Setting Personal Financial Goals

A good way to help ensure success is to write down on paper your short-term and long-term financial goals.

Use a clean sheet of paper to list your goals.

Make sure that your goals are realistic! This list should be prioritized with estimated completion dates for each goal and contain a maximum of 10 goals at a given time. Put this list aside in a safe place and begin working the Secrets to Success system. Follow the system step-by-step. We recommend that you DO NOT DEVIATE from it without first consulting with your Managing Distributor! Review your list of goals in exactly one year. We believe you will be pleasantly surprised how many, if not all, of your goals will be achieved.

This Is Not A Get Rich Quick Scheme!

Do not look at this business as a short-term “flash in the pan”. It’s a serious business that changes people’s lives and it has a huge financial potential. Make a long-term commitment to build your business (24 months minimum) stick to it and you will most likely find that you have succeeded beyond your wildest dreams!

Someone Has Crossed Every Bridge Before You.

Don’t worry if, at times, it seems you are not getting the same results that others are getting in their business. This is perfectly normal for anyone just starting in business for the first time. Almost any mistake you could possibly make, someone has already made before you. All you have to do is get on our social media and find out why you are not getting the same results as others. Chances are, financial freedom is only a few minor adjustments away!

In Order To Be Successful, You Must Take The First And Most Important Step of All And That Is, Get Started!

Be proud of yourself! You have done something that most people never do. By reading this information and following this system you have taken the first step and have invested in yourself. Complete the remaining steps and you may find that you are on the way to the success and financial rewards you deserve!

The Five Keys To Success:

- ✓ Passion ✓ Patience
- ✓ Resolve ✓ Persistence
- ✓ Self-Discipline

1) Passion is the key to resolve. You must know why you are starting your home-based business. You must know exactly what you want and what price you are willing to pay to get it.

2) Resolve simply means doing whatever it takes to be successful and sticking with it even after your initial enthusiasm has worn away. Knowing why you are doing your business is the key to passion and the only way to maintain your resolve.

3) Self-Discipline is extremely important in your new business. The #1 reason for not achieving success in any business is a lack of self-discipline. No matter what business you choose to pursue you will have to take daily action if you want to build a large profitable business. If you do a little each day, you may be surprised at how much you can accomplish and how easy it really is to succeed!

4) Patience is a must. Rome wasn't built in a day! We are very fortunate, because we have the ability to make money quickly with this system. Yet, the big success that comes with teaching, training and mentoring others will take time. It is important to realize that, from time to time, not all things will happen as you expect. Some things will happen more quickly and some more slowly. There is a good chance that success WILL happen if you are patient and persistent. When it does, it may come so quickly you will wonder where it has always been!

5) Persistence is the most important overall key to success. If you are frustrated because things you have tried in the past didn't work, don't be. You need to remember that success is a process! If at times you feel like you are a failure and nothing will work, think of this person - his name was Abraham Lincoln. (See diagram on next page)

“YOU CAN NOT FAIL . . . UNLESS YOU QUIT!”

Don't Be Impatient!

It is not uncommon for people to get impatient and want success overnight. You must realize that success is a process. You must be patient, persistent and NEVER, EVER GIVE UP! Remember this, "Failure can not tolerate persistence!"

If you are persistent at your business, it is almost impossible to fail!

Remember the only difference between a big shot and a little shot is that a big shot is just a little shot that keeps on shooting!

Success Doesn't Just Happen. You Have To Make It Happen!

Don't let anybody tell you that you can't make it happen because you can!! However, it will be up to you to take consistent action and follow the recommended plan.

Timing is Critical!

You couldn't have picked a better time or made a wiser decision than to get involved right now. Many lives have been changed with this program. Now it's YOUR turn!

The good news is you have only scratched the surface in your business. As you can see, the BIG money is still to come! How much of this money do you want to claim? THE CHOICE IS YOURS!

Support! Support! Support!

Lastly, remember that we are always here to help you. You are in business for yourself - not by yourself!

Stop Trying Harder

Doing The Same Thing, Only Trying Harder Is Not The Answer

By Kirk Kirkland

One of the first mistakes people make when they begin to play the inner game is to do the same things they've always done when playing all the other games they've ever played.

After all, it's worked before - right? So what's the very first thing we do? Try Harder.

There are two problems with this. For one thing, there's the word itself. It simply makes no sense. Then there is the notion of trying harder.

