

Larry David Rasch, age 68, of Unionville, passed away peacefully at his home on January 31, 2017, after a brief battle with cancer. He was born April 1, 1948, in Mt. Clemens, to Horace “Ed” and Lillian (Wilson) Rasch.

Larry was an avid outdoorsman. He loved hunting at his deer camp near Clare, fishing the Great Lakes and trips to Canada. He spent his summers camping in the U.P. and winters in Florida making stops at every casino in between.

Per Larry’s wishes cremation will take place. There will be no visitation or service.

Larry was predeceased by his father, “Ed” Rasch and his son, Derrick Rasch.
