

Elementary Dress Code

Christ Church School desires to instill pride and a sense of community for our students. For this reason, a simple uniform has been chosen for all students. Additionally, the uniform requirement is designed to encourage children to interact without socioeconomic bias.

General Expectations

- Appearance should reflect common sense, neatness, and safety.
- Clothing should be clean and in good condition with no missing buttons. No torn or faded clothing is permitted. Uniforms must fit properly.
- Boys' hair must be cut short and may not touch the top of their shirt collars.
- No permanent hair accessories will be allowed.
- Jewelry should be appropriate for school, worn in moderation, and not pose a safety risk.
- No visible tattoos (even those of a temporary nature) will be permitted.
- All shirts, except sweatshirts, must be tucked in at all times. Shoes must be tied at all times.
- On Chapel Days, Elementary students must wear maize shirts. Elementary girls must wear plaid skirts or jumpers. The same rules apply to Picture Days.

Uniform Expectations

Shirts: Shirts must have collars. White or maize tab-front knit long or short-sleeved polo shirt, with school logo. White or maize turtleneck or mock turtleneck, with school logo. Girls may also wear a white or maize round-collared shirt, with school logo. Shirts must be purchased from Lands' End, the official uniform supplier for Christ Church School.

Shorts and Slacks: Must be navy blue in color. The school recommends cotton/poly blend navy blue to avoid fading. Knit shorts, bike shorts, cargo or denim shorts are NOT permitted.

Skirts and Skorts: Must be navy blue or classic navy plaid in color. The school recommends cotton/poly blend navy blue to avoid fading.

Jumpers: Must be navy blue or classic navy plaid in color, with school logo. White or maize shirts with collars must be worn underneath.

Dresses: Polo style dress, with collar. Must be navy blue in color, with school logo.

Socks: Socks that show above the shoe must be worn. Tights may be worn with skirts, dresses or jumpers.

Shoes: Closed-toed sneakers in good repair are preferred. Other dress shoes may be worn. For safety reasons, boots, Crocs, and sandals are not permitted.

Sweatshirts, Sweaters, Sweater Vests and Fleece Shirts: Solid navy, maize or white sweatshirts, sweaters and fleece shirts may be worn at any time. If desired, these items may be embroidered with the school logo. No other slogans or advertisements are permitted.

Belts: Belts are optional.

Jackets/Coats/Hats: Any jacket, coat or hat, in good repair may be worn. No other slogans or advertisements are permitted. Please label all outerwear with your child's name.