First, let's take on this business of try.

Simply put, there's no such thing as try. I'll prove it to you: Right now, stop reading, put down this Manual and then reach out and try to pick it up. Go ahead. Right now. Try.

.. So how did you do?

Do you see? You either picked it up - or you didn't. Yoda was right when he instructed Luke Skywalker, "Do or do not - there is no try". Then what can be said about the dicey matter of trying harder?

Let me share with you a story I learned from Dr. Price Pritchett in his superb little book YOU.

I'm sitting in a quiet room at the Millcroft Inn, a peaceful little place hidden back among the pine trees about an hour out of Toronto. It's just past noon, late July, and I'm listening to the desperate sounds of a life-or-death struggle going on just a few feet away. There's a small fly burning out the last of its short life's energies in a futile attempt to fly through the glass of the windowpane. The whining wings tell the poignant story of the fly's strategy-try harder. But it's not working. The frenzied effort offers no hope for survival. Ironically, the struggle is part of the trap. It is impossible for the fly to try hard enough to succeed at breaking through the glass. Nevertheless this little insect has staked its life on reaching its goal through raw effort and determination. The fly is doomed. It will die there on the windowsill. Across the room, ten steps away, the door is open. Ten seconds of flying time and this small creature could reach the outside world it seeks. With only a fraction of the effort now being wasted, it could be free of this self-imposed trap. The breakthrough possibility is there. It would be so easy. Why doesn't the fly try another approach, something dramatically different? How did it get so locked in on the idea that this particular route and determined effort offer the most promise for success? What logic is there in continuing until death to seek a breakthrough with "more of the same"? No doubt this approach makes sense to the fly. Regrettably, it's an idea that will kill. "Trying harder" isn't necessarily the solution to achieving more. It may not offer any real promise for getting what you want out of life. Sometimes, in fact, it's a big part of the problem. . . (emphasis added).

Doing the same thing over and over again and expecting a different result - isn't that one common definition of "insanity"? If you aren't having, doing and being all you dream of in life and work, trying harder clearly isn't the answer. Doing Things Differently Is!

How To Bring Your New Prospect Into The Business: A Guide & Illustration

Bringing your new prospect in the business can be quick and simple. Here is an illustration of what you might say:

First Qualify Your Prospect Before Sending Them To Your WebSite:

Hi, is (prospect's name) in by any chance?

Hi (prospect's name), I don't know if we have ever spoken before, but my name is (Your Name). I believe you called our office on _____. I am returning your call. Do you remember calling? Great! (If they say yes, find out if they responded to one of our postcards, ads or direct mail letters?) (If they don't remember say we teach people how to start a business from home.) (If they still don't remember, ask them if they are interested in a home-based business.)

Great! I was heading out of the office but I wanted to try to reach you before I left. Do you have a few minutes we can spend together now? (If no, reschedule a time to call back and end the call. If yes, say "Great! And proceed.")

(Prospect's name), what is your current occupation? (Then just relate to them at this point in the conversation. Whatever their background is try to identify those skills such as communication, patience, attention to detail, listening, following procedures, etc. Make them feel important for what they have already been able to accomplish in their lives. Don't go overboard.) Keep this conversation short then move on to the next paragraph.)

I would like to talk with you a little bit about what we do, but before I do; I wanted to ask you a few initial questions to see if there is an initial fit for us to work together.

1. (Prospect's name), what is the primary reason you want to start your own home-based business? (Write down the reasons for future reference. These are their "hot" buttons.)
2. Our business is not one of these get rich quick schemes; you actually have to put in at least a part time effort into our business. Most people get started in this business working about 5-10 hours a week. (Prospect's name), if you look at our business and it makes sense would you have about 5-10 hours a week to invest in your new business?
3. If we decide it looks like something that's right for you, it makes sense to get involved and I decide we have good chemistry, how quickly could you get started?

Good, it sounds like there might be a fit for us to work together. What I would like to do is get some additional information to you, but let me ask you a quick question first.

Have you ever heard of AMERIQUEST SAVINGS? (If yes, ask what they know) (If no, respond by saying) “We are looking for a few top quality people who we can teach our business to part-time and help us with our national rollout.

