

O Lord, my Strength

Life is can be a challenge and trials can be discouraging. If you surrender to God in moments of weakness, He will provide the strength you need. I want to encourage you to meet today's problems in His strength.

He wants to remind you that your strength to endure does not come from you, but Him. Stop trying to do things in your strength. He wants to strengthen you so you can bear up under the weight of today's circumstances.

He wants to supply the power you need to overcome.

Every trial, every challenge, every weakness you have is an opportunity for God to show His strength in your life. From beginning to the Bible until end we read of Gods strengthening His people.

We are living in a time when there seems to be a great lack of strength in the hearts of men. We serve a powerful God. He commands us to be strong in Him and in the Power of His Might.

We must know that we can go to the strength of our Creator and experience the power of HIS might in our daily lives. Godly strength trumps physical strength every time. His strength doesn't come from what you can do. It comes from overcoming the things you thought you couldn't...

He promises strength in waiting- "But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint" (Isaiah 40:31).

He promises His strength in the battle- "Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil" (Ephesians 6:11).

He promises strength in times of trouble- "But the salvation of the righteous is of the LORD: he is their strength in the time of trouble" (Psalm 37:39).

He promises His strength in place of your weakness- "He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might."

He promises His strength and to uphold you with His righteous hand- "Fear not, for I am with you; be not dismayed, for I am your God; I will strengthen you, I will help you, I will uphold you with my righteous right hand." (Isaiah 41:10).

His strength is endless!!! It has no end!

Beloved, the enabling and strengthening aspect of the His strength helps you to see and to do things you could never recognize or accomplish in your limited mortal capacity. When we see the circumstances through God's strength, we are transformed.

He knows you are tired. He knows you are struggling with things. He sees you. He is saying, "Call on ME, believing that in the day you call, He answered (means already done). Trusting His strength will encourage you and strengthen your soul!

Heavenly Father,

You said, "How blessed is the man whose strength is in You."

Today, I willingly call upon the You and You alone. For only You are worthy to be praised. In Your strength I will be saved from my enemies. I love You, O Lord, my strength.

You are my Lord, You are my rock. You are my Fortress and my Deliverer. Oh My God, You and only You are good. You are my strength, in whom I will trust.

Right now, I surrender myself to you body, soul and spirit. I declare that you are My shield, My Strength and the horn of my salvation.

Now to Him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that I ask or think, according to the power that works in me, to Him be all glory, honor and power forever and ever. In Jesus Name, Amen.

CALL ON THE LORD, believing that in the day that I call to You, You answered me. You encouraged me and You will strengthen my soul." (Psalm 138:3).
