Daddy's Little Girl Essay

Hello, my name is Taisieana Mitchell and I graduated from Summit High School in 2016. While I was in school, I was in choir and I was selected to be in chamber choir. I also worked while attending school. I feel like I should receive the Daddy's Little Girl scholarship this year because my dad worked very hard to provide for me and my little brother, I valued and looked up to him for that. Even when I knew we did not have much money at times, my dad always made everything work out smoothly and assured me that I did not have anything to be worried about. Whenever there was a struggle it felt like there wasn't one at all because somehow he always found a way to work with what we did have. He taught me how to appreciate the little things that I did have, and how to not dread or want for what I didn't have. At first I didn't understand why I just had to settle with less than other kids, but now as I have gotten older I understand that it wasn't even about that. It was about learning how to be thankful for the little things, things that God did not necessarily have to bless me with. When my dad was out of a job, it never took him long to jump back up and find another one. That always inspired me to always get back up even after stumbling a little. It made me who I am today. Someone that won't settle for less, someone that strives for greatness, and someone that gives 100 percent into anything and everything they do. I now attend OSU where I can reach my goals and dreams of becoming the best accountant that I can be and to help others achieve their goals. If it wasn't for my dad, I wouldn't be working as hard as I am today. I am my daddy's little girl. Thank you for the opportunity of being a daddy's little girl recipient. May God bless you all.

Sincerely,

Taisieana Mitchell