Listen_____, we could talk forever about the product the company, but what I would rather do is send you to our website. We have a great presentation about the business and how our pay plan works. All you have to do is click onto the Business Presentation and at the end of this you can continue with the Compensation Overview. These will give you a complete overview of AMERIQUEST. After reviewing, I would like to call you back in 1 or 2 days and answer any questions you may have and discuss how you can get started. How does this sound? (Wait for response and then “Great!” no matter what they say.) Before we go, since my schedule is so busy these days, why don’t we go ahead and pick a day and time for our next phone conversation. (Don’t forget – no longer than 2 days and make sure to follow-up.) Do you have your calendar or planner in front of you? Great! Which day would be better for you – Thursday or Friday? (the next 2 consecutive days following your call). What time would be best for you, morning or afternoon? (You want to MAKE SURE that they have their planner or calendar in front of them. Make sure you ask them the date of the follow-up call. Ask them to write it down on their calendar or planner. Remember to control all variables. Don’t leave anything for chance.)

END THE CALL.

The Closing Call - The Easiest Part

The following script is a suggested way to review with the prospect the various options in getting involved.

Here are two methods that you can use to do this:

1. You can use our quick and easy 3 step process.
2. You can have a more one-on-one conversation with your prospect using the following illustration on what to say on closing call.

Method 1 is recommended for those that are new to the business and/or those that are looking for the most “automation” in the system.

Method 1 Closing:

1. Call back at the designated time and date. If not there, leave message that you will call back to reschedule and /or ask them to call you. (Be polite and do not sound frustrated if they are not there.)
2. Ask them what they enjoyed most about what they viewed on the website.
3. Expand on what they say first. It is probably the area that they are most interested. Ask them again what their financial goals would be with the business? For example, ask them “hypothetically” or “suppose” if they had an extra $1,000 to $3,000 /mo starting in the next 90 days what would they be able to do that they are unable to do now? (NOTE: This is an illustration only. DO NOT suggest that this money is going to be made, as results will vary depending upon individual efforts.)
4. Ask if they have a few minutes for something that you want them to hear. Tell them that you are excited about what you are about to let them listen to because they will also be able to use it in their business.
5. Three way the caller into the closing call. (It will last 3-5 minutes).
6. After the three-way call, ask your prospect how they would like to get started.
7. Once you have taken the order and you have confirmed payment, tell them that you will be sending the complete Secrets To Success© Guide priority mail. Have them plug in and follow the system from there.

Method 2 Closing:

This method is advised only for those that are truly confident over the phone and are able to ask for the order. The following is an illustration only and should only be used as an outline of what to say. WARNING: Never read the script. Reading will make you sound “fake” and intentional. Practice with a friend first. Create your own outline for reference and then call.

(Call back at appointed time and date)

Hi (name), this is (your name). How are you doing? I was just following up to see if you had a chance to review the website? (If they haven't had a chance to review the website, reschedule discussion for a later date. If he or she says yes, then your response is, “That's great!” Say, “What did you like most about what you viewed on the website? (Respond by repeating what they are saying. Focus on the three categories of our program-the savings / products, the money making potential and our duplicating system. Listen carefully for their interests. (“hot” buttons) Most people will start with the areas that are the most important to them or are their greatest concerns/interests.

(If they mention the success stories, say “Speaking of success stories, let me ask you a question. Imagine we go into the future 90 days: (Prospects name), let’s say you put in about 10 hours per week into this business. (Prospects name), In 90 days, what kind of monthly income would really excite you, considering the time investment of 5-10 hours per week.

Keep in mind not the amount that would make you rich, but the amount of money that would get you excited for that 30 day period given the fact that you are putting 5-10 hours a week in part-time?” Ask them, “What would that money allow you to do that you can’t do now?”

(This is their primary interest or “hot” button - you’ll mention this occasionally as what their goal will be.) “How would that make you feel if you could do (whatever they said)?” Respond:

“I appreciate you letting me know your financial goal. You know this system could help you in reaching (whatever their “primary interest” is). And it’s important for me to know what your financial goals are because we can work as a team to help reach them. Speaking of the system, do you know that you are living proof that our marketing system works?”

You already know this system works, you’re proof of this and you sound very excited. Are you ready to get started? (They will either say “yes, how do I get started?” or they may have more questions and they will let you know this.)

Great! Let me tell you about the different ways you can get started. Use the Secrets to Success sheet to find out which they prefer.

SIGN THEM UP!!

After signing up, set up a fifteen-30 minute call within 24 hours so you can look at where your new prospective partner is presently and where they want to go with retailing and/or recruiting. Whichever their preference just GET THEM STARTED IMMEDIATELY!

