Questions Frequently Asked by Clients

- Does the Expo Center supply cookware or kitchen utensils? No, clients and or caterers must supply their own utensils, cookware, and cleaning supplies.
- What cleaning is required? Am I required to sweep and mop? The basic policy is that all rooms should be left in the same condition as received prior to each event. The exception is that when renting a kitchen it is the responsibility of the client sweep, mop and clean all tables prior to departure.
- Where do I place trash generated by my event? Trashcans and trash bags are provided. It is the responsibility of each client to place trash bags in dumpsters at the conclusion of their event and insure that all trashcans are placed back inside the building.
- Should I provide liability insurance for my event? As stated in each contract, a rental client assumes responsibility for their event, their guests and their service providers; therefore it is suggested that clients speak with their insurance agent regarding their upcoming event and discuss their needs with regards to liability insurance. Due to the nature of some events additional insurance may be required of some clients and name the County of Sampson as additional insured.
- Safety is of utmost importance for all events. Please refer to Exhibit A, Section E t specifically speaks to Child Safety.
