

The Psalm 49

BHC Translation

Hear this all of you people!

Give ear all you dwellers of the decaying earth!

Even the sons of ADAM, even the sons of an ISH – together rich and poor.

My mouth will speak wisdom, and the meditations of my heart are insightful.

I will incline my ear to the parable. I will solve my riddle with the music of a harp.

Why should I be fearful in days of evil, when the injunctions I trod upon surround me?

Those who rely on their possessions and their great wealth, they are boastful --

[yet] a brother cannot be redeemed in any way by an ISH.

He cannot give to Elohim his ransom.

Too costly is the redemption of their soul, and unattainable forever.

Can one live until eternity, and never see the pit (the grave),

Though he sees that wise men die; that together the foolish and boorish perish -- and leave to others their possessions,

Nevertheless, in their imaginations they see their houses are forever;

their dwellings for generation after generation.

They have proclaimed their names throughout the lands.

But as far ADAM, in his glory he shall not repose.

He is likened to the large animals that are silenced.

This is their way, folly is theirs;

Yet of their destiny their mouths speak soothingly, Selah!

Like sheep, for the Lower World they are destined.

Death shall consume them,

the upright shall dominate them, at daybreak.

Their form is doomed to rot in the grave, each from his dwelling.

But Elohim will redeem my soul from the hand of the Lower World -- for He shall take me, Selah!

Fear not when an ISH becomes wealthy, when he increases the glory of his house;

for upon his death, he will take nothing, his glory will descend after him.

Though himself in his lifetime, he may bless, others will praise you, if you improve yourself, it shall come to the generation of the fathers.

Until for eternity they shall not see light.

*ADAM is glorious, but if he does not understand,
he is likened to the large animals that are without speech!*

The Disciple's Prayer

By Yeshua

*Our Father above the Skies, may Your Name be Glorified by Our Lights.
May You continue establishing Your Kingdom;
may Your will be done on Earth as it is being done in the Skies.*

*Give us our necessary portion of food continually.
Forgive us the debt of our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us.
Do not bring us in the grasp of temptation and protect us from all evil.
Amen.*

Presidential Inauguration (January 20, 2025)

By Senate Chaplain Dr. Barry Black
Seventh Day Adventist

Let Us Pray.

King of Kings, and Lord of Lords, Whose Kingdom is above all earthly kingdoms, and Who judges all lesser sovereignties, look with favor upon President Donald John Trump and Vice President James David Vance.

*Empower them with the wisdom and courage needed for our times. Protect them from the challenges that obstruct the making of a world of Justice, peace, and righteousness.
Lord, give them a deep desire to do their best for our country and the world, and a determination to act in ways pleasing to You.*

Preserve their families in health and strength by Your grace and power.

We pray in Your Sovereign Name.

Amen.

In Our Remembrance

(Inspired from Yitzhor Reflections - The New Mahzor - The Prayer Book Press)

May our memories inspire our descendants to seek those qualities of mind and heart which we shared when we walked life's journey together.

May our memories help them to bring closer to fulfillment our highest ideals and noblest strivings.

May our memories deepen their loyalty to those things which we valued and shared – family, love, peace and devotion.

*As long as our memories live in them,
we will also live;
for we are now a part of them, as they remember us.*

Amen.