Get them on the training sessions. THIS IS CRITICAL TO THEIR SUCCESS!!!

Let them listen to you make at least 3 initial calls or 3-way them on their first 3 initial calls.

You must make sure to do this so they know clearly that this is the beginning of a relationship. Make them feel important and tell them that you are proud of their decision. Reassure them that you will be there for them and they are NOT alone.

How Can You Fail?

The two most important skills which will get you off on the right foot immediately are PROSPECTING and APPROACHING.

Prospects Are Everywhere

Your biggest challenge is not in finding prospects but in deciding which to approach and how to approach them and in taking action.

Your most important market, called your warm market, are friends, relatives, neighbors, social acquaintances, churchmates, schoolmates, clubmates, workmates, playmates, etc. We hope you would approach these with or without our advice!

Imagine if you were opening a Mexican restaurant. Would you enthusiastically spread the word among our acquaintances? If you were opening a Cadillac Distributorship would you send an announcement to the local paper? Would you freely talk about your business on the lawn of your church? If you were fresh out of law or chiropractic school, would you spread the word? Of course, of course, of course!

“Free Drawing” Boxes

Many restaurants put out fishbowls for business cards and offer a free lunch to one winner per month. If you agree to buy the lunch, the restaurant will give you the business cards.

Instead of the “free lunch” to the winner, you can offer a “free vacation” to not only the winner of the drawing, but also, a “free vacation” to the restaurant owner for giving you the business cards from the fishbowl. You can offer this with our 4 day/3 night vacation certificates.

“Free Drawing” boxes are also effective at fairs, home shows, pet shows, salon shows, flea markets. The giveaway item does not have to be linked to AMERIQUEST but our 4 day/3 night certificates work great for any of these events. A “free vacation” is very popular with everyone particularly people who attend these type of events. At busy State Fairs you can pick winners every few hours and post the names at your booth. This keeps the prospects coming back.

THE SPIRAL NOTEBOOK PLAN

(proven, proven, proven)

Divide your Spiral Notebook into three sections.

1. Retail Customer Prospects
2. Distributor Prospects
3. Retail / Distributor Prospects

Next, depending on your goals, start developing personal habits related to this notebook.

RETAIL GOALS

GOAL - Sample packages out for review each Mon. / Tues. To make follow-up calls one day later for finalization appointments on Wed./Thurs./Fri.

GOAL - To list 100 customer prospects from warm market, yellow pages, referrals, ads, mailing and other methods.

GOAL - To APPROACH five prospects per day (never less) until my sample package goal for the week is reached.

GOAL - To add at least five new prospects per day to my list so that my reservoir of prospects is never empty. Referrals from satisfied customers are the best prospects.

GOAL - To build a list of 20 Customer Prospects: People with sales skills who can follow the same plan I am working.

GOAL - To APPROACH at least two Distributor Prospects per week.

GOAL - To add at least two new Distributor Prospects per week so my reservoir of prospects is never empty.

RECRUITING GOALS

GOAL - To build a list of 200 Distributor prospects: people with skills, raw entrepreneurism. I will list everyone and sort the wheat from the chaff later.

GOAL - To APPROACH five prospects per day (never less than 5) until I reach my recruiting goal.

GOAL - To add at least five new prospects per day to my list so that my prospect reservoir is never emptied.

GOAL - To build a list of 20 customer prospects from warm market, yellow pages, referrals, advertising, mailing and other methods.

GOAL - To APPROACH at least one customer prospect every day until my sample package goals for the week are reached.

GOAL - To add at least one new customer prospect each day.

Approaches / New Distributors or Customers

- * Person - to - Person
- * Telephone
- * Second Party Call
- * Teaser Mailing
- * Sample Drop-Off
- * Retail Selling
- * Disclosure Mailing
- * Prospect Calls You
- * Accidental
- * Three-Way Telephone
- * Literature Drop-Off
- * With Manager Support
- * Cold Call
- * Event Promotion
- * Multiple Approaches

These APPROACH options are in no particular order. Some work better than others. Which to use in a given situation depends entirely on you, your comfort zone, your experience level, your judgment. We do not require anyone to work out of his or her comfort zone.

1. Person-to Person - Usually this follows a brief appointment -setting TELEPHONE APPROACH. The partners meet ((your home/office, prospect's home/office, restaurant, etc.) to discuss AMERIQUEST and the Manual becomes an all-in-one recruiting tool.

