Tip-Off

The 2015-16 season is complete.

Free Throws

The last time the Class A championship game went to overtime was 2010 (Bismarck High def. Mandan, 58-55)...The last team to win back-to-back state titles was Bismarck High (2000-01)...When Century and West Fargo met in the quarterfinals it was the first time since 2013 the WDA and EDC regular season champion met in the quarterfinals. That year, Fargo Shanley (EDC) def. St. Mary's (WDA)...Dickinson's Aanen Moody's 37 points in the quarterfinal vs. F. Davies was a tournament high...Century's Dalton Feeney was named senior athlete of the year...Century's Darin Mattern was named state coach of the year...The WDA went 11-4 against the EDC this season.

Team of the Week

Minot defended its Class A championship last week, topping West Fargo in OT in the title. It was the Magi's 17th title.

DICKINSON: The Midgits (13-7 Overall; 11-6 WDA) will finish its regular season on Tuesday, Feb. 23 at rival Williston. Dickinson could finish third in the WDA standings with a win. The last time the Midgits were fourth in or better in the standings was 2008. Last week, the squad needed OT to top visiting Mandan, 93-84, and then lost on the road to Jamestown, 97-85. Against Mandan, Aanen Moody finished with a game-high 47 points. Dickinson outscored Mandan 20-11 in the OT period.

JAMESTOWN: The Blue Jays (11-9 Overall; 8-9 WDA) have a pivotal final WDA regular season game on Tuesday, Feb. 23 when it hosts Mandan. The winner will grab the No. 5 seed at next week's West Region Tournament. Last week, Jamestown split two games, falling at WDA champ Century, 74-67, before downing visiting Dickinson, 97-85. Against Century, four Blue Jays were in double figures led by Josh Schulz's 17 points.

LEGACY: The Sabers (2015: 5-15 Overall; 3-14 WDA) finish the regular season on Tuesday, Feb. 23 when it faces St. Mary's. With a win, the Sabers likely will finish eighth and host a regional play-in game later this week. Last week, Legacy split two games, losing to Bismarck High, 74-38, before rebounding with a 71-57 road win at Williston. Against BHS, Austin Wolf finished with 13 points. Against Williston, Jason Hoekstra had 16 points. Devin Beck and Grand Edison were also in double figures.

MANDAN: The Braves (9-11 Overall; 8-9 WDA) finish the regular season on Tuesday, Feb. 23 at Jamestown. A win would give Mandan a fifth place finish in the WDA standings. Last week, the Braves dropped road games at Dickinson, 93-84 in OT; and Minot, 72-62. Against Dickinson, Trae Steckler had a team-best 29 points. Against Minot, three players were in double figures led by Steckler's 17 points.

MINOT: The Magicians (18-2 Overall; 15-2 WDA) conclude regular season play on Tuesday, Feb. 23 at TMCHS (Belcourt). Minot will finish second in the WDA standings and be the No. 2 seed at next week's West Region Tournament. Last week, Minot downed visiting Mandan, 72-62. Against the Braves, three Minot players were in double figures led by KyJuan Johnson's 17 points. The Magi led by 10 at the break.

ST. MARY'S: The Saints (7-12 Overall; 6-11 WDA) finish the regular season on Tuesday, Feb. 23 against Legacy. St. Mary's will finish seventh in the WDA standings and host the 10th place finisher in a regional play-in game on Friday, Feb. 26. Last week, SM split a pair of conference games, falling to Century, 91-52, before a 86-60 triumph over visiting TMCHS (Belcourt). Against Century, Noah Kopp scored 11 points to pace the Saints. Against TMCHS, Kopp and Zach Wanner both netted 21 points.

TMCHS (Belcourt): The Braves (4-15 Overall; 3-14 WDA) conclude the regular season by hosting defending state champion Minot on Tuesday, Feb. 23. TMCHS (Belcourt) will participate in a regional play-in game later this week and likely be the No. 8 or No. 9 seed. If the finish eighth, they would host the game. TMCHS dropped two road games last week, falling to St. Mary's, 86-60, and to Bismarck High, 60-47. Against SM, Nate LaFountain had a team-best 17 points. Against BHS, LaFountain finished with 13 points. TMCHS led 22-20 at halftime.

WILLISTON: The Coyotes (5-15 Overall; 2-15 WDA) finish the WDA regular season on Tuesday, Feb. 23 when it hosts rival Dickinson. The Coyotes need a win to avoid a 10th place finish. Williston will participate in a regional play-in game later this week. If the squad finished 10th, they would travel to St. Mary's on Feb. 26. Last week, the squad dropped home games to Legacy, 71-57, and WDA champion Century, 70-45. Against Legacy, DeSean Eikens had a team-best 18 points. Against Century, Eikens had a game-high 21 points for Williston.

