

Bouck, Winston

Winston C. Bouck, 82, of Rochester died Sunday, Oct. 21, 2001, at Crittendon Hospital in Rochester Hills. He was born April 21, 1919, in Owendale, son of the late John and Edith Bouck. He was a 1938 graduate and former teacher at Pontiac Central High School. He was a graduate of Ferris State University, did his post-graduate work at the University of Colorado, and was a Navy Veteran of WW II. He was a charter member of St. Luke United Methodist Church and was a long-time volunteer at Oakland University and Meadowbrook Hall. He is survived by one brother, Franklin Bouck, and his wife, Virginia, of Ortonville; and one sister, Mary Lou Garvey and her husband, Bill, of Bad Axe. He was preceded in death by two brothers, Wallace and Robert; and two sisters, Janet Pennell and Leta Weir. Funeral services were held Wednesday, Oct. 24, 2001, at St. Luke United Methodist Church in Rochester Hills, followed by burial in White Chapel Cemetery. Arrangements were made by Pixley Funeral Home of Rochester.