew and Mary (Meissner) Mischung. She was baptized and confirmed at Immanuel Lutheran School. Jean graduated from Sebewaing High School in 1951. After graduation she was employed by the Michigan Milk Producers. On August 7, 1954, Jean married Glen O. Wissner. The marriage produced three daughters, who survive her. Her husband passed away on July 5, 2016. Jean was employed by the Unionville Sebewaing Area School District for 33 years. She started out as a volunteer for the kindergarten class held at Ridge School and ultimately retired as secretary to the Junior High Principal. Jean enjoyed being a mother, grandmother and great grandmother. She was an avid USA Sports fan. She was a life-time member of Immanuel Lutheran Church and was involved in the Adult Choir, the Mary Martha Guild, Lutheran Womens' Missionary League and the OWLS (Older Wiser Lutherans). She took great joy and comfort in her faith. Jean also was involved in bowling and bridge club. She enjoyed being with her family, especially the annual Christmas shopping trip with her daughters and granddaughters. She and Glen enjoyed going on bus trips with their friends.