- ⇒ It shows the history, ownership, goals and credibility of AMERIQUEST
- ⇒ It contains impressive testimonial letters
- ⇒ It explains the products and shows the market potential
- ⇒ It outlines an action plan and success track
- ⇒ It shows that we offer training
- ⇒ Its information helps answer questions and objections
- ⇒ It thoroughly covers the sales plan and other benefits
- ⇒ It contains all start-up forms (except a price list for making an order, always carry an extra price list)
- ⇒ It's the ultimate leave-behind for prospects who, for any reason, need extra time
- ⇒ It's an instantaneous starter pack for those who join

2. Telephone - Used correctly, the telephone is the most efficient sales device in our arsenal. If the prospect knows and respects the caller, all the better. But some non-salespeople are terrified at the thought of making sales calls. The thought of making a sales call invokes an episode of anxiety called call reluctance. In extreme cases some salespeople actually get ill.

If you are brand new, the best strategy may be to get on the phone, and simply let your enthusiasm flow. This capitalizes on the initial enthusiasm phenomenon.

Eventually all salespeople develop a repertoire of info bullets. These are memorized/internalized info clips which are used for verbal overview (sales) purposes or for responding to questions or objections. Each Distributors info bullets must reflect his own beliefs so they will ring true to the listener. They must be filtered through the speaker's personality and converted into his own words. And they must constantly be reviewed. Incorrect or unnecessary words must go. Important new information can be added, but the seller must be cautious not to make his pitch too long.

RECRUITING GOAL PLAN

This is not a goal:

Distributors Wanted

1. Bill & Sally
2. Bryan
3. Cheryl
4. Mike & Patty
5. Liz
6. Tom
7. Ken
8. David
9. John & Connie
10. Cindy

Once you tailor a plan to suit
Your situation, you will find Yourself saying and doing the Right things!!

*"I need someone in or has
Connections in Orlando,
Chicago, Houston or Denver.
Would you be interested in Helping me?"*

*"I'm pleased to meet you, Cindy.
I'm always excited to meet salespeople because part of what I do is to help them make a lot of money. would you be interested in making money part-time or as a very profitable career?"*

A prospect list is important, we should all have one. But Recruiting Goal Plan will do a lot more good. Here is a sample goal plan written for a fictitious Birmingham, Alabama Distributor:

Distributor Goal Plan

1. Two of my close friends
2. Two of my close friends (from list)
3. Two of my close friends
4. Someone in or connected to Orlando
5. Someone in or connected to Chicago
6. Someone in or connected to Houston
7. Someone in or connected to Denver
8. A realtor
9. A home builder
10. An insurance salesman
11. A car Distributor or car salesman
12. Someone from a bulletin board
13. Four who have first purchased the product
14. Two referrals from customers
15. Two referrals from family
16. Five people from ads
17. Someone who is a chance meeting
18. A chiropractor
19. A dentist
20. A nurse

Every day I will make 5 new approaches in an effort to accomplish these goals.

I'll modify my plan based on results and follow the methods which work best for me.

I'll report to my Managing Partner about my daily new approaches; when appropriate I'll ask for help with the best prospects.

I'll add 5 new names to my prospect list (which is maintained in a spiral notebook) every day . . . From memory, bulletin boards, referrals, Yellow Pages, etc.

Build A Following

Hundreds of Distributors think that they could be great if only they already had organizations. Well, we don't give away Distributor organizations or hire Managers off the street. If you're not willing to build your own organization, forget about being a top leader in this company.

What could Michael Jordan have done without a team? What could General Patton have done without an army? To go one step further where would The NFL be without the fans in the stands?

We allow anyone to join. We give each person who applies to become a Distributor a fair and equal opportunity. We have the best valued products in the industry. Beyond this, it's up to you how far you will go in this company.

We can't predict how high you'll go or how fast you'll advance, but our opportunity is by far, the best opportunity for an individual man or woman. We have honest and highly discounted products and services which save people tremendous money. We have products and services with which Distributors can earn substantial money, without undue competition, even without recruiting. We have sales materials that work. Plus we have a remarkable benefits package and a generous pay plan.

If you want to become one of our Leaders - many of whom are very highly paid! - carry this message into your community. Recruit some followers and sub-Leaders. Build it as big as you can.