All times Central Time

BISMARCK HIGH: The fourth ranked Demons (4-0 Overall; 4-0 WDA) are idle until competing in the Energy Classic in Gillette, WY, Dec. 28-30. Last week, the squad picked up two conference wins, defeating St. Mary's and Williston. Against SM, three players were in double figures led by Brayden Thomas' 15 points. Jordan Mann, 14; and Connor Hellebust, 12. The squad shot 40 percent from the field. Against Williston, Hellebust had a game-high 25 points. Ian Schafer netted 18 and Thomas added 10. BHS led by 12 points at the break.

CENTURY: The No. 2 ranked Patriots (5-1 Overall; 3-0 WDA) are off until a WDA road game on Tuesday, Dec. 29 against TMCHS (Belcourt). Century improved to 3-0 in conference play with two wins last week, including a 65-59 triumph over No. 1 ranked and defending state champion Minot. Earlier, the Pats rolled over Legacy, 76-35. Against Legacy, Dalton Feeney had a team-high 16 points. Michael Olson and Lucas Meyer scored 11 and 10 points respectively. Century held a 36-6 advantage in bench scoring. Against Minot, Feeney had 29 points. Sam Leidholm had 14. Century shot 40 percent from the field and went to the line 45 times, making 28.

DICKINSON: The Midgets (2-3 Overall; 2-2 WDA) step out of WDA play this week hosting Watford City on Tuesday, Dec. 22. It will be Dickinson's first home game of the season. The squad rallied for a 61-60 victory at Mandan last week. Aanen Moody finished with 26 points. 18 of Dickinson's 61 points came via the three-point basket.

JAMESTOWN: The Blue Jays (1-3 Overall; 1-3 WDA) step out of conference play and host neighboring Valley City on Tuesday, Dec. 22. Last week, the squad dropped a 66-49 decision at Mandan. The team also saw one of its starters, Logan Anderson, go down to injury. Noah Wanzek scored a team-best 17 points. Jake Reuther added 10. The Jays trailed by 16 points at halftime and shot 32 percent for the field.

LEGACY: The Sabers (2015: 1-3 Overall; 1-3 WDA) are off until it competes at the Moorhead, MN holiday tournament, Dec. 29-30. Legacy dropped its two games last week, falling to Century, 76-35, and then to TMCHS (Belcourt) 65-50. The squad has now lost three straight. Against Century, the Sabers attempted just 34 shots from the field, making 13. The squad trailed by only nine at halftime before Century pulled away in the second half. Jason Hoekstra led the squad with 10 points.

MANDAN: The Braves (2-2 Overall; 2-2 WDA) are off until competing at the St. Cloud, MN holiday tournament, Dec. 28-30. Mandan split two WDA home games last week, defeating Jamestown, 66-49, before falling 61-60 to Dickinson. Against Jamestown, the Braves enjoyed a 16 points lead at halftime. Three players were in double figures, Camren Steckler, 17; Trae Steckler, 15; Jeremy Friesz, 14. Mandan shot 53 percent from the field, 23-43. Against Dickinson, the Braves led late before the Midgets escaped with the win. T. Steckler had 23 points. C. Steckler added 10. Mandan had an 13-5 edge in points off turnovers.

MINOT: The top ranked Magicians (4-1 Overall; 3-1 WDA) are idle until returning to the court Dec. 29 and Dec. 30 for non-conf. road games against Red River and West Fargo. Last week, Minot split its two games, defeating Devils Lake, 76-66, in non-conf. play before losing its road debut, 65-59, at No. 2 ranked Century. Against DL, four Minot players were in double figures in scoring led by Kylan Johnson's 16 points. Justin Engg, 13; Braydon Lund, 12; Cody Reynolds, 10. Minot shot 47 percent from the field, 26-55. Against Century, Johnson had a team-high 18 points and Ben Bolinske netted 15. The difference was at the free throw line. Minot attempted just 14 FTs, making nine. Century went to the line 45 times, making 28.

ST. MARY'S: The Saints (1-3 Overall; 1-3 WDA) are off until they step out WDA play and face Fargo Shanley on Dec. 28. Last week, the squad earned its first win of the season, edging Williston, 70-65. Earlier in the week, SM lost to rival BHS, 65-54. Against BHS, Cole Gendreau had a team-high 24 points. Matthew Guenther netted 10. Against Williston, Jacob Schmidt scored 23. Gendreau had 19 and Guenther 10. The 70 points was a season high. SM trailed by two at the break before outscoring the Coyotes, 37-30, in the second half.

TMCHS (Belcourt): The Braves (3-1 Overall; 2-1 WDA) are off until they host WDA foe Century on Dec. 29. TMCHS picked up a win in its only game last week, defeating Legacy, 65-50. The Braves' first six games are at home.

WILLISTON: The Coyotes (2-4 Overall; 0-4 WDA) are idle until Jan. 5 when it visits rival Dickinson. Williston dropped its two games last week, falling at home to Bismarck High and then St. Mary's. The Coyotes are the only team without a conference win. Against BHS, DeSean Eikens had a team-high 18 points and 10 rebounds. The squad shot just 27 percent from the field, 14-51. Against SM, Williston held a two-point lead at halftime only to see the Saints rally for the win. Three players were in double figures. William Brown, 15; Baily Bethke, 14; Eikens, 10.
