

From the Minister's Mac

"Kids"

In what feels like a previous life, I was a star in my high school's production of the musical Bye Bye Birdie. I played Kim McAfee, the lucky teenaged fan chosen to receive a farewell kiss from pop idol Conrad Birdie, who is about to be drafted. One of my favorite songs from the musical was performed by Harry McAfee, Kim's father, who sang about what he felt was the trouble with Kids:

“Kids! I don’t know what’s wrong with these kids today!
Kids! Who can understand anything they say?
Kids! They are disobedient, disrespectful oafs!
Noisy, crazy, sloppy, lazy, loafers. And while we’re on the subject:
Kids! You can talk and talk till your face turns blue!
Kids! But they still do just what they want to do!
Why can’t they be like we were, perfect in every way?
What’s the matter with kids today?”

Of course, this is not what Jesus teaches.

Jesus has a way of lifting up those whom society puts down. We know children are precious in Jesus’ sight. The question is, are they precious in ours? What are we willing to do to show children they mean the world to us? How do we let them know that the Kingdom of God belongs to them?

We will explore those questions, and others, this Sunday in worship as we seek to be a congregation that brings God’s love to those who have been told they don’t deserve it.

See you in church,
Lin

ALL SAINTS SUNDAY

All Saints Sunday is November 3rd. It is the day when we honor all those who have gone on before us. We will read the name and show a picture of each loved one submitted. Please send a digital picture to Julie in the church office before October 29th and it will be included in the slide show on November 3rd. Please be sure to include the name of your loved one, to be read aloud during that service. If you don't have a picture, we can still read the name of your loved one if you send it to Julie before October 29th. You may also simply bring a picture of your loved one to church that Sunday morning and Eric Presnall will put it on a paper display for all to see that day. Be sure and put your name on the back of the picture if you would like your picture back. This will be a wonderful way to honor the saints who once lived among us.

Attention Veterans

The Longmont Quilt Guild has a program to honor all our veterans. If you are a veteran, or you have a family member who is a veteran and would like to be honored with a Quilt of Honor to thank you for your service, please contact Janice Bachmann (720-272-6947 or email: bachmann837@msn.com). Depending on the number of veterans we have in our congregation family it may take some time to get quilts to everyone.

Episodes vary in length from 20 minutes to 90 minutes. It's casual, so bring your popcorn or your snack and drink (no adult beverages please) and enjoy this series with like-minded followers of Jesus. Feel free to bring friends and family, too! We'll meet for about 90 minutes.
