

Lois Jane Everingham

(May 17, 1920 - October 30, 2013)

Lois Jane Everingham, formerly of Caseville, daughter of the late William and Florence (Kent) Everingham died October 30, 2013 in Hillsdale, Michigan at the age of 93.

Her forty-four year career in banking began with working for her father, who was president of the Kinde State Bank. She was manager of the Caseville branch of that bank for thirty-three years, and the remaining eleven years were spent at the main office in Bad Axe. She retired in 1982.

Lois served on the board of the Caseville Civic Club, Caseville Community Chest, United Way of Caseville, Huron County Red Cross, Tom Thumb Nursery, Caseville Council of Arts, Huron Memorial Board of Incorporators and Michigan National Association of Bank Women.

She was a former member of St. Roch Catholic Church, the Caseville Eagles Auxiliary and Huron Medical Care Center Auxiliary.

She is survived by her sisters Charlotte Nickle of Saginaw and Aileen Tamblyn of Hillsdale, brother William R. (Betty) Everingham of Stanwood, and many dear nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents, three sisters: Shirley Everingham, Elizabeth Wahl and Adelaide Markle.

A funeral mass will be at 11:00 am Thursday, November 7th at St. Roch Catholic Church with Fr. Robert Pare presiding. Burial will be in New River Cemetery, Port Austin.

Visitation will be 3-7 pm Wednesday at the Champagne Funeral Chapel. She will lie in-state one hour prior to mass in church on Thursday.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Pigeon District Library.
