*CALL to WORSHIP

Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord.

Lord, hear my voice!

Let your ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications!

I wait for the Lord,

my soul waits, and in his word I hope;

If you, O Lord, should mark iniquities,

Lord, who could stand?

But there is forgiveness with you,

so that you may be revered.

My soul waits for the Lord

more than those who watch for the morning.

O people, open your hearts to the Lord!

For with the Lord there is steadfast love,

and with him is great power to redeem.

It is he who will redeem us from all our iniquities.

My soul waits for the Lord

more than those who watch for the morning,

more than those who watch for the morning.

(adapted from Psalm 130)

*HYMN 782 Come, Thou Fount of Ev'ry Blessing verses 1&2

PRAYERS for the PEOPLE

THE GOSPEL: Mark 3:20-35

THE EPISTLE: II Corinthians 4:13-5:1 (a responsive reading)

But just as we have the same spirit of faith that is in accordance with scripture—"I believed, and so I spoke"—we also believe, and so we speak, because we know that the one who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus, and will bring us into his presence.

Yes, everything is for your sake, so that grace, as it extends to more and more people, may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God.

So we do not lose heart. Even though our outer nature is wasting away, our inner nature is being renewed day by day.

For this slight momentary affliction is preparing us for an eternal weight of glory beyond all measure, because we look not at what can be seen but at what cannot be seen; for what can be seen is temporary, but what cannot be seen is eternal.

For we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.
