

Law, Clinton

Clinton L. Law, 83, of Cass City died Sunday, Sept. 3, 2000, in Marlette Community Hospital. He was born Sept. 9, 1916, in Huron County to Lewis and Lottie (Wadsworth) Law. He married Margaret L. Merchant on Oct. 16, 1937, in the Cass City Presbyterian Church. Clinton was a dairy farmer until 1957. He bought Law Feed & Supply, later selling it to Farm Bureau, but he continued as a salesman. He worked for Ralston Purina, Borden Chemical Co. as business manager, and he retired from Caro Building Center in 1979 after 10 years. Clinton was a member of the Cass City Presbyterian Church, which he joined in 1932. He served as a deacon and elder. He was active with 4-H. Clinton enjoyed playing cards, especially euchre, and he enjoyed square dancing. He truly enjoyed caring for his beautiful lawn. Clinton is survived by his wife, Margaret; his children, Sherry Dillon and her husband, Wayne, of Cass City and Delbert Law and his wife, Shirley, of Whitmore Lake; grandchildren, Jeff Dillon and his wife, Julee, Scott Dillon and his wife, Suzanna, and Elizabeth Law; a great-grandchild, Jaydee Dillon; and several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents; a brother, Albert Law; and a sister, Gertrude MacCullum. Funeral services took place at 10 a.m. Tuesday, Sept. 5, 2000, at the Cass City Presbyterian Church with the Rev. Mark Morningstar of Sandusky Presbyterian Church officiating. Interment was in the Elkland Township Cemetery. Pallbearers were Jeff Dillon, John Merchant, Scott Dillon, Bill Ewald, Elizabeth Law, Jerry Wittiker, Larry Merchant and Dick Law. Memorials may be made to United Hospice of Marlette or the Women's Association of Cass City First Presbyterian Church. Funeral arrangements were handled by Kranz Funeral Home in Cass City.
