

Steinman, Edwin

Edwin W. "Whitey" Steinman, 70, of Caseville died Monday morning, May 28, 2001, at Covenant Cooper Hospital in Saginaw. He was born on Dec. 17, 1930, at the home of his parents, the late Clarence and Jessie (Beadle) Steinman, in Chandler Township. On Oct. 13, 1951, he was united in marriage to Deloris M. Langley at St. Roch Church in Caseville. Deloris preceded him in death on Feb. 21, 1996. Whitey lived in the Caseville area most of his life and worked in the shipping and receiving department of Michigan Oven Company in Caseville until his retirement in 1992. He was a member of St. Roch Catholic Church and the Knights of Columbus Council No. 8042. He was fire chief for the Caseville Fire Department for 35 years, on the Caseville School Board for 10 years, and was a member of the village council. He loved to fish out on the bay and umpired Little League forever. Surviving are two daughters, Betty of Caseville and Patti of Saginaw; two brothers, Clarence and his wife, Barbara, of Detroit, and Robert and his wife, Irene, of Port Austin; sister, Jane E. Steinman of Caseville; aunt, Laurina Beadle of Mankato, Minn.; a son-in-law, Dale Schweitzer and his wife, June, of Pigeon, David Langley and his wife, Mary Ellen, of Plainwell; five grandchildren, Danielle, Eryn, Sara, Kayla and Katie; his fishing buddies, Paul Geiger and James Simmons of Caseville; and many nieces and nephews. Edwin was preceded in death by his daughter, Lori Schweitzer; two brothers, Hazen and William; and one sister, Betty Ann Beeney. A funeral mass will be conducted at 11 a.m. on Thursday, May 31, 2001, at St. Roch Catholic Church in Caseville. The Rev. Fr. Dennis Kucharczyk will officiate with burial in Caseville Township Cemetery. Visitation will be from 6 to 9 p.m. today and 2 to 9 p.m. on Wednesday at the Champagne Funeral Chapel in Caseville and after 10 a.m. on Thursday at the church. Fireman memorial service will be Wednesday evening. Memorials may be given to St. Roch Catholic Church.
