

A<sup>A</sup> Roadmap for Educators

Communication Strategies to Improve Student Results

You will learn and apply a new set of practical skills allowing you to 'read' your students and skillfully adapt your approach.

DESCRIPTION: Discover the A<sup>A</sup> Roadmap plan (Awareness, Aceptance, Actions) to improve communication styles of children from elementary through high school age and beyond. Increase student outcomes by learning and applying easy, adaptable strategies.

This program utilizes DISC®, a self-assessment, created by communication experts and used internationally for over 40 years. Our program materials are based on Dr. Robert Rohm's book, A+ Ideas for Every Student's Success, which includes sample lessons for all 4 communication styles at the elementary, middle and high school levels. All participants will also receive a relationSHAPE™ Roadmap workbook.

OBJECTIVES:

- Improve student confidence, performance and love of learning
- Gain an understanding and knowledge of the 4 communication styles that are key to student motivation
- Identify your own preferred communication style and how to adapt it to ensure success with all students

DESTINATIONS ROADMAP:

PROGRAM LEADER: The programs are taught by Linda Williams, an experienced DISC® facilitator. Linda has 30+ years working in the education field where she was the Supervisor of Communication and Supervisor of Curriculum and Instruction and holds an MA in Education.
