

Roger Waterman

Date of Hire: May 2019

After receiving his Bachelor's degree in Outdoor Recreation from Central Washington University, Roger began his professional career working for Stanley Tools before moving onto Maurice Sporting Goods as a professional salesman, covering areas of Western Washington and Alaska. During his first year with Maurice, Roger received the Rookie of the Year Award and throughout his 17-year tenure, continued to receive awards including Territory Manager of the Year three times and was a reoccurring member of the Multi-Million Dollar Sales Club. Based in Seattle, Washington, Roger brings a strong understanding of the distribution, retail and manufacturing markets for sporting goods. An avid outdoorsman himself, he is committed to his customers' experience and brings enthusiasm to our industry.
