

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JANUARY 29, 2026

Media Contact: Cathy Montosa

info@coffeeandlanguage.com

707.480.1060

25th ANNIVERSARY of COFFEE AND LANGUAGE PRODUCTIONS

Eleventh Independent Feature Film, MEMORIZING ALISON, soon to be released

San Francisco, CA – Coffee and Language Productions, a San Francisco independent film production company, celebrates its 25th year starting on February 1, 2026. The company has produced eleven feature films, including MEMORIZING ALISON, which will soon be released on major streaming platforms.

The company's first film, COFFEE AND LANGUAGE, was released in 2001. In the years since, some of Coffee and Language feature films include GIRL IN GOLDEN GATE PARK (2021), LOVE AND DEMONS (2014), and CENTAUR (2010). Dozens of San Francisco Bay Area actors have appeared in the films including Allison Ewing who stars in MEMORIZING ALISON.

Other Coffee and Language films include actors such as Academy Award winner Melissa Leo (STEPHANIE'S IMAGE), Clancy Brown (GAMBLING), Chopper Bernet (multiple) and Chris Pflueger (multiple) have played major roles in the films. Coffee and Language films have played at festivals across the US, Canada and Europe, such as the Soho International, Hamptons International, and Milan International film festivals. MEMORIZING ALISON played on Opening Night at SF IndieFest (2025). Most of the films are available on major streaming platforms worldwide.

The company is led by writer/director JP Allen and writer/producer Cathy Montosa. Allen has written screenplays for all eleven features, and two shorts – he is also a playwright and novelist. His plays have been produced in New York, Los Angeles, Vancouver, etc. Montosa co-wrote the stories for MEMORIZING ALISON and GIRL IN GOLDEN GATER PARK.

Full filmography, credits, trailers, interviews and podcasts here:

<https://www.coffeeandlanguage.com/>